OUTLINES.

The Governors of the old Thirteen States have met in Philadelphia to arrange for the Centennial Anniversary at Yorktown, Va. Governor Holladay, of Virginia, was chosen President; Governor Jarvis, among others, spoke.

Gen. Grant received a grand ovation in Oregon. He made a longer speech than usual.

The Ford Juveniles handed over $131 at Charleston for the benefit of the Hood orphans.

The Workingmen's Central Union in New York have nominated John Kelly for Governor.

Counterfeiters in Texas are said to be doing a lively business. They are for hard money and have no respect for greenbacks.

Ex Gov. Hendricks says the result in Ohio has not changed his opinion that Grant will be the Republican nominee in 1880.

Some of the Republican papers talk of the Grant boom ceasing. We do not believe a word of it. If Grant wants the nomination he will get it.

Prince Napoleon's will shows that he is worth $300,000, exclusive of houses in Paris and considerable landed estates in France and Switzerland.

A good sign. New York has got sick of walking matches. The country has been sick for some time. What a pity that so much muscle cannot be better employed.

Hereafter none but wooden guns should be tolerated on the mimic stage. No real shooting irons, loaded with shells, should be allowed. One murder is enough.

Since the Ohio election the Baltimore American sent its Stalwart shirt that had become a little limp to the Radical laundry and had it stiffened up. Its hue, too, is something more sanguinary.

Both parties are straining every nerve in New York. It is said that the snobs of war flow freely and the snobs of politics 'barf' may be heard at the headquarters of Cornell and of Robinson.

The talk in Washington and New York city now is, as New York State goes in November so will the election go in 1880 for President. John Kelly is taking a big load upon himself if that be the case.

The venerable Mrs. Gales, widow of the late Joseph Gales, who was a great man and a great editor, and who was a power in the old Whig party when he directed the fortunes of the National Intelligencer, died in Washington on the 15th inst., aged 1.

She was, we believe, a Miss Lee, of Virginia. She was a highly accomplished and admirable lady. At one time she was handsome and knew well how to dispense an elegant hospitality.

Joseph Gales was son of Joseph Gales who founded the Raleigh Register early in this century, and was a brother of the late Weston R. Gales, and uncle of the late Major Seaton Gales, whose memory is cherished by so many friends.

Herbert Thompson acted as Umpire and J. P. Boatwright as Scorer.

Terrible accident. A fearful and probably fatal accident happened to Mr. Frank Williams, living near Summerville, Brunswick county, on Thursday afternoon last. It seems that Mr. Williams was on his grape arbor picking grapes, when one of the rails of which the arbor was constructed broke and he fell upon the jagged end of one of the pieces, which entered a portion of the body and was projected through another. In this horrible condition the poor man remained until his wife and a colored man came to his assistance, when, after much difficulty, they finally succeeded in pulling the piece of rail out. The unfortunate man was then carried to his house and a physician sent for, who did what he could to relieve his intense sufferings, but we learn that no hopes are entertained of his recovery. Indeed, it would be a miracle if he were to do so, under the circumstances. Mr. Williams is about forty-eight years old, and well known among the majority of our business men.
