The Ohio Democrats in Congress are greatly elated over the ticket. They say it can win. We must hope

Mr. Edward S. Gregory, the capital editor of the capital Petersburg Index-Appeal, will soon take orders in the Episcopal Church.

More North Carolina excursionists in Richmond, Va. The business is being a little overdone. However, if Richmond can stand it the Tar Heels will worry through.

The talk among Washington Democrats now is that if Ewing carries Ohio he will become the most prominent candidate for the Presidency entertaining greenback views.

Gen. Tom Ewing was born in Ohio in 1829. Gen. Americus V. Rice was born in Ohio in 1835. Both are college graduates, both were Union Generals, and both have Congressional records.

Dr. Frank Maury, a native of Kentucky, and an eminent surgeon of Philadelphia, died on the 4th inst., in his 39th year. He had a brilliant professional career before him when death took him.

That Miss Duer who killed Miss Hearn because the latter loved a Miss Foster better than she did herself, is a very bad woman we take it. Talk about Platonic love prompting the deed. It looks more like fortyhorse power deviltry was at the bottom of it.

The papers generally-except the organs-are wading into General Hamilton, whoever he is, for his rabid speech on decoration day in New York. He never wanted a flower to be laid on a rebel's grave by any true man of the North. But ain't he catching it?

There are not a few Democrats in Congress who would defeat McCrary's nomination for the United States Judgeship nation for the United States Judgeship, vacated by Judge Dillon, because they think McCrary's advocacy of the use of the army to influence elections and maintain nationalism (as set forth in the message vetoing the Army bill) unfits him for a judicial station of such dignity.—Special in

That is precisely what ought to be done. McCrary is not the man to wear the ermine, and the Democrats ought to reject his nomination. hope the South will be " solid."

Rhode Island is so very small, something larger though than our City Hall, that we never think of it on election day. But, small as it is, it has method—a bulldozing way that needs repairing. The following looks as if it might be done after awhile. The Baltimore Gazette says: "Democratic gains are reported from the town elections in Rhode Island. Woon-socket, famous for cider and Republican majorities, has elected an entire Democratic ticket. Warwick also elects a majority of Democrats. Little Rhody stands firm in the face of the debilitating 'revolution.'"

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1879.

WHOLE NO. 3,688

The University Commencement. On Wednesday night six speakers from the two Societies held forth, as we learn from the Raleigh News. Among them was R. B. John, Laurinburg. On the 5th was the regular Commencement Day. There was a big crowd, and a long procession, with the Salam band to play the music. The Senior speakers were John M. Manning, Pittsboro; Robert W. Winston, Windsor; Robert Strange, Wilmington, whose subject was

"Compulsory Education;" Richard B. Henderson, Warrenton; Francis D. Winston, Windsor; James S. Mauning, Pittsboro; William J. Peele, Jackson; and William L. Mills, Faison, who spoke on "The Chinese in America."

After all the addresses had been delivered Prof. C. B. Granby read the annual report, giving the standing of the students.

Gov. Jarvis conferred the degrees named upon the following named gentlemen:

K. P. Battle, Jr., R. B. Henderson, J. M. Manning, J. S. Manning, W. J. Peele, A. C. Springs, R. Strange, F. D. Winston, R. W. Winston, B. A.; Isaac M. Taylor, B. P. Gov. Jarvis, after presenting the diplomas, made a short speech to the

recipients, which was applauded time and again.

Certificates of Proficiency in the different branches were presented to the following gestlemen: D. Bell, J. W. Forbis, W. R. Henry, I. B. Hill, . A. Kent, E. P. Maynard, R. P. Bell, I. E. Emerson, J. M. Manning, R. B. Henderson, J. S. Manning, a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and im-Robert Strange, F. B. Dancy and J. prisonment at the discretion of the court, to A. McIver.

A. McIver.

The Mangum prize was awarded Robert Watson Winston, who was deemed by the committee the best orator, and was presented by Gen.

James Madison Leach in a speech carry about the person a pistol, bowle knife, dirk, dagger, slung-shot, loaded cane, brass, iron or metal knuckles, or other deadly weapons of like kind. The proshibited weapon being found on the person off his own premises, is to be taken as prima facie evidence of a violation. James Madison Leach in a speech

The two Greek medals were presented to C. D. McIver and John A. Mclver. The Chemistry medal was captured ov Robert Ransom. The Bingham medal was taken by Albert S. Grandy.

The prize annually awarded to the best student in the first Latin class was passed over to Lewis M. Patterson, while the one set apart for the best student in German was decided to be the property of Mr. A. L. Phillips. Gov. Jarvis, with appropriate remarks, presented the prizes.

At the request of President Battle, Rev. Dr. Marshall, of Raleigh, read a poem entitled the "College Bell," and written by a lady who is only known as a "true friend to the University."

The following honorary degrees were conferred: John H. Dillard and Thos. S

Ashe of Supreme Court, and Sam'l F. Phillips, degree of LL. D. That of D. D. on John P. Pickett, of Vicksburg, Miss.; David Sanderson, of Eutaw, Ala.; A. S. Smith, of Ringwood, N. C.; and F. H. Kerfoot, of Baltimore.
The degree of Doctor of Philosophy was conferred upon Professor W. C. Kerr, and that of Master of Arts on F. H. Busbee, of Raleigh, and John Webb, of Tennessee. Dr. Hoge pronounced the benediction and the Commencement of 1879 was over. county status, country

Hancock proposes if all proper arrangements can be perfected to have an encampment of his command, 1st Regiment N. C. S. G., at Fort Macon, between the 15th of July and the 1st of August. — Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, Mr. Alexander Justice, an old and well known citizen and lawyer of this place, was found in the garden ad-joining his residence on East Front street in an unconscious state. At first it was thought that he had been stricken with paralysis, but medical assistance being pro-cured, it was the opinion that apoplexy had seized him.

— Charlotte Observer: W. H. Bailey, Esq., is making excellent progress with his new law book, the fifth digest of the laws of North Carolina. He hopes to have it ready for the press in the course of a very few weeks. —Rev. T. P. John-ston, who was for nearly twenty years prior to the war a missionary of the Presbyterian Church among "the unspeakable Turks," is having printed in the Observer job office a pamphlet of thirty-two pages, narrating "The Experience of a Missionary Family in Turkey." — It is stated, on good authority, that there are three engineers on the North Carolina Railroad worth over $25,000 each. - The city has captured the county bulletin boards in front of the Court House. There was some slight resistance, but it was speedily overcome by the cool desperation of the attacking party, who is now in full possession.

- The Saperior Court is progress ing with the civil docket, but no cases of importance have as yet been disposed of The gentlemen of the Bar, and these in attendance upon the Court generally, speak very highly of the presiding Judge, Hon. A. S. Seymour.

To-Day's Indications. For the South Atlantic States, falling, followed by rising barometer, warmer southwesterly winds, generally shifting to cooler northerly, partly cloudy or cloudy weather, and local rains, are the indications for this section to-day.

Visitors from Up the Country. We have had quite a number of visitors in this city during the present week from along the line of the C. C. Railway, mostly from Shelby and beyond. Many of them were from the humbler walks of life, but all left a favorable impression upon the minds of our citizens, who were charmed with the gentlemanly bearing and agreeable manners of these representative men of the West. They were apparently much pleased with their experiences in Wilmington and at the seashore. On Thursday a number of them paid a visit to our theatre. and were shown all of the objects of interest connected with it the obliging attendant, Balaam, going through the process of dropping and raising the curtain. shifting the scenery, &c., for their benefit, showing them, among others, a very pretty farm scene.

One of our visitors remarked that he had five acres in the finest kind of peaches, and would like to supply Wilmington with his quota of this luscious fruit if circumstances would permit it.

Officers of Alumni Association of Wilmington High School. This Association held a meeting last night and perfected a permanent organization, as follows: President-John J. Fowler. Vice-President-W. M. Howey. Recording Secretary-S. M. Empie. Treasurer-B. G. Empie.

Corresponding Secretary-W. S Devane. A Committee on Anniversary Celebration was appointed, as follows: R. B. Hartsfield, B. G. Emple, E. S. Polley, F. M. Agostini, Jr., and W. H. Smaw.

We understand there was a large attendance, and that an earnest spirit characterized the meeting.

The Late Mrs. Yates.

The last Favetteville Gazette contains the following paragraph in reference to the late Mrs. Elizabeth Yates, who died in that place on the 80th of May last, aged 85 years: "While a girl she connected herself with the Methodist Church, and for seventy years lived a consistent member of that communion. She was held in high esteem fer her Christian character, her firm piety, and her unfailing devotion to the interests of her family. Being greatly afflicted for the past few years, her faith was made perfect through suffering, and then a ripened sheaf was garnered for the sky. Mrs. Yates leaves four children. Among these are Rev. E. A. Yates, of the North Carolina Conference, and W. J. Yates, editor of the Charlotte Democrat. Tue vacht Rosa, the winner in the late regatta on the river. was beating against a pretty strong southwest wind, yesterday afternoon, shortly after 5 o'clock, and had reached a point nearly opposite Messrs. Cassidey & Ross' shipyard, when a sudden flaw more powerful than its predecessors struck the handsome little craft and capsized her. The captain and crew scrambled to her bottom as hurriedly as the circumstances would permit, and were speedily rescued by a passing boat. The Rosa was soon afterwards towed ashore and freed of her watery incubus. Wilmington and Wilmington people are great civilizers. Capt. E. D. Browning recently visited Raleigh, and provoked the local of the Observer to speak thusly of him:

"We don't know anybody that is more liked than Capt. Browning, and we don't know of anybody that is more widely known, but the hearty attention that he received yesterday from every one must have made him feel proud. Since 1855 Capt. Browning has been on the Wilmington & Weldon Road. He is a good man, who loves his friends, and his friends love him, and they will feel better if he will come this way oftener."

Mr. James M. Ormes. Southern agent for the Bell Telephone Company, is here in the interest of that Company, and is making arrangements to establish a telephonic exchange. He expects to call on our business men generally and explain to them the advantages of the Bell patent.

Issac Baker, one of the "twin brothers, was arrested yesterday on the charges of security in the sum of $50 in each case, for his appearance before a Magistrate for examination, at 10 o'clock this morning, was committed to fail.

Found Dead. A colored child was found dead on the Brunswick river Thursday, and the general impression in the neighborhood seems to be that it was foully dealt with. A special Coroner was expected to be appointed and investigate the case yesterday.

Dismissed. The rule for contempt against Justice T. M. Gardner, of this city, reference to which was made in the STAR some weeks ago, was heard by Judge Bond during the present term of the U. S. Olrouit Court, at Raleigh, and dismissed.

A Strange Compliment. A Chapel Hill correspondent of the Raleigh Observer, in noticing the graduating class at the University, says "Robert Strange, Jr., son of Col. Robert Strange, possesses all the characteristics of his illustrious father. He is one of the best scholars in the class;" and then refers thusly to his address: d wanne tooling of we

"He made a manly, bold and aggressive appeal for Compulsory Education.' His peculiarly handsome young face was earnest, his animation so genuine and his voice so rich, that when he called upon the 'wilds of the west and cypress awamps of the east to disgorge their ragged urchins,' and lend them to the State to be civilized and 'educated, we felt that it would take just such men as he to do the great work and work this great reform." and work; this great reform."

Excursion and Piente. A picuic and excursion to the Hamme Place, under the auspices of the Second Presbyterian Sabbath School, will take place on the steamer Isis to-day, the boat leaving the Compress wharf, foot of Red Cross street, at 7 o'clock A. M., and returning at 6 P. M. It will no doubt be a splendid affair.

Proposed Sale of a Railroad. We learn that Maj. D. J. Devane, this city, a prominent member of the lega fraternity, has been appointed by the U. 8. Circuit Court, now in session at Raleigh a Commissioner to sell the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, under decree of foreclosure.

The revival at the Front Street M. Church is increasing in interest and promises the most important results. The attendance continues large, many penitents are presenting themselves for prayer, and several conversions have taken place

- There should be organized in this city a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. We saw yesterday, and we see nearly every day, instances which call loudly for some interposition in behalf of the poor dumb brutes, especially horses and mules.
