OUTLINES.

Joseph H. Coombs was killed at Hopkinstown, Ky., by Joseph P. Ferguson, for the seduction of his sister. It is now doubtful if Kentucky has a constitution; the one adopted by the convention cannot be found. Two men have just been hanged in Pennsylvania and one in Texas. A tenement house in New York was burnt, and an entire family were suffocated by smoke. The hostile chiefs, with the exception of Jack, are reported as willing to surrender. Hanlan and Courtney have agreed to row on the Potomac, near Washington, on December 9th. Some silver mines in Colorado have been sold for $750,000 to $800,000 to ex-U. S. Senators Dorsey and McDonald and their associates. Speculation continued strong and buoyant at the New York Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon. Two thousand reapers employed at the cotton mills in Belfast, Ireland, have struck for an advance in wages. The Chilean Admiral has made an official report of the capture of the Peruvian iron-clad Huascar; he thinks the vessel will be of no further use. A Zulu chief intimates his willingness to surrender to the British. A report is telegraphed that Sir Austin Layard has been instructed to hold no further communication with the Turkish Porte regarding Asia Minor but to send for the British fleet. The Cabinet at its meeting yesterday discussed the forthcoming President's message. The British court of inquiry into the circumstances attending the collision between the Champan and the Lady Octavia, was continued yesterday at Philadelphia. A young farmer, living near Griffin, Ga., shot and killed himself yesterday. There is trouble in the London Stock Exchange and a panic in Paris owing to the rumor of the British fleet being ordered to the Black Sea, which, if true, will probably precipitate matters with Russia. Prince Bismarck is suffering from heart disease. The British Government has information that American Fenians are offering money and arms to the Irish tenant farmers. Jordan Sheats was hung at Danville, Va., for murder, yesterday. A severe storm, doing great damage, is reported from Ohio. New York markets: Money easy at 6 per cent; cotton unsettled at 12 1/2 to 13 cents; Southern flour quiet and firm at $1.65 to $1.75; wheat 1.03 to 1.04 better, with fairly active trade; corn fairly active at 50 to 51 cents; spirits turpentine dull and easier at 38 to 39 cents; rosin dull at $1.70.

The Democrats may gain a U. S. Senator in California in place of Booth, and lose one in Virginia in place of Withers. With but few exceptions the negroes in Virginia voted with the Mahoneites. It was such a good chance "to split the party."

Good. That staunch Republican organ, the Baltimore American, says that "Senator Bayard is a pure, upright and able statesman." Put a pin there. Canonchet Conkling is in sufficient health to make an argument before the Supreme Court. The papers are as unsuccessful in killing him as they were in killing Tilden. And now the stalwarts in New York are crying "stop thief." They are accusing the Democrats of "doctored returns." This old game will not do, for as in 1876 the Radicals win. Nilsen Hutchings, who runs the Washington Post, has become boss of the Manchester Daily Union, somewhere up among the New England icebergs. Like Forney in days past, he can now refer to "my two papers, both daily."

We neglected to announce that Victoria Woodhull has telegraphed from London that she "accepts the nomination." The Paris Le Rappel explains the mystery: "Seven gentlemen have crossed from America to England. They have been deputized by a large number of their fellow-citizens to offer the Presidency of the United States to a woman."

Have we a Woodhull boom among us? More grist for the outrage mill. A drunken ruffian in Baltimore killed a negro and deserves hanging for it. The Gazette says: "It was entirely unprovoked, and was perpetrated from a sheer delight in bloodshed. George Trust had, it appears from the verdict of the coroner's jury, been drinking for several days and all the latest ferocity of his temper was aroused. He put a pistol in his pocket and went out to look for somebody to kill. He met Anthony Robinson on Light street, a young colored man, walking with his father and mother. He asked him, 'Are you a Democrat or Republican?' and before Robinson could reply shot him through the head. This is all. He was immediately arrested and lodged in jail, where he now lies. It is to be hoped that justice untempered by mercy will be meted out to him."

We prophesy that this will be used for campaign ammunition by the Stalwarts.

Col. Tom Scott is now among the prophets.

He says Tilden alone can carry New York for the Democrats. He forgets that Seymour carried New York in 1868 against Grant, the hero of the war, and only three years after the war had ended. There is no doubt that Gov. Seymour is very much stronger in New York than Tilden is, Scott says Indiana should furnish the candidate for Vice President. Sensible.

Spirits Turpentine.

Nashville is to have a pole-pulling. That is better than a gaudy election. The Elizabeth City Telegram reports the condition of Col. W. F. Martin as still improving. Greensboro Messenger: Help the Orphan. The Asylum at Raleigh needs help. Which say you? Dave Jenkins is willing to run as Republican candidate for State Treasurer. Dr. Worth ought to be able to beat Dave. We have rarely seen a more marked improvement in a paper than in the Greensboro Patriot under its new management. There is no better weekly in the State. Lumberton Robesonian: One firm at Nichols, S. C. made upwards of $1,000 by the recent rise in naval stores, while Messrs. Williams & Murchison made a fortune. Reports says they had 67,000 barrels of naval stores on hand at the time. Raleigh News: Mr. George Harwood will begin walking around the Yarbore House square at 4 o'clock tomorrow. He says he will make fifty miles in eight hours. The square has been measured, and to make fifty miles he will have to go around two hundred and ten times. Winston Leader: A great need of a compelling railroad to our low-lying every day more clearly demonstrated. For instance: a car load of salt is shipped from Richmond to Atlanta, Ga., for $38; to Greenville, S. C., $35; to Winston, a nearer point, $51. This shows the extortionate charges on goods. Wilkesboro Index: Capt. A. C. Bryan, of the revenue service, swooped down on 400 gallons of rum, which were in the barn of Mr. Newburn Parker, last Friday, and it has gone down to Collector Mott. On the next day he seized a quantity of unstamped brandy found in Mr. J. B. Miller's smoke house. Raleigh Observer: The crop of acorns is reported as unusually large. The county jail has at present twenty-two inmates. John A. Stevens will appear here on the 20th in the play "Unknown." A pair of United States prisoners were lodged in jail Tuesday night, charged with violations of the laws. Raleigh Visitor: His Excellency, Governor Jarvis, left for the Fayetteville Fair last night. A man in Orange county, a few days ago, killed thirty squirrels on one tree. Maj. Wright Huaks, of Cumberland county, gathered this season, from eight acres of land, 470 bushels of corn—nearly 60 bushels to an acre. New Bern Democrat: There were several boats at the market wharf, on yesterday, with more or less rice on board of each. The rice was easily disposed of at from 90 cents to $1 per bushel. A gentleman in this city, a day or two since, forwarded samples of such rice to the market, to Charleston, and inquired its price in that market. The reply came back that such rice was worth from $1.05 to $1.10 per bushel. The following is going the rounds of the newspapers: A boy called to see Gen. Yancey at Washington and he communicated his wishes to the Doorkeeper. "Have you a card, sir?" he gruffly growled. "Cards," said the boy, thoughtfully, mechanically running his hand in the rear pockets of his coat. "No, sir, I don't carry 'em." "Where are you from?" Inquired the Doorkeeper. "North Carolina," was the prompt answer. "Well, how do you do in North Carolina when people go a visiting?" "Why they ride up to a father's house and hammer to him to tie up his dog, and then get down and go in," was the laconic reply. Goldsboro Mail: Much sickness reported in the neighborhood of Nashville. The festival by the ladies of the Baptist Church was well attended. Net receipts of the revenue saved, but greatly increased and smoke house of Mr. G. W. Highsmith, of Sampson, was destroyed by fire on the 25th ult. About 1,400 pounds seed cotton in one of the houses burned. Most of the furniture saved, but greatly damaged. Estimated loss $1,000. No insurance. We deeply sympathize with Rev. C. J. Nelson in the severe affliction of the loss of his wife, who died on Wednesday night of paralysis. They say negroes lodged in jail Saturday for resisting a police officer. Tarboro Southern: On the 26th of December a fine programme is offered for the enjoyment of visitors. There will be glass ball shooting, hurdle races, trotting races for gentlemen's buggy horses, mile dash for gentlemen riders, trotting sweepstakes, open to the world; gentlemen's sweepstakes, Welter weight, three-fourth mile heat, and quarter mile races. On Saturday night the gin house and a large lot of cotton, the property of John E. Harris, living about five miles from Rocky Mount, in Nash county, were burned. No insurance, and the cause is unknown. Cotton is nearly all picked and the crop in Edgecombe is at least 30 per cent short. A pink war adorned her fairy nose, Her brow was burnt with tan, But her dad had piles of stamps you see, And now she shows her man. The business of a turpentine yellow jacket reminds a fellow in Cokey township that all wasn't gold that glittered. Everything has gone up except the price of newspapers. Drought is killing turpentine and greens in gardens. They say that Judge Burdon don't know about being the Republican candidate for Governor next year isn't worth considering. We learn that up to Monday there had been shipped, per rail, from this point, 3,827 bales of cotton. This is an average of twelve hundred bales per week since the season fairly commenced. Greensboro Patriot: Since our last issue more Texas emigrants have gone on to join those reported by us last week. A lengthy report of the big tournament last week, in Beilsville, appears in this issue. The first was $25 in gold; second $15, third $10, and the fourth $5. John Stokes won the first prize, Lee Miller the second, J. J. Vester the third, and Hugh Williams the fourth. Torch light procession Friday night, in the interest of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad.

Friday, October 31st, the force of convicts employed to work on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, were transported, bag and baggage, pick and shovel, from the stocks here, to a point on the road about five miles from town, where a new stockade has been erected. Our street lamp lighted up a mob at about an estimated to all the lamps in a hurry. Norcross Fifth Avenue Company has disbanded, and last Saturday night the members of the troupe passed through Greensboro on their way home. A little boy at Jamestown had his hands blown all to pieces, Sunday, by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge which he was handling. Dr. R. K. Gregory and I. F. Davis have put their heads together and made an improvement in the steam engine, which practical engineers pronounce the best improvement that has been made in twenty-five years. Charlotte Observer: In the Superior Court of Robeson county, in session this week at Lumberton, Judge Sey, upon finding the case of Miss Linkhaver for the murder of Ed Hartman, will come up for trial. The Wilkesboro Index advertises for a printer who is temperate in eating well as drinking and to whom money is no consideration. It is likely that a telegraph line will be constructed from Hendersonville to Spartanburg, along the line of the Spartanburg & Asheville Railroad, soon. A party of three or four citizens went down to Columbia yesterday for the purpose of trying to make arrangements with the owners of race horses there to bring them to Charlotte to enter races which it is proposed to have on the Fair Grounds next month. After collecting all dues and paying all debts, the ladies of the Catholic Church find that they have $700 as the proceeds of their fair of week before last. This is a very handsome sum. The Home and Hospital is an institution the beneficent objects and accomplishments of which are, we apprehend, not fully appreciated by the majority of our people. We learn from an official source that in the past ten months the Home has had eleven patients—two women and nine men and boys—for an aggregate number of 334 days, and has furnished nearly 1,900 meals for the sick and convalescing. A negro fell fifteen feet from a wagon load of cotton (twelve bales) Wednesday afternoon, and struck square on his head, on the Trade street hill. Hurt him? Of course not; he scrambled up, smiled, and went on about his business as if nothing had happened. It is reported that Gen. McRae, a railroad man well known in this State, and a native of it, by the way, resigned the superintendency of the Georgia Railroad.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. MUNSON—Children's suits. HALL & PEABALL—Tobacco. KASPROWICZ—Smoking tobacco. GREEN & FLANNER—Drugs, &c. MOTT & CAMPEN—Choice meats. Local Notes. The receipts of cotton yesterday amounted to 840 bales. Rev. T. Page Ricard, of Magnolia, is on a brief visit to this city. The Florences and Company leave for Charleston Sunday morning. Turner's Almanac predicts stormy weather for to day, which indicates a change in temperature. In a match game of base ball between two juvenile clubs, yesterday, the Old North States scored 18 and the Little Buds 26. Professor Tice has fooled us twice, but he'll never do so any more—that is sure. We took but little stock in the humbug before; we take none now. A white man, who was drunk and acting disorderly at the corner of Market and Second streets, yesterday afternoon, was arrested by Officer Nelson and lodged in the guard house. We have been requested to state that Rev. J. B. Bailey will preach at Oak Hill, Myrtle Grove Sound, on Wednesday night, the 19th inst., and at Bethany on Thursday morning, the 20th inst. The late W. H. Jenkins, who died here a few days since, was one of the survivors of Company E, Third N. C. Regiment, was a brave soldier, and was twice wounded, once severely at Sharpsburg. A large proportion of our white population sat up until after 2 o'clock, yesterday morning, to witness the meteoric shower, and then got disappointed. There were a good many sleepy looking people on the streets yesterday. The unseasonableness of the weather makes it bad for the fishermen and oystermen, as well as the wood and coal dealers. We learn that quite a lot of the fish and some of the oysters in market, last Thursday evening, were tainted. A good many Stalls fell here yesterday morning, the number being estimated in the neighborhood of one thousand. The most of them found judgment in the piazzas of our citizens, and when picked up were as bright and sparkling as the brightest in the brilliant galaxy, that adorns the heavens. We again make the suggestion, and hope it may at least provoke discussion at the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen, that a fire-alarm bell be placed upon the City Hall. The ringing of the bell at the market house is heard but a very short distance, the sound, when the winds are the least contrary, never reaching the hills. Heard From. The two colored boys, Theodore Nixon and Edward Green, mentioned by us a few days since as having mysteriously disappeared, passed through Goldsboro on Tuesday. As we learn from Mr. Holloway, agent of the N. C. R. R. at that place, who sold tickets for two to the one answering to the description of the youngest. Their destination seems to have been Salem or Winston.

To-Day's Indications.

For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, southerly to westerly winds, partly cloudy weather and areas of rain, slight changes in barometer and temperature, are the indications for to-day. A. M. E. Conference—Third Day's Session. Conference met pursuant to adjournment, and the proceedings were opened with religious exercises, conducted by Rev. C. Sampson. The several committees made their reports to the Conference. The following tinentates were elected to Deacon's orders, viz.: W. D. Cook, G. W. Olney, Elijah Hawkins and J. J. Jenkins. Rev. R. H. W. Leak was elected to Elder's orders. The examination of characters was taken up by calling the roll of the Conference. All stood fair with a few exceptions. An address was delivered by Rev. J. C. Embury, the Financial Secretary, which occupied the attention of the Conference from 2 until 4 o'clock. After the afternoon services the Conference met again at 7 o'clock to hear an address from Bishop J. P. Campbell, D. D., LL. D., on the subject of his recent travels through Europe and its relations to the A. M. E. connection. Locked Up Again. Willis Drake, the "Paddy's Hollow" aboemaker, who was only a few days since released from a long confinement in the city prison, was before one of the Magistrate's yesterday, on the charge of making an assault upon his wife with an axe, and, at the conclusion of the investigation, was ordered to give bond and security in the sum of $100 for his appearance at Court, in default of which he was lodged in jail. Subsequently he was taken out to testify in a case against his wife, whom he had caused to be arrested and tried before Justice Hill on the charge of assault, and on his way back contested every inch of the route with Officer Richardson, who had him in charge, causing considerable excitement on the street by his violent behavior. Drake is never comfortable when out of a strait. Central Postal Information. A postal regulation has been in force now for two months, which is not well known among business men, or it would be more generally availed of. We refer to the fact that statements, bills, etc., can now be mailed in an unsealed envelope with a cent stamp. Thus the many monthly statements which are made out by wholesale and retail dealers each month can be mailed for one cent, but no writing other than the legitimate bill can be placed upon the statement. No such words as "please remit" can be, neither can a bill receipted be sent. If it is necessary to have the words "please remit" on the statements or bills, they can be printed as part of the heading. A Runaway. An exciting runaway occurred on Fourth street yesterday morning. A horse, with dray attached, came dashing down that street, and, in turning the corner of Fourth and Princess, ran against some obstruction, which gave a tilt to the dray, when the vehicle capized and the horse was thrown violently upon his side, the impetus being received causing horse and vehicle to slide for some distance on the pavement. It was thought at first that the animal's neck was broken, but upon investigation it was found that he was but little injured. The driver, one Andrew Merrick, colored, was thrown off soon after the horse started, but received no injury. Magistrate's Court. Richard Chavers had a hearing before Justice Hall, yesterday morning, charged with committing assault with a deadly weapon upon John Mitchell, colored, on Wednesday last. Defendant was fined one penny and the costs. The same defendant was next arraigned on a peace warrant, sworn out by his wife, and was ordered to give bond in the sum of $100 to keep the peace and make his appearance at Court. Mr. E. Rosenbaum, General Agent for the Real-Santley Novelty Troupe, is in the city to arrange for the appearance of the company at the Opera House to-night week, November 22. RIVER AND MARINE. A Norwegian barque, name unknown, was reported in below yesterday afternoon. The Spanish barque Augusta, Goitia, sailed from Havana for this port on the 6th instant. The steamer A. P. Hart, from Fayetteville, delayed by low water, reached her wharf in this city at 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday, and left at 7 o'clock on her return trip. On the 12th inst., in latitude 33.25 north, and longitude 78.90 east, the barque Telegraph, of London, was spoken by the Norwegian brig Yalta, Capt. P. Ellertsen, which arrived at this port yesterday. The British ship Onaka, which arrived at New York on the 12th inst. from Liverpool, via Tybee, reports that on the 9th instant, thirty miles east of Cape Fear, she passed a three masted schooner sunk, with mast standing ten feet out of water; same day saw a steamer with a three masted schooner in tow, apparently making for Wilmington, N. C., supposed to have been in collision, she having her bowsprit and outrigger carried away. These schooners were probably the Saddle Wheel and Mary Louisa, which came in collision on the morning of the 9th of November, off Fryling Pan Shoals, when the latter was destroyed, the Saddle Wheel being afterwards towed into this port in a disabled condition.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Mighty Dollar. The Opera House last night contained by far the largest and most fashionable audience of the season, the occasion being the first appearance in this city of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence, in their great success, entitled "The Mighty Dollar." The piece was well presented in every way, a noticeable feature being the support which was good throughout, though of course the interest of the play, and in fact everything, hinges on the two leading characters, the Hon. Bardwell Stone and Mrs. General Gilroy. Mr. Florence long since achieved a great success as the Hon. Bardwell Stone. He carried the audience with him last night apparently without effort, and kept them continuously laughing whenever he was on the stage. Mrs. Florence's toilet was exceedingly handsome, and she deserves no small share of the success of the performance for her admirable portrayal of the shoddy Mrs. Gilroy with a weakness for French and for aping Old World manners. It is seldom that we have an opportunity of seeing such actors in Wilmington, and the only way to get them to visit us oftener is to appreciate them when they do appear. To-night the company will play "Ticket-of-Leave Man," an exceedingly popular piece, which is, we believe, also new to Wilmington. Mr. Florence has played the leading part, Bob Briely, over a thousand times and won high praise in the character, and they merit a large attendance. A Victim to Revenge. David Hawkins, a colored boy, apparently about 14 or 15 years of age, was before Justice McQuigg yesterday on the charge of assault and battery. The case was dismissed on condition that the defendant should pay the costs, in default of which he was committed to jail. On his way to prison, in charge of Special Deputy J. W. Whitney, and just as he had arrived at the corner of Third and Princess streets, he broke from the officer and started to run, when Whitney drew a pistol, and, pointing it at him as he ran, told him to halt or he would shoot, whereupon the boy squatted behind a vehicle in front of Messrs. Gerhardt & Co.'s establishment and was recaptured without any further trouble. Thermometer Record. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Atlanta, 75 Key West, 82 Augusta, 80 Mobile, 78 Charleston, 76 Montgomery, 77 Charlotte, 78 New Orleans, 79 Cordecan, 65 Punta Rassa, 83 Galveston, 77 Savannah, 78 Havana, 83 St. Marks, 78 Indianapolis, 81 Wilmington, 78 Jacksonville, 83
