North Carolina 6's, old, January and July, sold on Friday for 28 in New York.

The prices of cotton goods in New York are steadily advancing, and the market is excited.

Many years ago Mr. Seymour said he would never be found in a mad scramble for office. It is now paraded as a recent utterance to show that he will not accept the nomination. All the Democrats have to do is to elect him. He will agree to be inaugurated we have no doubt.

The purloining of the President's message and Sherman's report gives the Administration more trouble than the stealing of the Presidential office in 1876. The latest we find in the Richmond Dispatch:

"Mr. Barringer, the maker-up of the Treasurer Department of the Government printing office, has been discharged on ac-count of the message business. Circumstances were against him."

Dr. King, who was aged about 50 years, was a native of Beaufort, Carteret cousty, and served during a good portion of the war in the Confederate service. In the early part of the year 1865 he removed to this city, where he has resided ever since, and where he has enjoyed a large practice. He was a very popular physician, and his death will cause a vacuum in the community which it will be hard to fill. The remains of Dr. King are to be brought to this city for interment, and will probably arrive to-day.

Monroe-The Grphan Asylum, &c. From a friend at Monroe, Union county we learn that the new Baptist church at that place was dedicated on Sunday last, in accordance with previous notice, by Rev.
