THE WORTH STAR

VOL. XXV .-- NO. 11.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1879.

The latest from Mr. Tilden's attack on the Southern people is in a Washington letter of October 1, to the Baltimore American, a stalwart organ. It says: "The Southern Democrats here are at their wit's ends to devise means for breaking the force of the late declaration of Mr. Tilden's views in regard to the course of the Southern politicians, and the outrages and barbarities of the Democrats of the South, and their damaging effect upon the prospects of the party. Their last and weakest effort is to ascribe the whole story to ex-Representative Sypher, of Louisiana, who, they now declare, manufactured it. There is no foundation for this. The version of Mr. Tilden's views, as published in these dispatches, is known to be correct. It came from a near friend of Mr. Tilden, pronounced and active Democrat, and one who has the closest political relations with him."

It gives us much satisfaction to learn from that refreshing Stalwart organ, the Philadelphia Press, that the "Okolona (Miss.) ass" has been "compelled to give up his proposed lecture tour through the North for want of appreciation, his venture having already cost him several hundred dollars more than the receipts.' Now let the brayer of the Lemans (Iowa) Sentinel take the field with his ram's horn.

Senator Ben Hill, of Georgia, is in New York, trying to throw oil on the troubled waters. He is reported as much surprised that New York Democrats should lose so completely sight of the general welfare of the party in their miserable local squabbles. He thinks the disturbances in New York will injure Ewing's prospects in Ohio, as so many men like to be on the winning side.

The Columbia (S. C.) Register entreats the Republicans not to put Judge Settle on the Grant ticket. It does not like his face, it is so "sınister." It concludes an editorial as "If Grant is to be elected we want him elected upon a strong ticket and supported by an able, upright, irreproachable Cabi net. Make Settle Governor of Utah, if you will, but spare us, spare the people of this country from having him as the second official of the land."

Brumidi, the famous fresco painter, who has been at work for twenty three years on the Capitol at Wash ington, came very near falling fiftyfive feet from a scaffold. He is old and it greatly shocked him. He thinks he will not try it again. He will complete his cartoons and leave them to other hands to be transferred to the building.

Blackmailing is said to be heavily practiced at Atlanta, Ga. Detectives he in wait for persons who visit places of a disreputable character. A fearful roll was made out, and hushmoney freely used. The Dispatch of that city says:

"The roll includes names which, if pub lished, would create a consternation equa to a high-toned eruption of a Mount Vesu vius in our aristocratic circles."

The last from Judge Jere Black is that he is for Hancock for President The other day he talked Tilden What's up? He thinks the treachery of Tammany Hall is enough to make a true Democrat "curse his better angel trom his side and fall to reproba-

- The Oxford Torchlight will be published darly during the session of the Baptist State Convention which meets at that place on November 5th. It will contain a full report of proceedings and will be sent to subscribers for 25 cents.

- The Goldsboro Mail has entered upon its second year since it was moved to that place. It has proppered as we are glad to learn and as it deserved. From 25 quires it has gone up to 70 quires in one year—as increase of 1,054 copies. It now issues weekly 1,680 copies. - The Central Protestant reports revivals as follows: Forsyth Circuit, 13 conversions; Winston Circuit, 15 conversions, 23 accessions; Carraway Circuit, 37 conversions, 20 accessions; Mecksville Circuit, 25 conversions. These belong to the Methodist Protestant Church.

- The Raleigh & Gaston Railroad carned for the year ending July 31, 1879, clear of all expenses, $69,283.71. The Raleigh & Augusta earned for the same time $36,626.67 above expenses. Both roads show a considerable increase over the preceding year. The old officers were

- Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: A single delinquent subscriber to this paper destroys the profit on ten paying pa-trons. Therefore, the reader who has had the paper for a year, and cannot pay his dues, ought to skirmish around among his neighbors, and get us at least a dozen new subscribers to off-set the loss (of paper, tak, postage, and type-setting,) we have already incurred in his favor.

- Goldsboro Mail: Mr. Solomon Keaton was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday morning. The attack, we are glad to learn, will not prove fatal.

There are now two trains that come in from and go out to Morehead City over the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad. The mail arrives here at 10 a. m., and leaves at 3.30 p. m. The freight train, with passenger train attached, arrives here at about 5 p. m., and leaves at 11:30 a. m. — John W. Daniel lost by fire accidentally, near Princeton, a tobacco barn filled with fine yellow tobacco.

- Warsaw Brief Mention: Rev. W. M. Kennedy, the pastor, is conducting a protracted meeting with his church at Magnolia, with encouraging results. Rev. Dr. Gilliland is with him. —We are informed that a negro child, whose parents live in Faison township, being alone in the yard, fell into the well a few days ago and was drowned. —The cotton crop is turning out badly. There will not be more corn crop is very fine. Rice is very fair. though the dry weather has injured it some. Peas average. Potatoes good, but the crop will be short because of a scarcity of seed in the spring. - Weldon News: On Monday evening, about sunset, an old colored wo man by the name of Lottie Williams, was burned to death at Old Blakeley, about two miles from here, on the Northampton side of the river. No one knows how the fire originated. —The people of this section or rather a few of them, awoke Friday morning and found frost on the ground The case of Parker against the W. & W. Railroad Company for damages for killing Parker at Enfield some months ago, was tried at Halifax last week, occupying two days. Many witnesses were examined and verdict rendered by the jury in favor of the railroad company.

- The Raleigh Observer says Col Webster, of the British Army, who was so badly wounded at Guilford C. H., was buried two miles from Elizabethtown, in Bladen county. Mr. Alfred Moore, late of Pittsboro, about fifty years ago wrote a description of the opening of the grave for the purpose of removing the body. He was present on that occasion, and according to his narrative, as reported to us, when the coffin was first opened he saw perfectly the undecayed corpse of a splendid looking British officer. Gradually, however, af-ter a few moments' exposure to the air, the corpse underwent a change and soon vanished into dust. A similar publication was made since the war by the sister of Mr. Moore, Mrs. Hugh Waddell.

- Raleigh Observer: Orange Superior Court is in session this week, Judge McKoy presiding. - Mr. N. Dumont of Charlotte, has married. Now we will have emigrants. — Sheriff John Sharp yesterday brought up from Hertford county Oliver Harrell, colored, for larceny. The new convict is blind. - One hundred and sixty-two students have entered at the University this session. — The deaths of a woman and a child on the 30th ultimo make the total number of deaths during September 27. Of these 18 were colored and 9 white. - Some splendid specimens of the various products of Bertie county were sent up to the Department of Agriculture yesterday, and the exhibit of this county will now be one of the best in the museum. - In the southwestern part of Durham township, Orange county, a populous section, there has not been an indictment found in the courts against a single one of its people since the war closed.

- Tarboro Southerner: W. T. Knight, living about seven miles from this place, lost his gin, gin house and about 1,000 pounds cotton by accidental fire from his steam engine, on Saturday morning, about 11 o'clock. No insurance. — The Charlotte Democrat is right. By all means postpone the State Convention till at least in August, 1880, as the election occurs in November. Give the people as long rest as possible. — "Still so gently through me stealing," remarked the Southerner to the surreptitious scissors. - Want ed-sume more "Kernels" an "Capt'ns" to adorn the public prints. -Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South, and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it. — To Sylvia, of Cokey—No, a young girl should not allow her head to remain on a young man's bosom, looking up tenderly into his face, while a rivulet of tobacco juice has trickled down and stands imminent on the bridge of his chin, over the eye. officers went to arrest him when, with the same knife he cut his own throat. He was put in a wagon and brought to Pineville, bleeding profusely all the while. There a surgeon dressed the wound and the negro was brought to this city by the 4 o'clock train and put in jail. It is stated that he has crazy spells and that it was in one of these that he did the bloody work. Bingham school has 132 names on its list.

- The order goes to New York to day for the uniform, caps, etc., for the "C M. Stedman Fire Company No. 1," and it is expected that they will be here by or be fore the next regular meeting night, the first Wednesday in November.

- The colored excursion to thi city on Thursday, which came from different points on the road in South Carolina, was given under the auspices of the Order of Good Templars. How is it that there are no colored Good Templars in Wilmington?

- From a private dispatch, re ceived yesterday by Mr. W. M. Poisson, of this city, the many friends of Rev. L. S Burkhead, D. D., will regret to learn of the death, on Friday morning, in Raleigh, of his sweet little daughter "Sudie." The parents have the sympathies of a host of

Mayor's Court. George H. Larkins and Catharine Myers, both colored juveniles, were arraigned on the charge of fighting, during which the girl received a severe cut on the head from a glass bottle hurled at her by the boy. The girl was released and the boy was ordered to be confined for ten days in the city

Richard Atkinson, colored, discovered leaving the premises of a gentleman residing near the corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets, about 1 o'clock yesterday morning, with a fine double blanket in his possession, and acting in a suspicious manner, was ordered to be remanded to the guard house until his case could be further inquired into. His statement to the Court was not calculated to inspire a very strong belief in his innocence.

Disturbance in the "Hollow." Christopher Huggins, vulgarly called "Kit" for shortness, got into a fight at the foot of Mulberry street, yesterday afternoon, with one Fanny Gore, known as the "Queen of the Hollow," and very familiar in police circles. Huggins seems to have got the best of the "scrimmage," after which, in revenge, she used a piece of scantling as a battering ram and punched out one or two of the windows in Huggins castle and threatened to demolish the building. At this juncture, however, a policeman opportunely arrived at the scene, and the two magnates of the "Hollow" were marched off to the guard house, where they will await a hearing before the Mayor this morning.

Narrow Escape. A little son of Mr. Frank Raymond, residing on Market, between Eighth and Ninth streets, aged about two years, accidentally fell from an upper plazza of the house, a distance of about fifteen feet, a day or two ago, striking upon the hard ground below. Contrary to all expectation the child escaped without serious injury. A physician was hastily summoned and though the little fellow's face and head were considerably bruised.

Thermometer Becord.

The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city:

For the South Atlantic States, clear or partly cloudy weather, south winds becoming variable, and stationary or lower temperature and barometer, are the indications for to-day.

Bobbery of Money, &c.

The house of a gentleman, residing in the neighborhood of Fifth and Dock streets, was entered on Thursday night and robbed of a considerable amount. The thief is supposed to have been concealed somewhere inside the house when the family retired. Yesterday morning it was discovered that the rooms had been ransacked. The clothing of a son was taken from his room and was found scattered upon the floor in the passage. His loss was small, amounting altogether to one lead pencil. The father, however, was not so fortunate. From the pockets of his clothing, which were hanging up in his room, the sum of $60 in money was obtained, together with some other articles of a trifling nature. A rear door was found unlocked vesterday morning, which is supposed to have been the medium of the thief's exit. It is believed that the theft was committed by some one familiar with the premises. The money stolen included one $20 and four $10 notes.

Alarm of Fire. The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon, about a quarter to 2 o'clock, was caused by the bursting out of flames from a lot of cotton damaged by the late fire and afterwards removed to the hill in the neighborhood of the Wilmington Compress Company's wharves. The fire department was out and went to the spot where the cotton was burning.

Magistrate's Court.

Mr. George Doyle was arraigned before Justice Hall, yesterday afternoon, on the charge of committing assault and battery upon one Morris Gibbs, colored. The witnesses all swore the other way-that is, that no assault was made-and the Justice very properly dismissed the case at the cost of the prosecutor.
