Frank Hyde, of the American team, is ahead at the prize shooting at Wimbledon, England, at 1,000 yards; Morse, another American, is ahead at 800 yards; Hyde and six others made the highest possible score at 900 yards. Ex-Senator Ramsey, of Miss., has been offered, and accepted, the position of Secretary of War as the successor of McCrary. Comptroller General Goldsmith, of Ga., is to be impeached. Biographies of the late Col. Alston were made in the Georgia Legislature yesterday. James V. Nethers, a South Carolinian, suicided at Atlanta yesterday. The Republican carried the city election at Jacksonville, Fla., Thursday. Latest advices from South Africa, from British sources, express confidence that the war can be closed this season. The brig Shasta, recently arrived at Philadelphia, had yellow fever on board. The New York Greenbackers' Convention at Utica on the 28th of August. A $30,000 fire at Sea Bright, N. J., yesterday. The very latest news from Memphis shows three new cases and that business is suspended, even to the closing of some of the banks. Galveston is adopting the most stringent policy to prevent the introduction of yellow fever into its borders. The will of Mrs. Dorsey, bequeathing to Jefferson Davis money and property, to the amount of $230,000, is to be contested. New York markets: Money easy at 2 1/2 per cent; Cotton quiet at 11 1/2 cts; Flour dull and a shade lower; wheat 1 1/4 cent lower; winter red $1 10 1/2; corn 3 1/2 cts; lower; degraded 49 1/2 cts; spinners' turpentine dull at 37 3/4 cts; resin 1 1/2 cts.

Twelve thousand people met at Stony Point on the Hudson River on the 16th to celebrate the centennial of the battle at that place. It was a big time. Gov. Hawley, of Connecticut (a native of North Carolina) delivered the oration. We are pleased at this, for no troops contributed more to the splendid victory than those from North Carolina. Among the number of Generals present was Gen. Hancock. The Mississippi Board of Health intend to quarantine the entire State. Spirits Turpentine. Miss Sarah C. Headin died at Philadelphia on the 14th. Ireddell is to have a special term of the Superior Court. Mr. Rufus L. Patterson's life was insured for $40,000. Mr. Jesse Brown, of Raleigh, is no better. His death is looked for. On the 10th Saturday the thermometer stood at 104 at Washington. Charlotte is enjoying but few mosquitoes this year. The fellow said his wife enjoyed bad health. Rev. John R. Brooks, of New Bern, by invitation, will address the Normal School at the University. The editor of the Charlotte Observer pays warm and deserved tributes to his two excellent collaborators, Messrs. J. P. Caldwell and J. L. Chambers. Revenue collections in the Fifth District for the week ending July 13, $16,000; for June, $72,010; for year ending June 30th, $1,064,463. An increase of $366,431. Col. R. P. Armfield, who represents the Seventh District in Congress, recently addressed his constituents at Statesville on what Congress had done during his recent extra session. The Charlotte Observer tells how a cat got choked in Ireddell and was relieved. A man caught the thief, threw it down with his neck across a log, and then took a hammer and mashed the apple, causing immediate relief. Greensboro State, Rep. Judge Dillard came home last Friday to put in the 4th and Sunday with his family. He is looking well better as may be seen by his winning place in the public estimation as one of the very best Judges that has ever sat on our Supreme Court Bench. Asheville Citizen: Last Friday evening Mr. Louis Carby, a member of the Elk Mountain Fly Fishing Company, was bathing in a pond on the mountains, in water some fifteen feet deep, and while swimming with his little boy on his back, was seized with cramp and drowned. The little boy was rescued. Farmer & Mechanic: The Charlotte Observer says Col. Walter L. Steele is under promise not to run next time for Congress. He has a name to contend with, Gen. R. B. Vance. Folks are wondering if it be true that Hon. James L. Robinson and Gen. Vance are to exchange chances, that is the former to go to Congress and the latter to go to the State. Gen. Robinson is a native of Pennsylvania and is 65 years of age. He will be an old tar. The man in Brooklyn, N. Y., who had the yellow fever, as some of the knowing doctors supposed, was only suffering from a violent attack of bilious colic. A trip to Havana would be beneficial to those physicians. Ten thousand persons witnessed the six days' walking match in San Francisco. The people of this country are either very rich or very lazy. Edwards made 37 1/2 miles and won the belt and the $1000 purse. McIntire, second, making 38 1/2 miles, securing $750. Bowman 35 1/2 miles, and getting $500. There were twelve contestants. According to that representative organ, the Philadelphia Press, there is deep seated alarm lest Southerners capture the thirty-seven vacancies in the grade of second Lieutenant in the army. It would be terrible. How easily alarmed are your "truly loyal" there were not so many trials for indecent and unofficer-like conduct in the army when Southern officers abandoned.

The Duke of Argyll, Lorne's father, is well pleased with what he saw in Canada, and draws strong hope as to its future. He also contrasts its solid progress with that of the United States, and not flattering to the latter. The New York Graphic reports him as saying in reply to a question concerning the future of the Dominion: "The growth of the Dominion, while far less rapid than that of the United States has been far more solid and substantial. You can see illustrations of this in the very streets and buildings of its cities. Here you often and even generally run up slowly and substantially edifices, grander than handsome or imposing, and which seem built more as the temporary abodes of an international fair than as the solid work which is to last, not for a day, but for generations. The Duke, during the few busy hours he spent among us, took occasion to frequently express his admiration on the one side for what seemed to him to merit it, and equally judicious criticism upon such phases of life in the metropolis as struck him as being unwholesome, unpleasing, and not calculated to promote the greatest good of the greatest number." But His Grace is in favor of Grant for the next President.

Weldon News: The Baptist Church in this place is completed and will be dedicated on Sunday next, the 20th. Rev. Dr. McDonald, of Richmond, Va., will preach the dedication sermon at 11 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Scotland Neck, died on the 13th inst. Mr. Camp was in the prime of life. Several darkays from this county left for Kansas this week. Six came through here last Tuesday morning. A school where they expect to take advantage of the cheap boat to Washington. Two negroes committed for trial, at the next term of court, broke out of jail in Halifax Sunday night. When the jailer went in one of them threw some lime in his eyes and blinded him so that he could not see them, and the two made their escape. A third one attempted to leave, but the jailer caught him in the door and held him fast until assistance arrived. A reward is offered for the fugitives by Sheriff Dawson. Elizabeth City Economist: Farmers are all right now—good seasons, good crops, and good prices were good. On Friday evening, while swimming in the river near this place, Frank Lyons, aged 15 years, son of Capt. Wm. Lyons, was drowned. Departed this life, on Saturday morning, at his residence in this place, James D. Hartwig, a few days ago. Mr. Hartwig, aged 11 years, son of Mr. M. H. Hartwig, died at Poyner's Landing, near his father's house. He fell from a boat and a large vessel, and did not rise to the surface again. Mr. W. A. Dunn, of Scotland Neck, who was denounced in a card by Mr. W. F. Batcher, an unwholesome letter in the STAR, has published the correspondence in the Weldon News. The following is from his final letter: "You wrote a letter in which you made grave charges against a friend of mine, and you made no charges against you. I pronounce the charges which you made false. I still believe them to be false. Now, before I will ever retract or even modify my assertions in any manner, you are false, you must first show me that your charges are true. When this is done to my satisfaction, or to the satisfaction of the public or to the satisfaction of any gentleman, I will not only retract, but I shall deem it my duty to publicly acknowledge that I have done you a great wrong. But until you do prove your charges to be true, my own opinion is that you have no right to demand a retraction from me, or to be in any way vindicated by me." Goldsboro Mail: A destructive storm swept over that portion of Johnston county lying near Clayton last Sunday. A note from Mr. Olive informs us that three deaths have taken place there within the last few days. One of the victims, a colored man, brought three pecks of turnip seed to town last Monday, and when he handed them to one of our grocers to sell for him he remarked that they were "a few he had left over."

Local Notes. A cistern is being constructed at the County Poor House. No cases for the Mayor's consideration yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Boyle, of Wadesboro, will officiate in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at the usual hours to-morrow. The excursion yesterday, under the auspices of Prof. Augustus, was altogether a pleasant affair and well patronized. It was reported, late last night, that the body of the seaman, whose drowning is mentioned elsewhere, had been recovered. We are requested to announce that Rev. J. W. Craig will conduct the religious services at Dudley's Grove to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock. The case of Sam Pickett, for making an assault with a deadly weapon upon Maria Covington, on Tuesday morning last, will be heard before the Mayor's Court this morning. John Sanford, colored, sent to jail on Monday last for non-payment of the costs in Justice Grady's Court, for refusing to work on the roads in Cape Fear Township, was released yesterday. Said Sanford, we understand, not being of age. Thursday Night's Story. The storm of Thursday night, which gave us the go-by, is reported to have been very severe along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, between Magnolia and Goldsboro, doing considerable damage to crops, fences, trees, etc., besides destroying quite a number of telegraphic poles. At the Sounds there was a good fall of rain and a heavy wind. Persons who were present represent the electrical display to have been grand beyond all efforts at description, especially as viewed seaward. The flashes were incessant, and at times almost blinding. Just before the storm burst the beach grass at Manteo broke was noticed to be on fire, but the rain soon commenced and put an end to the conflagration. As persons were coming up from the Sounds yesterday morning they noticed that the nearer they approached the city the less indications there were of rain. Here the fall was not sufficient to lay the dust. Excursion to the Mountains. A grand excursion to the mountains is announced to take place from this city on Thursday, July 31st, leaving Wilmington at 9 o'clock A. M. on that day, and returning, leaving Henry's on Monday, the 4th of August, and arriving here the following day. A special coach will be provided for ladies, and every effort will be made to render the excursion pleasant to all who participate in it. A trip to the mountains, and a view of the grand and beautiful scenery which is spread out like a panorama before the eyes of the visitor, will much more than repay for the comparatively small outlay required to enjoy the privilege. The excursion will be made under the management of Mr. W. A. McLean. Accidentally Drowned. A young seaman by the name of John, belonging to the Norwegian brig, Diana, lying on the west side of the river, accidentally fell overboard between the vessel and the wharf yesterday afternoon, about half past 4 o'clock, and was drowned. It is supposed that in going down his head must have come in contact with the piling of the wharf, as he was an excellent swimmer and could easily have saved himself if the proper effort had been made. His shipmates and others hurried to the rescue, but the unfortunate man was not seen to rise to the surface. Efforts were then commenced to recover the body by dragging for it, but at last accounts it had not been recovered. Deceased was a native of Sweden. A Strange Scene in a Notorious Place. We are reliably informed that the city prison was yesterday the theatre of a rather extraordinary train of events. It was nothing more nor less than the profession of Sam Pickett, who lately committed the murderous assault upon the colored woman, Maria Covington, of conversion from his wicked ways. He made loud professions of religious fervor, and together with the somewhat notorious Wm. Pinney and another imprisoned spirit, made things lively in the cells of that institution. They indulged, we are told, in singing, praying, and in other wise and proper exercises. They greatly need to reform and turn to good works, and we only hope that their friends and the community may find their repentance to be genuine. They are reprobates whom nothing but grace can save.

Save money and time by getting Bell's Baltimore Pills always on hand, and giving them to the numerous families which more or less trouble diseases which follow everywhere. Price 25 cents. A cistern is being constructed at the County Poor House. No cases for the Mayor's consideration yesterday morning. Rev. Mr. Boyle, of Wadesboro, will officiate in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at the usual hours to-morrow. The excursion yesterday, under the auspices of Prof. Augustus, was altogether a pleasant affair and well patronized. It was reported, late last night, that the body of the seaman, whose drowning is mentioned elsewhere, had been recovered. We are requested to announce that Rev. J. W. Craig will conduct the religious services at Dudley's Grove to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, commencing at 4 o'clock. The case of Sam Pickett, for making an assault with a deadly weapon upon Maria Covington, on Tuesday morning last, will be heard before the Mayor's Court this morning. John Sanford, colored, sent to jail on Monday last for non-payment of the costs in Justice Grady's Court, for refusing to work on the roads in Cape Fear Township, was released yesterday. Said Sanford, we understand, not being of age. Thursday Night's Story. The storm of Thursday night, which gave us the go-by, is reported to have been very severe along the line of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, between Magnolia and Goldsboro, doing considerable damage to crops, fences, trees, etc., besides destroying quite a number of telegraphic poles. At the Sounds there was a good fall of rain and a heavy wind. Persons who were present represent the electrical display to have been grand beyond all efforts at description, especially as viewed seaward. The flashes were incessant, and at times almost blinding. Just before the storm burst the beach grass at Manteo broke was noticed to be on fire, but the rain soon commenced and put an end to the conflagration. As persons were coming up from the Sounds yesterday morning they noticed that the nearer they approached the city the less indications there were of rain. Here the fall was not sufficient to lay the dust. Excursion to the Mountains. A grand excursion to the mountains is announced to take place from this city on Thursday, July 31st, leaving Wilmington at 9 o'clock A. M. on that day, and returning, leaving Henry's on Monday, the 4th of August, and arriving here the following day. A special coach will be provided for ladies, and every effort will be made to render the excursion pleasant to all who participate in it. A trip to the mountains, and a view of the grand and beautiful scenery which is spread out like a panorama before the eyes of the visitor, will much more than repay for the comparatively small outlay required to enjoy the privilege. The excursion will be made under the management of Mr. W. A. McLean. Accidentally Drowned. A young seaman by the name of John, belonging to the Norwegian brig, Diana, lying on the west side of the river, accidentally fell overboard between the vessel and the wharf yesterday afternoon, about half past 4 o'clock, and was drowned. It is supposed that in going down his head must have come in contact with the piling of the wharf, as he was an excellent swimmer and could easily have saved himself if the proper effort had been made. His shipmates and others hurried to the rescue, but the unfortunate man was not seen to rise to the surface. Efforts were then commenced to recover the body by dragging for it, but at last accounts it had not been recovered. Deceased was a native of Sweden. A Strange Scene in a Notorious Place. We are reliably informed that the city prison was yesterday the theatre of a rather extraordinary train of events. It was nothing more nor less than the profession of Sam Pickett, who lately committed the murderous assault upon the colored woman, Maria Covington, of conversion from his wicked ways. He made loud professions of religious fervor, and together with the somewhat notorious Wm. Pinney and another imprisoned spirit, made things lively in the cells of that institution. They indulged, we are told, in singing, praying, and in other wise and proper exercises. They greatly need to reform and turn to good works, and we only hope that their friends and the community may find their repentance to be genuine. They are reprobates whom nothing but grace can save.
