The Sherman and Blaine leaders in South Carolina are combining aguinst Grant.

Mr. Ignatius Donelly asks the Committee on elections to investigate the Manning-Springer matter.

The Sherman men are engaged just now in a mighty big whistle to keep their courage up. A gain of one vote elates them beyond measure.

The latest from Washington concerning the Martin-Yeates contest in the First North Carolina District is that it will be disposed of at once and in favor of Martin.

We give it, but we expect it will be contradicted before a week ends. It is this, that Mr. Stephens says that Virginia, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana and Georgia will not for one moment listen to the nomination | place on the first Saturday in May. of Mr. Tilden at Cincinnati.

a letter appears in the Philadelphia Record written from Utica, N. Y, which announces with great positiveness that Mr. Seymour will contest with Tilden for the votes of the New York delegation. This leads the Record, an independent paper, to

"If this betrue it makes an end of Tilden and opens wide the way for either Seymour or Bayard.'

The effort to harmonize in New York has again failed, through the obstinacy of the Tilden set. They decline any compromise or affiliation with any other organization that will not pledge itself to support the nominee of the National Convention, whoever he may be. This, of course, shuts the door in the face of the Tammany people. They will never support or agree to support Mr. Tilden, we take it. Tilden's desire for office is consuming. It consumes him and threatens to consume his party.
