OUTLINES.

Murphy still ahead in the walking match; only thirteen on the track; Murphy 339 miles, Faber 313. — An express train in Kansas was robbed of fifty thousand dollars by a band of robbers numbering twenty. — The Chilians have captured the Peruvian ram Haascar. — 267 English farmers and families left Liverpool for Texas. — Two companies of Highlanders before Cabul fought two thousand Afghans and beat them; the total Afghan force numbered eleven regiments with artillery; the whole country is wild with excitement and the people would rise at the slightest British reverse; it was expected that the whole British force would be within striking distance of Cabul by 7th. — The Liberals lost 110 seats by the recent elections in Germany. — A French cotton mill was burnt, loss $200,000. — No further news has been received at Army headquarters from the Indian war; Merritt's report is criticised for its failure to report the situation at Milk River. — Report of the cotton crop in the eastern counties of this State show a decrease as compared with last year. — A Molly Maguire was hanged in Pennsylvania yesterday for a murder committed in 1874. — A lieutenant with Merritt's command gives further details of the relief of Payne's command; Major Thornburg's body has been recovered. — The Gate City Guards, of Atlanta, were the guests of the Fifth Maryland Regiment at Baltimore, and were handsomely entertained. — The Jasper Centennial was celebrated at Savannah, yesterday, by a grand parade and display. — Ten new cases of fever reported at Memphis yesterday; the sick at Harrisonburg all died. — Murphy had scored 383 miles in the walking match at 10 o'clock last evening. — The whole Peruvian fleet is reported captured. — Great fires continue to devastate Russia. — New York markets: Money active at 7 percent; cotton dull at 10 1/2 @ 10 3/4; southern flour quiet and steady; wheat opened and closed better with an advance of one cent; corn active at lower prices; spirits turpentine firmer at 30 @ 30 1/2; rosin unchanged.

DeBos's Review, so well known before the war, has been revived at New Orleans, with William M. Burwell as editor. — The Post Office Department has determined to adopt the most vigorous measures to make its decision effective in regard to the transmission of lottery matter through the mails. — Ex-Senator Dorsey, Republican of Arkansas, is fully satisfied that Grant will be nominated for President, and that he is invincible. He says also that both Foster and Cornell will be elected, and that Ohio and New York are safe for Grant. So much for this Salawat's opinion. — North Carolina is to have an Independent party next year. North Carolina is a bold State. — Baltimore American, Rep. — The only Independent movement North Carolina will probably have will be one got up by the Republicans. The Democrats do not propose "to divide" that their enemies may "conquer." — The Virginia papers have been fighting the Readjusters (the Mahone set) with figures, facts, logic and eloquence. The Richmond State now hurls a scientific brick at them. Hear it: — "Herbert Spencer says that morality is developed through evolution, and the fittest must survive in the moral as well as physical world. If this be true, what possible chance is there for the Readjusters to survive?" — How true it is we cannot say, but it is reported that the Ohio Democrats concluded that it was best that Southerners should not make speeches in Ohio. It is said this explains why Senator Vance and others who had been invited did not participate in the canvass. No Southern speaker is to be asked North. That shows how the bloody shirt flaps. — John Logan challenges all walkers to the front. He proposes to "any person in the United States" to walk fifty hours without eating, drinking or sleeping, the man making the greatest number of hours to take the proceeds, and he adds, "Man and money ready." Now let the North Carolina pedestrians who have been training all summer take a leg and pocket the "money." — At 10 o'clock at night, October 9th, 1879, in our office, the thermometer stood within a fraction of 84 degrees. Thus far the heat has been most extraordinary during the month. In the day the thermometer has ranged from 82 to 85 degrees. We cannot recall such a heated term in October. It has been general in some sections of the State it has been as high as 90 degrees.

VOL. XXV.—NO. 16.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1879.

WHOLE NO. 3,794

A correspondent of the Washington Post, writing from Cincinnati on the 6th inst., says the Democrats will probably carry the Legislature, but will fail to carry the county offices that pay. He thinks Taft will succeed Thurman in the Senate if the Legislature should be Republican, but Thurman will certainly be his own successor if the Democrats are successful. The carrying of the Legislature is much more important than electing the Governor, because not only does Thurman's election hinge on that, but also the complexion of the delegation in the House of Representatives. The Democrats had control of the last Legislature, and redistricted the State. If the Republicans get control they will redistrict, and leave the Democrats not more than six members of Congress.

The Irish living in New York are going to hold a rousing meeting at Cooper Institute. The object is not to excite revolution but to encourage their countrymen to come to the United States. They think this is the best way to teach England a lesson. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes: "The idea is, that if a wholesale emigration from Ireland could be started at this time, England would become alarmed at the threatened depopulation of the country, and would voluntarily make concessions to home rule which would not otherwise be listened to, at the same time that the landlords, as a matter of self-interest, would be but too glad to reduce their rents, to keep their tenantry at home. Should there be a disposition to act on the suggestion, on the other side, it is believed that funds could be raised here, without any difficulty, to carry it into effect. The sort of labor that Ireland can supply is said to be in great demand at present at the West and North-west, and its transfer thither would not be a difficult matter."

We have received the first number of Hale's Weekly, and a handsome, well arranged and attractive paper it is. Price $2 a year, cash in advance. It is published at Raleigh, P. M. Hale, editor, with Fred A. Oide in charge of the local department. Mr. Hale has had considerable newspaper training, is a practiced and forceful writer, and knows how to make a readable and useful paper. Mr. Oide has done service as city editor of the News. They have our best wishes. That veteran editor, Mr. Edward J. Hale, resumes his labors as the New York correspondent. He will add no little to the interest of the paper, which will be thoroughly Democratic.

That notorious reverend murderer of Connecticut, W. H. Hayden, who is believed to have first defrauded and then killed his victim, is again to be tried for the offense. On the first day the trial hung fire over an error in the indictment. If the fellow is really guilty of the horrible crime charged it is to be hoped that he will have full justice and a quick shrift.

Thus far the State bonds funded in Virginia aggregate $8,083,144.83.

Spirits Turpentine.

The Adah Richmond troupe is billed for Charlotte on Friday and Saturday. — Wadesboro has handled 1,400 bales cotton this season—an increase of 319 bales. — Rev. John Douglas, a well-known Presbyterian minister, died at Charlotte on the 8th. — Lenoir Topic: The Wilmington Star has entered its 25th volume. There is no better paper published in the State. — Hillsboro Recorder: The weather last week was excessively hot and dry. The mercury on Friday and Saturday was 90 in the shade. The heat and drought are conducive to sickness everywhere. — As usual Judge McKoy wins golden opinions. — Asheboro Courier: President Kemp P. Battle, of the University of North Carolina, has accepted an invitation to live in the residence at the Randolph county fair on the 31st of November, 1879. — The school at Franklinsville now numbers ninety-four. — Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: We learn from Auditor Love that the original draft of the Constitution of the "State of Frankland" (now Tennessee), North Carolina's rebellious young daughter, turned up recently among the old documents on file. — Handsome new houses are going up on nearly every street. — Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: A gentleman who has exported large quantities of jute, manilla, &c., from India for many years, says if our people will go into the culture of jute he will come down and set up the machinery for its manufacture, either at Raleigh or any other convenient point. South Carolina is already making extensive tests at jute-raising. — Raleigh News: The following is the programme of the glass-ball shooting at the Fair: The first and second matches for the breech-loading guns will be shot on Wednesday of Fair week. The third and fourth for the rifle and hunting-gun on Thursday. In the first match twenty balls will be shot at; in the second, eighteen; in the third, sixteen; in the fourth, fourteen. — The Raleigh Christian Advocate reports the following revival news: Mt. Airy circuit, 11 conversions, 9 conversions; North Guilford circuit, 14 conversions; Uwharrie circuit, 48 conversions, 25 conversions; Rolesville circuit, 16 conversions; Tryon Street

Church, Charlotte, 15 conversions; Smithfield circuit, 56 conversions, 42 conversions; Forsyth circuit, 9 conversions, 8 conversions.

The North Carolina Farmer publishes an article in reference to the manufacturing of shoes at the penitentiary. It says we heard a most worthy shoe-maker of the city of Raleigh, who has a family to support, say that the manufacturing of shoes at the State Penitentiary was ruining his business, and he would have to move away. We submit the question, is it right for the State to interfere with the rights of private industry in this way?

Superintendent Mills, in his September report of the Orphan Asylum, says: "Our hospital, though not entirely finished, is occupied, and our doors are now open to a larger number of orphans. During September two orphans were adopted, and several others went to honorable employment. One boy, who ran away in August, was arrested for crime in September. He came here too late, being about fourteen years of age, and posted in every vice."

Wadesboro Herald: Pee Dee Baptist Association meets in the Baptist church, in Wadesboro, to-morrow evening. — We learn that there is a meeting of the ordinary interest in progress at the Methodist church in Lenoirville. We saw Rev. Mr. Guthrie, the pastor of the church, on Saturday last. He says it is the most remarkable meeting he ever witnessed. Up to Sunday evening there had been 29 conversions, and at night there were 39 penitents.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. A. L. West, architect, of Richmond, Va., arrived in the city yesterday for the purpose of drawing the plan for the new Baptist Church. Mr. A. B. Myers, who has discovered on his place, twelve miles from Wikesboro, what he conceives to be a valuable silver mine. — As Mr. John Hoover, a resident of Lincoln county, was driving home from church Sunday, he was overtaken by a carriage loaded with frightened horses and they began to run. The vehicle was turned over, its occupants were thrown out, and a little child, four or five months old, in Mrs. Hoover's arms, was instantly killed. The lady herself also received painful bruises. Charlotte has been singularly free from fires during the last six months. Within that time there has scarcely been one worthy mention.

 — Not a solitary case for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning.
 — The heated term continues, but a cool change will probably take place in a day or two.
 — The annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, which was to have taken place yesterday, was postponed.

— We learn that the Greenbackers held a meeting in the Fifth Ward a few nights since in five different languages.
 — "Of course justice is cold, because it is just-ice." — Exchange. Not as cool as the fellow who was just ice-stealing, and declared that he was only taking cold.

— We have received the Premium List of the fifteenth annual Fair of Sampson County Agricultural Society, to be held at Clinton on the 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th of December, 1879.
 — The flag of the British Vice Consulate and the flags of several of the shipping in port, were at half-mast yesterday as a token of respect to the memory of Capt. Samuel Hooper.

— Thanks to H. R. Godfrey, Secretary, for a complimentary ticket to the eighth annual Fair of the Pee Dee Agricultural and Mechanical Association, to be held at Cheraw, S. C., on the 5th, 6th and 7th of November.

Columbus Superior Court.

The Superior Court of Columbus county, Judge Seymour presiding, closed its session yesterday afternoon. The only important case tried was the State vs. Wiley G. Gann, or Gurganus, charged with the murder of Stephen Foley, which occupied the attention of the court during the entire day of Wednesday. The jury retired about ten o'clock Wednesday night, and after an absence of five minutes returned a verdict of not guilty, on the ground of self-defense.

Personal.

Rev. W. S. Black, Pastor of the Iddenton Street Methodist church, South, Raleigh, N. C., and one of the editors of the Raleigh Christian Advocate, is on a short visit to the city. Mr. Black was for four years the popular Presiding Elder of the Wilmington District.

RIVER AND MARINE.

— Barque Prosperita, Beraldsen, sailed from Gravesend for this port on the 29th ultimo.
 — British schooner George Booth, Jones, sailed for this port from Rio Janeiro on the 7th ultimo.
 — The steam-dredge Woodbury, connected with the government works, was at one of our wharves yesterday, receiving some slight repairs to her machinery.

THE MORNING STAR can always be had at the following places in the city: The Purcell House, Harris' News Stand, and the Bra O'Clock.

On the War-Path.

It has leaked out that the "Descon"—(so known by his friends) shaved up a day or two since, put on his good clothes (so as to defy recognition, some one wickedly suggested), and embarked on the steamer Elizabeth for Holmes' wharf, where he was to take passage in a private conveyance for the Town Creek neighborhood, to indulge in a little recreation, hunting, etc., for a few days. Now let all "allergaters" and slich keep a sharp look out, lest the "Descon" should fit a key to their mouths and lock them hard and fast to the shore; and likewise the coons and the "possums, and their "claters and their cousins and their aunts," who inhabit the wild woods and forests of old Brunswick, should keep their eyes skinned, for the avenger is at their heels. The "Descon" has the reputation of being a good shot on the wing, and especially successful as an artist, in consideration of the fact that he was attached to the engineer corps (of a steam saw-mill) during the late "unpleasantness." And, finally, it is recommended that a delegation from the various base ball clubs meet our "Descon" at the boat on his return, in readiness to take charge of the various zoological specimens, of which it is expected he will have a large collection.

Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this Court yesterday:
 State vs. Daniel Richardson, charged with burglary. Defendant arraigned, a special venire of fifty ordered, and trial set for Saturday, the 11th inst.

State vs. Thomas Foy, charged with larceny. The prisoner's counsel entered the plea that the defendant being once tried and placed in peril of imprisonment and of a penalty, he cannot be tried again for the same offense, as the Constitution of the United States, forbids a man being put twice in jeopardy of life and limb, and consequently, by construction, of putting a man in peril of imprisonment and a penalty twice for the same offense.

State vs. Margaret McCumber, charged with assault and battery. Defendant found not guilty.
 State vs. Towers and Atkins, charged with an affray. Defendants found guilty and judgment suspended on the payment of costs.

State vs. Wm. Brown, charged with embezzlement. Case continued for defendant.
 Several other cases of minor importance were disposed of.

Funeral of Captain Hooker.

The funeral of Captain Samuel Hooker, late commander of the British barque George Davis, who died on Wednesday morning last, took place at Smithville yesterday. The body was conveyed from the ship to the shore at 12 o'clock. A large concourse of citizens followed the remains to the Methodist church, where the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Burkhead and Rev. Mr. Wiley. Thence the procession repaired to the cemetery, where the remains were interred. Quite a number of floral emblems, wreaths, &c., had been prepared and were placed upon the grave by the ladies of Smithville, which will be both soothing and gratifying to the bereaved family and widow in England, evidencing, as it will, the kindness and regard manifested by the citizens of Smithville, and especially the ladies, on the mournful occasion.

Quite a number of gentlemen from this city were present at the funeral.

Our Colored Firemen.

At a regular meeting of the Cape Fear Steam Fire Engine Company No. 3, held at their Hall on Monday, the 6th inst., it was resolved that a vote of thanks be returned by the officers and members of the Company to Messrs. Williams & Murchison, and the Wilmington Compress Company, for the generous appropriation extended to them; and it was the sentiment of the meeting that hereafter, as in the past, no efforts will be spared by the Company to give our merchants and citizens generally all the protection possible against the ravages of fire. Complimentary allusions were also made to the gallant Chief of the Department, Col. Roger Moore.

The "Unknowns."

Mr. John A. Stevens will appear at the Opera House next Wednesday in "Unknowns," a successful play of his own conception and construction. Both the piece, Mr. Stevens and the company supporting him have been highly commended wherever they have appeared, as for instance the following from the Philadelphia Press: "Mr. John A. Stevens as the 'Unknowns,' in his play of 'Unknowns,' has done a very successful business here during the past week. He is a good actor, and has been well received, having been the recipient of the honor of a call before the curtain at every performance. The play is an excellent one, and could easily have run a longer time."

Death of An Aged Lady.

Mrs. Nancy R. Chadwick, a native of Carteret county, but for several years past a resident of this city, died at the residence of her son, Capt. J. R. Chadwick, yesterday afternoon, at the advanced age of 80 years and 8 months.

More than one hundred and twenty-five thousand bottles of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup have been sold by a single firm in Baltimore—Messrs. Wm. H. Brown & Bro.
