THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXV.--NO. 38.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1879.

WHOLE NO. 3,816

We write at 12 o'clock, A. M. It appears that Cornell, Republican, is elected Governor of New York.

A train on the Greenwood Lake Railway ran off the Hackensack bridge, killing the engineer; several of the passengers were badly injured, but none fatally.

The South had no cause to admire Zack Chandler. He was one of its bitterest enemies. We give the following description of him, which we find in the Baltimore Sun's Washington letter:

"His style was of a character calculated to draw crowds and excite attention. He cared nothing for rounded periods or polished metaphors, but always spoke directly to the point, using words, but calling everything exactly as he understood it. He was fluent of speech, scarcely, if ever, hesitating; with language of the broadest capacity, and of the most emphatic gesture, striking his head and jabbing his fingers in the air with his sledge hammer fist, almost without intermission.

Mr. Samuel G. Young, the Captain Corcoran of the Young's Infanry Company, is an old editor. He was city editor of the Washington Star for many years:

"For himself he said it, and it's greatly to his credit. He is a newspaper man-- He might have been a lawyer, A doctor or a wood sawyer, Or perhaps a Congressman.

On June 30, 1879, there were 40,855 preoffices in the United States. During the fiscal year 2,676 had been established and 1,079 had been discontinued.

Six steamers for Europe sailed from New York Saturday. They took out heavy cargoes of grain, but little live stock. They carried a good deal of fresh meat, however.

The beautiful and gifted actress, Adelaide Neilson, is to be in Richmond on the 18th instant. Ford pays her $300 a night. She resembles Sarah Bernhardt in grace, fire and general reputation we believe.

Mr. Chamberlayne, of the Richmond (Va.) State, has rendered efficient service on the hustings in the heated campaign in Virginia, now closed. He is said to use his tongue as well as he does his pen.

Postmaster James, of New York, was confident that Cornell would be elected by not less than 20,000 plurality. Collector Merritt, however, only allowed him 10,000. We will soon know how good they are at guessing.

Hayes has spoken. He has not committed himself to the support of Sherman for the candidacy of the Presidency. He is not averse to a third term if the people desire the "man on horseback."

We have seen some nice specimens of bright leaf tobacco raised in Sampson county by Col. Ashford and Mr. James Stephens. They had thirty acres in tobacco. The samples shown us are certainly very encouraging, and if not equal to Granville's best, they are good enough to fetch high prices, we dare say.

The following States voted yesterday: Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin. Of these Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New York and Wisconsin elected each a Governor, State officers and a Legislature, Pennsylvania a State Treasurer, Nebraska a Judge of the Supreme Court, and Connecticut, Mississippi, New Jersey and Virginia Legislatures simply.

The Petersburg tragedy is to be deplored. This way of shooting a fellow-man to death on the slightest provocation just as you would shoot a dog, is becoming alarmingly frequent in all parts of the country. An example is needed and the law should make it. Carrying concealed weapons causes four-fifths of the slaying done. We heartily agree with the Richmond State, when it says:

"Something must be done, either by public opinion or the law, to put an end to this unmanly custom which turns our young men into walking arsenals and makes murders of so many of them in thought and not a few in deed."

The fair at New Garden, last Thursday, was a success. The address of Prof. Kerr was attentively listened to. The display of grain, vegetables, &c., was remarkably good. The exhibition as a whole was very creditable.

Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: It is estimated, we believe, that the total debt of North Carolina is to-day less than at the date of the breaking out of the war. Furthermore, we learn from the Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic, that the Union of the State, sea and inland, will run between fifteen and twenty millions over the previous assessment.

Central Protestant: Mrs. Mary Bayard Clark, in the Raleigh Weekly, introduces two persons who gave their own peculiar reasons for being partial to the Episcopal service. One was a colored man, and he liked the form because it enabled him "to jaw back" at the preacher; the other liked it because it did not interfere either with a man's politics or his religion.

The Winston Sentinel says that Luce Norman, Clerk of Surry Court, has been indicted for various misdemeanors in office, and was convicted at the late term for being absent from his office Monday, and for taking administrators' bonds with insufficient security, and on Monday Judge Blinzer removed him from office, and appointed Columbus Hampton in his place.

Raleigh Visitor: We were shown some cherry blossoms this morning by Mr. W. Whitaker. Mr. Wm. Simpson had the sad misfortune to lose a three year old daughter, yesterday morning, with diphtheria. Mr. Linck's gymnasium promises to become an academy. He counts among his scholars the very best young men of our city, and several leading physicians.

Charlotte Democrat: Dr. Eugene Grissom, Superintendent of the N. C. Insane Asylum, authorizes the editor of the Raleigh Observer to say that the article copied by several papers from the Wilmington Post does not correctly represent his feelings and intentions in regard to political matters in this State, but that the recent statement of the Charlotte Democrat, about his wishes and intentions, is correct.

Mr. James R. Dodge celebrated his 84th birthday on last Monday. He is probably the oldest lawyer in the State--Winston Sentinel. [Is this the nephew of Washington Irving who had the literary tournament with Sam Hillman, Gov. Swain and Mr. Dew?

"Who dodged a deal of evil, But after dodging all he could, He could not dodge the devil."

Rockingham Spirit: Our old friend, C. H. Rush, of Montgomery, called on us last Wednesday. He had a pumpkin weighing fifty pounds, that he had raised in the early part of September had beaten from the time Mr. Rush called on us, he could gather up handfuls of bait for weeks afterward, and that the fish in his mill pond were all killed. This was owing to the quantity of walnut leaves that drifted into the pond, as the extract of walnut will kill fish in a few minutes.

New Berns Democrat: Dr. Jno. McDonald, of Washington, N. C., was among the purchasers who attended the sale of the horses of Mr. Robert Bonner, which came off in the Manhattan Athletic Club grounds last Wednesday. Dr. McDonald purchased Lucie Navel, b. c. 6 by Messenger Duroc, price $400, and a pair of horses, one of the Clyde Line, sold on Thursday last with 500 bales cotton, 215,000 wooden plates, 100 barrels of potatoes, and 73 barrels of iron. The steamer Deane, on the same line, sailed on Friday with 850 bales of cotton, 330 of which were taken aboard in Washington, N. C.

Goldsboro Messenger: We extend to his Honor, Judge Bure, our hearty sympathy in his sad bereavement. On his arrival home he found that death's dark shadows had already gathered about the darling boy. The local receipts of cotton for the week ending Saturday evening, November 1st, foot up 1,280 bales. The total receipts for the month of October were 7,295 bales; receipts for the season to date 9,563 bales. His Honor, Judge Brooks, was in town Saturday, en route for Wilmington, where the Federal Court convenes Monday. He is a model Judge. North Carolina will ever honor and revere him for his timely and highly patriotic action in the dark days of 1870, when he delivered this State from chaos and despotism.

Rock Hill (S. C.) Herald: Printers' ink does a wonderful amount of good sometimes. In our issue some days since mention was made of a daughter of Isaac Speed, of Fiverville, N. C., who had been home in company with Robert Johnson, colored. With the view of leading to their identification some particulars were given. The desired result has been effected. Having obtained some ink, he called upon the father of the girl, in company with the deputy sheriff of Mecklenburg county, captured the fugitives on Friday, the 31st ult., at Mr. J. A. Parish's house, seven miles south of this place, where they were employed as field hands. They had been married, and were living in the matrimonial relation when captured. The girl was taken to her father's house, and the negro to Charlotte, where he will be tried.

Kinston Journal: We hear of the death of Richard Moxe at La Grange from liquor drinking. He was formerly a resident of Pitt county, and was living a few miles from La Grange. He was in La Grange drunk on Friday evening, and on Saturday morning was found dead on the streets. Joe Banks, living on the North side of the Trent, near Trenton, killed last year three grown deer at one shot. Lawyers are sometimes guilty of pretty "sharp practices." During Superior Court a certain one made a very earnest plea to the Judge for time to file exceptions to a report, and after failing to carry his point, pulled out of his pocket the very exceptions he was asking for time to file up. The Railroad "policy" has begun to boom at last. Last week the freight trains on the A. & N. C. R. R. commenced carrying through from Raleigh and other points on the N. C. R. R. Henry F. Brooks planted five acres in cotton this year, and has already picked five 450 pound bales, and thinks there is three or more in the patch.

Wanted to substitute. A colored woman, by the name of Della Jewett, was arrested about 12 o'clock, on Monday night, by a police officer, with a piece of beef in her possession, and acting in a suspicious manner, which caused him to think she had been committing a theft. The case was turned over to Justice Mills, yesterday morning, and soon afterwards a preliminary examination was had, which resulted in the discharge of the woman, there being evidence to show that she did not steal the meat, it having been given to her.

Trial Postponed. The case of James Henderson, colored, charged with breaking open lockers in the Market House, on Sunday morning last, and which was turned over to a Magistrate by the Mayor for investigation, was argued yesterday morning and required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance this morning at 10 o'clock, in default of which he was committed to jail. Henderson says he came here from Newbern.

U. S. District Court. This tribunal was in session and several cases of minor importance were disposed of. A bankruptcy case was being argued during the afternoon. The following comprise the Grand Jury: Wilkes Morris, Foreman; S. A. Currie, Norwood Giles, Morris Bear, John A. Bryan, S. G. Northrop, G. W. Bradham, Owen Fennell, J. P. Heinsberger, Hazekil Reed, J. H. Durham, R. M. McIntire, F. M. Wescott, Henry Reeder, E. J. Pennypacker, W. J. Penny, Claus Schriver, F. M. Wooten.

St. James' Home. Our respected evening cotemporary, in speaking of the "pound party" at St. James' Rectory last night, seems to have been under the impression that it was for the benefit of the poor of the city. This is an error. The contributions were intended exclusively for the benefit of St. James' Home, a well-known benevolent institution, which is, however, doing a good work among the poor, and to aid in support of the same. This was the design of the originators of the movement, and we believe, of all the contributors. If any of the latter have been misled by our cotemporary's mistake, the application they desire for their offerings can be secured by a word to the Rector, Rev. A. A. Watson.

Thermometer Record. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4:31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Atlanta, 48; Key West, 77; Argonne, 50; Mobile, 59; Charleston, 51; Montgomery, 51; Charlotte, 45; New Orleans, 44; Corsicana, 73; Punta Rasa, 68; Galveston, 71; Savannah, 51; Havana, 71; Marks, 47; Indianapolis, 71; Jacksonville, 66.

Rhoda Obvis, formerly the wife of the celebrated outlaw, Henry Berry Lowrey, and Queen of Southerners, arrived here on the Carolina Central train yesterday morning. She is here in attendance upon the session of the U. S. District Court. She was a conspicuous figure in the Court room during the day and attracted no little attention.

The Sals, Haussen, sailed from Bordeaux for this port on the 18th of October. The Kate Bonfield, Williams, arrived at London from this port on the 18th ult. The Charlotte & Anna, Lewin, sailed from Hamburg for this port on the 30th ult.

Capt. Bisby, of the steamer Ontario, has disposed of his interest in that steamer to Capt. Wallace, and has purchased the handsome little steamer Elizabeth, formerly the property of Capt. R. P. Paddison, which will be employed by him in carrying the mail between this city and Smithville.
