WILMINGTON. N. C .: SUNDAY MORNING, Nov. 2, 187 hold their places to day "by violence and fraud." The Herald knows this or it knows nothing." Then and there was committed the greatest crime of this century-the greatest outrage against civilization-the most stupendous outrage to which a great, warlike, free, people ever submitted. Surely, in 1876, whole country" was just as much terested" in "the maintenance of pure ballot in every State" as it can be in 1880, and it was then just much "a matter of national interest" as it can possibly be in 1880. And vet the Herald gravely tells its re ers that the country will not trust the great party that was foully wronged and robbedstand that and mitted to it rather than plunge the country into another interactine war and that the Republican party al covered with stain and corruption, and that perpetrated the great orime against the American people and a free para ballot, is the party to b trusted. The Herald means that of it means nothing.

SENATOR HILL INTERVIEWED. The Atlanta Constitution has terviewed Senator Hill since he re turned from his visit to New York. He says he never went to that city on any such errand as was attributed to him, and did not allow himself to he interviewed whilst there. He thinks Thurman's loss from the Senate a na tional calamity. He mays the gran question before the country, upon which the two parties stand face to face, is this:

"Shall we continue our Constitutional system of dual, Federal and Suite govern ment, or shall we by force and fraud, and not by Constitutional amendments, destroy that system and substitute for it one con solidated empire.' This is the issue for 1880, and the result will be the test—it may be the final test—of the capacity of the American people for self-government."

He says the Republicans are using the press, the pulpit, the rostrum, the moneyed corporations, the rings and the rogues to sectionalize the country and for no higher motive than to them has found a fragment; he says: 'This has been done by no common hand; at present. I do not know its author, but it is a bok above it that means greatedeal to my eye. I know the his ragment it was molded by Philess The fragment that hour ago was an anonymous treasure, beautiful within certain lines, leaps into hisorical importance, and into value beyond gold." Well, there is a sameness in this.

e do not believe that an pribbages after that style unconsciously. The Louisville paper reminds its readers that Dr. Lorimer is not alone-that as great a man as Sydney Smith was not too good steal from the illustrious Barrow and Jeremy Taylor. It says: "In the larcesy of Barrow's sermons, Sydney Smith made an show of conscience in using the fruits, as, for instance, Dr. In using the fruits, as, for instance, Dr. Barrow says in one place: "When we un-dertake any business of special moment and difficulty, then it is expedient to sue for God's aid, to commit our af-fairs into his hand, to recommend our endeavors to the blessing of him by whose guidance all things are or-dered.<sup>4</sup> And Sydney Smith says: 'When you undertake any business of special moyou undertake any business of special mo-ment and difficulty, then it is expedient to sue for God's aid to commit your affair into his hands, to recommend your en-deavors to the blessing of Him by whose guidance all things are ordered.' So on for

In the case of the Chicago pastor it is said this plagiarisms have only added to his reputation, and theyands crowd to hear him. Pulpit plagiarism is not as uncommon as some might suppose. The apparatus furnished for preaching good sermons without original excogitation is very abasdant. The helps, text-books, oyclopædias, skeletons, &c., are very numerous. The distinguished Simeon, one of the leaders of the Kaglish Evangelicals in his day, wrote volume after volume of skeletons for the use of sickly and incapable preschers, and they have been handed down in various forms.

Sometimes able men are too inert to prepare their own discourses. In London printed sermons in pamphlet for the use of ministers is a regalar part of the book trade. We have heard some funny stories about able men in the South preaching the ser-

The Philadelphia Press publishes the following dispatch from Shohela, Pa., and vouches for its correctness: "Four or five miles back of this place, in an old log eabin, lives Thos. Hendershot. He has a pretty daughter about eighteen years of age. Clara Hendershot can rew a boat, shoot a gun or trap a bear as well as any man in the county. A few days ago sherstarted soross the lake known as the Great Walker pond to visit a friend. She used a light boat belong ing to her tather, and carried, as was her custom, a small rifle slung across her shoulder by a leather strap. When near the centre of the lake she discoyered an object in the water a short dis tance off, and upon approaching nearer found that it was a large five pronged buck, which had been driven in by dogs. She immediately unslung her gun, and, after taking aim; fired. The ball passed through the deer's neck) making a painful wound. The animal, enraged, struck at the boat with its front foot, completely shattering one side of the fragile bark, which sunk, leaving Miss Hendershot in the water with the infuriated buck. She was plucky and could swim well, and as the deer came toward her she caught it by the horns and plunged her hunting-knife into its neck, killing it instantly. She then called for to the shore, about a quarter of a help, and as none arrived she swam ran up stairs in great alarm. "What's the matter, Bishop?" anxiously inquired the thost. "Nothing at all," groaned the clermile, and hurried home. She put on dry clothes, and procuring another in the morning to look for me in the cellar." boat rowed out to where the dead buck was floating and towed it to shore. When dressed the animal weighed nearly 280 pounds. This is the seventh deer Miss Hendershot has killed."

AN INDEPENDENT'S VIEW. As sensible a paper as is the Boston Herald, commenting upon an edito rial paragraph of the Richmond (Va. State, after declaring that "the great body of the Northern people have no disposition to interfere with the local government of the Southern States' -a fact we are glad to learn from so respectable a source, for we had supposed otherwise-then indulge the following strain:

"The people of the North do not hate the South or the Southern people, but they do not mean to give the general govern-ment to a party which profits by corrup-tions of the ballot, either by violence or fraud."

It is referring to the Democratic party. The Herald, we believe, a pires to be a fair, independent paper Generally, it is more just and candid than other New England papers But the above is not a specimen. is quite willing, we suppose, for the "general government" to be give "to a party" like the Republican which "profits by corruption of the ballot"-as the Herald well knows and that, too, when both "violence and frand" have been resorted to a in the cases of South Carolins, Lou istance and Florids, not to mention the rascalities of fittle Johnny De venport, the Massachusette method the Rhode Island system, or th Philadelphia outrages upon the elec tive franchise.

The Herald is very grave in its de claration. It will condemn the De mocratic party for a very few out rages upon the ballot when compare with the record of the Republica party, batitis quite willing and ready to aid in handing over "the genera government" into the keeping of party that has perpetrated a hundred times greater wrongs upon a free and pure ballot than those of which the Democratic party stands either guilty or accused. We note this great absurd ity and inconsistency because we re spect the Herald. If so reputable journal as it is can thus view a ques tion in which the South is deeply concerned, what may we expect from less conscientious and honorable ret resentatives of public opinion in its section?

The Herald adds:

"The Northern people will never inter-fere with State elections in the South, be-lieving that a State government must be strong enough to sustain itself without aid hold office. In this he is clearly cor rect as any one must admit who read the secolar and religions press of the North. Mr. Hill says:

"In this work they are bold, brave, reck less, mendacions, inscruptions and bypo critical to a degree never before equalled in the history of this wicked world. Or the other hand, the Democrata are timid cowardly, dividing into feate and factions coquetting with every crazyism, abandon ing their most distinct and time-honored principles, and seeking by every device to avoid the only issue which is now worth statesman's thought or a patriot's care—the Republican comparacy to sectionalize the country and substitute absolute government for constitutional government. Litust the defeats of this year will bring the Democrat to their senses, concentrate their energies and inspire them with courage to meet the Republicans on their own chosen ground of sectionalism to accomplish empire. If they will be lost."

There is not the slightest doubt of this. The Northern people, if they ever understood the genius of ou government, have forgotten it; they ever had any attachment to republican government of law they have lost it. The South, through Jef ferson, Washington, Madison and others, originated and set up the General Government, with its three branches, the Executive, the Legislative and the Judicial, and it has thus far preserved it. Mr. Hill says he is fully satisfied that the game of the Republicans is to make the South solid for the Democracy-that the desire this "as a means for making the North solid for the Republicans." He says emphatically:

"They desire to make two solid sections in order to make one solid, absolute cen-tralism in the hands of a solid, wicked, plundering Republican oligarchy. They seek to blind the master of the Northern people to this object by example and by crime that occurs at the Bouth, and by manufacturing hundreds that do not occur manufacturing hundreds had do not occur; by shot-gun lies and bugaboos of South-ern denunciation, and by confounding State rights with soccasion. If they are not met fearlessly on this direct question of their conspirately to destroy the constitu-tional system, and their lying exposed to the people, the Republicans will succeed. The convergence mendacity of the Republic The coursecous mendacity of the Republi-cans, and the cowardly divisions of the Democrats, are the two great dangers that now threaten to enguiph the republic.

PERFER PELSIARISM. Dr. Lorimer's wife understands the peculiarity of his mind. She said recently that "he repeated quotations from Carlyle as unconcernedly as though they were his own." The STAR said a week or two ago that he was clearly a sponge-that he ab sorbed other people's thoughts and when he squeezed himself out-ran. not his own reflections but what other mons of other men, and some three or four of them are authentic and true no doubt. But we cannot par-KALAT SERVER EF ticularize.

Religious papers and all in the North are united "solidly" in persis tent misrepresentation and slander of the South. They know the power of iteration. It is the long-continued, off-repeated dropping of water that wears away the stone. By repetition of a lie even good men will be induced to believe it. The South is held responsible for a murder or an outrage or a fair-fight in an open field, if the slaver is a Democrat and the slayed is a Republican. The Chicago Standard-an able generally mild tampered Baptist pa per, demands that the entire South shall make a "real protest" ag the shooting of Dixon and the Chie holm trial. It is pleased to say that unless this "real protest" is made that the best friends of the South in the North will "find it difficult to retain even sentiments of common respect for such a people."

The Ohio Democracy were defeat ed in the last election, but there still a very strong minority left They polled 319,132 votes. We are glad that there are so many voters in that State who believe in a republ can form of government, and who will resist any attempts to overthrow it on the part of the Stalwarts. 1872 they voted only 245,484 votes. They will give the Democratic candidate in 1880 as many votes as they gave Ewing. So thinks the Cincinnati Commercial.

Since January 1, the total imports at the port of New York of general merchandize were $267,624,53D against $239,521,759 for the corresponding period last year, and $270, 969,700 in 1877. The total exports of produce since January 1, this year, were $278,768,659, egainst

CURRENT COMMENT.

----- Senator Bayard both inherits

musement of the people, and in man cases churches are managed so as to present somewhat similar attractions. The music is controlled and intended to satisfy those whose tastes have been cultivated by the opera, and in a large degree in the same style of music. The decorations are such a are adapted to satisfy the same of similar tastes. In the pulpit there is much that is dramatic and entertaining. Indeed, without this elemen there can be but little popularity, and he who thought that his vocation was fixed woold find, according to Grant White, that he had an avocation. Too many of those who have pandered to this taste for theatrical have exhausted themselves and been obliged to pass the remainder of their days in rural dife, where the stage is less known and not so popular. When will we learn that the church is not intended merely to keep the minds of man occupied with serious subjects, but by the assistance of the Holy Spirit to produce devout affections, to enkindle longings after holiness, and to be the means of conveying that grace without which men cannot lend godly, righteous or sober lives.

POLITICAL POINTS.

- "Michigan has had more mur ders than any. Southern State for a month past, and yet where is the man who dares yell, 'Kn Klux!' at us?" asks the Detroit Free Press.

We have read the letter. [Mr

We have read the letter [Mr. Hill's], carefully, and can find not the least indication of an idea to which objection can be taken even by a semionalist. He gives the Southern view correctly, justly, and his constituents mentioned to stand by it.—Columbus (Ga.) Expanse, Dem. — "No, fellow-citizens," observes Corporal William Almon Wheeler, "we will never cover our ekirmish lines, we will never sheath our bastions, we will never dismantle our canteeness long as the loyal Northis menaced by a solid South. We will hurl our series lines of rifle pits on the brazen front of treason so long as a single columbiad is left in our scabbards.—Wash ington Post, Dem.

- A most remarkable change bas

the Ohio election. The press of that porion of the country, with rare exceptions, Bayard, of Delaware, is that person who illustrates best in his character, capacity and political opinions the sort of statesman who should lead the Democratic column in 1880.— Washington Special to the New York
