Titden is losing ground, we think. It is becoming apparent to even some of his admirers that he could not be elected. The Richmond Commonwealth, not unfriendly to him, says:

"We think it would be a calamity to the party to nominate him, for it is as plain as day that he could not be elected. If he and Gen. Grant are nominated it is our fixed belief that the State of Virginia would go for Gen. Grant,"

The STAR had no reference to the position of the Observer latterly. It referred to what it understood to be its position when the bill was first published and before it had been dissected. The STAR will at no time consciously misrepresent the Observer. The impression was made certainly upon us and other of its friends here that it favored the Best bill at first, If we did it injustice in this particular we will gladly make the amende honorable.

THE EXTRAGEDINARY SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

[Raleigh Observer's Report Condensed.]

WEDNESDAY, March 17, 1880.

Petitions were introduced. Sundry bills and resolutions were ntroduced, among them the fol-By Mr. Everett-A bill to be entitled "An act to sell the Western North Carolina Railroad." The bill proposes to appoint certain commissioners to make and perfect the sale and effect the completion of the road to Paint Rock and to Ducktown. By Mr. Everett-Resolution relating to the contested seat from the Second Senatorial District. Placed on calendar. On motion of Mr. Nicholson the rules were suspended and the bill to amend chapter 232, laws 1879 (omnibus bill precibitory liquor law), was taken up and passed its several readings. Mr. Everett moved a suspension of the rules, in order to take up a resolution introduced by himself, instructing the Judiciary Committee to prepare an amendment to the Constitution, allowing the Legislature to exempt from taxation capital which is or may hereafter be invested in manufacturing interests. This resolution elicited considerable discussion, and was finally laid on the table, on motion of Mr. McRachern, by the following vote: Yeas 28, nays 15, HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES On motion of Clarke, of Crayen, Mr. John A. Vann, of Pergumans, and Franklin Spruil, of Washington, members elect, came forward and took the oath of office. Mr. York introduced a bill in relation to the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, and one is relation to Cape Fear river. Mr. Bost-A bill to amend an act to prevent stock running at large in Duplin county. Mr. Clarke, of Craven-A bill to extend the time to redeem lands in possession of the State. Also a bill to protect quail and other birds.

Mr. Scott, of New Hanover, introduced a bill in relation to the Western North Carolina Railroad. Re ferred to the select committee on the Western North Carolina Railroad. Mr. Scott-A bill in relation to railroad matters. Special committee. Mr. Clarke-A resolution of inquiry as to the right of Mr. Foard to a seat in this House. Referred to the committee on Privileges and Mr. Turner-A protest against the assembling of the Legislature. House bill, No. 12, in regard to the adjustment of the public debt was discussed and tabled.

House bill No. 14, to amend chapter 25, acts 1878-'79, was put upon its third reading and passed.

House resolution No. 5, in regard to the Etheridge Robbins contested seat, came up as special order for 12

Mr. Etheridge took the floor, and in a few earnest and impressive remarks intimated his desire to have a fair and nonpartisan trial, saying that he would cheerfully abide the decirion of his fellow members.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING STRUP.—Rev. Sylvanus Coob thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman":—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Boothing Syrap we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Mest parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is handless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "stight as a batton." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard methers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finialed with the teething sleep, on any consideration whatever.
