OUTLINES.

The ceremonies attending the unveiling of the statue of Gen. George Thomas in Washington were imposing and largely attended. Mrs. Catherine Zell convicted of murder in first degree at Carlisle, Pa. The Indian Peace Commission in making slow progress; Orazay wants Gen. Adams recalled. No agreement between Germany and the Vatican has been reached; Bismarck made important concessions. A destructive fire at Galveston, Texas; loss $10,000; insured. Several witnesses were examined before the Kellogg-Spofford investigating committee at New Orleans yesterday, but nothing of importance was elicited. A new railroad in Texas was inaugurated at Dallas in that State yesterday, the road to run from that place to Sabine Pass, on the Gulf of Mexico, with branches to the Louisiana line. The heaviest fall in years occurred at Augusta, Ga., yesterday. Dr. Brian Allen, an aged Episcopal minister of Kentucky, died yesterday. A severe storm is reported at Grand Haven, Mich. The Italian Chambers has been prorogued to the 27th inst. Several persons have been arrested in Ireland charged with using language in public speeches calculated to incite a breach of the peace. Heavy rain, with snow, at Charleston, South Carolina, yesterday. New York markets: Money @ 6 7/8 per cent; cotton dull and easier at 13 1/2 @ 13 3/4; Southern flour dull and rather easier at $5 75 @ 50; wheat opened @ 1 1/4 higher, closed quiet, with scarcely so much strength; corn about 1/2 lower, with moderate trade; spirits turpentine firm at 39 cents; rosin quiet at $1 60 @ 62.

workingmen and the younger or less noted politicians there are to be found men outspoken in favor of Grant. The Georgia papers do not appear to know anything about this "deep and strong undercurrent." Probably it is manufactured for the occasion. We find the following in a Republican paper, the Baltimore American, but it bears a family resemblance to the above from the Herald: "A Democratic ex-Governor of Georgia says if Grant would visit the South and assure the people that he would be a President of the whole people, as Hayes has been, he could carry Georgia, and probably six Southern States next year. Grant and Stephens, he thinks, would carry every State south of the Potomac." If Seymour and Hendricks are nominated as sure as fate they will carry New York and Indiana. Even the Springfield Republican, that gives 204 votes to the Republican party, concedes Indiana and Oregon to the Democrats. Mr. Seymour carried New York and Oregon in 1868 against Grant. He can carry them again. The Democrats can beat Grant or any other Republican with the above ticket. Their nomination would give immense strength to the party at once, and the fight would be entered upon and continued with the strongest confidence in the result. With New York, Indiana and Oregon certain, and a good showing in New Jersey, California and Connecticut, what is to prevent success? That able and sagacious statesman, Senator Eaton, of Connecticut, says his State will go Democratic in 1880, if the right ticket is nominated. He says the cause of the Republican triumph in the last election was because a large number of Democrats did not vote at the right time, and that the Legislature next year will be Democratic, and thus will retain the United States Senator.

thing, and to protect them against the weather. Judicious attention and careful nursing will also mitigate the disease as far as possible. The friends of the orphans are invited to send us bed covering, flannel cloth, yarn socks and stockings, and any kind of warm clothing. We shall also need fat pork and beef, meal, flour, hominy and peas; strong food being essential to bodily vigor. Morganton Blade: The Board of Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad met in Asheville on the 10th. We learn that no business of general importance was transacted. The depot at Asheville was burned by the fire which destroyed Smith's bridge. The Directors expressed themselves as pleased with the progress of the work. Trains will pass through the tunnel by the middle of December, and the road is ready for the season of 1880. The iron for this part has been bought, and will reach Salisbury next week. The change at Newton will now be completed at an early day. Lumberton Robesonian: The largest crowd which ever assembled in the Court House was present last morning. The prisoner, Miss Linkhaw, was conveyed to the Court House in a buggy, accompanied by her mother, who sat with her in the prisoner's box, while a sister, Miss C. Melke, sat with her husband inside of the bar, and to the right of Col. W. Foster French. Of the 250 good and lawful men who were summoned, very few failed to answer to their names. Mr. R. Martin was installed Pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this place Sunday night. Mr. Hill, of Fayetteville, preached the sermon and propounded the constitutional questions. Mr. C. Melke was in charge of the Pastor, and Mr. Leay the charge to the congregation. Charlotte Observer: Several young men in the city are making arrangements to enter upon the study of the German language. The next day after some unknown individual fired a pistol at the passenger train on the Charlotte and Statesville Railroad, the ball from which lodged in Capt. Pridgen's note book, a negro appeared at Mount Monroe, near the station where the shooting took place, and applied at one of the stores for pistol cartridges. It occurred to some of those present that probably he was the man who did the shooting. He confessed to having shot when the train was passing, but did not fire at the train. Officers at once arrested him and he was sent forthwith to jail, having been refused bail by the magistrates. Raleigh News: It is announced that one of this week's papers will be a grand walking excursion to Durham. It is understood that General John G. Oorman and Colonel A. W. Shaffer are applicants for appointment as Supervisors of the census in this State. There are to be four Supervisors in this State, and they are to be elected at the next election. A young man, somewhat fond of cigars, after taking two drinks Saturday night, imagined himself to be Fred Berger, of a notorious family by that name, and forthwith proceeded to play a trick upon the brewer's big bell, which stands in front of his store. A policeman, who had been in the music department of his orchestra, happened to pass along about the time he struck up the tune "Home, Sweet Home," and he was taken to the station house, where he remained all night. The Mayor yesterday discharged him. Raleigh Observer: The Industrial Exhibition of the colored people that opened here Monday is highly interesting in every respect. As an enterprise it shows that they are seeking their improvement and are earnest in their efforts to elevate their race. The exhibits are good, and the management in this State is better than about as not a trifling set by any means. Captain White, our Register of Deeds, paid to the sheriff on Monday $375.78 State tax on marriage licenses issued for one year. At the same time he paid to the county treasurer $60.85 county tax on the same license since March 24. We regret to learn that Colonel Russ' condition has not changed, and that he still lies very ill. We learn that Judge Foy was present to hold Duplin Court Monday on account of the dangerous illness of his wife. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston left the city on Sunday afternoon's western bound train. Oxford Torchlight: Mr. Alex. Fleming, Dutchville Postoffice, sold his present crop of tobacco, to be burned when ready for market, for the sum of $1,250, supposed average of $45 per cent. Labor and fertilizer expended on this crop (eight bars) $125. Seed which is selling for $2 per bushel in most sections of the county. The cotton gin has made its appearance on the early seeded wheat in some portions of the county. The corn crop of Granville reminds us of those of cars of corn in Pharaoh's vision, which were the best of the best. The wind, and those of which the Psalmist speaks of upon the house-top, and where-with the reaper fileth not his arms. It is encouraging to the sheep-raisers of Granville to know that the last reports sent to the Agricultural Department show a falling off in the number of dogs in Granville county of 291, and a corresponding decrease of sheep killed by dogs—saving to the farmers of Granville about 500 head of sheep. In 1877 there are reported to have been 1,168 sheep killed in the county by "dogs of low degree." And yet there are now in the county over 800 dogs and 8,984 sheep. Let the cry be, "more mutton and less dog."

Local Notes. Receipts of cotton yesterday 967 bales. Thanksgiving one week from today. Storm signal flying again yesterday. No session of the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. Overcoats and fires have again come into requisition. It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good. Vice the wood and coal dealers. Reserved seats for the Minstrels Saturday night can now be had at Heinsberg's. Cotton sold yesterday on a basis of 11 1/2 cents for middling, but closed weaker, with 1 1/2 cents the best bid. Messrs. C. S. Ellis and Charles Russell, former Wilmingtonians, but now in business at Savannah, are on a brief visit here. Mr. N. Jacobi, of this city, Supreme Deputy of the State, goes to New Bern to-day to institute a Lodge of the Royal Archism. Don't forget the annual meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society this morning at 11 o'clock. Ladies of all denominations are invited to attend. The gas meter at the Opera House has been made to work all right again. So you need not hesitate to go Saturday night, as there will be plenty of light on the subject. Dr. J. Francis King, whose condition was reported to have changed for the worse again a few days ago, is now said to be improving once more, a letter having been received to that effect from a member of the family to-day. The thermometer in this office indicated 78 degrees at 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. Yesterday morning, at 9 o'clock, it registered 37 degrees, being a change of 41 degrees in about seventeen hours. That will do pretty well for this latitude. Snow and Rain. It seems that snow was falling in nearly every direction yesterday. At Wadesboro it was a foot deep. At Lumberton we learn by a special telegram that it was falling heavier than in several years before; and low down on the W. & W. Railroad as Duplin Roads it was sleeting yesterday morning, with a promise of snow. In Wilmington there was a heavy cold rain all day until about 9 o'clock in the evening, when a fall of sleet set in, which continued for about an hour and was succeeded by snow, the feathery flakes falling fast and furious, and soon covered the ground with a mantle of white. In sheltered places the snow drifted to a depth of four inches. The wind at this time was from the northwest, and the thermometer registered 84 degrees. At 11 o'clock, however, the storm decreased in severity, gradually ceasing until by midnight the first snow of the winter of 1879 was over, the storm clouds had passed away, and the stars were shining. The storm seems to have been widespread and severe in places, reports coming to us by telegraph denoting its severity from Grand Haven, in Michigan, and Augusta, in Georgia. The Funeral of Owen Dove. We learn that the funeral of Owen Dove, the colored man whose death was mentioned in yesterday's paper, which took place from St. Mark's (colored) Episcopal Church, yesterday afternoon, was largely attended, including the colored Masses and the Cape Fear No. 3 S. F. E. Company. Quite a number of white people were noticed at the church, including two members of the Board of Aldermen, the Chief of the Fire Department, the Chief of Police, several white firemen, employees of the N. P. Steamship Company, and others. The attendance would have been much larger but for the bad weather, especially on the part of the colored people. Thermometer Record. The following will show the state of the thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin issued from the Signal Office in this city: Atlanta.....44 Key West.....73 Augusta.....38 Mobile.....54 Charleston.....43 Montgomery.....63 Charlotte.....54 New Orleans.....65 Corsicana.....62 Punta Rasa.....65 Baytown.....55 Savannah.....43 Havana.....78 St. Marks.....43 Indianapolis.....59 Wilmington.....84 Jacksonville.....49 Another Boom. Spirits turpentine is on the "boom" again. It commenced Tuesday, when the price went up from 37 to 37 1/2 cents. Yesterday it opened firm at 37 1/2, advanced to 38, and closed at 39 cents per gallon. SEVERE AND HEAVY. The Behr. H. W. Anderson, from Charleston to Philadelphia, with a cargo of phosphates, which put in here in distress on the 8th inst., having repaired, cleared yesterday for her destination. We learn that it rained all day Tuesday at Fayetteville and up to the latest advices the river had risen six inches, with indications of a much larger rise. It is supposed now that navigation will be unobstructed in a day or two. The best reform in domestic life is without doubt the introduction of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup. Where it is known no more insanum is given to the Babies.

To-Day's Indications. For the South Atlantic and East Gulf States, falling followed by rising barometer, southerly winds veering to northeasterly, generally warmer, partly cloudy weather, preceded in former by local rains. Three-Quarter Past. Yesterday morning a colored woman went to a dry goods store on Market street and presented an order, purporting to come from a lady in this city, which the clerk found written so badly that he asked her if the lady wrote it. The woman replied that she did not, but that her little daughter did. None of the clerks could make out what the order called for, and finally it was suggested to the woman that she had better go back home and get it written over again. She went off, but soon returned again with another order, which was no more distinguishable than the first. The proprietor, however, upon examining it, thought it was a corset that was wanted, and one was given to her. She subsequently made her appearance in the store again, saying the corset was too small, and while there some braids were seen projecting from beneath her shawl. Taking her leave, she went into the adjoining store, where she was having a quantity of goods put up, but in the meantime the proprietor and clerks in the first store commenced comparing notes and recalling the conduct of the woman, when a suspicion was aroused that she was a fraud and a swindler. She was followed into the adjoining store, where she was found in possession of a cloak worth about $11 and a quantity of braid which she had stolen from the store she had first visited. She was given into the hands of Officer Petteway and lodged in the guard house, where a warrant issued by Mayor Fishback was subsequently served upon her. She gave the name of Charlotte Beach, but this we learn is not her name, but that of a colored woman living with the lady whose name was forged to the order. She is said to live at Castle Hayne, and has the reputation of being a notorious thief. No Base Ball at Wadesboro Yesterday. By a telegram received from Wadesboro yesterday afternoon, we learn that snow had fallen to the depth of about a foot at that place, and that consequently there had been no base ball playing. We are sorry our boys were disappointed—put out by a foul as it were. But the opportunity is a good one for the Champions to learn how to play snow ball. THE MAILS. THE MORNING STAR can always be had at the following places in the city: The Franklin House, Hart's News Stand, and the STAR Office. ELECTRIC BELLS.—A sure cure for nervous debility, premature decay, exhaustion, etc. The only reliable cure. Circulars mailed free. Address J. E. HENNES, 45 Catharine St., N. Y. The Piedmont Pharmacy, of Greensboro, N. C., R. C. Dixon, Proprietor, offers for sale first class Apple and Pear Trees, delivered to purchaser's R. R. Depot, at 11 cents each, up to the 30th of November. BOOK REVIEW.—Translations of Greek and Latin authors all kinds of reading matter in a workmanlike manner, and at reasonable prices. Merit claims and orders solicited. Send for circulars, or write for a list of books. No. 100 N. 2nd St., New York. A WORLD OF GOOD.—One of the most popular medicines now before the American public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it because it is so good. It is so good that it is so pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters are that it is so good that it is more so than the old-fashioned Bitters that has done so much good. If you don't feel just right try Hop Bitters. Beware of cheap imitations. A LUCKY TRIP OF BUSINESS.—One of the members of the Engine Company, No. 15, of New York City, who is enjoying a surplus of wealth acquired honestly, but very rapidly. They sent the old woman, who was at the residence of the Engine Company, with a dollar to buy a half dozen of the October drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery. She went to some purveyor, but they drew of their investment Five Thousand Dollars in gold, and they feel re-embled. To know what the odds are, address W. A. DeSpain, P. O. Box 105, New Orleans, La., or the same person at No. 319 Broadway, New York City, before December 15th, when the extraordinary distribution under the sole management of General F. B. Beauregard and John A. Early will take place.

For the Star. I understand that the present pay of the street hands employed by the city is only 75 cents per day, and the police are paid $35 per month, and furnished a uniform, they being on steady duty ten hours per night. The late advance in the prices of provisions and clothing is more than the advance of $5 per month they ask for during the four winter months. The present Board of Aldermen, as every tax-payer knows, has saved them thousands of dollars in their economical administration, and I do not think there are many tax-payers who would object to the advance of pay asked for by policemen and street hands, and passed by the Board of Aldermen and sanctioned by the Board of Audit and Finance. TAX-PAYER. DIED. NORTHERN.—Monday night, 17th inst., at 10 o'clock, MARY, wife of W. HARRIS NORRIS, aged 52 years. "We know not now, but we shall know hereafter." NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Gonudrum. Secretary Sherman is too busy to make speeches in Louisiana. He writes a letter, and indulges in a good deal of political lolly-pop. Mr. Aleck Stephens prefers Gen. Hancock, but he regards Grant as ten per cent. stronger than any other man in the country. We do not believe a word of it. The President has suspended Gilbert and Frederick, of the New York Custom House, for being parties to extensive frauds on the revenue. Both are Republicans. And now Gummery Blair comes to the front with the accusation that the South not liking Tilden had a hand in beating his man Robison in New York. Let Gummery try his hand again. Our excellent contemporary, the News and Courier, is about to give the Charlestonians a good Sunday paper, which will contain the whole of the news of Saturday from every quarter. It is to be called the Sunday News. The Richmond (Va.) Blues have gone to Washington to participate in the ceremonies of unveiling the Thomas monument. This is altogether fitting, as Gen. Thomas was a Virginian, and really one of the very best of the Federal soldiers.

Spirits Turpentine. A correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes for Fowle and Waddell for Governor and Lieutenant Governor in 1880. Raleigh Visitor: Late yesterday evening Sheriff R. S. Saunders, of Hyde county, brought three convicts up to the penitentiary. All colored. The Lumberton Robesonian says the turpentine distillery of Biggs & Collins, near that town, was burned, and a lot of their mules were killed by the night train. The Statesville Landmark says Mr. William Barrow, one of the contractors on the Winston, Salem & Mooreville Railroad, reports the grading as nearly completed. Mrs. Nancy Troy, according to the Goldsboro Messenger, has had fourteen children, sixty-two grand-children, making a total of one hundred and twenty, of whom seventy are now living. The Kinston Journal has been told of a successful colored farmer who raised 35 barrels of corn and 300 pumpkins on four acres, using only an ox and a hoe to cultivate the ground. We are pleased to learn from Mr. Hale's New York letter that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has been charged by his physician, and that he will soon be home, well in health we trust. The Morganton Blade tells of four bears being seen at one time. They were pursued, when the largest tumbled and made quick work with the dogs, killing or crippling the most of them. All the bears got away. Petersburg Index-Appel: Rev. Dr. Skinner, pastor of the First Baptist church in Raleigh, N. C., lately received from Mr. Pierce Lorillard, of New York, a present of a box containing 1,000 cigars, worth $1 each, and $1,300 bill. Mr. Skinner is a cousin of Mr. Lorillard. Newbern Aid Sheet: One hundred and twenty-five thousand wooden plates, from the plate factory of Capt. S. H. Gray, 1,400 bales of cotton, and two or three car loads of turpentine, were shipped from this city Friday and Saturday, over the A. T. N. R. Co. to New Orleans, where this immense amount of freight will be placed on a steamer of the Clyde line to be taken to New York. The Oxford Torchlight, commenting on what the Star said about Granville tobacco, says: "True, every word and allegation. There are a hundred or more farmers in Granville county who can make fully as good an exhibit as any yet given by Capt. Hunter, and he will give each and every one of them a call that they may show to the country what they are doing and how they are doing."

Hartman, at a hotel in Lumberton about two years ago, the State raised some objection to the juror in question of their being separated while out of Court, causing a mistrial. A new jury will be summoned and the case takes up again Monday next, the 24th inst. Improving. The latest news from Mr. W. R. Penny, received yesterday morning, is to the effect that he is improving. Blood was still flowing from the wound in his wrist when the physician arrived, but he took up the severed artery and stopped the bleeding, though the patient fainted under the operation. He is now considered out of danger. One touch of winter makes the whole world chill.

Bells of Corneville.

A handsome and complete edition of the "Bells of Corneville," by Planchette, is now ready and as the music, the acting, scenery and costumes are quite within the reach of amateurs, it is sure to be extensively given and enjoyed. Truly, these French village scenes, contrasting with events in the hazy past, make a spirited combination. Words unobtainable. Price 50c. WHITE ROBES, the new Sunday School Song Book, ANSEL and BURGESS. This is the one of the most successful books of its class, as it is admirably one of the sweetest and best. It will pay to buy one, if only to sing from at home. Price 50c. VOICE OF WORSHIP, L. O. Emerson, $9.00 per dozen. THE PEOPLE, W. O. Perkins, $9.00 per dozen. NEW METHOD FOR SINGING GLASSES, A. N. Johnson, $9.00 per dozen. The above are the best of the latest (Sunday School) Books. The first two have a full set of tunes for Churches. See full lists of New Sheet Music, every week in the MUSICAL REPERTORY. Call on the way to keep well informed on all new issues. Mailed for 6c. Wait for these books, (almost) through the press.
