

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily, except on Sundays, at $7.00 per year, $4.00 for six months, $2.00 for three months, $1.00 for one month, to mail subscribers. Delivered to city subscribers at the rate of 15 cents per week for any period from one week to one year.

THE WEEKLY STAR is published every Friday morning at $1.50 per year, $1.00 for six months, 50 cents for three months.

ADVERTISING RATES (DAILY).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a week in Daily will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (WEEKLY).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a week in Weekly will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (MONTHLY).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a month in Monthly will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (QUARTERLY).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a quarter in Quarterly will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (YEARLY).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a year in Yearly will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (SPECIAL).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on a special in Special will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

ADVERTISING RATES (ADDITIONAL).—One square (10 lines) for first insertion, 10 cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements inserted on an additional in Additional will be charged $1.00 per square for each insertion.

sections into which he divides our country. We avail ourselves of a portion of his interesting paper.

Since 1860 the growth in population is as follows: Eastern States, 3,803,706; Western States, 7,983,693; Southern States, 4,083,934.

Number of hands employed in manufacturing: Eastern, 1,794,563; Western, 1,124,045; Southern, 1,131,979.

The value of the main agricultural products in the three regions of the country last year was as follows: Eastern, $47,210,890; Western, $25,128,500; Southern, $17,890,500.

Average yield per acre: Eastern, 35.17; Western, 31.4; Southern, 19.4.

Published before the local debts, but the statement will bear repeating: Eastern States, $50,128,048; Western States, $147,038,037; Southern States, $183,392,188.

“COLORED” VERSUS “NIGGER.” The love of the Stalwarts for the colored people is a deep one. If they thought that henceforth they could do without the political help of the “colored man and brother,” they would not only deprive him of his right to vote, but they would not let him come into the old free States at all.

Gov. Robertson has pardoned Gabe and Justin Hans, citizens of Medina county, two wealthy men, sentenced to the penitentiary on a charge of cattle stealing.

The population on the Pacific slope is growing rapidly. In 1820 it was 831,953. It is now 1,268,000. This does not include Montana, Wyoming, Colorado or New Mexico.

The postal laws are openly and grossly violated by sending in department envelopes, large numbers of speeches, letters and pictures in aid of the Sherman movement.

Senator Wade Hampton is in good health, but walks with difficulty on crutches. He made a short speech at Abbeville, S. C., on Friday last, when he repeated his earnest endorsement of Bayard and McDonald.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

Senator Hampton thought Bayard would be nominated originally if New York went Republican. Senator Butler thought he would be nominated if Southwestern Democrats favored him.

Kansas is still “bleeding.” The Freedmen's Relief Association is begging for funds. The “man and brother” has got to the “land of promise,” but he is out at the elbow and his stomach is empty.

It is only when one section has had an undue proportion of offices or sectional legislation has been attempted that almost any man will be nominated.

“A Virginia gentleman was seated before a committee of Congress, undergoing an examination—a gentleman of the old school, upon whose face time and care had left their marks, but whose noble form was still abundant.”

An interesting scientific discovery is reported in the papers. It has been long sought after to find what is malaria—what produces it—what makes people sick in what are known as the malarial districts.

“Two men of science, Sigurd Tommas, of Rome, and Professor Koch, of Prague, after spending three weeks in that fever stricken region, the Roman Campagna, experimenting on its soil, its atmosphere and stagnant waters, ‘have succeeded.’”

In the death of Gen. Joseph Hooker the present generation is reminded how rapidly the generation that is passing away in the late war is passing away.

John Sherman is a great writer. In an official letter to the United States Senate, Mr. Sherman said that “the restoration of Maryland, Arthur and Corbett would be a serious injury to the public service.”

“To my Dead Sister.” Ned Murphy colored, has given an order for a neat monument to be erected at the grave of his old mistress, Miss Esther Murphy.

The arrogant declaration of Senator Cornell in the nomination of Robinson as the candidate of the open proslavery party of the Republican party of New York to the embraces of Kelly and Tammany, and the defiant declaration of war into the death against every Republican who dares to defend Republican integrity, should make New York re-sent Robinson as an overwhelming majority.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES. If we are not mistaken, the habit of proportioning the public offices among the different sections of the State is usually shared by both the political parties.

Should Senator Bayard be nominated, the campaign would necessarily be conducted on strictly party issues. There is nothing in his record which would be successfully assailed by his political opponents.

“A Virginia gentleman was seated before a committee of Congress, undergoing an examination—a gentleman of the old school, upon whose face time and care had left their marks, but whose noble form was still abundant.”

An interesting scientific discovery is reported in the papers. It has been long sought after to find what is malaria—what produces it—what makes people sick in what are known as the malarial districts.

“Two men of science, Sigurd Tommas, of Rome, and Professor Koch, of Prague, after spending three weeks in that fever stricken region, the Roman Campagna, experimenting on its soil, its atmosphere and stagnant waters, ‘have succeeded.’”

In the death of Gen. Joseph Hooker the present generation is reminded how rapidly the generation that is passing away in the late war is passing away.

John Sherman is a great writer. In an official letter to the United States Senate, Mr. Sherman said that “the restoration of Maryland, Arthur and Corbett would be a serious injury to the public service.”

“To my Dead Sister.” Ned Murphy colored, has given an order for a neat monument to be erected at the grave of his old mistress, Miss Esther Murphy.

The arrogant declaration of Senator Cornell in the nomination of Robinson as the candidate of the open proslavery party of the Republican party of New York to the embraces of Kelly and Tammany, and the defiant declaration of war into the death against every Republican who dares to defend Republican integrity, should make New York re-sent Robinson as an overwhelming majority.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

stocks-to-night are 100,534 bales more than they were on this time a year ago.

“The poet Miller recently gave the following account of the origin of his poem entitled ‘Muller’s’: He was driving with his sister through York, Me., and stopped at a harvest field to inquire the way. A young girl sitting near the stone wall stopped to answer their inquiries. With a sudden start, she looked at the bashfully raked the hay around and over her bare feet, and she was fresh and fair. The little incident left the impression, and he wrote out the poem that very evening.”

“The man who made that answer was Robert E. Lee. And then, in a voice that rang like a bugle call, Keiley asked: ‘Will you, my countrymen, fall short of the estimate placed upon you by Mars Robert?’”

“The storm of applause broke in and showed, as we have said, that his words had gone to the hearts of those who heard him.”

“The death of Gen. Joseph Hooker the present generation is reminded how rapidly the generation that is passing away in the late war is passing away.”

“John Sherman is a great writer. In an official letter to the United States Senate, Mr. Sherman said that ‘the restoration of Maryland, Arthur and Corbett would be a serious injury to the public service.’”

“To my Dead Sister.” Ned Murphy colored, has given an order for a neat monument to be erected at the grave of his old mistress, Miss Esther Murphy.

The arrogant declaration of Senator Cornell in the nomination of Robinson as the candidate of the open proslavery party of the Republican party of New York to the embraces of Kelly and Tammany, and the defiant declaration of war into the death against every Republican who dares to defend Republican integrity, should make New York re-sent Robinson as an overwhelming majority.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

Important to All. Brown & Roddick. 45 Market St. ARE NOW FULLY EQUIPPED IN THE Dry Goods Line.

Every one you meet says, “We claim that it depends entirely upon the purchaser whether a long and unseasonable period of warm weather has just passed and many merchants with dry goods have been anxious to realize in our portion of the business. Lower prices have been quoted than at any other time during the season.”

“The man who made that answer was Robert E. Lee. And then, in a voice that rang like a bugle call, Keiley asked: ‘Will you, my countrymen, fall short of the estimate placed upon you by Mars Robert?’”

“The storm of applause broke in and showed, as we have said, that his words had gone to the hearts of those who heard him.”

“The death of Gen. Joseph Hooker the present generation is reminded how rapidly the generation that is passing away in the late war is passing away.”

“John Sherman is a great writer. In an official letter to the United States Senate, Mr. Sherman said that ‘the restoration of Maryland, Arthur and Corbett would be a serious injury to the public service.’”

“To my Dead Sister.” Ned Murphy colored, has given an order for a neat monument to be erected at the grave of his old mistress, Miss Esther Murphy.

The arrogant declaration of Senator Cornell in the nomination of Robinson as the candidate of the open proslavery party of the Republican party of New York to the embraces of Kelly and Tammany, and the defiant declaration of war into the death against every Republican who dares to defend Republican integrity, should make New York re-sent Robinson as an overwhelming majority.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

MISCELLANEOUS. Our whole line of goods is now at the lowest prices generally in the market. Small orders receive prompt attention.

“The man who made that answer was Robert E. Lee. And then, in a voice that rang like a bugle call, Keiley asked: ‘Will you, my countrymen, fall short of the estimate placed upon you by Mars Robert?’”

“The storm of applause broke in and showed, as we have said, that his words had gone to the hearts of those who heard him.”

“The death of Gen. Joseph Hooker the present generation is reminded how rapidly the generation that is passing away in the late war is passing away.”

“John Sherman is a great writer. In an official letter to the United States Senate, Mr. Sherman said that ‘the restoration of Maryland, Arthur and Corbett would be a serious injury to the public service.’”

“To my Dead Sister.” Ned Murphy colored, has given an order for a neat monument to be erected at the grave of his old mistress, Miss Esther Murphy.

The arrogant declaration of Senator Cornell in the nomination of Robinson as the candidate of the open proslavery party of the Republican party of New York to the embraces of Kelly and Tammany, and the defiant declaration of war into the death against every Republican who dares to defend Republican integrity, should make New York re-sent Robinson as an overwhelming majority.

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”

“I have never had but one opinion of it, and I have said that opinion for several years. I thought Mr. Bayard should have been nominated by the Democrats for the Presidency in 1876. He could have beaten Hayes much easier than Mr. Tilden.”

“He took strong grounds in favor of Bayard for president, whose best recommendation was the ratification of the Constitution by the States of Indiana and Wisconsin.”