It is really a nice arrangement. If the Democrats carry Ohio, Thurman will be in the field for the Presidential nomination, Ewing will go to the Senate in place of Thurman, and Rice will become Governor. Thurman may be expected to make many speeches in the canvass.

Here is about the biggest excursion we have yet heard of: War veterans and families, numbering 6000, have left New York for a trip up the Hudson. There were fifteen steamboats and barges in line, besides many tug-boats, and the fleet had quite an imposing appearance.

War business is expensive. England is now expending $2,500,000 weekly in its effort to thrash out that wigorous fighter, Cetywayo, in South Africa. It has already lost 2,500 men. The drum beat of England can be heard around the globe, but it costs something to make the music.

Hayes and some of his Cabinet are trying to give the Sherman movement an impetus, but Grant is evidently the favorite. A special to that very earnest paper, the Philadelphia Press, says:

"A prominent member of the Cabinet however, in speaking on this subject, said he was convicted that nine-tenths of the office-holders were in favor of Grant for President in 1880, and would not be swerved from their determination to support him in the event of his being a candi-

Eight steamers sailed from New York on Saturday for Europe. They carried large quantities of grain, amounting to 340,000 bushels. Here are some of the shipments: 268 head of cattle go to London; 300 sheep to Glasgow, and 500 to Bristol; 300 carcasses sheep, 200 tons and 1721 quarters beef were stowed away in the refrigerators. The other important commodities were 4250 boxes bacon, 24,500 boxes cheese, and 5500 packages butter.

The dignified Richmond State is fairly shocked at our Zeb's anecdotes in a serenading speech. The Virrice, 10 acres in tobacco, 8 acres in waterginians, like the Scotch-as reported, but untruly-do not like fun. They can hardly stand their own Mozis Addums-if that is the way that scholar spells his name. But really, Governor, you must be more dignified, more solemn, more Senatorial,

Governor, or you will do violence to the nice sensibilities of our fastidious neighbors.

It turns ont that Mrs. Alice Oates what might be denominated a "dangerous woman." She has robbed Mrs. Laurent of her happiness and ther husband. Mrs. L. is in possession of certain and sundry letters gress all the week at the White Church in this place, conducted by Revs. A. D. Stough, pastor, and F. M. Jordan.

William Wilson, colored, who had been ordered to jail, in default of bond, to await his appearance before Justice Hill to-morrow, in a case of assault, and while awaiting the recognizance of the witnesses in the Magistrate's office, yesterday, suddenly broke and ran for dear life, turning the corner of Second into Princess, and thence laying his course for Water street. He was closely pursued by officer Simon Richardson, until he reached the classic precincts of "Paddy's Hollow," when he ran slap into the arms of Joe Whitney, a special deputy, who held him until Richardson came up. He was then marched to the county jail, where his opportunities for displaying his skill as an athlete will be somewhat limited.

Among the Breakers," The Thalian Amateurs will make their last appearance before the public for the present season at Tileston Upper Room, on Friday evening next, in the popular comedy in two acts entitled "Among the Breakers." The Thalians have won a very enviable reputation among our play-goers, who usually evidence an appreciation of their histrionic efforts by giving them a crowded house. These warm summer evenings there is nothing so pleasant as being "Among the Breakers."

Joseph Kelley, a white man, who was arrested between 10 and 11 o'clock Monday night, drunk and down on the sidewalk, stated that he was just from the penitentiary, and if the "Judge" would let him off this time he would "get out of this" just as quick as possible. The Mayor ordered him to be discharged on the condition that if he was caught in the city at 12 o'clock he would be locked up for thirty days. Kelley was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for being found in the office of one of our commission houses on the wharf, at a late hour of the night, and was released six months before his time expired on account of good behavior. He says he came
