OUTLINES.

The two contestants in the English row ing match have had a look at each other on the Thames. - France & Co., of Newcastle, England, have failed. - A cricket team from England is coming to the United States. - A ten million pounds loan is proposed by the English Government. - A debate in the House concerning rules; Mr. Stephens, of Ga., spoke. - Gen. Garfield made a strong speech against Democratic policy, as developed in Congress, denouncing it as subversive of republican government. -Rhode Island Union Greenback Labor Convention has nominated Samuel Hill and D. A. McKay for Governor and Lieut. Governor. - The Treasury Department has made another call for $10,000,000 of 5-20 bonds. New York markets: Money 6@7 per cent cotton easier at 101@101c; flour quiet and unchanged; wheat in buyers favor at $1 15; corn 43@46c; spirits turpentine 29c; rosin quiet at $1 35@1 40.

We did not receive the Richmond Dispatch last night, so can give no tidings as to the finding of the jury in the Poindexter case. Up to Friday afternoon there was a hung jury.

The Republicans in caucus determined that they would make no more pairs with the Democrats. It will work equally hard on both parties and enforce a close attendance of members.

Chief Justice Elliott, lately murdered in Kentucky, was a native of Virginia. Judge Pryor, another Virginian, we should say from the name, was to have been murdered also, but Buford spared him because he had children. If there is a bolt redder with an uncommon wrath in heaven's armory it ought to smite that sentimental and devilish assassin.

The trial of Talmage is said to be equal to a circus. The fun is uproarious and the "giggling" tremendous. Dr. Crosby wanted the graduations of the giggles definitely fixed, and Dr. Spear begged the people to "keep their respiratory organs under such control as not to produce the vibratory motion resulting in sound." With these cautions there was not so much derisive laughter, though the comic element introduced gave occasion for considerable silent merri-

Messrs. Wren and Tyler, two Rich. mond detectives, worked up the case as to who murdered Charles K. Walton at Yanceyville, Va. They arrested three negroes, one of whom has made a full confession. The awful story is thus briefly told in the Richmond State's special: .

"They came to the store to get admission, and Walton, recognizing the voice of the woman, who was his cook, unhesitatingly opened the door, whereupon Talley knocked him in the head with an axe and plundered the store, and then set fire to it, leaving the body to burn."

The Philadelphia Record-a very good paper, by the way-has a proper appreciation of Bangs. It thus bandles him:

"Mr. Bangs is an actor, is always acting, and he never forgets this nor permits the critical anditor to lose sight of the fact. He shrugs, tosses his head, and rolls his eyes like a French dancing master, and postures, crouches and 'spouts' almost as much, though not so badly, as the Count Joannes. Mr. Bangs is always affected, always on stilts. The true actor, of course, studies every expression and movement, but the triumph of his art is to conceal the art, and of naturalness Mr. Bangs has none. His mannerisms are the traditional none. His mannerisms are the traditional ones of the 'heavy business' of the me-chanical school of professionals, and Mr. Bangs exaggerates them all, and is ever of the stage-stagey, the heaviest of the heavies, but always Bangs."

The New York Tribune of Thursday is red-hot. The "young editor" has put on the war paint, and put it on thick. Only hear him:

"Te-day a solid South actually coutrols both Houses of Congress. Confederate Generals swarm in both Chambers. * * To-day the rebellion, revived and rehabilitated, is encamped in the Capitol. * Because the North resists, there is a radical, irrepressible conflict. It was hoped that the defeat of armed rebellion had put an end to that conflict; but it has come again and is here as distinct and as dangerous to the Republic as ever."

The "stool pigeon" of Jay Gould escaped without hurt. then exhorts the North to unite against the South. This is the same paper that was so pacific seven years ago and was for "closing the bloody Senator Morgan is unquestionably one of the first minds in the Senate He is equal to any man from the South. It is understood he will amend Hoar's foolish "revolutionary" resolution by declaring that "inasmuch as it is revolutionary, dangerous, &c., to attach political amendments to appropriations, that so much of the sundry civil bill (passed by probable, we understand, that the needed Republicans) as embodied the enact. repairs will be done here.

In Distress. The schooner Adapance, from Ineague Bahama Islands, and bound to New York with a cargo of salt, arrived here Friday night. Capt. Reynolds discovered, last Monday, when 180 miles out, that the Advance was leaking, and the ship's officers and crew went at once to the pumps to shield the cargo from the water and keep the schooner affoat. They worked with a will and accomplished their object. It is light on Friday night, the schooner Snow Storm, which arrived here from Little River, S. C., on Thursday last, was entered and robbed. The schooner was lying at the time at the wharf just below Messrs. Preston Cumming & Co.'s grain mill, near the foot of Dock street, and in the cabin, which was not locked, were sleeping Capt. Morse, commander of the vessel, a passenger and the steward, the latter lying on a pallet on the floor, and notwithstanding all these impediments, including the fact that the cabin was small, the thief or thieves, who were evidently experts, succeeded in steals ing a trunk and its contents, three suits of clothing, ten dollars in money, a box of eggs, a box of machinery, a bundle of dry goods, a lot of letters and papers, &c., and placed them in the schooner's yawl boat and carried them off without arousing any of the occupants. The boat was picked up near the upper jetties yesterday morning, and contained only the trunk, which had been broken open and despoiled of its contents.

This was the boldest robbery we have heard of in this city for sometime, and we hope the most strenuous efforts will be made to ferret out the perpetrators and bring them to justice. At present there is not the slightest clue to them.

Robeson County Items.

A correspondent at Lumberton, under date of the 28th inst., furnishes ue with the following items: "Our Sheriff, Mr. W. Thompson, was initiated into one of the hardships of said office this morning, which is that of being shot at, and, judging from the circumstances, he must have thought it a narrow escape. He attempted to arrest a negro, who was secreted in a house of bad repute near the depot, for breaking into and robbing a store at Lemon's X Roads, a few days ago; but the negro, instead of obeying the command 'halt,' made for a swamp near by, when Mr. Thompson fired at him with a small pistol, whereupon the negro turned and saluted him with one shot from a larger pistol, but without ef fect. The Sheriff attempted to fire again, but his pistol would not go off, so he could do nothing but stand still and see the negro escape. He left behind his pocket book, containing a small amount of money and a ring. Also a bag of dry goods, which is now in the hands of the owner,

"Two women, one white and one colored, were arrested for harboring a thief and stolen goods, and tried before Squire Fuller. They were required to give a bond of $50 each for their appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, in default of which they were lodged in jail."

To-Morrow Night-Rip Van Winkle at the Opera House. The Opera House ought to be crowded to-morrow night to witness the presentation of the popular drama of "Rip Van Winkle." If only the half that is said of the new version of the play be true, and of the rendition of it by Mr. McWade, those who may be absent will deprive themselves of an evening of rare enjoyment. The Charlestonese and Savannahians have been little less than charmed by both the play and the actor. The News, of the latter city, thus speaks of the performance of the piece

"The version of the play as given by McWade is entirely different from Jefferson's, and in some respects we like it better. The title character was admirably rendered by Mr. McWade, who is a finished actor, and the enthusiastic applause which rewarded him was proof of the appreciation of the audience. The wakening scene, and the first interview with 'Steenie,' his g and the first interview with 'Steenie,' his daughter, after the sleep of twelve years, were particularly fine, and were warmly applauded. We recegnized among the performers the veteran of the stage, Mr. F. Chippendale, who, of course, was excellent. The support throughout was good, though, with one exception, not above the average; but the performance entire was very enjoyable."

Brunswick Court Brunswick Superior Court meets at Smithville to-morrow, Judge McKoy pres siding. Solicitor McIver went down on the Passport yesterday morning to prepartwo for burglary, all colored.

"My mother-in-law is a walking adver-tisement for Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup," a sub-scriber remarked yesterday; "she recom-mends it everywhere."

BY THE ABOVE I MEAN TO SAY, THAT I claim the credit of reducing the prices of Hair- MY HANNAH MARIA SAYS I CANNO cutting, Shaying, Shampooing, &c., before any other Barber in this city. I opened on the 11th of January last, with the reduced prices, and at that time all other Barbers in the city were charging 35 cents for Hair-cutting, 35 cents for Shampooing. 50 cents for Moustache-dyeing, and 15 cents for Shaving. But now they have all had to follow me, partly; but they can't come to the same figures on Shaving that I do; my prices have driven one to the wall, and is bringing the rest to their mifk. In the "local dots" in the "Review" of yesterday I see that it is claimed by somebody that J. H. Carraway was the first to reduce the prices of Hair-cutting and Shampooing to 25 cents each. I say that it is not the truth! And if it is not the truth, what must it be?

I am still continuing at the lowest prices in the city, and do only first class work at the
