OUTLINES.

The finest Baptist Church in the world was dedicated in St. Louis on the 6th. The New York election is in doubt, but the chances are in favor of the Democrats on the State ticket, with the exception of Governor.

Bill Davis, self-confessed murderer, was hanged at Lockhart, Texas. The floods in Jamaica have subsided; nearly one hundred lives were lost; the coffee crop suffered heavily by the rain.

The British fleet will not go to Voulah, the Porte having given positive assurance that it will no longer delay the execution of the reforms. M. Philippot, Chairman of the Paris Banque, has disappeared, leaving immense liabilities.

The Government is making preparations to hunt down Chief Victoria of the Apaches. The examination into the Young-Hin-ton homicide case at Petersburg, Va., began yesterday. J. N. Baxter was found guilty of robbing a safe of the Southern Express Company, at Shelby, N. C., in 1877, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years.

Gen. Grant expects to come east in December; he will spend the winter in Cuba. A freight train on the Pennsylvania Railroad was wrecked near Altoona, and two men killed, by the accident, yesterday. The Albany Evening Journal, Rep., concedes the election of Potter as Lieutenant Governor of New York by 243 majority.

There is great distress in the financial affairs of Turkey. A steamer aground in the Suez canal causes a suspension of traffic. The revenue of France for the past ten months exceeds the estimates by 123,000,000 francs. The funeral of General Hooker took place at Cincinnati yesterday. Prince Hohenzollern is not likely to accept the Vice Chancellorship of Germany if it is offered.

The official records of the election in Pennsylvania give Butler, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, a majority of 58,674 votes. An election riot occurred at Leonardtown, Md., in which one man was shot. Gov. Bishop, of Ohio, has sued the Cincinnati Gazette for slander, laying damages at $50,000. The rumored dissolution of Parliament has caused depression in the London Stock Exchange.

Major Morrow's troops had a fight with Victoria's band of Apaches in Mexico, sixty miles beyond the boundary line. Testimony has been brought to light in the trial of Rev. Mr. Hayden, for the murder of Mary Stannard, which tends strongly to fix the crime upon him. Wm. Row, a policeman of Columbia, S. C., has been convicted of manslaughter in killing John English. Pork packers of Chicago and their hands are at loggerheads about wages.

New York markets: Money 7 per cent; cotton firm at 17-16 1/2-16 cents; Southern flour more active and steady at $5 70-75; wheat weak at $1 20-21 3/5; corn quiet at 57 1/2; spirits turpentine lower at 40-41; resin $1 80.

We learn that Gen. J. M. Leach thinks that Bayard is the man for 1880. Religious and agricultural reports occupy most of our outside editorial space to day.

After doing an immense amount of mischief it is said that Tammany and anti-Tammany are beginning to talk about burning the hatchet and smoking the corn-cob pipe of peace. Maryland never falters. The Democrats of other States may falter or run after strange gods, but the "Old Guard" remembers its history and rallies to the old standard.

After all there is good prospect that the Virginia Legislature will not be controlled by the repudiationists. Under the impression that this would be the case Virginia consols fell in the New York market from 66 1/2 to 62, and 10.50's from 5 1/2 to 51. There is a lesson right here for Virginia and other States afflicted by advocates of repudiation.

The Greensboro Patriot has changed hands. It is already very much improved under the new management. Capt. R. T. Fulghum is editor and proprietor, and Wade H. Harris, so favorably known in Wilmington for his personal cleverness and gifts as a localizer, has charge of the "city" department. The Patriot will cease to be a patent outside, and will publish a clean paper out and out. Success all around.

The news in Washington is that the Democrats will pursue a very conservative course next winter. The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, referring to this determination on the part of the leaders, says: "Zealots will be made to take back seats. Passionate declamations, tropical rhetoric and sectional recrimination will be severely set down upon. Such safe and conservative leaders as Bayard, White, Karman, Handolph, Gordon, Lamar and Ransom will demonstrate that the Democracy of all sections are anxious for a cordial alignment with the national feeling, the character, capital and respectability of the country."

THE MORNING STAR.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1879. VOL. XXV.--NO. 41. WHOLE NO. 3,819

We gather a few prevailing opinions in Washington from the Baltimore Sun's letter. It says: "Thoughtful Republicans find nothing in the fact of Cornell's election by a comparatively meagre plurality to give them comfort. The real contest was for the Lieutenant Governorship and the rest of the State ticket. Clarkson N. Potter, a representative Democrat, defeats by a decisive majority Hoskins, a representative Republican, for Lieutenant Governor."

"It is generally assumed that the result in New York largely helps the chances of Senator Bayard for the Democratic nomination for President. He has always been a great favorite with New York Democrats. His views on the money question have always been in harmony with theirs, and he is objectionable to no faction of the party in the State. His influence now is considered essential to Democratic success. Certainly nobody now dreams of a candidate from the West, or of any other one thoroughly acceptable in his antecedent record, as well as in his present attitude, to the hard-money sentiment of the Eastern States. * * * Republican politicians, as expressed to your correspondent by one of them, a gentleman who served several terms in Congress, and now holds a high position in the executive branch of the government, base all the hopes they have of New York next year upon the well-known skill of Mr. Cornell in manipulating politics, and his absolute indifference as to the means used to accomplish ends. As Governor, with a Republican Legislature behind him, Mr. Cornell will, they think, be able to exercise great influence."

Many Independents have been elected in Mississippi if Yasoo did go Democratic. Some negroes have been elected also. This does not look like bulldozing and a general resort to the "shot-gun policy."

Meeting of the Forty-Ninth Annual Meeting of the Baptist State Convention. [Daily Torchlight's Report Condensed.] First Day. The Convention assembled at the Baptist Church this morning, at 11 o'clock, and, in the absence of the President, W. A. Graham, was called to order by the First Vice President, Rev. N. B. Cobb. The usual singing and reading of the Scriptures followed, and the President pro tem, made some brief remarks, giving a retrospective sketch of the work during the past year. The opening prayer was then offered, after which the roll of the Associations was called by the Secretary.

Rev. N. B. Cobb was elected President. The committee to nominate officers reported as follows: For Vice Presidents, J. H. Mills, A. McDowell and W. H. Jordan; Treasurer, B. F. Montague; Auditor, T. H. Briggs, Jr.; Secretary, William Biggs; Assistant Secretary, N. L. Shaw. The report was adopted, and the gentlemen nominated were declared elected.

AFTERNOON SESSION. On motion the following Standing Committees were appointed by the President: Time and Place of Next Session—Revs. E. S. Davis and J. A. Stradley, and Bro. T. D. Crawford. To Nominate Preachers for the Next Session.—Rev. R. H. Griffith, W. R. Gwaltney and Bro. P. A. Dunn. Periodicals.—Revs. R. H. Marsh and A. D. Blackwood, and Bro. J. C. Scarborough. To Nominate S. S. Boards.—Revs. R. T. Vann and J. H. Booth, and Bro. R. J. Devin. To Nominate Board of Education.—Revs. J. B. Taylor and R. R. Savage, and Bro. P. A. Dunn. To Nominate Board of Missions.—Revs. T. Whitfield and W. A. Barrett, and Bro. T. Dixon. On Obituaries.—Revs. F. H. Ivey and J. S. S. Purefoy, and Wm. Hill Jordan. Home and Indian Missions.—Revs. W. R. Gwaltney and J. K. Howell, and Bro. R. J. Dunn. A lengthy and interesting report from the Board of Missions was submitted and read in extenso. After some discussion that portion referring to State Missions was, on motion of Rev. J. B. Taylor, made special order for Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Pritchard, that portion relating to Foreign Relations was referred to a special committee of three, the President appointing Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. T. Whitfield and Rev. T. Harrison as said committee.

Rev. E. H. Griffith, agent for the Southern Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Ky., stated that North Carolina owed $25,000 of her assessment for the support of that institution. From the daily Free Lance we take the following statistics: Associations corresponding with the Baptist State Convention in 1878, 73; Associations corresponding with the Baptist State Convention in 1879, 24; number of churches in said Associations, 730; number new churches organized in 1878, 16; whole number churches in 1879, 738; number communicants in churches in 1878, 73,000; number added in 1879, not less than 2,500; professed conversions under Baptist preaching in North Carolina in 1879, 3,000; liabilities of the Board, $1,427 13; amount collected by Associations, $3,675; amount expended in church buildings, $21,040; grand total expenditures in State Mission work in 1879, $21,161 25.

Gov. Jarvis will attend Cumberland Fair.

The Charlotte Fair. [Charlotte Democrat.] The number of visitors on the first day was not large, but on Wednesday and Thursday the number was considerably increased and there was a larger crowd than on any previous occasion of the sort.

While the exhibition of horses and stock was not very large, the quality was superior, being mostly blooded animals. The display in Floral Hall was quite creditable, and in some departments superior to anything heretofore exhibited. The exhibition of Machinery, though not large in quantity, was substantial and of No. 1 workmanship. The road steamer of Dr. E. O. Elliott, of Catawba county, attracted marked attention and interest. It runs on even and uneven ground easily and smoothly, being guided by a lever in the hands of an engineer, who sits on the machine.

The military parade on Wednesday was quite imposing, consisting of the two Charlotte companies, the Cadets of the Carolina Military Institute, Capt. Bell's corp of Cadets from King's Mountain, the Anson Veterans from Anson county, the Southern Stars from Lincoln county, the Folk Rifles from Pineville, Mecklenburg county, and the Mecklenburg Riflemen. The Rook Hill Band and the Band belonging to the Charlotte Greys furnished the music. On Tuesday there was a large crowd in the city and the Fair Grounds presented a throng of people seldom seen there. Col. D. K. McRae, who was to deliver the Annual Address, was present, having arisen from a sick bed for the purpose of discharging that duty, and made an effort to speak but after speaking for a short time had to abandon the attempt on account of hoarseness and general debility from the effects of a bad cold.

Spirits Turpentine. — Washington shipped 2,303 bales cotton last week. — The Oxford Torchlight says the mass of the people of Granville are better fed, clothed, housed, and enjoy more of the comforts of life than at any period before or since the war.

The Tarboro Southerner contains a long and interesting account of the editor's trip to the Agricultural Fair at Elizabeth City. He says Col. Polk delivered a practical address to two thousand people. — Washington Press: Greenville & Wilson Railroad enterprise is still being agitated, and we trust will result in the building of the road. We have heard that the Clyde Line will take a large amount of stock. — Raleigh Farmer & Mechanic: Several distinguished gentlemen had reason to hope the mantle of "Debt Commissioner" would fall upon their shoulders. And it didn't. And they don't accept the will for the deed. Not much.

Raleigh News: A letter from Salem contains the intimation that the Right Rev. E. A. deSchweinitz, Bishop of the Southern Province of the Moravian church, died at his residence in that place on the night of the 3rd instant, at eleven o'clock. Revivals reported in Raleigh Christian Advocate: Matamoras circuit, total 210 converts, 148 additions; Coblesburg circuit, 28 converts; Mt. Pleasant circuit, 42 converts; Cobarric mission, 50 conversions, 5 additions; Brunswick circuit 29 additions. — Charlotte Democrat: What a pity it is that so many good newspapers in this State may their columns by inserting various sorts of advertisements among their "local news" matter, and between articles of reading matter, deceiving and misleading the reader who is looking for advice and news from the pen of the editor or local reporter. — Goldsboro Messenger: The many friends of Rev. C. J. Nelson will be pained to learn that his estimable wife was stricken with paralysis Tuesday night, and that her right side is helplessly paralyzed. — Greensboro Journal: An glad to know that the Government will let out a contract for a daily mail, excepting Sundays, between Snow Hill and Goldsboro. — Weldon News: When Col. J. W. Johnston, of this county, was at college, about twenty-five years ago, he presented a gold-headed cane to Frank Simmons, also of this county. Frank Simmons went out to Kansas to live and died out there. Senator Vance, who was a college mate of these two gentlemen, while in Kansas recently with the committee of investigation appointed by the Senate last winter, came across this cane and recognized it. He secured it, brought it back home, and gave it to Col. Johnston, who has it now in possession. — Charlotte Observer: There were numerous drunks, of all grades, yesterday and last night. There were half drunks and full drunks, plain drunks, howling drunks, fighting drunks and drunks-and-down. A few found judgment in the lock-up, but the city's leniency was extended over the great majority of the cases. — Salisbury, Greensboro, Raleigh, and other places in North Carolina, where with his bludgeoning he played the people like a flute, leaving behind him his autograph, representing sundry sums borrowed, will be glad to know that one Henry J. Ryan is in jail at Albany, Ga. — Tarboro Southerner: Gov. Jarvis is quite popular in some counties we have just traversed. — Maj. Latham, of Greenville, will doubtless be the next nominee of the Democrats in the First District. This we were told by many prominent men in that District, and they claim for him 1,000 majority. — A most successful revival at Habers, in this county. There were nineteen converts, thirteen of whom joined the Methodist Church. — Bertie Item: Judge Avery sentenced Robert Outerbridge to be hanged on Friday, November 28th. An appeal was then taken to the Supreme Court. — "H." of the New York correspondent of the Free Lance, answers inquiries about the value of Confederate money as follows: "I have seen it stated that Confederate money was in demand in London. Having been applied to by a gentleman in North Carolina to know what it was worth, I made inquiries and found a house here that gives ten cents for every hundred notes, without regard to their denomination, except the issues of 1861, engraved by the American Bank Note Company, which are worth more according to their condition. There were few, comparatively, of this date issued. The price will scarcely induce any one to send them for sale. It does not induce me even to look up the bundle of my own."

Greensboro Patriot: Last Saturday evening little George Hughes, son of James M. Hughes, Esq., was under the floor of his father's corn bin gathering up scattered corn, when the floor, yielding to its excessive load of corn, gave way and crushed the little fellow to the ground. He was removed from this position with all the haste possible. He will recover. They are still leaving the Old North State and going to Texas. Scarcely a train has passed Greensboro for a week or two that is not an emigrant train, if a smoking car, jammed with men, women and children, can make it be called an emigrant train. — The revenue collections in this, the Fifth District of North Carolina, for the past week, ending Saturday, amounted to a total of $87,848.

Goldsboro Mail: Cotton receipts here have fallen off over half the last week as compared with week before last. — An influential journal in the Raleigh District says the name of Hon. John Manning, of Chatham, will be brought prominently before the Democratic nomination convention of that District as a candidate for Congress, when it assembles next spring. — There has been a marked improvement in the North Carolina press within the last two years, and we think much is due to the fact that there is now much more clipping than was done then. Not only does the clipping add to the general make-up of the newspaper literature, but the practice of reading to and from the press, and the habit of clipping, is a most creditable one. Much credit is due the Wilmington Star for this improvement.

Fayetteville Gazette: Some peas have been destroyed by the recent frosts; but we learn, by conversation with farmers from different parts of this and adjoining counties, that the crop is generally pretty fair, and in some instances a very large yield has been obtained. — We have heard of several instances where a second crop of apples have been obtained, and in considerable size before the coming of cold weather. — The Chief Marshal has appointed the following Assistants for the fair: W. F. Steele, Stanback and Ben Ryan, of Guilford; J. H. McEachern, Geo. McLeod, of Richmond. — The Seventeenth Annual Fair of the Cumberland County Agricultural Society will commence on Tuesday, the 11th instant, to continue for four days, and nearly all the people in the county of all the Cape Fear section, and from wherever else they may come, to join with us as friends, visitors and exhibitors.

Raleigh Observer: Under the editorial management of Messrs Black & Reid the Raleigh Christian Advocate has nearly by subscription netted 3,913, after cutting off 700 delinquent subscribers. — Dr. J. F. Laster's store house was burned on Tuesday last. He used it to store his grain, &c. All his papers and accounts were lost. There had been no fire in the building for a year past, and there is no clue to the origin of the fire. Three bales of cotton, sixty bushels of wheat, fifty bushels of corn, and between $300 and $1,000 worth of accounts were burned. — We regret to learn that Mr. J. T. Edwards, living near House Creek, about five miles from the city, had his cotton house, containing about $1,000 worth of cotton, nearly all destroyed by fire on Tuesday night, about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. — A colored woman lying at Asbury, about five miles west of this city, dropped dead on Tuesday night, from hemorrhage of the lungs. — J. E. Simon, Deputy Sheriff of Bertie county, brought up three convicts, one white and two colored, and put them within the prison walls. They are laborers all, and get terms ranging from one to three years.

THE CITY. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MUNSON—We are enlarging. MOTT & CAMPEN—Good meats. E. E. BURBANKS—Assignee's sale. KASPROWICZ—Smoking tobacco. CROMLY & MORRIS—Auction sale. Local Ads. — The receipts of cotton yesterday footed up 703 bales. — There were no cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. — There never was such a dearth of news before in magisterial circles. — The Norwegian brig Anna, which cleared for Liverpool yesterday, takes out 1,088 bales of cotton. — Turner's Almanac predicted hard frost for yesterday. The weather felt anything else but frosty in this latitude. — We had brief calls yesterday from Messrs. Blair, of the Western Carolinian, Merrill, of Hickory, Tomlinson, of the Piedmont Press, and McDiarmid, of the Lumberton Robesonian. — It was noticeable that the "Queen of Scuffletown" and her companion, Boss Strong's sister, had swapped veils yesterday. Rhoda was formerly recognized by her light veil. Yesterday she wore a dark one. Their former connection with the outlaws continues to render them the observed of all observers. — Our friend Wade Harris, now one of the editors of the Greensboro Patriot, says (and alleges that the information is for our sole benefit) that "Dummy," who used to be the idol of the printing fraternity of Wilmington, glided over the cross-ties past this place Monday afternoon. He is going where the widow Potts went. — Mr. and Mrs. Florence. Mr. and Mrs. Moreland writes us from New Orleans, under date of October 28th, that Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence built certainly fill their engagement at the Opera House in this city on Friday and Saturday evenings next, the 14th and 15th insts. The posters were being placed in position yesterday. The play is "The Mighty Dollar."

Goings to Wadesboro. At a meeting of the Champion Base Ball Club, last night, they decided to attend the Dixie Agricultural and Mechanical Fair to be held at Wadesboro. They will leave here on the night of the 12th, and will be ready to participate in the competitive matches on the 19th inst.

To-Day's Indications. For the South Atlantic States, northeast to southeast winds, slight change in temperature and pressure, and partly cloudy weather.

U. S. District Court. Several unimportant revenue cases were disposed of by this tribunal yesterday, but most of the day was consumed in the trial of George Davis, colored, charged with stealing a bag of mail from a car on the W. C. & A. R. R., some time last year, and concealing it in a swamp near Charleston, where it was subsequently found by a detective sent by Col. Brink, our postmaster, to work up the case. The principal witness in the case was a colored man by the name of Aaron Godbold, who swore that he saw Davis when he took the mail bag and placed it in a box in the car, from which place of concealment it was subsequently removed to the swamp referred to after it had been rifled of its contents of value. Much testimony was introduced both by the government and the defence, the former to corroborate the testimony of Godbold, and the latter to throw discredit upon his testimony, upon which the government relied for a verdict.

The case was given to the jury at 4 p. m., after a very able and careful charge by His Honor, Judge Brooks, and a verdict of guilty was soon afterwards returned, whereupon the prisoner was sentenced to one year at hard labor in the Albany penitentiary.

J. L. Holmes, Esq., appeared for the defence, and Mr. District Attorney Albertson for the government. The Grand Jury were discharged last evening, and it is probable that the Court will adjourn at an early hour to-day.

More About the West Coast. Mr. A. Hagan, the gentleman alluded to in our last having given us the statistics in regard to agricultural matters in Catawba county, was in to see us yesterday, and called our attention to an error in an article. That county has five thousand acres planted in wheat, and the yield is estimated at about five hundred thousand bushels. It is the great wheat county of the State, and he claims that it has in use more wheat and guano drills than all the rest of the State put together. Attention has but recently been directed to the Navassa Guano, manufactured at the works of the Company here, as a fertilizer, and about seventy tons have been introduced into Catawba this season. Mr. Hagan himself is an evidence of the thrift and energy characteristic of the county and its people. He went there a few years ago not worth a cent, according to his own statement, and he is now running fine plantations, and the people of Catawba may become better acquainted, and that the community of interest between them may be strengthened and intensified.

Destructive Fire in the Country. A fire occurred Thursday night, about 10 o'clock, at Oaks Farm, the property of Mr. F. M. Moore, on Brunswick River, about a half mile from the Navassa Guano Works, and four miles from Wilmington, which resulted in the destruction of his barn and crop of rice, estimated at about six thousand bushels. Mr. Moore was in this city at the time, a white watchman being in charge of the farm. He has no intimation as yet as to how the fire originated. The property was valued at about $12,000. The barn was insured for $2,000 in the Liverpool and London and Globe, and the rice for $2,000 each in the Liverpool and London and Globe, and the Virginia Fire & Marine and Merchants & Mechanics, of Richmond, Va., represented by Messrs. J. W. Gordon & Bro., the whole amount of insurance footing up $8,000.

Absence of Him. A gentleman of this city had illustrated in his own person, a few days since, a very singular instance of absence of mind or forgetfulness. He has several children, and started to call the name of one of them to a friend, when he found that he had actually forgotten it. He strained his mental faculties to the utmost in the endeavor to recall it, without success, and finally had to go home and ask his wife for the desired information. Unavailable Matter. The following is the unavailable matter remaining in the city post office at this date: Tomey Batte, William, N. C. J. C. Boyd, New York, N. Y. J. S. Johnson, New York, N. Y. — Capt.
