Ben Hill is going to reply to Jim Blaine' attack. Some fur will be seen to fly on that interesting occasion, we dare to predict.

The New York Herald has whipped about again. It is now blowing John Sherman's tin horn. There never was just such a weather-cock before.

Rev. Samuel S. Harris, of Chicago, has been elected Episcopal bishop of Michigan, in place of the late unworthy bishop, McCoskry. Mr. Harris formerly had charge of a church in New Orleans. He is an editor.

It is thought Parole will run to-day in the Ascot Stakes Handicap. There are thirty-five subscribers. Parole's chance is not flattering. He will have to carry 125 pounds while Jester will carry but 110 pounds. The Racing Calendar, of May 22, says:

"Jester, in the Cesarewitch, two miles two furlongs and twenty-eight yards, had 94 pounds up, and the American filly Start, by Gleneig, out of Stamps, owned by Mr.
M. H. Sanford, was second, with 98 pounds on her back. Of the list, two were in the last Derby, run at Epsom May 28 last.
These were Lord Rosebery's Visconte, who obtained third place in that event, and Mr.
Actou's Squirrel, the last to finish of the twenty-three runners. The acceptance of the weights was set down for May 27, and it is likely that a goodly number are left in, so that Parole, who will undoubtedly start, will probably meet a fine field on Ascot Heath. The Ascot course is circular and short of two miles by sixty-six yards. The first half is nearly on the descent, and the last half, which is called the Old Mile, is uphill the greater part of the way, requiring a good horse to carry a heavy impost to

The Ewing serenade was a grand affair, it seems. Senators Thurman and Pendleton made capital speeches, in addition to a remarkably clever speech from Gen. Ewing. Governor Vance was on hand, and was in his right element. The Richmond Dispatch special says:

"That of Governor Vance was, it is acknowledged, a decided hit, and everybody laughed to day over his declaration that he wanted a return of the good old time, when whiskey sold for five cents a glass and the glasses were big; but now it is fifteen, he said, and the glasses are small and have a thick bottom. He was as much at home as he was when speaking in front of your Old Market house." The State's special says:

"Ringing speeches were made by Thurman, Pendleton and Warner, of Ohio, Blackburn, Ellis, Frost of Missouri, the youngest member of Congress, and Zeb Vance. The enthusiasm of the crowd showed they were in full sympathy with the speakers, and they remained until mearly 11 o'clock, when Vance concluded sone of his rousing speeches, the band vested of a minister to this place.

From every part of the county we continue to receive the most flattering reports of the growing crops. There is an unusually good stand of cotton, and the grain crop promises a larger yield than for several years before.

— Newbern Democrat: Thirteen "culled pussons," from three months up to one of his rousing speeches, the band played "Dixie," and General King, of Louisiana, dismissed the audience. Free elections, free juries, no bayonet rule, no deputy marshals or supervisors, and the dollar of the fathers, were announced as the rallying cries of the Ohio Democracy, and all agreed that Ohio's contest next fall will be the key to the National contest in

- Warrenton Gazette: For the past few days frequent attempts have been made by unknown parties to burn the fences and stables of some of our citizens. Mr. Norwood's fence has been fired four or five times, Mr. Sledge's as often; the torch was applied to the stables of Mr. Shroyer and Daniel Alston, Esq., and brush has been piled on the Sheriff's fence, as if preparatory to burning it. letter to a young man to have it read. The Charlotte Observer says: "The letter was dated at Hampton, S. C., and was signed by a name to which was attached the word Secretary." The letter informed the negro man that it was now time to begin to burn the houses and railroad bridges in the country, and went on to say that the colored men had to resort to this, as they were not treated as they should be, and that their Northern friends would furnish them the money. It informed the party addressed that the "president" had $200 for him for his service in the cause, and would come up on the train. He was, however, told to spare Monroe and Charlotte. Some reference having been made to a former letter, the negro was questioned as to this and exhibited another signed by another name, to which was attached the word "president." This was dated a Russell, S. C., and was to the same purport as that referred to. The Late Col. W. S. Devane-Meeting of the Barat Clinton.

The members of the Bar, in attendance on the Superior Court of Sampson county. Spring Term, 1879, met in the court house in Clinton, on Thursday, May 29th, at 4 o'clock P. M., to do honor to the memory of their Brother, Wm. S. Devane, deceased. Present: J. L. Stewart, M. C. Richardson. E. W. Kerr, J. D. Kerr, Swift Galloway. W. A. Guthrie, J. N. Stallings, E. T. Boykis, G. W. Britt and H. A. Beaman.

On motion of M. C. Richardson, J. L. Stewart was elected Chairman, and E. T. Boykin and H. A. Beaman were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman appointed Swift Galloway, W. A. Guthrie, M. C. Richardson, J. N. Stallings and J. D. Kerr a committee to draft suitable resolutions, who, through their Chairman, Capt. Galleway, presented a beautiful and touching testimonial to the integrity, personal worth, gentlemanly courtesy and many noble traits of character displayed by the lamented deceased, both in his profession and in the private walks of life, and feelingly alluded to the sorrow his death has caused the people of Sampson county, among whom he was born and reared, with whom his professions al duties as attorney and counsellor brought him into close relations of personal friendship and constant business intercourse, and who so well remember his high courage, his ardent patriotism, his genial nature, and his kind and courteous manners,

It was also resolved to furnish a copy of the resolutions to the family of the deceased, to the STAR, the Raleigh Observer, Fayetteville Gazette, and Goldsboro' Messenger, for publication, and to His Honor, Judge Seymour, presiding, with a request that the same be entered upon the records from Capt. Galloway in support of the resolutions, and addresses from other genadopted.

Beodorizer. Dr. D. M. Buie, of this city, has invented a deodorizer for which is claimed virtues of a decidedly important character, and which would prove especially useful in places subject to visitations from yellow feverand other infectious diseases, as well as a disinfectant for ships. It is said that it will arrest decomposition or decay in any organic substance, either of animal or vegetable origin. It has been tested on a sturgeon's head and found to work like a charm. Even bilge water, it is claimed, can be rendered perfectly sweet and wholesome by its use. If it is all that it is claimed to be-and this fact can be tested in a few minutes, the inventor states-it will prove a valuable auxiliary to the Boards of Health in our Southern cities during the summer months. At any rate, t is worth a trial.

Sentence Carried Out. Ella Holmes, colored, who was tried and convicted of larceny at the late term of our Criminal Court, and who was ordered by His Honor, Judge Meares, to be turned over to her mother, who is a resident of South Carolina, with the understanding that she was not to come back to this city, was taken to the Southern train yesterday morning, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Howard, who witnessed her departure for the Palmetto State. It seems that there was some doubt in the mind of the presiding Judge as to her guilt, which saved her a trip to Raleigh or an engagement for a term of service in Superintendent Garrell's

Second Race for the Sesson-Th Yacht Frolic Wins the Flag-Two Break-Downs and a Run-Under.

The second race of the season, on the Cape Fear River, under the auspices of the above Club, came off yesterday afternoon. There was a fine breeze blowing from the southwest, and the weather pleasant. There was a large number of speciators along the line of the wharves, but not quite so many as on the former occasion.

Messrs. George A. Peck and Jos. Price were chosen Judges.

After some unavoidable delay the boats were called and started in fine style and in the following order, the course being the same as in the last race, the distance eight

Rosa..... 3h 50m 54s Lizzie..... 3h 50m 57s Gypsy 3h 51m 49s Ripple...... 3h 52m 11s Soon after starting the Ripple broke her bob stay and returned to the wharf for repair, and this mishap was immediately followed by a similar one to the Rosa, which partially filled, and she had to bail out, lower sails and repair damage. They were soon underway again, however, and behaved very well during the remainder of the race.

Soon after rounding the "Dram Tree" buoy the first time, and when some distance below Messrs. Kidders' Mill, the Lizzie was struck by a flaw and "run under," settling to the water's edge before she could be water which she had previously shipped, She careened over on her side and the crew. among whom were the Commodore of the Club and a Market street grocer, gracefully and speedily crawled over the side and clung to the craft until she was towed ashore by a passing row boat She was afterwards righted and bailed out, coming up to the city apparently none the worse for the accident.

was not passed by any boat during the entire race. The Lizzie was about two hundred yards astern of the Frolic when she met with the accident, and was sailing splendidly under the experienced command of Capt. W. L. Parsley, and her misfortune was generally regretted.

The Frolis won the champion flag for the first time yesterday, though she has repeatedly finished second or third, and has sailed the course in the quickest time on the record of the Club since it was organized, with one exception.

The Military Excursion Yesterday. The weather conditions yesterday were suspicious for the excursion of the Whiting Rifles, but we regretted to see, when the saw, by Mr. H. R. Hicks, of the firm of steamer Passport left her wharf, that though Johnson & Hicks, of this city, (who says a s pleasant company of ladies and gentlepatent right has been applied for.) It is men were aboard, the exchequer of the constructed of black wainut and white military would not be replenished by this effort. The programme marked out was, however, fully carried out. The Rifles fired a salute of musketry (and it was well done in point of unity) and an excellent string band furnished music as the steamer moved away from her moorings.

> The promise of an enjoyable excursion was fully redeemed. At New Inlet the votaries of Isaac Walton were landed that they might indulge in the sport of entrapping sheephead, and then the bost proceeded to Smithville, where the military and others went ashore, the first to engage in and the last to witness target practice. We understand the marksmanship was very good, but the competitive contest resulted in favor of Private J. T. Pate, who

The cup presentation was made on the boat on the return trip, Col. Grafflin representing the company and acquitting himself in a brief but appropriate speech Private Pate replied in a fitting manner. The music furnished was really good, and it follows as a matter of course that kept up without but slight intermission. In fact the trip was, in all respects, highly creditable to those under whose manage. ment the excursion was given.

Another Excursion.

We unintentionally omitted to mention Sunday morning, that Prof. Agostini proposes giving another family excursion to Smithville and the forts on Friday next. The Italian band will accompany the pleasurers, and besides the opportunity of dancing aboard the steamer Passport, we learn that "the Pagoda," or dancing pavillion, at Fort Caswell, will be in readiness by that time for use.
