There is a general air among the Republicans over the confirmation of the report heretofore made, but denied, that the Superintendent of Census has been striving to have the census supervisors appointed equally from Democrats and Republicans throughout the country.

Dr. Alonzo Garcelon, late Governor of that small portion of the "Nation" now in revolt and known on the maps as Maine, once was as furious for war against the South as Blaine has been ever since the war between the States ended.

The old cut-throat meant doubtless all he said. The Bayard resolution came near being strangled in the Senate Finance Committee.

Chief O'uray is a logician as well as a man of sense. When Secretary Schurz told him he must deliver up the Ute Indians, he replied: "That is a very funny thing to ask of me. How can I give them up? Why do you build my tribe responsible for what those men did? We are Uncomphages; they are White River Utes, and not under my immediate control."

Gen. Joe Johnston is convalescent and has taken his seat in the House. Fifteen New York papers (city and State) have declared for Uncle Samuel Jones Tilden.

The increase in the valuation of the real estate in New York for 1880 over that of 1879 is $28,183,417, or 3 per cent.

The newly elected Maryland Senator was once President of a base-ball club. This is encouraging to Wilmingtonians.

The Philadelphia Press is very unkind. It says Judge Tourgee is "a Southern gentleman." Angels and ministers of grace defend us!

Colonel Mosby has been summoned by telegraph to appear in Washington to testify in the case of Minister Seward, strongly suspected of being a rascal.

A true bill has been found against J. M. Young for killing George Hinton, at Petersburg, Va., in November last. It is thought the trial will extend through several days.

The Washington Post gave notice that it would publish a letter from Mr. Seymour, and the next day said it had concluded not to do so. If it throws light on his position in regard to the Presidency let it come.

Greenville Express: The Board of Commissioners refused to accept the bond of Sheriff Warren, Tuesday, and decided the office vacant. Allen Warren was then elected Sheriff by the Board, and will give his bond at their meeting.

The Weldon News corrects our reference to Miss Sue Hubbard. She was the grand daughter of the famous Wiley Jones. Her mother was Miss Kapps. The Secretary of the Board is Mr. W. S. Maria Jefferson, a niece of Thomas Jefferson.

Charlotte Observer: At a late meeting of the Carolina Fair Association Capt. S. B. Alexander was elected President. The graded school house at Salisbury was burned to the ground Monday night; undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

Donald W. Bain has been President of the Raleigh Young Men's Christian Association for five years. He retired at his own request, a short time since, and his worthy successor, Mr. W. S. Primrose, was chosen to fill the high office against his own wishes.

Weldon News: We publish today the first of the three articles on the late Thomas G. Lowe, taken from the Wilmington Star. The others will appear in due course. The fact that these articles are written by T. B. Kingsbury, will commend them to our readers.

Both parties in Washington are excited over the selection of census supervisors. The Republicans, as we stated yesterday, are much disgruntled over a fair deal, and are trying to change many of Mr. Walker's selections.

Let us give this illustrious Rabbi a rousing reception, particularly as one-half of the proceeds go to the Oxford Orphan Asylum."

Jefferson To-Night. Saturday night in this city is, usually, an unfortunate period for the advent of historical artists, but we venture the prediction that the appearance of Mr. Joseph Jefferson this evening will form a marked exception to the rule.

It cures colic, the stomach, the wind, the colic, regulates the bowels, and gives rest, health and comfort to mother and child. "We declare it the Best and Surest Remedy in the World, in all cases of INFANTS' COLIC AND DIARRHOEA IN CHILDREN, who are restless, fretful, and cry out for relief. Wilmington's Churches. The last Charlotte Democrat says: "Wilmington must contain a large portion of church-going people, judging from the number of places of worship in that city. In the Star of Sunday morning last we notice that twenty-four different places for holding divine services are enumerated in the church notices."

Our contemporary should understand that we are not only a church-going people, but that Wilmington is a city in fact as well as in name. There are a few places of worship, too, not mentioned in the list referred to.
