MORNING EDITION

Fears of a serious flood in Virginia are dispelled. - Rosy Cross won the Lincolnshire Handicap; twenty-five horses ran. -Ex-Governor Carcelon testified before the Maine Committee; he denied emphatically that he knew of any forgeries, etc., of election returns .- Roger A. Pryor's disabilities were removed. - A bill was reported for preserving the data of the battle of Geltysburg. - A bill was introduced in the House in regard to the East River bridge at New York. - The Chinese government is making extensive preparations for a probable war with Russia, growing out of the repudiation of the Kuldis treaty by the former. -The American Union Telegraph Company has heen authorized by United States Judge Billings, at New Orleans, to erect lines along the right of way of the New Orleans & Mobile Railroad. - The town of Branchville, S. C., was set on fire yesterday morning, and many valuable buildings destroyed. !- The Chilians are pre paring to attack the Peruviana at Arica.

-One hundred masked men forcibly entered the jail at Winchester, Illinois, and killed a man charged with committing mur-

There is no truth in the report that Mr. Stephens would resign his seat in Congress. Old horses rarely leave their stalls whilst there is a nubbin in Congress will have no fight over the marshals fee bill. It was tacked on to the deficiency bill, and thus got rid of. This will be called a backdown by some.

Here is a pleasant view for Norfolk. Vincinia, of benefits to arise from the Ducktown branch of the Western North Carolina Railroad, which we find in an editorial of the Raleigh Observer:

"The Ducktown branch of the Western North Carolina Railroad will make direct communication with that cotton growing belt and it will be an air line to Norfolk. On the completion of that gap we may be sure that hundreds of thousands of bales of cotton will pass over that road to Norfolk."

Where does Wilmington come in? The Richmond State is looking with interest to the Midland Road to Asheville, It savs: "I his is an important matter for Richmond, as in the event of its success it will open up to the city the trade of Western North Carolina to Asheville, and put us in sdirect communication with many rich sections and towns, giving us a new through line South through a portion of the country not now reached by us,"

Again, we inquire, where does Wilmington come in?

The STAR will not cumber its columns with the new bill or the message, because they are in the main like those we have published before, are intended for the Legislature, or ought to be, and that body has them printed before it. So with other documents laid before the Legislature. The Legislature will take action, and then it will be too late for the people to read up.

It will be noticed that Gov. Jarvis has submitted the "Best" proposition to the scrutiny of Hon. George Davis and Hon. "Tom" Ruffin; and the bill as now presented to the Legislature, coming with the endorsement of these two distinguished gentlemen. &c. - State Journal.

Does the Journal speak by the card? Are these two gentlemen necessarily Sindotalne" alegal paper they are employed to draw? They may hold views that are precisely opposite to those presented in the bill for aught we know.

"By the time the extra session of the Legislature ends it will be very difficult to find the editor or the orator who was not in favor of the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad on just and equitable terms."—Raleigh Journal

Exactly so, but such terms are not to be found in either of the Jarvis bills. It is because there is neither justice nor fairness nor proper guarantees nor proper remuneration nor a real sale, pure and simple, that the STAR opposes both bills.

The darkeys of the Baptist denomination of this section had a large baptism of nearly forty converts in the pool, in the settlement called Africa, on last Sunday.

- Statesville Landmark: The engiacer in charge of the survey of the read rom this point to Danville was ordered on Monday to stop work on the route already having completed about four miles of the survey. The preliminary survey being made by the engineers of the Midland Railroad from this point appears to give them satisfaction, the grade being much lighter than was anticipated. They are working in earnest, and will push the work as rapidly as possible to completion.

- Lumberton Robesonian : Our citizens who visited Charlotte recently seem to have had very enjoyable trips. The project was a good thing for that city, and their example will be apt to be followed by Wilmington, Norfolk, Richmond, Baltimore, and possibly by Con Charleston, Savannah, Atlanta, and other cities, No one ever knows how many people wish to offered. — Col. Duncan K. McRae has recently given the citizens of Wilmington two lectures that have been very highly spoken of by the press a prologue to poetry and poetry. He proposes to deliver these lectures here on Thursday and Friday next.

- Charlotte Press: We don't believe one word of what the Lincoln Press says of President Wilson and Senator Dortch, in which they are charged with appropriating $5,000 in a Western Road transaction with Florida bondholders. This is a trick of the "cat" to injure Mr. Dortch at the outstart as the champion of the good people of the State, and that journal has no doubt, been imposed upon. But a par-tial effect will be accomplished a lie upon started is hard to overtake. — The Best bill, it is stated, is terribly unpopular, and already it has been placed in the hands of the doctors to patch it up. The sentiment is for a sale probably, but most likely on the Dortch plan.

The trains have been repeatedly fired into and rocked. Last Saturday he arrested two men living between the places mentioned. Their names are Arthur Mendenhall and Mack Albertson. The latter made a violent resistance when he was arrested, but after-wards confessed to several of the depreda-tions, and will doubtless give State's evi-dence against Mendenhall, and probably others as it in thought that more than these were concerned in the outrages. They had a preliminary hearing before Justice Mendenhall, of Greensboro, and were commit-ted to jail to default of $1,000 bail.

Beath of Mrs. Payne. The wife of Rev. C. M. Payne, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, died at his residence in this city at an early hour yesterday morning, after a prolonged and painful illness, which was borne with , patient fortitude and Christian resignation. The remains will be taken for interment to Winston, where the family of her father, Mr. Watkins, reside.

There were many evidences of the sym pathy of the community with the bereaved minister's family at the pursonage yesterday, large numbers of people calling to express their condolence, and many floral offerings from members of Mr. Payne's congregation and others, evinced the affection and esteem in which the deceased lady was held.

A Case of Burgiary. We gave in our last the particulars of a case of housebreaking, one Milford Hunter being the party accused. After the man had been arrested and ledged in fail. through the efforts of Officers Strode and Whitney, a search warrant was placed in their hands, and they found all the articles in the house occupied by Hunter in Parsley's Corsicana, ... 58 New Orleans, ... Galveston, ... 62 Punta Rassa, ... before Justice McQuigg yesterday. The evidence was to the effect that the woman, one Ella Holmes, colored, left her house on Harnett, between Fourth and Fifth streets, about 8 o'clock, on Monday night, to go to a festival, first securely fastening all the doors and windows. She returned about 11 o'clock, and found the back door open, and the articles missing. The thief effected an entrance by going under the house and removing a short piece of the flooring. The hole thus made happened to be immedistely under a low bedsteed, and the thief forced his head through the slats of the bedstead. His exit with the stolen goods was made through the back door. Ella Holmes stated during her testimony that she was at a store in the neighborhood during the evening, and that the defendant was there and heard her say that she was going to the festival that night.

A colored woman by the name of Hattie Outlaw, who lives in part of the house occupied by Hunter, says the accused left the things with her Tuesday morning. In fact, the officers say that Hunter confessed having stolen the things.

In this, we presume, we have another capital case for trial at the approaching term of the Oriminal Court; that is, if, as some of the lawrers say, the fact of the family being absent when a dwelling house is foreibly entered in the night time does not mitigate the offence, and make it simple largery instead of burglary.

A gentleman in the southern part of the city says some of the pillows belonging to the benefit of the air and sun, a few days since, and when the servant went to take them in the house in the evening, they were gone. The gentleman, who, for certain reasons, prized the articles beyond their intrinsic value, made the remark in the presence of some of the colored people residing on the premises, that if the pillows were restored to him he would leave their equivalent in money in their place and no questions asked, and yesterday morning, when he opened his back door, the identical pillows were found on the steps

Meet parents can appreclate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button," And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething sleep, on any consideration whatever.
