OUTLINES.

Candia, the famous poet and husband of the late Madame Grial, has become insane. It is thought the French Chamber and Senate will be removed from Versailles to Paris when a suitable building is procured.

A run on the New Orleans banks, is going on amounting for the time being to a practical suspension of specie payments.

Dr. Luke P. Blackburn, the eminent yellow fever physician who will probably be elected Governor of Kentucky, is a brother of Congressman Jo Blackburn, lately defeated for Speaker.

The Democratic House caucus called to settle the plan of action revealed the fact that nearly every member had some pet scheme he wished to push.

The Richmond State correspondent gives two interesting items in his letter of the 21st:

Gen. Bragg, of Wisconsin, intends to follow up his opposition to war claims by introducing a constitutional amendment to cut them all off.

Hon. F. E. Shober got the second best appointment at the disposal of the Senate, that of Chief Clerk, "through the good management of Senator Ransom," says the Washington correspondent of the Richmond State.

John E. Burch, the successful candidate for Secretary of the Senate, is thus briefly sketched by the Washington correspondent of the Richmond State:

"Burch gathered in some of the scattering votes on each ballot, and at the last got three more than enough to nominate. Burch has been Chairman of the State Democratic Committee of Tennessee for several years, was on Gen. Pillow's staff during the war, and is editor of the Nashville American. He is a gentleman of dignity, fine presence, and good address, and has abundant means. His reputation for political management is well known before the caucus, because the secretaryship is a position of great partisan importance and influence."

Washington correspondent of the Raleigh News writes of Col. R. F. Armfield: "Ah, says Copeland, of the Brooklyn Eagle, 'that's the man that beat Robbins; there is something in him.' Ramsdell, of the Philadelphia Times says: 'I'll bet he is a good one; look at that fine head, there is plenty of business in that cranium of a fine quality.' Hudson, of the Boston Herald writes: 'I see from the physiological outlines of his head that he is a person of quick, active and comprehensive mind.' Fishback, of the St. Louis Republican, remarked: 'He will come to the front if his modesty does not keep him back.' Of Vance he writes: 'As he passed up the aisle to his seat after receiving the finishing touch to make him a United States Senator, numerous complimentary remarks were made about him. One of the ablest and clearest thinking members of the Washington bureau of correspondents said: Vance's genius, wit and statesmanly ability will soon raise him high on the roll of distinction among the great men of the present age.'"

Weldon News: On Friday last Mr. Millard Meelin, living about three miles from town, while walking through the woods near his father's house, came upon the dead body of an old man apparently about fifty years of age. No one knew him or remembered having seen him. Information was given to Coroner Wm. C. Hill, who summoned a jury to view the body. The evidence before the jury developed the fact that the man's name was Mark Anden or Wasden, and that he lived near Endfield.

A great excitement occurred in Rowan county recently. The child of Isaac Goodman was about to be buried in the graveyard at Liberty, when it was forbidden by Joe Eagle, declaring he would dig it up. Great excitement followed and the child was buried elsewhere, as we learn from a letter in the Raleigh News.

Cotton Futures—A Decision About Margins. The supreme Court has just made a decision of importance to cotton dealers touching "margins." The Court holds: That money advanced by a cotton broker to cover losses sustained by speculators in cotton futures can be recovered out of the party for whom he advanced the money, and that where the form of the contract for future delivery has nothing inherent in it to show that no real delivery was intended, it cannot be held to be void as against public policy as a wager or bet.

— Revival going on in the Baptist Church at Shelby.

Mayor's Court.

The first case called yesterday morning was that of Cornelius Kelley, colored, charged with acting very disorderly at the so-called Greenback Hall, foot of Dock street on Friday night. Policeman Marsh Walker testified that he was called in by the proprietor to quiet the accused or take him out. Kelley was very obstreperous, and resisted the officer, when he was finally arrested and taken to the guard house. Defendant was ordered to pay a fine of $5. Policeman Walker, in the course of his evidence, took occasion to pronounce the house in which the disturbance occurred a nuisance to the neighborhood and a source of much annoyance to the police.

David Mallett, colored, was next arraigned, on the charge of snatching a badge from a special policeman, and also with resisting the officer who arrested him. He was ordered to pay a fine of $25 or be confined in the city prison for thirty days, in the first case, and in the second judgment was suspended.

Attempted suicide. That festive dark-hued dame, Mary Eliza Lively, who so often accommodates the reporters with an item, had a strange mood to come over her, for one of her cheer-disposition, on Friday night last, about 12 o'clock, and attempted to unravel the mysteries of the Great Beyond by committing suicide. It appears that she had so far carried out her seemingly desperate intentions as to jump into one of the docks in the neighborhood of "Paddy's Hollow," but she had been followed closely by some of her friends, who succeeded in rescuing her. Her excuse for thus attempting to rush unbidden into the presence of her Maker was grief at the death of Robert Webb, colored, who was suddenly cut off by an attack of apoplexy on Thursday morning last. This is the second attempt, however, that she has made to drown herself. The first time she was frustrated by her friends while kneeling on the cap of a wharf, in the same vicinity, saying her prayers preparatory to making the fatal plunge.

Snatched Trifles. Two colored girls, by the name of Lillie Laspeyre and Maggie Brown, were arrested yesterday on the charge of the larceny of certain articles from the millinery establishment of Miss Stewart, on Market street, about 8 o'clock on Friday night. It seems that Mr. George Sullivan, who happened to be passing at the time, saw the girls in the act of appropriating the articles, and stopped them as they started out of the door, taking a locket from one of them, which was subsequently identified by Miss Stewart as her property. Another of the girls afterwards, when hard pressed by Mr. Sullivan, produced a handkerchief from beneath a projecting curbstone, where she said her companion had hidden it. They were bound over for their appearance before a magistrate on Tuesday next to answer the charge.

Abusing Stock. A number of colored boys, named respectively Ben Tucker, Ned Hill, Thos. Hill, Thos. Poisson, John Loftin and Henry Hankins, were arraigned before Justice Gardner, yesterday morning, charged with the outrageous abuse of stock. There was only a partial examination, however, when the case was continued over until Monday in order to secure additional evidence.

Assaulting a White Boy. Mike Seden and Tom Tit, two colored boys, young in age, but old in iniquity, were before Justice Hall yesterday afternoon on the charge of committing assault and battery upon the person of a small white boy. Taking their reputation into consideration, the Magistrate required them to pay a fine of $5 each and the costs, in default of which they were lodged in jail.

Set for Trial. Mr. Mardon Bellamy, counsel for Henry Spears, charged with murder, received a dispatch yesterday from His Honor, Judge Eure, now presiding at Halifax Court, and is supposed to have come to this city. We are requested to ask any one knowing anything as to his whereabouts to inform Anthony Maulsby, of this city.

Two colored men indulged in a foolish experiment at Messrs. Parsley & Wiggin's steam saw-mills yesterday, which proved a painful experience for one of them. Albert suggested to his comrade, whose name is Sykes, to present himself as a target for a small single cartridge pistol which he boasted, which being done a shot was fired and Sykes received a painful flesh wound from which he bled quite profusely. They were both ejected of the mills and we learn that the adventure very properly cost the party firing the shot his situation.

Going to Church Too Late. A correspondent, in the following communication, alludes to a popular evil among our church-goers in terms so eloquent and unique that we withhold any remarks of our own on the subject: March 21.

Mr. Bernard: Please give in your paper a good puff about people going in church too late, after services has commenced. This is the case every Sabbath, and settles people who profess to be Christians. I heard the reason they did, was they thought it looked more aristocratic and was creating a sensation, and instead doing that they are disgusting in style and time. I think a good puff and a ridiculous map, which I know you can do in style. Yours truly, O. K.

A shooting affair. Two colored men indulged in a foolish experiment at Messrs. Parsley & Wiggin's steam saw-mills yesterday, which proved a painful experience for one of them. Albert suggested to his comrade, whose name is Sykes, to present himself as a target for a small single cartridge pistol which he boasted, which being done a shot was fired and Sykes received a painful flesh wound from which he bled quite profusely. They were both ejected of the mills and we learn that the adventure very properly cost the party firing the shot his situation.

To-day's Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, cloudy and rainy, followed by clearing weather, warm southwest, veering to colder north-west winds and generally higher pressure, are the indications for to-day.

A WORD WITH PRACTICAL PEOPLE.—The climate of some parts of the South seems to peculiarly favor three special scourges of the general health; these are yellow fever, periodically, malarial fever and consumption or premature decline always. The rest of all these, when not rapidly fatal, is complete prostration of the whole system, and a general inability to derive nourishment from the non-nutrient of ordinary food. Then the doctors all say the only thing the stomach and pancreas and liver can accept and turn into nourishing blood and solid fibre is COD LIVER OIL, OR THE HYPOPHOSPHITES OF ALBAMINE AND SODA. This is a finer nutrient than the Oil alone, and is viable in a splendid tonic, and then it has not the least disagreeable taste or odor, and is acceptable to the most sensitive stomach.
