OUTLINES.

The funders have probably carried Virginia. - Cornell is elected in New York, but the Democrats have probably elected the remainder of their ticket. -Democrate carried Elizabeth, New Jersey.

Republicans carried Detroit, Michi igan. - Hamilton, Democrat, elected Governor of Maryland by from 10,000 to 20,000 majority. - Long, Republican, elected Governor of Massachusetts, and the Legislature is largely Republican. -A violent gale visited Magdalen Islands, doing great damage. - A railway accident occurred in India, by which 19 persons were killed and 45 wounded. -

The chief of the insurgents in Kurdistan is at the head of 15,000 men; the Porte has sent Somich Pasha to attack him. - A fire occurred at Helena, Ark., destroying five buildings. - A Beriin paper accuses Russia of complicity in the late troubles in Afghanistan; some papers found at Cabul seriously compromise the Government at St. Petersburg. - Patsey Mc-Cormack stabbed Thos. Welsh and Juo. Conway, inflicting fearful wounds on both, in New York, yesterday. - Elizabeth, N. J., had a $60,000 fire yesterday.

Three men and a corpse, belonging to a wrecked schooner, were picked up off Cape Elizabeth by a passing steamer. - A difficulty coccurred between whites and blacks in Ause Arundel county, Md., on election day, in which a white man was killed. - The pressure brought by the British to compel Turkey to execute promised reforms threatens to lead to trouble. - More floods are reported in Spain, doing great damage. - After funeral ceremonies in New York, yesterday, the remains of Gen. Hooker were taken to Cincinemit for interment. --- Returns from the Virginia election yesterday were gloomy for the debt payers; the indications are that the Read insters will have a majority in both Houses. The Democrats elect their entire city and county tickets in Brooklyn. - New York markets: Money rather ingent at 7@71 per cent.; cotton steady at 11#@114 cents; Southern flour dull and steady; wheat 4@6c lower, feverish and unsettled; corn 1@11c lower and duil; spirits turpentine lower and dull at 434c; rosin dull at $1 70@1 75.

New York has Cornellwards.

And now the doleful news comes all the way from Texas that the Greenback fever has almost entirely subsided. Texas is getting ready to roll up the biggest of majorities for Bayard or Hancock or Church, or some other good and true Democrat.

Two students at Washington and Lee University, Virginia, got into a difficulty, when one killed the other with a croquet mallet. What's the matter with the "Virginia bloods?" The moral of this is-do not play grequet.

The bloody-shirt having been used successfully in inflaming the Northern mind against the South, will now be folded up for a brief season and laid away in the Stalwart chest of combostibles. When it is again brought forth it will be dipped fortyseven times in bull's gore and will then be flapped defiantly in the face of the country.

On November 3d the great deadhead traveller around the world was at Council Bluffs. Here is the way he was received:

"The special train pulled out from Council Bluffs early this morning, and at 9.30 a detachment of infantry, headed by the regi-ment band, and followed by carriages containing Gen. Grant, the Mayor of Omaha and Mrs. Grant, came insight. They were received by Col. Grant and his wife. Gov. Gear made a speech of welcome and offered him an escort of the Grand Army across Iowa. Gen. Grant replied in a few remarks."

How is this? Can it be true that Lord Roscoe is not in favor in his own State? Hear that robust organ of the Stalwarts-the Baltimore American-thus saying:

"Senstor Conkling will hardly relish the statement that Blaine is the choice of the bulk of New York Republicans for President. A careful canvass of the State shows such, however, to be the fact." The Sprague "shot-gun policy" appears to have made a hole in the political integuments of the Canonchet

On the night before the election there was great depression at the Robinson headquarters. The result explains the matter. Here is how it was reported in a dispatch sent off that night:

"At the Robinson headquarters in this city there is evident despondency over tomorrow's contest. One Democrat said: 'I have never seen such a canvass. There has been no harmony of action; no one has been willing to spend any money, and those who have acted have wasted their energy by acting at cross purposes with each other.'
Another man said in a whisper, looking around the room: 'Do you see these men. There is not one who is not watching for a chance to sell the rest out if he can get his price. All these local politicians want is for each to get office or whatever he is after. They care nothing for the State ticket or the party."

VOL. XXV.--NO. 39.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1879.

At the bour we write there is nothing assured from New York as to the State ticket, except the defeat of Robinsou and the Legislature being Republican by a large majority. The prospect is that the remainder of the Democratic State ticket is elected by a small majority. The Republican paper at Albany, the Evening Journal, claims that its party is victorious throughout. Later telegrams may decide the matter, to which we refer the reader.

The Topic, published at Lenoir, Caldwell county, has a kindly editorial on "Wilmington and the West," in which it says some just and timely things. We do not know that we can do better than publish the fol-

There is no doubt but that groceries, especially, can be bought in Wilmington at as low figures as the same goods are sold in any other part of the United States. Heretofore the trouble has been in the high freights, but this, it is promised by the railroad officials, shall no longer stand in the

"The General Government has spent millions in improving the mouth of the Cape Fear. Surely North Carolina will do better in the future than she has done in the past, in fostering the best harbor to be found on all her coast. The Wilmington people are State tax-payers, and good ones,

Their city is the pride of the State, and numbers among its citizens men who have been the steady friends of every western enterprise. And yet the Cape Fear folks eat apples raised in Western New York and Irish potatoes brought from Vermont. so little commercial connection is there between us. Meanwhile we buy our sugar, coffee and salt in Richmond and Baltimore, and wonder why Virginia and Mary land are shead of us in the race of States. The reason would seem plain even to a wayfaring man, who was born a fool."

- Raleigh News of the 4th contains five columns of the awards made at

- We regret to learn that both editors of the Elizabeth City Telegram each lost a child last week. - Raleigh Observer: Miss Florence

Reeves, aged sixteen, died of diphtheria Sunday afternoon, and was buried yester-- A Mr. Chapel, of Dutchville township, recently died from the effects of bullet shot by Gen. Francis Marion's men during the Revolutionary war .- Oxford Torch'sght. Why, Davis! - Monroe Express: There is not a single prisoner in our county jail, our railroad debt will all be paid off next year, and our overseer of the Poor House weighs 340 pounds. What county can show a better record ? - Elizabeth City Economist: A few days ago a boy was wounded very bad-ly at Bailey's mill. He was trying to put on a band with a stick, which got caught and stabbed him through the abdomen. He is getting along tolerably well. - Chapel Hill Ledger: The Hon. K. P. Battle owns a rooster which one year ago was entirely red, but has since changed his color and is now a beautiful white. The change from red to white has been gradual and is something very rare.

- The Piedmont Press, of Saturday, says: Dr. Elliott's road engine came into town yesterday evening with a rush. Everything is now fixed and it works nicely. It can run a mile in ten minutes and has hauled 10,000 pounds up a grade 15 inches in every 12 feet.

- A little child of Abram Watson, colored, of Robeson, fell into the fire and was burnt to death. The same old story: he and wife left a seven year old chap to take care of it whilst they went abroad. It is time the law makers were providing against such criminal carelessness

- Chapel Hill Ledger: Mr. Char. ie Smedes, student, while in a friendly ussle with another student, on Thursday evening, fell and had his collar bone bro ken. - About twenty-five of the students have organized a Gun Club, for exercise in target and glass ball shooting.

- Alamance Gleaner: We are sor ry to learn that Mrs. Brannoch, widow of the late James M. Brannoch, of Morton's township, in this county, had the misfortune to have her house, with nearly everything in it, burned last week. - A young lady of Graham, whose name we could give, but of whose patience and perseverance it is needless to speak, has just completed a bed quilt containing five thousand eight hundred and sixty-sever pieces.

- Jackson Reporter: With deep regret we announce the audden death of Mr. Cad Capehart, which took place at his home in Bertie county on lass Wednesday morning. He was taken with a yellow chill on Monday evening, and died at the time above stated. — Little Frank, son of Mr. Joseph Brown, fell from the top platform of Mr. Selden's coach shop to the ground—a distance of twenty-five feet—last Wednesday. Very luckily he was not seriously injured.

- Hale's Weekly : ELIZABETH CITY, Nov. 1.—The seventh annual Fair of the Association closed last night. It was a success financially, the receipts being in excess of the Fair last year. The utmost good order and social feeling have prevailed and it has been truly a season of pleasure and enjoyment. — During the past week five convicts, three white, two colored, were brought up from Lenoir; four, all colored, came up from Edgecombe, and one, colored, om Hertford.

- Randolph item in Raleigh News: The Trinity College Agricultural Society held its second annual fair at this place on Friday and Saturday, October 24th and 25th. The display of farm products, agricultural implements, fine stock, and of all kinds of fancy work, would have done credit to a much older organization. — Davie dot: The Baptists are holding their pro-tracted meeting at Fork church. They are having large congregations with a good degree of interest and several converts up to yesterday. - We have already given a part of the proceedings of the Local Ministers Conference, recently in session at Clayton, We give other additional points furnished by a correspondent: John W. Heptenstall was reelected President, and L. Branson Financial Secretary. J. F. Butt, Solomon Pool and E. A. Wright were elected Vice Presidents. The next Conference will be held at Rutherford College, commencing on Wednesday before the last Sabbath in July, 1880, at which time and place there will be another Local Preachers' camp

J. M. Bowers, colored, has been a tenant of Thomas McNeely, of Union. The Monroe Enquirer says they fell out, last week, about the division of the corn crop. McNeely went home for his gun. Bowers fired on James McNeely, son of his landlord, filling one of his knees with shot. James and Bowers closed and fought, and Bowers' wife appearing on the scene, fell on McNeely with a fance rail, doing him more damage than her husband had done him with his gun. The elder McNeely then appeared and stopped the row. All parties swore out warrants and were taken before magistrates, where all hands compromised and paid the costs.

 The Murfreesboro Enquirer says he grave robber has been at work in Hertford. Since the unfortunate death of Jas. H. Gatling, his brother, Dr. Richard J. Gatling, desired to have the family burial ground so arranged that it could better be protected, and decided to have the remains of Mrs. Themas Gatling removed by the side of the grave of her decessed husband. While doing the same last week it was discovered that some brute, of the human species, had previously dug up the same and carelessly tumbled it back in the grave and covered it up. It is probable that they thought they would find the money of Mr. Gatling buried there.

- Lenoir Topic: A correspondent nforms us that there are more than a hundred carpenters constantly employed at Durham—that the sound of the axe, hammer, and mallet is heard in every direction. Watauga items: Protracted meetings are in operation in various parts of the county. One at Boone's Chapel has been going on for more than a week. - Fifteen persons were baptized by immersion at Three Forks Church last Thursday. — B. F. - Charlotte Observer: Within the past week or two between a half dozen and a dozen business men have lost valuable mail matter between Charlotte and New York and other points North. — Rev. J. J. Lafferty, editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate, opens fire, through the Piedmont Press, on Prof. H. D. Capers, who lately attacked Mr. Lafferty because he had said in his paper that Rutherford College is an old barn, and that the people who are running it had better be worming tobacco. He says that there are two charges lying in Richmond against Capers, either of which would put him in the penitentiary. - The outside of the STAR says a colored woman died in Wilmington one day last week at the age of 95. Does the inside of the STAR believe it? [The "inside" can stand 95, with the record, but when the yarns get up into the hundreds, well then -.] - Lumberton Robesonian : The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. A colored man in the employment of Mr Durham Lewis, had his hand badly crushed in the steam cotton gin last Tuesday. -Mr. B. M. Floyd tells of a new kind of rat tlesnake which was killed in his neighborhood a few days ago. No snake of the kind was ever seen by the oldest Nimrod among them. He cut off the rattles-five in num ber—to send to us, but they broke into several pieces while being handled by him. -St. Paul's items: A turpentine still here belonging to L. Shaw, Esq., caught fire spontaneously last week just after a charge of rosin was turned out. - The turpentine distillery of Messrs. Slocumb & Johnson was burned about 12 o'clock on the night of the 28th ultimo. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary. - Quhele dot: Col. Duncan K. "Best saddle gelding, ten dollars, J. T. Southerland, Wilmington. "Best single harness mare, ten dollars, P.

. Bridgers, Wilmington." And these, we suppose, are the only premiums of which Wilmington can boast. Probably she didn't realize the importance of being properly represented. Resignation and Promotion. Capt. J. W. Lamb, late Foreman of the Wilmington Steam Engine Company No. 1. sent in his resignation Tuesday night, it being his intention to leave in a few days for Florence, S. C., where he is to establish a branch of the livery stable business, in which he has been engaged here. Mr. J. N. Huske, First Assistant Foreman, was promoted to the position vacated by Capt. Lamb.

About two hundred exercionists from all along the line of the Carolina Central they, with others that had preceded them, together with the large number in attendance upon the session of the U. S. District Court, made things look quite lively on our streets during the day. Another instalment will probably arrive this morning. Our visitors seem to be enjoying themselves.

Outting Scrape at Whiteville.

Quite a serious cutting scrape occurred Whiteville on Saturday evening last. It appears that a young white man from South Carolina, by the name of John Reeves, came there drunk, and, without the slightest provocation from any one, drew his knife and commenced cutting and slashing indiscriminately, in a crowd of men, and succeeded n wounding Isaac and Henry Baldwin, colored, the former being cut seriously in the back. Mr. C. D. Baldwin, while attempting to take the knife away from the dosperate man, was cut in the hand, and Mr. E. C. Watkins also received a blow, by which part of his beard was cut from his chin. There had been no trouble or misunderstanding at all. The first intimation Isaac Baldwin had of Reeves' intention to cut him was feeling the thrust of the knife into his body and the trickling blood down his back. He was finally overpowered and lodged in the guard house, from which he was subsequently released upon giving bond in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of Columbus Superior Court.

Young Reeves is said to be a man of good family, and usually very peaceable, but desperate when under the influence of strong drink.

RIVER AND MAMINE

- A three-masted schooner, name unknown, was reported in below yesterday

- The Charleston News and Courier, of yesterday, reports the following: "While the steamship City of Atlanta and the schooner L. M. Collins were off the bar yesterday morning, about daylight, the former waiting for tide to come in, and the latter detained from her voyage to Wilmington by head winds, they came into collision, the steamer receiving some injury to her stern and bowsprit, and the schooner was damaged in her bulwarks and rigging. The steamer reached her wharf during the forenoon, and the schooner was towed in by the steam tug Republic. The following is the report of the captain of the schooner: The schooner L. M. Collins, Curtis, in balroad arrived here yesterday morning, and last, hence for Wilmington, N. C., safled Monday morning, was in sight of Georgetown light when, encountering strong northeast winds, was compelled to put back to Charleston for a harbor. Tuesday morning, at 6:15 o'clock, while the schooner was by the wind on the starboard tack, standing in for the Swash Channel, was run into by the steamship City of Atlanta, striking the schooner on the port bow, breaking mainsail and water ways, carrying away fore rigging on the port side, cathead and jibboom, and doing other damage. Wrighted to leeward and came to anchor near the breakers. At 12:30 P. M. was taken in tow by tug Republic and towed to whatf at L Charleston.
