Sprague says Mrs. S is not guilty Well, if he is satisfied the country will try to be. We wonder what Conkling says about it.

The Rochester (N. Y.) Express says Secretary Evarts is certainly in the field for the Republican Gubernatorial nomination. His friends believe he can get the nomination.

If old man Jesse Drake, of Nash county, could come back to life and read the accounts of him in the "big dailies," he would make the woods howl. He is a "bigger man" dead than he ever was living.

When the Maine Methodists re fused their Church to Parson De La Matyr he "hired a hall," and Republican sheet says he then "wound himself up in a web of rantipole dialectics." When last heard from he was not so well.

Kellogg is in Washington also. He says the Casanave revelations will cause a complete shaking up of all of the Federal officials in New Orleans. We hope the "shaking up" will begin early, continue long and knock the bottom out of all concerned.

New York has a regular dime no vel sensation. A lad named Dell Nestor, aged 16, forged his father's name for $1,024, ran away with a young lady, and was arrested at Geneva, N. Y. He is now in jail, but the sweetheart's whereabouts are not known.

The Richmond (Va.) State, referring to what the STAR has to say in reply to its remarks about the commerce of Wilmington, expresses itself in the following hearty words:

"We did not and do not intend to reflect "We did not and do not intend to reflect in any manner whatever on the seaports of the old North State, or their ability to do the trade of that State. That the trade of Wilmington is larger than that of any other Souther Souther Atlantic port and constantly increasing, we rejoice to hear, and hope that that city may go on prospering and to prosper. Richmond, at least, will not be jealous of her greatness nor envy her good fortune."

VOL. XXIV.--NO. 128.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1879.

Uncle Samuel Tilden is taking the ! Tammany bill by the horns. He is said to favor the total exclusion from the State Convention of the whole Tammany set. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia

Ledger says: "The process is to elect a complete set of delegates pledged to the renomination of Governor Robinson, and to recognize these as 'regular,' though permission will be given to the Tammany delegates to occupy seats in the ball without the privilege of voting, but with the privilege, if they choose, of making the nomination unani-The anti-Tammany men who are depended upon to execute this programme have already been selected, and it is needless to add that they are persons who will go to the Convention fully impressed with the responsibilities thus placed upon them, physically as well as politically. Mr. Kelly and his friends have discovered this ar-rangement, and they do not hesitate to characterize it as 'Tilden's last plot.' They say, moreover, they are bound to go to the Convention, and will not submit to be thrust out in this style."

It begins to look as if a bit of compromise would be healthy in New York just now. The Tammanyites vote largely, and it might turn out that without them Tilden's candidate cannot be elected. Then what?

According to the New York Times of the 18th, ex Gov. Sprague is by no means satisfied with the correctness of Mrs. Sprague's version of the difficulty. Conkling had no real business at Sprague's house. Sprague showed how he viewed the intrusions. Conkling is accused of acting "ungentlemanly, impudently and cowardly." The Times savs:

"Ex-Governor Sprague does not consider the affair ended. He thinks himself outraged by the Senator, and demands satisfaction. It is freely stated among responsible people, that Senator Congling has compromised Mrs. Sprague's honor, not criminally, but socially, and that he ought to restore her good name and fame. A statement is therefore expected from Sena-Conkling and it is hoped that he wi restore to Mrs. Sprague what he has taken from her-her domestic peace and her good name as a wife who may have been wronged by her husband, but who has remained faithful to her vows."

A strong reaction has taken place in England in favor of Lieut. Carey. He has been badly dealt with, no doubt, and the English sense of fair play is carrying his admirers possibly to the other extreme. First, he was to be shot, when the Queen and the bereaved ex Express interfered in his behalf, it is said. Now he is to have a "reception" on his return and is to be the recipient of "a testimonial." Wherein he is to be specially blamed we have not been able to see. But we have given before the views of foreign military writers, who do not censure his conduct.

William O. Moseley, Jr., a young physician of Boston, lost his life while descending the Matterhorn, in Switzerland. A correspondent of the London Times writes:

"Dr. Moseley had safely accomplished the ascent of the Matterborn. On return-ing, and when near the cabin, which is used as a resting place, he loosened him-self from the rope uniting him to his com-panion. He had hardly done so when he made a false step, lest his footing, and glided down the steep ice slope, making frantic efforts to stop himself by grasping at projecting rocks. The next moment he disappeared over the precipice falling on disappeared over the precipice, falling on the glacier opposite Riffel, between Hoe-zenli and the St. Theodoli Pass, where the body lies, completely stripped of clothing by the rapidity of its descent."

We fear trouble is ahead for the Democratic party. Bob Ingersoll, the Radical infidel, threatens to secede and unite his fortunes with the Democratic party. What has that party ever done to be threatened with such a fearful visitation? We trust Bob will remain in affiliation with his old friends. They alone can appreciate him.

- Newton Enterprise: The meet ing which began at Rock Spring camp ground, Lincoln county, last Friday night, closed Wednesday. We are informed that the attendance this year was larger than usual. Miss Painter, the Quaker revivalist, preached several sermons during the meetng. One young man was "scooped in" for appearing on the ground in a somewhat comatose state and fined $50. Generally speaking the order was very good.

- Winston Leader: Our people selieve in building up North Carolina towns, and especially do we desire to be united with Wilmington by the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., but if the Directors of the Company see fit to run their road around Winston, our people will unite with Virginia by the extension of the Mooresville road to Danville. Winston has subscribed $20,000 in cash to the Cape Fear road, and if this, with our business facilities, is ignored, we will seek other lines.

- Winston Sentinel: A. B. Gorrell, of this place, has been elected Chief Marshal of the ensuing State Fair, by the Executive Committee of the N. C. Agricultural Society. — We are sorry to learn of the death of James Hill, of Stokes couny, which took place on last Friday. Stokes had no better citizen than uncle Jimmie Hill. —Samuel Drake, white, convicted in Davie county of embezzlement, and sentenced to the Penitentiary in September, 1878, has been released.

- Asheville Courier: There is an old gentleman 70 years old, living not far from town, who has never taken a drink of whiskey, a chew of tobacco, nor been inside of a court-house. — Our regular term of Court begins Monday. Judge Mo-Koy—one of North Carolina's purest men —is to preside this time. — We are not particularly interested above Greensboro (as to C. F. & Y. V. The final determination of that question will give us ease, and, if it is determined justly and wisely, it will be in our favor and a stimulus that will quicken every energy and infuse life into every enterprise of old Randolph.

- New Berne Democrat: We are credibly informed that there is a farm in the neighborhood of the lakes, on the railroad, about ten miles below this city, upon road, about ten miles below this city, upon which rice is growing, producing heads thirteen inches long, and ears of corn measuring over twelve inches. The Works at New Iniet. In a note to Mr. A. H. VanBokkelen, President of the Chamber of Commerce, of Wednesday's date, Assistant Engineer Bacon, of our Bar and River Improvement, says: "I examined the dam carefully yesterday, at low water slack, throughout its whole length, and find that there is no real damage done even at the lowest places. These are just about to the level of low water, and the lowest places are the widest. So the only trouble is in the extra labor in unloading the stone and putting them in
