A bad swop : John B. Gordon for Joseph E. Brown. The strangest thing of this strange age is the existence o; one man who is tired of being United States Senator. But what a grip those other fellows have.

Senator Butler made a strong speech against unseating Spofford. Bayard will follow on the same side. Apropos of Bayard the following is good from the State:

"He was approached by a Louisiana Congressman, and warned that if he did so he would get no support from that State in the Democratic National Convention. Bayard turned upon him and said: 'Sir, when it is a question of doing my duty as a Seoater I count neither gains nor losses,'

We do not remember such a rainfail as is reported in our telegraphic news from Columbus, Georgia. Over eight inches of rain fell in ten hours, and the Chattaboochee river rose fifteen feet in two hours. Think of a river rising an inch and a balf per minute. Great injury to railroads and destruction of crops are reported.
