

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION IN ADVANCE: One year, by mail postage paid, $7.00...

OUTLINES.

Senator Yea's silver bill debated. — Judicial Expenses Appropriation bill reported in Senate and passed. — Bill to pay United States Marshals debated in House, Garfield leading off. — A boiler bursted in Philadelphia, killing several persons and demolishing several houses. — The largest amount of pollution on record is in Bank of England. — The Roman Catholics court the Hyond of the Canton of Berns, Switzerland. — The Postoffice Department is arranging to extend fast mail service to the South. — The Judicial Expenses bill, as it came from the House, was passed by the Senate yesterday—yeas 29, nays 16. — Ex-Lieut. Gen. R. H. Anderson, of the Confederate Army, is dead. — Gen. Garfield made a vigorous attack on the Democratic party in the House, but Hurd, of Ohio, replied in a masterly manner. — Bill providing for payment of marshals' fees passed. — The Fall River (Mass) spinners and manufacturers are still at loggerheads. — It is reported that Patagonia has been ceded to the Argentine Republic. — The Prince Imperial of France willed all his property to his mother. — At last advices Gen. Grant was on his way to Pekin; and he is expected, after visiting Japan, to go to Australia. — New York markets: Money easy at 3@4 per cent.; cotton quiet at 12@12 1/2 cents; flour quiet and without decided change; wheat quiet and firm; corn a shade firmer graded 40@40 1/2 cents; spirits turpentine steady but quiet at 27 1/2 cents; rosin dull at $1 30@1 32 1/2.

General Jo Johnston voted in the caucus against adopting the committee's report.

There are now said to be but 160 members of the House in Washington out of 293. The others have gone home. The number is lessening daily. — The Goldsboro Mail says that Rev. Dr. Winkler, of Georgia, has declined the Presidency of Wake Forest College. This is a declination number two. After trying a few more from abroad, probably some deserving native North Carolinian may be thought of. — Senator Thurman is much annoyed because his own party "hold him responsible for inaugurating the starvation policy." If he is not the author who is? Did he not look horns with Bayard in caucus, at the beginning of the session, upon the plan to be adopted? Bayard was for doing what has been done mainly and Thurman opposed it. Such, at least, is our own recollection of the matter. — The Baltimore American's Washington correspondent says it is understood that the President will not call an extra session to remedy the matter about the marshals, but will leave the responsibility where it belongs. Very good. Then the correspondent adds, with evident sorrow at his little heart: "Marshals will accordingly be compelled to resign or perform their duties without compensation until Congress makes the appropriations."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Blackburn, of Kentucky, appear to be the two leaders in their respective Houses of the Democratic stalwarts. They made a strong fight against the policy adopted by a large majority of their party. The State's special says: "Blackburn carried his resistance to the committee's report almost to the extent of factious opposition, and at one time was greatly excited at the apparent prospect of carrying his views, but was defeated by ten in a total of ninety-eight votes cast by members of the House, and two of our Senators. Stephens made a very elaborate speech in reply to Wallace and Blackburn." The impression in Washington is that Hayes will approve the first bill and veto the second. The State says it is the purpose of the Democrats to adjourn sine die as soon as both bills are sent to the President. The State's correspondent gives this view of the majority's opinions as to the wisdom of the course finally adopted: "It was almost certain that the President would approve the first containing the new method of drawing juries and the repeal of the test oath, and that much would be gained, for the Republicans would certainly not allow either the jury or test oath legislation to pass in a bill separate from an appropriation, as witness their filibustering against the Bayard bill. Well, with this part of the judicial bill passed and approved there would remain nothing but the legislation in relation to deputy marshals to be secured. Let that be passed in a bill containing a specific appropriation for salaries of marshals, and prohibiting the payment of any to deputies. If the President should veto it the issue would be postponed until December, and the Democrats would avoid the responsibility of stopping the courts. Besides, Congress would probably be called back merely to appropriate money for marshals, and the Democrats would have accomplished all they could hope to accomplish with the power of the veto against them."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

There are now said to be but 160 members of the House in Washington out of 293. The others have gone home. The number is lessening daily. — The Goldsboro Mail says that Rev. Dr. Winkler, of Georgia, has declined the Presidency of Wake Forest College. This is a declination number two. After trying a few more from abroad, probably some deserving native North Carolinian may be thought of. — Senator Thurman is much annoyed because his own party "hold him responsible for inaugurating the starvation policy." If he is not the author who is? Did he not look horns with Bayard in caucus, at the beginning of the session, upon the plan to be adopted? Bayard was for doing what has been done mainly and Thurman opposed it. Such, at least, is our own recollection of the matter. — The Baltimore American's Washington correspondent says it is understood that the President will not call an extra session to remedy the matter about the marshals, but will leave the responsibility where it belongs. Very good. Then the correspondent adds, with evident sorrow at his little heart: "Marshals will accordingly be compelled to resign or perform their duties without compensation until Congress makes the appropriations."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Blackburn, of Kentucky, appear to be the two leaders in their respective Houses of the Democratic stalwarts. They made a strong fight against the policy adopted by a large majority of their party. The State's special says: "Blackburn carried his resistance to the committee's report almost to the extent of factious opposition, and at one time was greatly excited at the apparent prospect of carrying his views, but was defeated by ten in a total of ninety-eight votes cast by members of the House, and two of our Senators. Stephens made a very elaborate speech in reply to Wallace and Blackburn." The impression in Washington is that Hayes will approve the first bill and veto the second. The State says it is the purpose of the Democrats to adjourn sine die as soon as both bills are sent to the President. The State's correspondent gives this view of the majority's opinions as to the wisdom of the course finally adopted: "It was almost certain that the President would approve the first containing the new method of drawing juries and the repeal of the test oath, and that much would be gained, for the Republicans would certainly not allow either the jury or test oath legislation to pass in a bill separate from an appropriation, as witness their filibustering against the Bayard bill. Well, with this part of the judicial bill passed and approved there would remain nothing but the legislation in relation to deputy marshals to be secured. Let that be passed in a bill containing a specific appropriation for salaries of marshals, and prohibiting the payment of any to deputies. If the President should veto it the issue would be postponed until December, and the Democrats would avoid the responsibility of stopping the courts. Besides, Congress would probably be called back merely to appropriate money for marshals, and the Democrats would have accomplished all they could hope to accomplish with the power of the veto against them."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

There are now said to be but 160 members of the House in Washington out of 293. The others have gone home. The number is lessening daily. — The Goldsboro Mail says that Rev. Dr. Winkler, of Georgia, has declined the Presidency of Wake Forest College. This is a declination number two. After trying a few more from abroad, probably some deserving native North Carolinian may be thought of. — Senator Thurman is much annoyed because his own party "hold him responsible for inaugurating the starvation policy." If he is not the author who is? Did he not look horns with Bayard in caucus, at the beginning of the session, upon the plan to be adopted? Bayard was for doing what has been done mainly and Thurman opposed it. Such, at least, is our own recollection of the matter. — The Baltimore American's Washington correspondent says it is understood that the President will not call an extra session to remedy the matter about the marshals, but will leave the responsibility where it belongs. Very good. Then the correspondent adds, with evident sorrow at his little heart: "Marshals will accordingly be compelled to resign or perform their duties without compensation until Congress makes the appropriations."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, and Representative Blackburn, of Kentucky, appear to be the two leaders in their respective Houses of the Democratic stalwarts. They made a strong fight against the policy adopted by a large majority of their party. The State's special says: "Blackburn carried his resistance to the committee's report almost to the extent of factious opposition, and at one time was greatly excited at the apparent prospect of carrying his views, but was defeated by ten in a total of ninety-eight votes cast by members of the House, and two of our Senators. Stephens made a very elaborate speech in reply to Wallace and Blackburn." The impression in Washington is that Hayes will approve the first bill and veto the second. The State says it is the purpose of the Democrats to adjourn sine die as soon as both bills are sent to the President. The State's correspondent gives this view of the majority's opinions as to the wisdom of the course finally adopted: "It was almost certain that the President would approve the first containing the new method of drawing juries and the repeal of the test oath, and that much would be gained, for the Republicans would certainly not allow either the jury or test oath legislation to pass in a bill separate from an appropriation, as witness their filibustering against the Bayard bill. Well, with this part of the judicial bill passed and approved there would remain nothing but the legislation in relation to deputy marshals to be secured. Let that be passed in a bill containing a specific appropriation for salaries of marshals, and prohibiting the payment of any to deputies. If the President should veto it the issue would be postponed until December, and the Democrats would avoid the responsibility of stopping the courts. Besides, Congress would probably be called back merely to appropriate money for marshals, and the Democrats would have accomplished all they could hope to accomplish with the power of the veto against them."

THE WASHINGTON OUTLOOK.

There are now said to be but 160 members of the House in Washington out of 293. The others have gone home. The number is lessening daily. — The Goldsboro Mail says that Rev. Dr. Winkler, of Georgia, has declined the Presidency of Wake Forest College. This is a declination number two. After trying a few more from abroad, probably some deserving native North Carolinian may be thought of. — Senator Thurman is much annoyed because his own party "hold him responsible for inaugurating the starvation policy." If he is not the author who is? Did he not look horns with Bayard in caucus, at the beginning of the session, upon the plan to be adopted? Bayard was for doing what has been done mainly and Thurman opposed it. Such, at least, is our own recollection of the matter. — The Baltimore American's Washington correspondent says it is understood that the President will not call an extra session to remedy the matter about the marshals, but will leave the responsibility where it belongs. Very good. Then the correspondent adds, with evident sorrow at his little heart: "Marshals will accordingly be compelled to resign or perform their duties without compensation until Congress makes the appropriations."

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MURSON—King of shirts. HEINBERGER—Hammocks. D. L. GORE—Meal, corn, &c. GREEN & FLANNER—Medicines. L. A. ANGEL—Telephone Exchange. CAUTION NOTICE—Crew Ella Moore. WERNER & PREMERT—Reduced rates. Local Notes. — Mayor Fishplate arrived from New York Thursday night. — Farmers in Brunswick county are complaining that their crops are suffering for the want of rain. — A very nice watermelon from Appleton, Mr. R. E. Heide's plantation, sold in this market yesterday morning for $1, and cantaloupes from the same place sold for 25 cents each. — There is a dangerous counterfeit half-dollar in circulation. The work and color are first-rate, but it is slightly wanting in weight, says the Treasury Department at Washington. — A young alligator, about three or four feet long, caught a few miles down the river, was the attraction at Market dock yesterday afternoon. His owner had him muzzled to keep him from biting. — We notice in the New York Clipper the announcement of the death by drowning, in the St. John's River, Florida, on the 15th inst., of the well-known comedian, J. B. Howard, who was here last season with the Helen D'Este troupe. — The only case before the Supreme Court Thursday, of interest here, was the following: Edward Kinney vs. Thomas C. Mollhenny, from Brunswick; called and argued by A. T. & John Landon for the plaintiff, and E. G. Hayward and A. W. Tourgee for the defendant. — The revival at the Front Street M. E. Church, instead of abating, seems really to be increasing in interest. Penitents continue to present themselves at the altar for prayer, and several have professed conversion within the last two or three days. Dr. Burkhead has left to fill his appointments. — It was generally stated on the streets last evening that a whale one hundred and five feet long had been captured inside the bar. We have read of small fish of this species, known as the balana mysticetus, from fifty to sixty feet long, and about thirty or forty feet in circumference, a solitary one of which yields more than twenty tons of pure oil; but this product of the Cape Fear was p-p-d-g-o-u-s: one hundred and five feet long. We swallowed the captured invader, but the story—that nearly choked us. Even an experienced Harper could not have made a marine believe it: it was too Savage. — Magistrate's Court. Before Justice Mills, yesterday, Sarah Evans was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery upon Mary Benton. Cass dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor. In the case of Carrie Felder, arrested on a peace warrant on the complaint of Lizzie Johnson, the complaint was withdrawn on condition that the defendant pay the costs. George Yarr, colored, charged with assault and battery, had a hearing before Justice Hill, who ordered him to pay a fine of $1 and the costs in default of which he was committed to jail. — Frequently happens that severe pain is very greatly relieved by thorough purgation. Use Dr. Bull's Baltimore Pills for this purpose. Price 25 cents.

THE MISSES BURR AND JAMES' SCHOOL.

The session of this school closed with a soiree on Thursday night, which was attended and highly appreciated by a large audience. The exercises were begun with the delivery of a graceful salutatory by Miss Mary Cassidy, as a prelude to a lengthy, but enjoyable, entertainment. The programme, in two parts, was admirable throughout, consisting of musical, vocal and instrumental recitations, essays, &c., and was not concluded until a late hour. The uniform excellence with which all acquitted themselves renders it difficult to discriminate, and we shall content ourselves with pronouncing the soiree a great success in every respect and a flattering testimonial to the worth and merit of the school as an educational institution. An especial feature was the lessons, in song, with the use of objects, as an easy and agreeable method of indelibly impressing upon youthful minds such valuable information. Between the parts of the programme the prizes were delivered by Capt. A. L. Deroset in a neat and graceful manner that won the gentleman many compliments from those in attendance. The Excelsior Medals, the prizes, as the name imports, for the best order of merit, were awarded to Misses Mary Cassidy, Ma' Cowan and Mary VanOrsdel. For the next prize there was a tie between Misses Neus and Ella VanOrsdel, and Leo Cameron of the third class, and they were all awarded prizes. Miss Lulu Thompson, of the fifth class, Miss Rosa David, of the sixth class, Miss Sallie Griffin, of the seventh class, and Master Henry Von-Glabn, of the eighth class, earned and were given the awards in their respective classes. In the First Composition Class, Misses Mary Cassidy and Bessie Ledford were competitors for the prize, but Miss Mary Cassidy having received a half mark of credit more than the other young lady, received an extra prize, which was the gift of Mr. J. Dickson Munds, of this city. In the Second Composition Class, Misses Johanna Quince and Ada Schenck were the happy recipients of the prizes. Certificates were awarded to the following young ladies for excellence in scholarship and deportment: Misses Bessie Ledford, Hettie Barlow, Annie Meares, Augusta Moore, Annie Von-Glabn and Isabella Heinberger. At the conclusion of the exhibition it was announced that Miss Mattie Murray had received, by an overwhelming vote, the piano which was awarded to Misses Burr and James' School as a premium at the last State Fair, held at Raleigh in November, 1878, and which, in accordance with the terms of the award, was to be given to the young lady scholar who was most proficient in music and intended to pursue the avocation of a teacher of the same, the question to be decided by a popular vote of the scholars.

TO-DAY'S INDICATIONS.

For the South Atlantic States, stationary barometer, southeast winds, warmer, partly cloudy weather and occasional rains, are the indications for to-day. Closing Exercises of St. Joseph's Male Academy. Last evening was an enjoyable one at this institution, which is under the direction of the Sisters of Mercy. A large company was present, and the Scriptural drama, "Joseph in Egypt," was performed with a cleverness that testified of the careful training to which the pupils who filled characters had been subjected. In some instances there was evinced by the participants of a really creditable share of histrionic talent. The costumes and stage appointments were admirably adapted to the requirements of the play. Three medals, two gold and one silver, besides numerous books, were presented as premiums, the distribution of them being entrusted to Col. Duncan K. Melise, who was present by invitation. He made an exceedingly happy and beautiful little address, creating—as he always does on such occasions—a fine impression. The affair terminated at a seasonable hour, and it is difficult to decide whether the Sisters or those confided to their instruction have the best right to be gratified with the results of the exercises. The Attempted Robbery Thursday Night—Arrest of the Burglar. The colored boy who was discovered concealed in Mr. L. Voliers' store Thursday night, and who was subsequently taken to the guard house and locked up, an account of which appeared in our last issue, was taken out and questioned by Acting Mayor Flanner, yesterday morning, when he stated that his name was John Green, and that he had been told by a colored man named Henry Johnson to go in and conceal himself until the store was closed for the night, and then get together such goods as could be conveniently removed, and, at a signal from him, to open the door for him. Upon the strength of this statement officers were sent with the boy to the place where he said Johnson was at work, upon arriving at which he identified a man named Henry Loftin as the individual who had induced him to hide himself in the store. Loftin was thereupon arrested and lodged in the guard house, there to await a hearing before Mayor Fishplate this morning. A search warrant was subsequently issued and the house of Loftin searched, but nothing to throw any light on the subject was found. Overboard. A well-known colored woman, known by the name of Fannie Brewington, accidentally tumbled overboard from the cap of Messrs. Williams & Murchison's lower wharf, yesterday morning, falling between the wharf and the Norwegian barque Theodor. The accident was witnessed by a deaf and dumb colored man, who, by signs and mutterings, attracted the attention of other parties in the vicinity, who hastened to the rescue. A rope was thrown to her, and though she had gone down twice before this assistance was rendered her, she had strength enough left to seize and hold on to it until she was landed on the wharf. Later in the day a sailor on the Norwegian brig Gloria, lying at the wharf near the foot of Dock street, fell from one of the yard-arms into the river, but was quickly rescued. Fall of Scaffolding. While workmen were engaged in taking down a section of scaffolding of the City Hall building, yesterday afternoon, another section unexpectedly gave way, and came down with a crash. Two of the colored painters, Robert Phinney and John Stewart, were at work almost immediately under the staying, and narrowly escaped being buried in the ruins. RIVERS AND MARINE. — Nothing in, inside or outside, down below, for this port. — A cablegram reports the Lady Murid, for this port, homeward bound. — Sch. Sarah L. Davis, Cottrell, for this port, sailed from Belfast on the 19th inst. — The British Brig Amende, which arrived in below on Thursday, was consigned to Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, and was cleared by them. The following foreign vessels have sailed for this port: — Barques—Condor, Nor.; Nellien, Bristol, June 6th; Susie, of Arrossan, Hvosn, Glasgow, June 8. Fritz von der Lanke, Ger., Freeze, Rotterdam, May 20; Kristine, Nor., Jensen, Lisbon, May 27; Galcon, Dan., Kallabor, London, June 14; Jerburn, Nor., Svensen, Bordeaux, June 10; Silo, Nor., Moland, London, June 13; Valerique, Nor., London, June 13; Marie, Ger., Pernien, Waterford, May 17; Ella Moore, Br., Fielding, Liverpool, May 14; Silo, Nor., Blingsen, Cork, May 31; Summer Cloud, Br., Rogers, London, May 18, via Leith; Elizeer, Nor., Fog, Cotte, May 4; Enximus, Nor., Tallaksen, Bruges, May 4; Frank, Nor., Christoffersen, Madeira, April 22; Normad, Nor., Svensen, Antwerp, February 3; Normandy, of Plecton, O'Neill, Goolie, April 20; Valtur, Nor., Elletson, Galis, April 7. — Brigs—Azha, Nor.; Hanger, Liverpool, May 18; Rosolote, of Leith, Lawrence, London, May 17; Mins, Nor., Cornalissen, Liverpool, May 18; Der Pommer, Ger., Rotterdam, May 8; Dians, Nor., Sunonson, Copenhagen, April 24; Gein, Br., Richardson, Bristol, May 6; Hermod, Nor., Petersen, Glasgow, March 23.

Thermometer Record.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.51 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Atlanta, 83; Key West, 83; Augusta, 80; Mobile, 85; Charleston, 84; Montgomery, 93; Charlotte, 89; New Orleans, 85; Corcoran, 96; Punta Rasa, 84; Galveston, 87; Savannah, 86; Havana, 83; St. Marks, 91; Indianola, 89; Wilmington, 82; Jacksonville, 84. THE TRAILS. The mails close and arrive at the City Post Office as follows: CLOSE. Northern through mails, 7:45 P. M. Northern through and way 6:30 A. M. Mails for N. C. Railroad, and routes supplied therefrom, including A. & N. C. Railroad, at 6:30 A. M. Southern mails for all points South, daily, 7:30 A. M. Western mails (C. C. Ry.) daily (except Sunday), 6:00 P. M. Mail for Cheraw & Darlington Railroad, 7:45 P. M. Mails for points on the W. & A. R. R. and Charleston, 7:30 A. M. Fayetteville, and offices on Cape Fear River, Tuesdays and Fridays, 1:00 P. M. Fayetteville via Lumberton, daily, except Sundays, 6:00 P. M. Onslow C. H. and intermediate offices every Friday, 6:00 A. M. Smithville mails, by steamboat daily (except Sundays), 2:00 P. M. Mails for Easy Hill, Town Creek and Shallotte, every Friday at 6:00 A. M. Wilmington and Lisbon, Mondays and Fridays at 6:00 A. M. Northern through mails, 9:00 A. M. Northern through and way 7:00 A. M. Southern mails, 7:00 A. M. Carolina Central Railroad, 10:25 A. M. Stamp Office open from 8 A. M. to 12 M., and from 2 to 5:30 P. M. Money order and Register Department open same as stamp office. General delivery open from 8:30 A. M. to 6:30 P. M., and on Sundays from 8:30 to 9:30 A. M. Stamps for sale at general delivery when stamp office is closed. Mails collected from street boxes every day at 4:00 P. M. Quarterly Meetings—Third Round—for the Wilmington District, N. E. Church, South. Bible, at South Chapel, June 28, 29, 30. Whiteville at Cherry Creek, June 28, 29. Cobarr Mission, at Black's Chapel, July 12, 13. Whiteville at Cherry Creek, July 17, 18. Brunswick, at Bethel, 10:25 A. M. Wilmington, Fifth Street, July 26, 27. Wilmington, Front Street, July 26, 27. Waccamaw Mission, at Bethel, Aug. 2, 3. Waccamaw Mission, at Bethel, Aug. 2, 3. Topsail, Aug. 2, 3. Onslow, Aug. 16, 17. Brunswick, at Bethel, Aug. 16, 17. Church, Clinton Circuit, on Thursday, July 17th, at 10:30 A. M. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev. John Tildesley. L. S. BURKHEAD, Presiding Elder.

Table with 2 columns: Rate of advertisement, Price. Includes rates for one square, one day, one week, one month, one year.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Wilmington Telephone Exchange. CENTRAL STATION AT Office Western Union Telegraph Com'y. THE ATTENTION OF PARTIES CONTEMPORATING the use of Telephones, is called to the advantages offered by the WILMINGTON TELEPHONE EXCHANGE, and to the extensive connections with all the principal points and the principal merchants in Wilmington, as indicated by the following list of subscribers: New York Steamship Company; Boatwright & McCoy, Grocers; Carolina Central Railway; E. E. Heide, Norwegian and Danish Consul; A. H. Van Bokkelen, Commission Merchant; at Union Distilleries; George Myers, Grocer; Atlantic Coast Line; Graham Davis, Soliciting Agent Atlantic Coast Line; W. H. Bernard, Esq., Residence; Southern Express Office; Morning Star Office; E. G. Barker & Co., Commission Merchants; DeRoset & Co., Commission Merchants; Parcell House; Wilder & Morton, Distillery; J. R. Blossom & Evans, Distillery; Office; Kennan & Forhee, Brokers; Hall & Pearsall, Commission Merchants; Atlantic Coast Line Distillery, west side of river; John A. Tarrentine, Broker; W. P. Casaday, Collector, Custom House; Residence; T. J. Southland, Livestock; Northrup & Camming, Wilmington Steam Saw and Planing Mill; John E. Crow, Broker; Samuel Northrup, Insurance Agent; Wilmington Cotton Mills; Willard Bros., Commission Merchants; Paterson, Downing & Co., West Side of River; Jos. B. Worth, Commission Merchant; G. Honey & Son, Commission Merchants; Preston, Camming & Co., Steam Flour and Grist Mill; Alfred Martin, Commission Merchant; Harding Johnson, Commission Merchant; Geo. H. Kelley, Broker; Western Union Telegraph Office; Alex. Sprunt & Son, Commission Merchants, English Consulate; First National Bank; U. S. Signal Office; Cassidy & Ross, Ship Yard; Dr. W. J. Love, Residence; Harris & Howell, Commission Merchants; Cobarr & Co., Steam Saw and Planing Mill; C. P. Mebane, Commission Merchant; A. H. Van Bokkelen, Esq., Residence; Wilmington Compress Company; Chamber of Commerce; Produce Exchange; Navian Gasco Company Office. This Exchange furnishes each subscriber with private wire, and one of Edison's Untrival Telephones. The Telephones for this Exchange are now arriving and will be put up early next week. L. A. ANGEL, Agent.

Baby Cradle Hammocks.

BEAUTIFUL, SIMPLE, STRONG, HEALTHY. This Cradle is far superior to the ordinary Cradle. It can be folded and carried in the hand, or in a small trunk. A great advantage for Travellers, Tourists, &c. The Cradle with Hammock weighs only five pounds, and supports a hundred pound weight. Useful in all seasons of the year, especially in the Summer. It is made of very fine Black Walnut, and handsomely finished. Also, MEXICAN GRASS HAMMOCKS, full length, White and Black. For sale at HEINBERGER'S, Nos. 39 and 41 Market St. J. WERNER & H. O. PREMERT, THE WELL KNOWN GERMAN BARBERS AND HAIR DRESSERS, have, owing to the stringency of money, concluded to REDUCE THE PRICE of their cutting to 25c; Shampooing to 35c; and Washers Drying to 50c and upwards. No. 7 SOUTH and No. 11 NORTH BROAD STS. J. 25 1/2

Meal, Corn, &c.

400 Bags VIRGINIA MEAL. 1000 Bush White and Mixed Corn. Also, Meal, Molasses, Flour, Coffee, Sugar, Lye, Crackers, Soda, Tobacco, Starch, Soap, &c. For sale at No. 2 and 3 South Water St. J. 25 1/2

PARKER'S GINGER TONIC.

SCOTT'S EMULSION. WINDHAM'S HYPOPHOSPHATES, SOZODONT FOR THE TEETH. LUMBER'S ROSE and VIOLET POWDER. BAY RUM, &c. For sale low at GREEN & FLANNER'S. J. 25 1/2

Notice.

WILL BE SOLD, ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 3rd, 1879, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the Auction Rooms of Messrs. Conly & Morris, on Water St., a LOT OF FINE BLEND GOODS remaining in the Office of the Southern Express Company. Consignees are advised to call promptly or Goods will be sold for charges. J. 25 1/2

Carolina Central Railway.

GENERAL PASSENGER DEPT., WILMINGTON, June 11, '79. ROUND TRIP TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE to all points in Western North Carolina at GREATLY REDUCED RATES, over this Line, either via Statesville or Spartanburg. COMFORTABLE SLEEPING CARS, and satisfaction guaranteed. For further information apply to F. W. CLARK, Gen'l Passenger Agent. J. 25 1/2

Our Shirt Manufacturer.

REORDER YOURS (AND DOZ.) SOLD AHEAD. In other parts of the country, as well as WILMINGTON, we are now making a special lot of our "KING OF SHIRTS" in all sizes. It is DISTANCE ALL, COMFORTABLE, ONLY $1.00. All complete. MUNSON. J. 25 1/2