The able Southern Review is increasing rapidly in its circulation it affords us pleasure to learn.

The scramble for office is so great that "two orphans" from the far away land actually advertise in the Washington Star for a place, offering to pay handsomely for the same.

The Democrats of the House were magnanimous enough to retain three worthy officials who belong to the "outs." This is generous, but when | tect the people. did the Republicans ever "do likewise?"

The walking business is really be coming slightly stale. But what would the "big dailies" do without them? Running matches have been announced in New York, the distance from ten to twenty miles.

Manager Ford of Baltimore, is said to be the only American who has paid Sullivan and Gilbert anything for their opera "Pinafore." By the way, the opera is said to be really very enjoyable as it is sung by the best companies. Our experience here was rather different.

In our opinion there is no better or more reliable correspondent than "Bill Dadd," of the Richmond State. He is exceedingly well posted, and reliable every way, we have found him to be. We have no idea who he is. His name is Bill, and he is a Dadd, and that is all we know about

A United States Senator draws $5,000 annually, we believe, besides mileage. Senator Sharon, all the way out in Nevada, has been in the Senate sixty five days during four years. He lately drew $20,000 and mileage. But is not the workman worthy of his hire? The Rose of Sharon would be as useful by any other name.

The Republicans in Congress are prodigiously stirred over the presumption of the Democrats in discharging the old officers. The Wash ington correspondent of the State

"Two years ago stalwart Republicans in this city demanded the discharge of every male and female clerk in the departments, no matter how obscure, if they clung to the Democratic standard.

How an old horse does hate to change his old quarters where he has stabled long and had an abundance of provender.

If the Baltimore American, Republican, can be relied on, there is little prospect of a compromise, and for two very good and sufficient reasons. It says the Republicans in Washington have the utmost confidence in the firmness of Hayes-that he has expressed himself in the strongest possible terms in relation "to preserving all legal guards to the purity of elections," and that if Hayes were to agree to the proposed Democratic compromise "he would lose every Republican friend he now has, and would hereafter be regarded by them with more disfavor than had ever been manifested towards Andrew Johnson." Poor Hayes is to be bull-dezed by the Stalwarts, that is plain enough. He will have use for his favorite saying that "he serves his party best who serves his country best." The other reason why there can be no compromise, according to the American's Washing-

Yesterday afternoon a religious reception took place in the Convent of the Sisters of Mercy of this city. Miss Mary Cobb, daughter of Dr. B. F. Cobb, of this city, was admitted as a novice into the habit of a Sister of Mercy. A very large audience of all religious denominations gathered to witness the beautiful and touching ceremony.

In the sermon the Rev. Father Gross (who was assisted in the ceremony by Rev. Fathers Moore and Laffan), explained the religious life, its aim and end.

On her admittance into religious life. after her past postulantship of six months, Miss Cobb received, as is usual, a new name, and the lady will hereafter be known in religion as Sister Mary Cecilia.

The noviciate has a term of two years, after which the novice makes her final vows to God.

The end of the Order of Sisters of Mercy is to instruct youth and to labor for the relief of the poor, sick and afflicted. The Order is widely extended throughout the States of Georgia and South Carolina.

In the dreadful pestilence that afflicted the South last summer, the Sisters of Charity (of whom a large number fell martyrs to duty and Christian charity) were in the foremost rank of that noble band of men and women that came far and near to the relief of the plague-stricken.

It is in such sad hours of trial that the worth and heroism of the Sister of Charity shines forth to the great honor and truth of the Christian religion.

Peter Coleman Recaptured.

We noted in yesterday's STAR the fact that Peter Coleman, sentenced at the last term of the Criminal Court to two years' imprisonment in the House of Correction. had made his escape from that institution. It is gratifying to know that the scheme of Superintendent Garrell for his recapture culminated in success. He was taken five miles this side of Magnelia, when doubtless on his way to his former home in South Carolina, brought back to his old quarters, an obstruction in the nature of a ball and chain placed in the way of his again running off, and with this ornament dangling about him he is said to be working well. We warrant that he will not have an oppertunity to attempt a second escape before the expiration of his term of service.

Narrow Escape. Yesterday morning, about a quarter-past 4 o'clock, there was an explosion of a kerosene lamp in the liquor store of Mr. J. Fernberger, on Market, between Front and Water streets. Policeman Edward Griffith, who was walking that beat, discovered the accident, upon which he blew his whis tle, summoning Sergeant Forest and Officers Green and Goodman to his aid, when they broke open the door, and after a manful fight with the flames succeeded in extinguishing them, thus in all probability preventing a disastrous conflagration.

Convicted of Manslaughter. Henry Spears, colored, who was arrested in this vicinity some months since on the charge of murdering a colored man named Boyd, in Halifax county, had his trial before Judge Eure, at Halifax Superior Court, on Monday last, when he was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to confinement lfor three years in the State penitentiary. Mr. Marsden Bellamy, of this city, defended the prisoner, and is very well sate isfied with the verdict. The jury was composed entirely of white men.

Held for Trial. The cases of Lillie Laspeyre and Maggie Brown, the two colored girls mentioned a few days since as having been detected in stealing certain articles from Miss Lou-Stewart, who keeps a millinery establishment on Market street, had a hearing before one of our magistrates yesterday morning, resulting in their being required to enter into good security in the sum of $150 each for their appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, which they gave and were released.

Col. D. K. McRae.

We see that this gentleman has been chosen as the annual orator before the two literary societies of Davidson College. The Charlotte Observer, in mentioning the fact, truly says that "Col. By an agreement entered into on the first Monday in December, 1878, in order to avoid anarchy and confusion resulting Northern through and way from having two sets of officers acting in the county at one time, (the Democratic Board of County Commissioners having qualified on that day all the Democratic officers, and the Republicans, who were then in office, still holding on to the same,) the Republican officers (Sheriff, Clerk, Treasurer, &c.,) were to remain in office and to exercise the duties without any interruption by the Democratic officers, on condition that if the Supreme Court should affirm the decision of Judge Buxton, which held that the mandamus was not the proper remedy, the Board of Canvassers being functus officio, that they (the Republicans) would yield quiet and peaceable possession te the Democrats just as soon as the decision should be announced. However the Republicans reserved the right to bring a que warrante action to test the validity of the claim of the Democratic officials to their offices. This agreement was signed by the attorneys for both parties, and by the respective officers on each side.

Disturbing Religious Congregations. On Sunday last Rev. J. B. Taylor, pastor of the First Baptist Church, after his sermon, took occasion to administer a mild rebuke to parties who have been in the habit of congregating in the vestibule during services and frequently opening the door slightly and looking in, much to the annoyance of many in the congregation, some of whom have been made to suffer erious inconvenience by way of colds caused by the draft. Similar complaints have been made in connection with other of our churches, and in view of this fact it has been suggested that the authorities might with propriety take some action to prevent religious cengregations from being
