MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.-Rev.' Sylvanas Cobb tans writes in the "Boston Ohristian Preeman" :--We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good-particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Wins-low's Soothing Byrup we can speak from knowl-edge; in our own family it has preved a bleasing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at right. Most parents can appreciate these bleasings. Hare is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherab awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is includable.
