The Morning Star.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY EVENING, April 28, '80.

EVENING EDITION.

THE NEW MINISTRY.

The English Cabinet selected by Mr. Gladstone and published in our dispatches of yesterday, is a strong one.

The people have rebuked at the polls the foreign and domestic policy of the Tory Government, and also any outside interference.

The election indicated a religious aspect to which we have not referred. The policy of Beaconsfield was to remand millions of Christians to the rule of Turks.

The election indicated a religious aspect to which we have not referred. The policy of Beaconsfield was to remand millions of Christians to the rule of Turks.

The principles and opinions of London are not now the principles and opinions of the remainder of the Kingdom.

MR. STEPHENS, OF GEORGIA.

Mr. Alex. H. Stephens is a man of high honor and parity of life. He is very decidedly an able man.

We do not think Mr. Stephens is a good party leader but he is a strong support. There is no man in Georgia or in any State who has a better record for personal virtues.

That was a rather curious amendment offered by a Republican in the Senate to compel a Republican President to appoint two colored cadets to West Point from the country at large.

The election indicated a religious aspect to which we have not referred. The policy of Beaconsfield was to remand millions of Christians to the rule of Turks.

The principles and opinions of London are not now the principles and opinions of the remainder of the Kingdom.

The Senate is now discussing the Spofford-Kellogg case. Senators Bailey, Jones, Hoar and Hill have spoken. Other Senators will follow.

The first to do so constitutes your government and so admits that it will protect and realize the affection of the people who dwell under it.

Frederick Crill, a lawyer, was hanged at Newton, New Jersey, a day or two ago, for the murder of his daughter.

Gen. Ben Butler is determined that the country shall not forget the wholesale "enlightened bulldozing" in Massachusetts.

Messrs. I. K. Funk & Co., No. 12 Dey street, New York, have sent us Ruskin's famous "Letters to Workmen and Laborers."

The mighty Logan has returned from the war-path to the happy turning grounds at Washington.

Kentucky is advancing. Its new Constitution requires certain moral and educational qualifications for all jurors.

THE MAGAZINE Frank Leslie's Lady's Magazine for May is out in good time and well filled.

ST. NICHOLAS, Scribner's beautifully illustrated magazine for girls and boys, conducted by Mary Mapes Dodge.

The "Confederate brigadiers" cheerfully vote annually many millions out of the pockets of their own people to pay pensions and arrearsages and support homes for the soldiers who triumphed over them in the war of the rebellion.

The Albany Law Journal, brings out even more forcibly than before the point illustrated in its own article on the Civil Rights bill.

Senator Thurman, the ablest Democratic Senator probably now in Congress, visited Columbus, Ohio, on last Saturday.

Dark and perilous times are ahead of us in this State, unless a wonderful reform is wrought in our public school system.

THE LATEST NEWS.
