Hon. Robert Toombs was not disappointed at the New York election, but rather elated. It shows that if united that State is safe for the De mocracy in 1880.

Senator Bayard landed at New York on Friday. There was no flourish of trumpets over his safe return from his foreign travels. The Democracy of the country will gladly welcome the honest and capable Senator from Delaware.

It has been overlooked that Waldo Hutchins has been elected to Congress from the Twelfth district in New York. This is a gain. It is Clarkson N. Potter's old district that was lost in the last election. The person elected died on the night of his triumph.

We are told that this week both the Kellvites and the Tildenites will issue appeals to the Democracy of the United States Kelly will go for Tilden, and lay at his door the "calamity" of having Cornell elected. Tilden will show that Kelly is responsible. The country appears to regard both as guilty-the one in forcing Robinson as the nominee; the other for bolting and electing Cornell and other Republicans. The Republicans will also issue a manifesto assuring the public that the election of Mr. Cornell means a united North as against a solid South, and that, by consequence, it foreshadows the election of another Republican President. . The outlook, therefore, promises no lack of agitatiou.

WHOLE NO. 3.82

The venerable Dr. Lovick Pierce is dead, in his 95th year. He was a native of North Carolina, and was one of the greatest preachers ever born on this continent. Rev. Dr. Deems, himself a preacher of great gifts and ability, once told us that he never heard a greater preacher than "this old man eloquent" when he was in his prime. He was a wise and good man, and was indeed a Prince in Israel. His son, Bishop Pierce, of Georgia, now an old man, is equally eminent for his splendid pulpit power.

Here is the result in Virginia as given by the Richmond Dispatch of Monday:

House. Conservative Debt-Payers elected..... White Republican Debt-Payers elected. White Republicans elected uncertain on debt.....Colored Republicans elected..... Readjusters elected 41 Portsmouth tie..... BENATE.

Conservative Debt-Payers....... 14
White Republican Debt-Payers...... 4

Colored Republicans.....

This is only partly official.

The Charlotte Observer has been nterviewing Col. Walter L. Steele, member of Congress from that District. He thinks Mr. Tilden has been retired by the result in New York. We quote:

"Popular favor changes so suddenly and so completely that the man who might be most available to-day might be east so a year hence. He went on to say that Mr. Bayard was a man of decided character, and one against whom nothing can New York, it was suggested, is also a pure owner. man, and a strong man in his State, and without hazarding an opinion as to who the nominee next year would be, or ought to be, the drift of Col. Steele's conversation pointed to one or the other of the gentlemen mentioned."

BAPLIST STATE CONVENTION. Meeting of the Forty-Ninth Annual [Daily Torchlight's Report Condensed.] Third . Day. NOVEMBER 7.

The special order fixed for this hour being that portion of the report of the Board of Missions relating to State Missions, its consideration was

The report was read in full. Rev. Mr. Whitfield moved the adoption of the report. W. H. Pace, Chairman of the Board, arose and entered into a full explanation of the workings of the Board during the past year. J. E. Ray spoke. During the past year over $27,161 21 had been conributed to mission work, and this sum was a large underestimate, and proved it to be really over $50,000.

Several speeches were made. Dr. Hufham said before he left here he wanted $300 or $500 for the church at Hamilton, for the need was pressing. This was the first time he had ever come before the Baptists of the State begging for any enterprise with which he was intimately connected. In answer to Mr. Hufham a collecion was taken up, which resulted in obtaining $300.

The report was adopted. Rev. Mr. Griffith, from the Committee to nominate preachers for the next session of the Convention, submitted the following report:

Rev. F. H. Jones to preach the Introductory Sermon, Rev. Thomas Carrick, alternate; Missionary Sermon, Rev. J. B. Taylor, Rev. G. W. Harman, alternate. The report was

By a vote of the Convention the President, Rev. N. B. Cobb, was selected to respond to the address of welcome by J. H. Mills, Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum, on the occasion of the visit of the Convention this (Friday) afternoon.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The report of the Board on Periodi-cals, which was particularly compli-mentary to Biblical Recorder and recommended its support, as well as that of some other papers, was submitted.

The question was on the adoption of the report. Pending any definite action on the report, the Convention adjourned until 7 o'clock to visit the Orphan EVENING SESSION.

The motion to adopt the report of the Committee on Periodicals came up as the unfluished business. Sundry speeches were made. Report adopted. Mr. Shaw offered resolution:

WHEREAS, We feel a deep interest in the work of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, and believe it is doing an inestimable amount of good; and whereas we believe that the Baptist people of the State will feel it to be not only a duty, but a privilege, to contribute regularly to its support, therefore, Resolved, That all our pastors are hereby earnestly requested to take up a collection at such et their churches, at least once a year, in behalf of this great and important object.

The resolution was adopted.

Flythe, of Northampton, which was recently caught in a cotton gin, required teamputation in consequence of mortification having taken place.

- Rockingham Bee: The Baptist Festival at Laurinburg was a complete success. Net proceeds $176.62. The church is about finished. — Our Rick mond county people may not be aware the we are now in the eve of the centennial of the first court of record ever held in the county. The first minutes in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court are dated December the 27th, 1779.

Hickory Carolinian: Tom King a negro confined in jail at Taylorsville, charged with stealing an ox, escaped from jail a short time since. His plan of getting out was rather new. He climbed up the flue of the chimney, passed out on the roof, tore off some shingles, and fastened his pants to a rafter, and was thus enabled to swing down to the window, where he had tied bed clothing, by which he reached the ground. He has not been heard of since.

- Greensboro North State: An amusing story comes to us from an adjoining county. A girl was about to give birth to an illegitimate child, but the man to whom she intended to swear it died before she could get a chance to swear it. There-upon the girl applied for advice to a young sprig of the law, who had recently settled in the county. After mature deliberation and a careful examination of the authorities, he advised her to swear the child to

This we learn from the Raleigh Observer, which adds: "He was pursued and cap-tured, tied, kept an night under guard, and vesterday morning was turned over to an officer, who had a warrant for him. He was tried yesterday, but when our informant left the case had not been concluded." - The orphans at the Oxford Asylum need help very much. Euperintendent Mills, in his October report, shows a total of cash receipts for October of $254 70, and a comparatively small amount of contribu-tions in kind. In his remarks Superinten-dent Mills states that October ends with 137 orphans in attendance. Receipts for the month distressingly small. The appropria-tion by the Legislature has been spent. The Treasury of the Grand Lodge is nearly exhausted, and the while the Grand Lodge itself occupies a rented hall in order that the orphans may enjoy the buildings and grounds at Oxford. The people are too prosperous to think of the orphans. Even those who subscribed on the 24th of June, have forgotten their promises and seem to be annoyed when reminded thereof. — Raleigh Observer: The Telegram brings us the unwelcomed news that R. B. Creecy, Sr., editor of the Honomist, is confined to his house again from the effects of his late fall. — We regret to learn that Mr. N. P. - Warm Springs correspondent: I believe there is one man in the State of North Carolina that can carry the Democratic banner to a glorious triumph, and his name is Daniel G. Fowle, of the city of Raleigh. It is true we have a Democratic Governor Jarvis, but he is a long ways behind the present age. What our people want is Fowle for Governor and Alfred M. Waddell, of Wilmington, for Lieutenant Governor, and North Carolina can be carried for the Constitution, the Union and the enforcement of the laws. -

The Green backers on the Wand.

We learn that the Greenback meeting advertised to come off at Rocky Point, on Saturday last, was an utter failure. No meeting was held. Some two or three Greenbackers from Grant Township and other points in Pender were as many as could be mustered, and nothing was done, except that the deserved weakness of this Republican dodge to secure Democratic attempted inroads. All over this Congres- alongside, hemever, the flat gave the batsional District, as in every part of the State and throughout the country, the Greenback party steadily falls to pieces and is now almost extinct.

The Convention and Rev. Mr. Taylor. By a "postal" received from Rev. J. B. Taylor, which did not come to hand until yesterday morning, we learn that the Baptist Convention was expected to adjourn on Saturday, and that, as he could not reach nome in time to fill his own pulpit, he had promised to preach on Bunday at Wake Forest College. The postal was dated at Oxford on Friday.

To-Day's Indications.

For the South Atlantic States, northeast to southeast winds, slight changes in temperature and barometer, and partly cloudy weather and local rains, are the indications for to-day.

Incondiary Fire Testerday Morning. The alarm of fire yesterday morning, about 1 o'clock, was caused by the burning of three one-story frame dwelling houses on the north side of Wooster, between Ninth and Tenth streets. The fire originated in the house owned and occupied by one Aaron S. Davis, colored, or between that and the one adjoining, and when discovered had attained such headway that Davis and his family with difficulty escaped from the burning building, losing clothing, furniture and everything. The fire communicated to two of the adjoining houses. which were both destroyed. One of these had been tenanted until a few days before the fire, but was then empty, and the other was occupied by a colored family. These buildings were both the property of Mr. John T. Wilkins. The fourth house in the row, occupied by a colored plasterer by the name of Green, also caught, but by this time a stream of water had been gotten upon the fire and the last named house was saved with but little damage. The house on the corner of Ninth street was somewhat scorched, but the damage was immaterial.

The nearest available water was the cis tern at the corner of Sixth and Castle streets, and as no one engine had enough hose to reach, the Cape Fear was supplied with hose by the Little Giant, and was the only engine that was brought into requisition in consequence of the scarcity of water.

Davis' house was insured for $300 in the Pamlico Insurance Company, and Wil kins' two houses for $100 and $150, respectively, in the Pamlico and Columbus, represented in this city by Messrs. John W. Gordon & Bro.

The fire, we understand, was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

Charged with Larceny.

George West, colored, a resident of Masonboro Sound, was arrested Saturday night on the charge of stealing a ham of meat from the store of Mr. Richard Stelges, corner of Sixth and Castle streets. It seems that a colored boy in the store saw George when he took the meat, and as he hurried from the establishment the cry was made to stop that man, when Officer E. S. Griffith gave chase and soon overtook the adventurous citizen of Masonboro and brought him to a standstill. He first stated that he had thrown the meat over a fence, but subsequently denied having had it. Upon opening his coat, however, the impression of the ham was to be plainly seen upon his undergarment. He was lodged in the guard house until yesterday morning, when he was brought before the City Court, but the case was turned over by the Mayor to Justice Millis for investigation.

The defendant was subsequently as raigned before Justice Millis and the case was continued over until this morning, at 11 o'clock, in order to give time for the necessary witnesses.

Fight on Shipboard.

There was quite a spirited fight yesterday morning between the mate and some of the seamen of the Schr. C. H. Macomber, loading with lumber at Messrs. Northrop & Cumming's mill. It seems that the parties got into a dispute, during which one of the men drew his knife on the mate, Mr Emory, when the latter seized a stick of wood and struck the man over the head with it, knocking him down, upon which he jumped upon the prostrate form and commenced pounding away with an earnestness which threatened serious results. At this opportune juncture, however, assistance arrived and the parties were separated. The mate was subsequently arrested and taken before Justice Hall, who made an appropriate disposition of the case.

A Former Wilmingtonian Shot. Mr. Wm. Toft, of this city, an attache of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad shops, received a telegram from Wilmington, Del., yesterday morning, to the effect that his son, Mr. Millard Toft, had been attacked in that place on Saturday night last and shot in the head, but stating that he was doing well at the time the telegram was sent. The telegram, which was forwarded by Mr. James Vincent, a brother in-law of the injured man, gives no further particulars.

Mr. Millard Toft was formerly a well known resident of this city, where he has many friends who will regret to hear of his mishap. He was at one time Uity Agent

A colored individual, whose name we did not ascertain, made a narrow escape from drowning yesterday morning. At this critical moment a rope was thrown to the yenturesome darkey by one of the flatmen, and he was rescued from his perilous mention.

Sunday night fust as Revo E. A. Tates was about commending the introductory services at Front Street M. E. Church, the lights suddenly went out and left the minister and his congregation in atmost total darkness, and the services had to be suspended until someone could light up again. It seems that the sexten, In attempting to There were no regular services at the turn on a full fleed of light, gaves turn in the wrong direction and shut it off entirely.

The Whiting Rifles.

At a full meeting of this company, held yesterday evening, Mr. F. W. Foster, who had previously been elected Captain of the company, tendered his resignation, and nominated Mr. W. P. Oldham for the position. The resignation was accepted, and the position tendered to Mr. Oldham by an unanimous vote and accepted by him.

A committee was then appointed, consisting of Mesers. W. P. Oldham, F. W. Foster and J. G. Darden, to solicit and uni form the company, and the meeting then adjourned.
