WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 23, 1879.

According to Lieutenant Governor

Dorsheimer, of New York, Uncle
Sammy Tilden is in a bad way physically. He says he has lost the use of

- Smithfield correspondent of the Raleigh News: Three prisoners made their escape from the county jail at this place on Tuesday night, — The Rev. W. P. Herman of the M. E. Church has just closed a very interesting meeting at Prince-ton, this county, during which there were fifty converts added to the church. One began this week at Elizabeth, six miles west of Smithfield.

- Winston Sentinel: Stokes county has been blessed with fine rains falling within the past few days, and the corn and potato crops promise to yield abundantly. Corn is very scarce and high at present, selling at $1 00 per bushel at the stores.

— Hog cholera threatens to reduce the supply of bacon in this section for another Dr. Blackburn's majority after year. In Danbury it has been very fatal, and still continues without abatement. — Little Madison county claims to ship 750,000 pounds of tobacco yearly.

- Charlotte Democrat: But we hope all the colleges of the land will quit making D.D.'s, or L.L.D.'s, or any other sort of a D. or D.D. Let's have peace and good feeling, and more of the good old style "Rev." for our preachers. — We hope Mr. Moore, in revising his School Book History, will remember to mention good and useful North Carolinians whether they were ever officeholders or not. Some of the meanest and worst men have held office, and some of the best refused office

- In looking over the catalogue of Chapel Hill University for 1876-'77 we find out of 94 counties in the State that there are only eleven trustees from counties east of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, and only one from Craven county. Orange and Wake counties take the lead in Davis & Bro., burned a week ago, saved $1,000 out of $3,000, and rethe number of appointees and appear to have more than their share. Wilmington has furnished many students, and so have counties east of the road, and their claims have been strangely overlooked.—X in New Berne Democrat. Mrs. S. J. Martin, millinery, goods

- Greensboro Patriot: There were n New Garden school, last session, ninetysix scholars. — Grapes are abundant and selling in small quantities at four cents a pound. — The forty-seventh session of Greensboro Female College begins to-mor-row. A considerable number of scholars have arrived already. —Mr. R. T. Joyce, of Danbury, has purchased the patent of Kendall's shingle machine, which shaves 30,000 shingles in a day, and leads everything of that kind in this country. - Including children under six years, there are about 1,000 within the city limits.

- Tarboro Southerner: Senator Conkling has had another Kate-astrophe,
—We regret to learn of the sickness of
Dr. R. H. Hargrove, of Robersonville. Much sickness prevails thereabouts. -The Kehukes Association meets with Spring Green Church, three miles from Hamilton, Martin county, on the first Sat-urdsy and Sunday in October next. This is the largest Primitive Baptist Church in the State - Greenville item: The Episcopal Convocation will meet here on Fri day before the fifth Sunday in August and continue in session three days. Ten preachers and seventy-five laymen are expected from a distance. - Goldsboro Mail: A couple of opes were stretched across the sidewalk near one of our churches, just before the close of the services on Sunday night. They were discovered at an opportune moment.

A postal card from Selma states that the colored people are making preparations for a big campeneeting about a mile from that place. — Mrs. Denning, a widow residing on Spruce street, died suddenly on Tuesday afternoon. She complained of slight indisposition, and, lying down, was found to be dead in five minutes. — A resident lawyer and a Snow Hill school teacher met in the pugilistic arena last week, but without any Niagara of gore be-

-Alamance Gleaner: Wilmington thinks that her trade and interest are discriminated against, or likely to be, and there have appeared in her behalf some notably well written communications in the STAR, over the signature of "Junius." — Mrs. Mary Roney and Mrs. Katy Wyatt, both of the northern portion of the county, died last week. They were both very old women, Mrs. Roney being about eighty, and Mrs. Wyatt, as we are informed, having completed her hundredth year last December. We understand that the fact of her remarkable age is authenticated, and as we are a little skeptical about these hundred-year old people, we intend to make some inquiry concerning Mrs. Wyatt's age.

- Charlotte Observer: An teresting revival is now in progress at the Flint Hill Baptist Church, twelve miles south of Charlotte. Up to the 18th inst. thirty-three candidates for baptism had been received. — Dr. Wm. Sloan, who has been very ill for the past ten days, shows signs of improvement. — There is a rumor that Mr. P. M. Hale, late of the Raleigh Observer, will shortly purchase the Fayetteville Gazette. There was recently a rumor to the effect that he would revive the Wilmington Sun. — A postal card from the advance agent of the Goodrich Opera Company, advertised to appear in Charlotte to-night, informs us that it will be impossible for the company to appear here. — Only one brand of smoking tobacco is manufactured in Winston, and that bears the name of "Balaam's Ass." - Goldsboro Messenger: The N. C. Press Association was organized in Goldsboro the 14th of May, 1878.

Mr. J. S. Stewart, a citizen of this town, died yesterday morning from concussion of the brain, sustained on Monday by the falling of a piece of timber on his head while engaged in the building of tobacco barns for Mr. Arnold Borden. Deceased was born in Cumberland county, and was in his 47th year. — The religious revival at Barney Daniel's school house, in Newhope township, was brought to a close on Saturday last, and has resulted in organizing a church with a membership of 37, of which number 29 are new converts. -- Notwithstanding the fact that there are four well patronized free schools in the vicinity of Fremont, we are pleased to learn that the Fremont Institute opened its fall session with 28 scholars, and a prospect of increasing the number. — An interesting protracted meeting is in progress during this week at Piney Grove Church, in New Hope township, under the auspices of Rev. Dr. Closs, assisted by Revs. D. A. Culbreth and E. A. Wright. — We are requested to state that the next Union meeting of the South River Baptist Association will be held with the church at Mt. Elam, Sampson county, commencing Friday before the fifth Sunday in August. — Weldon News: The colored

Baptists in this place are holding their annual revival meeting. — Willie Pittman, son of Mrs. Rosa Pittman, fell from the loft of a stable, whither he went to get costs to research the horses, and broke his arm

Mayor's Court. Virginia Hill, colored, and her son, Charles Hill, were before the Court yesterday morning on the charge of forfeiting their bonds, they having been recognized to appear before the Mayor's Court Thursday morning to answer to a charge of disorderly conduct. The woman plead as an excuse that Justice Hill arrested her on a warrant for the same offence that morning. imposed a fine upon her, sent her to jail, where she remained for about a half hour, and then released her, telling her that she need not report at the City Hall, as he would settle the matter "right there" Witnesses testified to the disorderly conduct of which the defendants had been guilty, especially as to the boy, who was represented as a very bad one, and a constant source of annovance to the people in the neighborhood where this offence occurred, often amusing himself by throwing bricks at houses, people, &c. The Mayor stated that in consequence of the fact that the woman had been tried by Justice Hill, had been sent to jail, and had been confined in the guard house all Thursday night, he would order her discharge. The boy was also released, with a warning as to what route. would be the consequences if he offended again, and on the promise of his mother

New Steamer for the Black River

Trade. A new steamer, constructed for and under the supervision of Captains R. P. Paddison and David Sherman, of Point Caswell, was launched at that place on Thursday last, and christened John Dawson, in honor of our venerable and esteemed fellow-citizen, ex-Mayor Dawson, of this city Her dimensions are 78 feet in length, 16 feet in width of beam, and 4 feet in depth of hold, and she will be furnished with a pair 12x36 inch cylinders. Messrs. Hart, Bailey & Co., of this city, are constructing the engines and other machinery. She will be commanded by Capt. Sherman, and will be run in connection with the steamer Isis on the upper Black River. The new steamer is expected to be ready for work about the first of October ensuing. It is encouraging to see such enterprise being displayed, as it denotes increased business between this city and the Black River section.

Magistrates' Court. John Smith, colored, was arraigned before Justice Hall, yesterday, on the charge of committing assault and battery upon the person of Lydia Cole, colored. Case dismissed on the payment of one penny and the costs, will be tried add ve iv

The same defendant arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Lydia Cole, was or dered to pay the costs and enter inte bond in the sum of $50 to make his appearance and to keep the peace for three months.

And next came John Smith's turn, Lydis Cole being arraigned for assault and battery on his complaint, when judgment was suspended on the payment of costs.

Bristow Bannerman, colored, was before Justice Hill on the charge of assault and battery, and was required to pay a fine of $1 and the costs, in default of which be was committed to jail.

An informal meeting of the New Hanover County Board of Health was held at the Court House in this city last evening, for the purpose of conferring with Dr. A. N. The inspection of the city and the quarantine were alluded to. Of the former he did not speak in very commendable terms, alluding to the want of proper drainage, and to the fact that vegetable refuse is allowed to remain in the street; but this he did not ascribe to any desire to neglect, but that the burden of daily avocations crowds out the knowledge. One thing, he said, astonished him exceedingly, that consumption was one of the most common diseases here—a preventable disease, which is greatly lessened by drainage. He dwelt upon the means of prevention of disease, and urged that a supply of pure water was essential, and that garbage should be placed in barrels to be carted away, instead of thrown in the street. The quarantine and the city ordinance in relation thereto was read and commented upon, and a method of disinfecting a ship by means of superheated steam de

On the whole the remarks of Dr. Bell were considered well-timed, judicious and proper, affording much general information, and suggestive of improvements which, if carried out, would add greatly to the general health of the city.
