North Carolina funding act bonds of 1868 sold in New York on Monday

Our second report on oleomargarine is that the more you tackle it the less you hanker after it. It is better than mean butter all the same.

The amendments made to the River and Harbor bill do not change any of the appropriations for North Carolina. The bill is nearly com-

One Henry Finley is very strongly suspected in Washington of being the author of the anonymous letter offering to bribe Representative Springer.

The Atlanta Constitution indignantly sconts and refutes the flying rumor that there had been a bargain and sale in the matter of the Georgia Senatorship.

Settle is booming. He has two Southern States bearing his "strange device" for Vice-President, namely, Florida and Alabama. He will probably get North Carolina also.

There is a powerful reaction pro gressing against Tilden both in Missouri and in Kentucky. The former State, it is thought, will send a delegation uninstructed, whilst Kentucky will send an anti-Tilden delegation.

The Senate by a vote of 25 to 14 has provided for an honest count of the electoral vote. It is to be hoped that the new rule will prevent partisan tribunals from cheating the people. Of course the Republican Senstors objected to going back to Constitutional methods.

Samuel Scattergood was a fruit importer of Philadelphia who took his own life recently. It is a pity that a man with so appropriate a name should have got tired of his business and shuffled off in that way. Financial reverses closed the shutters and broke the timepiece.

Ex Gov. Hendricks attended the unveiling of the Jackson statue at Nashville, and was complimented with a serenade, when he responded in anelequent speech in which he paid handsome tributes to North Caroli na's three native sons, Andrew Jack: son, James K. Polk and Andrew

If a Senator is a member of Congress is he not a Congressman? If a Congressman why attempt to designate a Representative by the distinctive title of Congressman? Is he any more a Congressman than the Senator is a Congressman? If so, how much more? The common use ic to speak of Representatives as Congressmen. Is this the best way?

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVI.--NO. 57.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 27, 1880.

The Washington Post, that started the Seymour boom, now says he will not be a candidate because he cannot carry New York. An officer of Congress from Utica, N. Y., Mr. Seymour's home, tells the Richmond Dispatch's correspondent "that Mr. Seymour is a strong, hearty man of sixty-nine," and prefers another man to himself for the nomination, and does not want it. Very good. But suppose the people want him to have it, what then? He has patriotism enough to bow to the majestic voice of freemen. In that instance the voice of the people would be to him has this to say:

"Mr. Seymour has never allowed the use of his name in this connection, but has always declined to do so. Therefore, it won't do to say that he refuses to allow 'the further use of his name.' Moreover, as it is absurd to say that he couldn't carry New York, we do not believe that Mr. Seymour has ever said so. * other hand, the Post gives us a telegram from San Francisco saying that the entire California delegation will go for Mr. Seymour if he will accept the nomination of the Cincinnati Convention. Also, one from Missouri saying that in Buchanan county last Saturday, an old Virginian, ex-Gov. Silas Woodson, made a speech in which he declared himself in favor of Seymour and Hendricks. Also, a telegram from Illinois, saying that of the delegates from McDonaugh county to the State Convention six are known to be for Seymour."

Judge David Davis has written a letter bidding for the nomination for President. The Kellyites like it and think it opens the way for getting rid of Tilden. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes of what Tammany thinks about it as follows:

"They say it is a platform upon which Democrats of every stripe and section can conscientiously stand, and, what is more, the maker of it occupies a position, as to personal character, that would make him It is now thought that Congress absolutely proof against the shafts of the Therefore they are willing to take Judge David Davis at Cincinnati. Gen. Tom Ewing, who is just now in the city, says there is really nothing new in the issues as presented by Judge Davis, though it is necessary sometimes that old truths should be retold; and he does not think that, unless he has something better than his letter to back him, that gentleman's strength in the Convention will be very pronounced. It is to be added, however, by way of qualifying this observation, that Mr. Ewing indulges the idea that it is entirely within the pale of probability that himself is 'the dark

> Public opinion has pretty well settled down as to the guilt of the negro cadet, Whittaker. That he wrote the note of warning is almost certain-possibly altogether so. A writer in the Washington Post thus states the case;

"There were four half sheets of paper submitted to Mr. Southworth, the expert and stated as follows: No. 1. Letter of warning to Whittaker equals one-half sheet; No 2. Letter by Whittaker to his mother equals one-half sheet; No. 3. Letter by Whittaker to his mother equals one-half sheet; No. 4. Letter by Whittaker for postage stamps equals one-half sheet. This expert found that Nos. 1 and 2 constituted one sheet when put together, and that Nos. 4 and 3 constituted one sheet when put to gether, the indentation in each half sheet fitting exactly. Whittaker is known to have written Nos. 2, 8 and 4, hence it is shown, mathematically, that he must have written No. 1."

Ex-Gov. Joe Holden, of North Carolins, as written a "De Profundis" poem full of Christian hope, in answer to the despairing wail that so recently came across the water to us from England's greatest living poet. The North Carolina Printer Boy, we think rather gathers the great laureste, in truth at least, if not in poetry. - Richmond State.

Ex-Gov. W. W. Holden is the person referred to. His son, Joseph. died some years ago. He wrote one poem of considerable merit entitled "Hatteras."

Shot in the Leg.

Correspondence of the Raleigh Observer. MARION, N. C., May 24.-Editor Observer: An altercation on the street here Saturday evening last, between W. A McCorkle and W. H. Bailey, resulted in the latter receiving a shot in the right leg. The physicianin attendance pronounces it only flesh wound.

C., on 23d inst., six young persons took their places for the first time at the Lord's table. Of these three received baptism. One gentleman was received by certificate.

> - Winston Leader: The case of Miss Lillic Leigh vs. the town of Salem. claiming $5,000 damages for alleged injuries received by the upsetting of a vehicle, occasioned by an embankment on the streets of Salem, excited a great deal of interest. The case was given to the jury on Monday evening, and Tuesday morning they returned a verdict giving $1,600 to Miss Leigh. It is thought the case will be taken to the Supreme Court.

- New Berne Record: The efforts made by incendiaries to set fire to the city on Saturday night should be thoroughly overhauled by the authorities. - As between Fowle and Jarvis, the preference of this journal is for Fowle, though we had rather see Merrimon Governor than either. But it is well understood, that Merrimon does not seek the place, and would not have it unless by the voluntary, unsolicited action of the party.

- Lumberton Robesonian: Cot ton is dying badly through this section for the past week from some unknown cause. - Now that booms, are the order of the day, we are rejoiced to see a real boom coming near us. We have reference to Col. H. B. Short for Lieutenant Governor. His own county, Columbus, is pledged to him and the Review says he is the choice of the city of Wilmington for that position. Short stock has been far above par in this county since 1876, and we feel sure that Old Robeson would gladly support him in Convention for Lieutenant Governor. — Quhele items: We understand that the dysentery is prevailing in the country. -All cotton and no corn in this section. we can stand it, the West can. - Early cotton is doing well.

- Raleigh Observer: Dr. Fab. J Haywood, Sr., who was attacked with paralysis last week, became much worse yesterday. - The improvements at St. Mary's School, which have just been finished, will add still more to the completeness and efficiency of the musical department, which has already attained such a high position under the supervision of its energetic director. — Mrs. Stonewal Jackson and daughter have been invited to unveil the monument of the Stonewall Cemetery Association, at Winchester, Va. - At the target practice of the Fayetteville Light Infantry, at Fayetteville, on the 20th of May, Col. T. C. Fuller, of this corps, was the winner of a prize cup. The fact that it was a tin one, and was won by the poorest score, does not at all diminis its value in his eyes.

- Col. S. McD. Tate arrived in Salisbury Sunday morning from New York, where he has been in communication with Best & Co. He says that the delay in taking charge of the Western North Carolina Railroad has not been because of any inability, or any disposion to fly the contract, but on account of serious disagreements between members of the syndicate as to the management. The syndicate was to have an official meeting on Monday, the 24th, when it was hoped to reconcile those differences, and Mr. Best, or some representative, is to be in Salisbury to-night. In case. however, the differences prove irreconcilable. Col. Tate has made a proposition to the syndicate to assign their purchase, wit all its conditions, to himself and other gentlemen, on behalf of the private stockholders of the road. Information was received here yesterday that Mr. Best had left New York, warranting the presumption that the difficulties referred to by Col Tate have all been adjusted. - The white companies of the city fire department attended in a body yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the funeral of Mr. Milton Moyer, of the Pioneers, a worthy young man, who died at the residence of his mother, at 7 o'clock, Sunday morning.

The Republican Executive Committee of the 7th Congressional District met at Yadkinville on Saturday. Every county was represented. The District Convention for nominating a candidate for Congress, elector, &c., was called for August 7th. The following persons were appointed delegates to the National Convention at Chicago: Thomas N. Cooper and J. J. Mott. of Iredell; D. L. Bringle, of Rowan, and Major Pinkham, of Forsythe. All these are Grant men except Dr. Mott, who is understood to be for Sherman.

Runaway on Water Street.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, horse attached to a buggy, the property of Mr. S. W. Dunham, got frightened at the corner of Chesnut and Water streets and ran away, turning into the sidewalk directly after starting and causing considerable | the room, connected with the water-cooler. of a panic among the pedestrians on that and boxed up so as to cover a considerable busy thoroughfare. In his course the insurance sign of Messrs. DeRosset & Northrop was demolished, and the wheel of the through which they might effect their vehicle came in contact with Mr. E. Kidder's buggy. Reaching the corner of Princess and Water streets, by which time the buggy city, who is an honorary member of the had been turned bottom-up, the horse was they discovered that the floor was a double stopped by Mr. Dunham himself, who happened to be standing opposite the Exchange when the runaway took place. Mr. Dunham's buggy was badly demolished, but Mr. Kidder's only received slight thought he would do, to strike him down damage to the axle-tree.

ATTEMPTED JAIL DELIVERY.

A Baring Attempt to Break Jail-One of the Conspirators Prepared to Sirike the Jallor Down-How the Attempt was Frustrated, &c.

Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, Daniel Howard, the jailor, was aroused from his slumbers by the vigorous shaking of the front door of the jail. He got up and went to the window to listen, and while standing there a policeman on the street told him that some one in fail was calling him. Howard hastily dressed himself, and in the meantime Officer Everett, alluded to above, was joined by Officers Nelson and Williams, who were just off night duty and starting home. The four then went into the jail yard, when Nathan Graham, commonly known as "Crazy Nathan," who is in jail for safe-keeping, sung out to the jailor, "Look out how you go in there; there's some one loose in the passage!" The failor opened the outside door, when, through the lattice door on the inside, he espied one of the colored prisoners standing at one side with a piece of board some four feet long drawn back, as if ready to strike any one who should attempt to enter. The jailor ordered him to retire, but he never stirred. He then told the prisoner that if he didn't get away from the door he would shoot him, drawing his pistol at the same time. At this the prisoner jumped back behind the heater, the large "drum" to which almost completely concealed his body. Howard discharged his pistol as nearly in his direction as possible, when the prisoner got frightened and ran off. The jailor and police officers Everett, Nelson and Williams then entered, and the two prisoners engaged in the attempt to escape were captured, put in their cell and securely ironed, so there will be no possibility of their making another such demon-

The two men proved to be George Myers, awaiting trial for burglary, and Joseph Campbell, a prisoner from Pender county, charged with breaking into the store of Mr. Thomas Williams, at Rocky Point Quarry, some weeks ago.

Upon examination it was found that the two men had broken out of the cell in which they were confined by wrenching three iron bars a half inch thick from the door, which left a hole sufficiently large to permit of their egress. They then went to work and tore up the tank in the corner of space, the supposition being that they thought there was a hollow space beneath escape. Failing in this, they next commenced ripping up the flooring, and had succeeded in getting up two planks, when one. Their next move seems to have been the desperate one of attracting the jailor to the front door, and as he should open it and attempt to enter, as they evidently JUNE next. with the piece of board and make their escape over his prostrate body. Jailor Howard is not certain which of the men was standing at the door, as he could not see him distinctly. Samuel Grice, colored, charged with tampering with the mails, and awaiting trial at the next term of the United States order was given by Col. Smith, Chairman District Court, occupied the same cell with of the Board of County Commissioners, the two men, but did not go out with them. He says he was asleep and didn't know when the others broke out.

Myers, one of the conspirators, will be put on trial to-morrow for his life.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW !-As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a Female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge obtained in a lifetime event as numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge obtained in a lifetime spent as nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is moreover sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world renowned as a benefactor of the race; children certainly do RISE up and bless her: especially is this the case in this a benefactor of the race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DAILY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, methers—TBY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visitor, New York city. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
