The Republican National Convention will consist of 756 delegates. A majority nominates. Two delegates are allowed for each Representative and Senator in Congress, and two from each Territory and the District of Columbia.

The President gave a superb reception to the Diplomatic Corps. It is represented as very fine. The thrifty had to content themselves with smelling each others breath or sipping weak lemonade.

The literature on the subject of the negro exodus to Indiana is becoming slightly stale. It is very much the same from day to day. The STAR used it as long as it was fresh with interest.

Spirits Turpentine. The New Bern Democrat is booming for Jarvis.

The Auditor's report gives, as listed for taxation in North Carolina, 111,146 white and 55,033 colored polls.

A negro brakeman, of Charlotte, named Henry Young, was knocked off a bridge and killed.

Mrs. R. W. Brown, of Weldon, was thrown from a buggy and had one of her shoulders dislocated.

Franklin letter in Raleigh News: Dr. W. W. Green was slain in cotton this year. He has done more than any other man to encourage cotton-growing in this region.

Goldboro Messenger: There must certainly be a big bonanza in the Western North Carolina Railroad, or else the New York syndicates would not be quite so generous.

The Tarboro Southern says Sam Newton, a negro in Pitt county, was bitten by a dog before Christmas.

It is a lamentable fact, says the Raleigh Observer, that over one-half the taxes raised are expended in executing the criminal laws.

Deadwood, Dakota, correspondent of the Tarboro Southern: Charlie Church, one of the fastest type-setters in the United States, is now "sticking ems" on the Deadwood Pioneer.

Captain Thomas Auld, Fred Douglass's old master, died a few days ago. He was eighty-five.

The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad for the first four months of the fiscal year earned $1,599,841 over the earnings for the corresponding period in 1878-'79.

Emigration to this country is increasing. In January, 5,677 persons arrived at New York, an increase of 2,177 over January, 1879.

There will be a big crop of ice in the North after all. A dispatch from Troy, N. Y., says:

It begins to look as if the Democratic Convention will be held in Washington. If Congressmen can stand it for months at a time, delegates can make out for a day or two.

John E. Poindexter, who is in the penitentiary for killing, was married on the 10th to Miss Cottrell, the young lady who was the unfortunate cause of the slaying.

Among those present at the wedding were a few of the lady friends of Miss Cottrell and Mr. Poindexter's brothers and a few other gentlemen.
