Little Aleck Stephens is uncommonly quiet this session of Congress. What can the matter be?

John Logan is said to be able to crush more grammar in the same length of time than any Stalwart who now performs tricks on the great National stage.

Gen. Shields, who distinguished himself so much in the Mexican war and fought gallantly against us in the war of the States, made his promised speech in the Senate in behalf of the Mexican veterans. Three cheers for the old hero of two wars!

be started in Raleigh, with Mr. John Nichsols as editor and manager-in-chief. The Florida contested election is in point as to the expense of such pastimes. The Washington correspondent of the Richmond State says:

"Finley obtained his seat by nine majerity, three Democrats—Hart of New York, Turney of Pennsylvania, and Harrison of Illinois-voting with the Republicans. Today Finley is entitled to draw $10,000 for two years' salary for his term, which will expire on the 4th of March next, and $3,900 for the expenses of the contest, besides $375 for stationary allowance; and probably he is entitled to mileage also. It pays to be almost defeated for Congress, if it does not to be elected."

New York is a nice place to live in. It is so safe. The two scoundrels who robbed the lady in Fifth avenue have been arrested and jailed. One has made a confession. The Evening Post says, and the confession is humiliating, that "the streets of the city, even in open day, are as unsafe as an unfrequented road in Mississippi was when John A. Murrell was a power; as unsafe as the English moors were in Dick Turpin's time. And yet our tax payers pay annually upwards of $2,000,000 for police ser-

It is said that Senators Bayard, Kernan, Wallace and other Democrats, will not sustain the House in attempting to force the repeal of the election law by the means proposed. The Radicals in the House will record their votes in opposition, when the bill with the repeal attached will go to the Senate. There it will be stricken out, and then the responsibilrty will rest upon the Democrats of the House if the Appropriation bill fails. This is said to be the aspect of the case at present. It is thought that enough Democrats in the House will vote with the opposition to secure concurrence with the action of the Senate as indicated

There are but eleven more working days for the Legislature. Very much remains to be done. Sixty days is long enough for any session of the Legislature. But six months is not enough for the ventilation of oratory and for idleness. We will await the adjournment before we grumble. The Senate has done well in the retrench ment business as far as it has gone. We would have given the Judges of the Saperior Court $2,500, with additional pay for extra work. We would have given less to one or two officials. Let the Senate now inquire into the fees of county officials. The sheriffs' and clerks' fees need to be looked into. The sheriffs of some counties must receive three, four and five thousand dollars. Some of the clerks must get as high as three thousand Things of which his folks are never dreaming in their rustic lere. er more.

There is often a wheel within a wheel in politics. Sometimes to understand matters you must read between the lines. It is evident that Blaine, Hoar, and the other Northern cinity have just about completed the erection of a neat two story-brick building, iron-roofed, which is designed for a male academy of a high grade. — Yesterday about noon the dwelling house in Statestille owned by Prof. H. T. Burke and occupied by a Mr. Yancey was burned to the highest possible standard.

Washington's Birthday.

There was no other observance of the great Washington's birthday in Wilmington vesterday than the closing of the public offices, Produce Exchange, banks, &c., and a liberal display of bunting.

The day has a double significance with the people of our city, being also the fourteenth anniversary of the occupation of the place by the Federal troops under Generals tention to the following notice in the "monthly record of scientific literature" of D. Van Nostrand's Engineering Magazine, published in New York city: "Van Terry and Schofield. A seaman by the name of John Gibbon who had been arrested and committed to jail for desertion from the schooner Albert Mason, was taken out by an officer, yesterday morning, and carried on board of his vessel. Upon being ordered to go to work he peremptorily refused to do so, whereupon the services of the officer were called into requisition and the man was placed in irons. Not long afterwards the captain of the ves sel came ashore and stated that the unruly sailor had broken the shackles with which he had been confined, seized a handspike and made an assault upon himself and the mate, and that be wanted assistance to take him. Warrants were issued in behalf of both the captain and mate, and the man was arrested and arraigned before a magistrate in two cases for assault and battery. After hearing the evidence the defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $5 in each case, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The Steamer Passport.

This fine little steamer has been withdrawn temporarily from the line between this city and Smithville. We are told Frankly that when the needed repairs are completed, which will occupy nearly a week, that Captain Harner will have his boat in A No. 1 condition-indeed, in a trim but little less perfect than on the day when she was launched.

Exciting Chase.

The only excitement on the streets yesterday was caused by two wild rabbits, which were purchased from a countryman and turned loose at the intersection of Front and Dock streets, and which gave several dogs a lively chase. One of the rabbits was finally caught, but the other made good his escape. Not Sustained.

Emanuel Truesdale, colored, charged with stealing a quantity of hay from Jesse Weatherly, of Cape Fear Township, had a hearing before Justice Hall yesterday morning, the examination resulting in the discharge of the defendant, the prosecutor having to pay the costs.

In response to inquiries made at his residence, last night, we were informed that Dr. W. E. Freeman was rapidly sinking and that his recovery is simply impossible. The strong probability is that he will not be living when this sad announcement is

P. S. Dr. Freeman breathed his last at quarter to 2 o'clock this morning. The funeral announcement will be made to-day from the pulpits of the various churches.

To-Day's Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, winds mostly from the south to west, with stationary or a slight rise in temperature. partly cloudy weather and areas of rain, with slight changes in barometer, are the indications for to-day.

It should not be put out of mind that the lecture of Col. McRae, on Ireland, was postponed until Tuesday night. If the Opera House is less than full we shall feel a degree of disappointment, because while the subjects of his other lectures afforded him fine fields for the exercise of his splendid abilities, neither of them offered half the opportunity which Ireland opens up for a display of the breadth and depth of his research. The qualities and achievements, in almost every channel of human endeavor, of the Irish, are less understood than these of any other people, perhaps, on the globe, and the marshalling of the statesman, soldiers, poets, divines and wits of the Green Isle, which we shall have on the occasion of the promised lecture, should tempt the presence of all who would be both instructed and entertained.

Criminal Court. This tribunal met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, but only remained in session for an hour or two. A motion for a new trial in the case of Edward Thomas, convicted of forgery, was granted after argunent by his counsel, John L. Holmes, Esq. Some other but unimportant busi-

Court will be kept open, we learn, until Wednesdey, meeting and adjourning from day to day, in order to give a member of the legal fraternity a hearing in a certain case on the day named.

When the bill, in relation to extending the term of our city officers until the general election in May, was up in the House of Representatives at Raleigh, last Friday, Mr. Scott said he didn't think it the square thing to continue the officers, but Mr. Jones thought differently, while Mr. Clarke thought the bill undemocratic, and ought not to pass. Mr. Jones replied briefly in favor of the bill, and Mr. Scott then again spoke in opposition to the passage_of the bill at this time. Mr. Lamb next spoke in favor of the bill; Mr. Ellison speke against the bill and Mr. Hines in its favor. A motion made by Mr. Scott to postpone the matter to next Wednesday was voted down and the bill passed its second Mere Mention-The Criminal Court. Red-tape arrogance and impudence abound in most public offices, and especially in judicial places. We therefore note, with satisfaction, their entire absence at the late term of the Criminal Court. Judge Meares exhibited patience, courtesy and dignity under many very provoking circumstances; Maj. John W. Dunham, the Clerk, greatly facilitated the convenience of the bar and clients by thorough familiarity with the details of his duties; Solicitor Moore was earnest in his efforts to lasso criminals for the public good, and Sheriff Manning and his officers performed their work without creating either confusion or delay.
