VOL. XXVI.---NO. 22.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, APRIL 16, 1880.

Charles Tate, colored, was arraigned before J. C. Hill, J. P., yesterday afternoon, on the charge of drawing a pistol upon

David Hall, the one-legged shoemaker, on Sunday last, and threatening to shoot him.

At the close of the testimony Tate was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term

It is just as much a mystery to us as it is to the world outside of the Academy, except that we are positive that no one in the corps did it. There are not any three cadets who would do such a cowardly act, and even if there were, the rest of us would be sure to know it, and we would have run them off the post at the point of the bayonet long before this. No one is than we are, and all we want is to have the guilty parties punished. We sympathize with Mr. Whittaker if he did not do it himself, and if any cadet did it the others would have immediately informed the au-

- Yesterday was the anniversary of the big snow storm in 1849.

- Sheriff Sutton, of Bladen, paid us a brief call yesterday evening. - Dry and dusty, and a good shower of rain would be welcome. - Thanks to Hon. Walter I Steele for various public documents.

- The hay which was stored in the ice house that was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, is still burning.

- Capt. Walter Furlong, Chief Engineer of the steamer "Adrian," who has been quite ill, is getting well again.

- The ladies who have contributed to the Baptist Festival will please send in their contributions to-morrow afternoon.

Excursionists from Smithville.

The steamer Passport, Capt. Harper brought a large excursion party of ladies and gentlemen, with a fair sprinkling of children, from Smithville yesterday morning, the number being estimated at about two hundred. They went up the river as far as Hilton, where they landed and enjoyed a ple sant pic-nic under the beautiful grove, with its carpet of green, which is so peculiarly adapted for such purposes. This part of the programme being concluded, the boat steamed back to her wharf, when the excursionists again landed and spent a few hours in walking about the city. Shortly after 4 o'clock in the afternoon the party reembarked on the steamer and were soon "homeward bound," followed by the good wishes of our citizens, who considered their visit a very pleasant surprise.

The excursion was given for the benefit of the Methodist parsonage at Smithville, and we are glad to learn that the proceeds will be likely to meet the present re-

Supposed Case of Attempted Infanti-

A case of supposed attempted infanticide was brought to light in this city yesterday morning. A colored man by the name of Robert Haywood thought he heard the cry of an infant in a sink some ten or twelve feet deep. He secured the assistance of Officer Robert Green, of the police force, and the two, after some difficulty, succeeded in finding and rescuing a newly-born babe, which was alive and well at last accounts. The mother of the child, a mulatto girl, aged 17 years, by the name of Susan Waddell, is under the surveillance of the police.

Since writing the above the child has died, having breathed its last about 1 P. M. yesterday. The Coroner was notified and summoned his jury and commenced an inquest over the remains, but finally adjourned to meet at the court house this morning, at 10 o'clock, on account of the absence of important witnesses.

The Injured. Mr. John Farrow has so far recovered from the injuries he received at the fire, on Sunday morning last, as to consider himself able to to undertake the journey to Brennan, Texas, from whence he had arrived a week or ten days before the fire on a visit to his relatives and friends in thermometer, at the stations mentioned, at 4.31 yesterday evening, Washington mean time, as ascertained from the daily bulletin of the Criminal Court, to answer to the charge of an assault with a deadly weapon, and a like bond in the same sum for his appearance to answer to the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. Charles Tate subsequently swore out peace warrant against David Hall, which was heard before Justice Millis, the evidence being to the effect that Hall had frequently threatened to shoot Tate. Hall was thereupon required to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for pinety days. Hall, as before stated, has but one leg, and in action and appearance is very much like an Indian, having long, straight black hair. When the result of the investigation was made known to him, he became very indignant, jumped from his seat, hopped about excitedly on his one leg, raved and ranted, invited somebody to "chop his head off," and declared emphatically that he would not pay a cent. While he was giving vent to his indignation quite a crowd collected in the vicinity of the Court House, which only dispersed when the excited man had listened to the mild persuasions of his wife and subsided into quietness, if not good humor.

The "Thallan Amateurs."

Our play-goers will be glad to learn that the "Thalian Amateurs"-the old original pannel-will once more appear before the public, at Tileston Upper Room, in about five or six weeks, in Baker's popular drama, entitled "Above the Clouds." We have seen our young friends "Among the Breakers," and admired them. When we soar with them "Above the Clouds" it is likely we shall be equally gratified.
