Poor Memphis a little while ago was confident that the fever would soon end. Now it has no hopes that it can be checked before frost.

The black population "kicked up" at the idea of being forced to leave Memphis. The mortality reports show that they are paying very dearly for their folly.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, AUGUST 10, 1879.

WHOLE NO. 3,742

The STAR is obliged to the Elizabeth City Reconomist for the kind mention, and would be glad to shake hands with its editor. As to that "Junius" matter of long ago it is all right. There was no spite in the Economist's fun. It is not the fun we mind, but the malice that sometimes prompts the fan. It asks us if the following "is good Shakespeare":

"Seen him put the table on the roar." It is not the correct reading nor is t by Shakespeare. In Garrick's fine ines on the actor Quin you will find the following: That tongue which set the table on a roar. And charm'd the public car, is heard no

Some of our exchanges appear to be incapable of writing STAR after editorials taken from this paper. If they copy two lines from other dailies. they will give credit, but a quarter or half column from the STAR stands no showing. Our smaller items are pirated without stint. Street Fight Between Two Virginia

Editors. [Special Telegram to the Dispatch.] ABINGDON, VA., August 7 .- About o'clock, this morning, as Mr. Harris, ditor of the Standard, was passing up the street on the side opposite the Colonnade Hotel, Mr. Ward, editor of the Virginian, crossed for the purpose of calling Mr. Harris to account for an editorial which appeared in the Standard, when an affray ensued. Pistols were drawn, Mr. Ward's snapping, and the parties closing. During the souffle Ward received a slight erfered. Both parties were bound over to keep the peace.

Mayor's Court.

Before Acting Mayor Bowden, yesterday morning, Moses Hansley, colored, was arraigned on the charge of acting disorderly on the streets, in the neighborhood of Boney Bridge, yesterday morning, about 3 o'clock. Upon being arrested by Officer Capps he commenced a stubborn resistance. at the same time cursing and abusing the officers, and it took five men to take him to the guard house. He was ordered to pay a fine of $20 or be imprisoned for thirty days. Richard Bowen, colored, was charged with disorderly conduct. It seems that he purchased a five cent watermelon from a cart owned by Prince Nixon. Finding that it was partially green he carried it back and demanded another. He was told that he could exchange it, but instead of taking a five cent melon he picked out a large one. Nixon told him to put it back or he would indict him, upon which he put the melon in the cart and then stepped back, drew a large rock from his pocket, and threatened to brain the melon man if he didn't return his money. The latter then called for a policeman, and Officer Biddle took Bowen "in out of the wet." He was ordered to pay a fine of $2.50 or be locked up in a cell for fifteen days, where, instead of eating watermelon, he will have an opportunity to "chew the cud of sweet and bitter fancy."

The Law in Regard to Jurors. The new law in regard to jurors, which excuses those from service who have been on the jury at any time during the two years preceding, may do very well in the Superior Courts of the State, but it operates badly in the Criminal Court of New Hanover county, which meets six times a year. This fact was demonstrated during the term just closed when, in a capital case that was tried, it was almost impossible to get a jury because of the fact that so many of the special venire, when asked if they flesh wound in the left side. where- had been on the jury in that Court during upon Mr. Harris was thrown to the the past two years, replied that they had. 11 o'cleck, a. m., and 71 o'clock, p. m. gutter, and might have been serious- Ex-Judge Russell gave it as his opinion when the institution of the Lord's supper ly injured had not the bystanders in- that it was only intended to apply to the will be administered by Rev. J. P. King. child. the Court and the legal fraternity generally would have been only too glad to have accepted that construction of the enactment, while at the same time the wording of the law seemed to forbid such a view of its requirements. The opinion of the law, as expressed by the Court and some of the gentlemen of the Bar, was not very flattering to the same nor to those who were instrumental in getting it upon the statute books of the State. Legislation in such matters has very generally resulted in a disadvantage to Wilmington while benefiting, perhaps, other portions of the Commonwealth.

An Unruly Prisoner-A Desperate Struggle. One of the twin Baker brothers-Isaac, it is thought, for they are so near alike it is difficult to tell them apart-was arrested on the wharf near the foot of Princess street, yesterday morning, on the charge of acting disorderly. He went a short distance very quietly with officer Bryant, who had him in charge, and then suddenly stopped and swore he would go no further. Assistance was called, when the prisoner commenced struggling, cursing, fighting and kicking, making it necessary finally to call a horse and dray into requisition to convey him to the guard house, and then the police had to hold him on the dray. Arrived in the City Hall yard the officers were obliged to place handcuffs on Baker, who is a powerful fellow, before he could be removed from the dray and placed in the cell. In the struggle which ensued the prisoner attempted to tear the badge from Officer Biddle's coat, at the same time biting him in two or three places, for which he got a severe crack on the head from the officer's club. Baker has been in several such scrapes before, and has been a great source of trouble to the policemen. Considerable excitement was created on the streets by his conduct yesterday.

A Fall in Melone. A horse attached to a melon cart rai way over the railroad yesterday morning, soon after which the vehicle came in contact with a tree, demolishing the cart and sending the "watter-millions" spinning about the streets, in some instances bursting them and spilling their juicy contents in the sand. Then there was a scramble between "Young America" and "Young Africa" to see which should get the biggest "chunk."

mprovements. The repairing of the building, foot of Market street, owned by Mr. H. B. Eilers, which was damaged by the fire of July 6th, is going on thoroughly and rapidly. The roof has been repaired, and the floors and oists are being relaid. When the wood work has been completed the building will be painted of a brown stone color, and the window sills and lintels of sand stone. The upper floor will be thrown into one large room for the use of societies as a hall. The second story will be occupied by the owner as an office, and will be but little changed. The store on the lower floor will be somewhat enlarged, all the material used in the flooring, ceiling, shelving, &c., will be of the best, and the plastering will all be new. The old fashion shutters will be done away with, and instead iron window guards, with fancy tops, will be used. The repairs and improvements will cost about $2,000. Mr. J. H. Hanby, who is superintending the work, assures Mr. Eilers that he never has seen a stronger timbered and anchored building, from the foundation to its top, and that hardly one in a thousand can be found; hence it stood the powerful explosion which perhaps no other building in the city would have resisted. It will be ready in a month or six weeks, at the farthest, for occupation.

New Smithville Packet. The yacht Elizabeth is now running regularly between this port and Smithville.

Capt. Dick Paddison, who purchased her some months since, has fitted her up in fine style, and a gentleman who was one of the passengers on the experimental trip made Friday afternoon says she runs splendidly and makes good time. She is licensed to carry forty passengers, and is expected to run the distance between the two places in two hours. She will leave each afternoon and return in the morning.

Religious News. There has been a religious revival in the Second Baptist Church during the past three weeks, during which about forty persons have connected themselves with the church. The meetings will be continued during the next week, and long should the interest continue. About thirty candidates rived at New York, yesterday, from this will be immersed at the foot of Queen street this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

To-Day's Indications. For the South Atlantic States, continued cool, partly cloudy weather local rains, rising barometer, and northerly to easterly winds.

Anniversary Celebration. The members of Germania Lodge, No. 4. K. of P., will assemble in their Castle Hall, on Third street, this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, for the purpose of celebrating the eighth anniversary of their Lodge.

After the delivery of an address congratulatory to the brethren, the members will proceed in a body to Oakdale Cemetery, where the graves of their departed brethren will be decorated, the Prelate of the Lodge, Mr. W. F. Wenzel, officiating.

The following are the names of the members of No. 4, who have died since the organization of the Lodge:

H. Haar, Jr., Henry Bremer, William Hottendorf, H. Lafrenz, H. Kokowsky, A. C. H. Fincken, John C. Koch, William Hergog, C. F. Burkhardt, M. D.

This may be considered a novel way of celebrating an anniversary, but it is certainly very appropriate, as nothing can be more touching and beautiful than the custom of decorating with flowers the graves of those we love or have held in high esteem, when ther it be done by societies or individuals.

Criminal Court. Very little business was done by this tribunal yesterday, the jury cases having all been disposed of on Friday.

Charles Brown alias Chas. Robinson, convicted of larceny, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. Delafate Towers, convicted of assault and battery, was ordered to pay a fine of $50 and the costs, in default of which he went to jail. The Court heard a few motions, passed upon several magistrates' bills, and adfourned for the term shortly before noon. Mortuary.
