The Blaine men somehow have gained fresh hope and plucked strength from the dangers of defeat. That is to say they are bragging

Courtney protests that he did not sell out but did not win the race because he could not. He says if he could have won he would have been a made man for life.

The admirers of Mr. Paul H. Hayne, the Southern poet, will regret to learn of his illness at his home near Augusta, Ga. He is very sick from some hemorrhages.

We suppose the Weldon News ind not received the explanation of the STAR when it wrote its little lecture. By the way, the personal fling and "angenerous inuendo" of its own article supply a curious example of the necessity of its lecture.

There is no mistake about it now. It was the veritable Geerge Eliot (Marian Evans), the great novelist, who married Cross, a man twelve years her junior. We are sorry for the Cross she has taken. They are travelling in Italy and Tyrol.

It is not all one way among the Democratic papers of Georgia as to the appointment of cx-Gov. Brown. The ablest papers appear to be satisfied such as the Savannah News and Atlanta Constitution, whilst even the Augusta Constitutionalist draws it

There were many sun strokes throughout the North on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Among the victims was Rev. Francis Xavier George, of St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church of Philadelphia. Whilst people were roasting and dying with the thermometer at 100 and upwards, Wilmingtonians sat in the shade with the thermometer marking but 85 degrees.

Senator Ransom, as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Commerce, is hard at work. Senator Lamar is trying to get Longstreet's nomination confirmed. The Marshals' bill, the Electoral bill and the Supervisors' bill have passed the Senate and are on the Speaker's table in the House. But they can not get them before the House without the consent of the Republicans, and there the bitch

The STAR has never said a word concerning Mr. Tilden that it would recall if he were nominated. It has opposed his nomination because he is a machine politician who cannot get every Southern State and cannot carry his own State, New York, as it believes. It will eat no crow if Tildea should be the nominee. It will take good care not to say at the start that he is the very man for the place, is certain to be elected and more of the usual political blarney. It will support him and try to help engineer of the Insane Asylum, died at his elect him have Elect him, because he is a better man a good man and valuable citizen.

The last "dark horse" spoken of for the Cincinnati race is an old Democratic racer known as Wm. R. Morrison, of Illinois. He appears to be in good training and well groomed. The Richmond Commonwealth's letter of the 26th says:

"There was a meeting of the political friends of Congressman Morrison at Willard's last night; at which there was some enthusiasm manifested by several of the gentlemen present. The States of Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Texas, Alabama, Missouri, Illinois and Mississippi were represented. This movement is in the direction of crystallizing a sentiment in favor of a man who shall be free from all the objections which are supposed to lie against Tilden, Thurman, Hendricks, field or any of the other more prominent gentlemen talked of in this connection. General Chalmers said at the meeting last night: 'I have no hesitancy in stating that think Wm. R. Morrison is the strongest man that the Democratic party can nomi-

In the debate in the Senate concerning tissue ballots in South Carolina the advantage was not on the side of the Stalwarts. The Richmond State's special says:

"Mr. Hoar was badly worsted in this tilt with the South Carolinians, and his embarrassment caused a general smile on both sides of the chamber. Teller and Hoar took refuge behind the story about tissue ballots used by Democrats at Charleston. Hampton said the tissue ballots were first used by a Republican candidate, and some of the Democrats, he regretted to say, were indiscreet enough to imitate them. Judge Mackey, of South Carolina, says the tissue ballots were in fact first invented and used by Republicans, but the Democrats seized the device, and by their superior civilization circumvented the inventors."

Gen. Gordon is much embarrassed financially. For two years he says he has been meditating a resignation. He was offered a large salary recently to remove to Oregon. He accepted. "Bildad" of the State says:

"When it became known that he contemplated removal from Georgia a good offer as counsel for the line of railway from Savannah to St. Louis was tendered, and accepted, with the consent of his Oregon friend, because he preferred to remain in Georgia even with less emoluments. Gen. Gordon will probably renew his connection with his old partner for the practice of

IX TY-FOURTH ANNUAL CONVEN-OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH-DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Special telegram to Greensboro Patriot. FIRST DAY'S SESSION.

Winston, N. C., May 26-4 P. M. The Sixty-fourth Annual Convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of North Carolina convened in St. Paul's Church here, at 10 o'clock this morning. The Rt. Rev. T. B. Lyman, Assistant Bishop, called the Convention to order. Rev. E. R. Rich, Secretary, called the roll, and about seventyfive clergymen and laymen answered to their names. The Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, N. C., preached the opening sermon. It was an able effort and delivered with great earnestness. The church was crowded.

After morning service and holy communion, the organization was perfected by electing Rev. Dr. A. A. Watson, of Wilmington, President, and Rev. E. R. Rich, of Raleigh, ecretary.

A committee was appointed to 7th, 100; 8th, 54—Total 757. Majority for votes. It is thought the valley of the Yad-kin is strong for Fowle.

- New Berne Record : The military as well as other citizens seem to have had a good time of it in Tarboro on the 20th. Dress parade and battalion drill, an oration, an enjoyable dinner and a match at base ball were the prominent features of the occasion. - The trial of the three negroes who burned the county jail in January last, took place in the Superior Court yesterday, and a verdict of guilty was rendered. Miller, the leader, was sentenced to the penitentiary for twenty years, and the other two to terms of fifteen years

- Greensboro Patriot: Rev. D. R. Bruton has recently returned home from an extended tour North in the interest of the Greenshoro Female College. During his absence he visited Richmond, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and other points, soliciting pecuniary aid for our excellent female college, and we are gratified to be able to state that he was successful far beyoud our expectations. The gross amount realized by Mr. Bruton was $5,250, with many substantial promises in the future, from which it is expected a large amount will be raised. — Judges Dick and Dillard's law class in this city recite five hours each day, both Judges holding the exami-

- New Berne Nut Shell: We are leased to note that our young townsman, James B. Hughes, has received the appointment at West Point. He is now awaiting orders from the War Department. ——Isaac Aldridge, a colored man, was convicted of of forgery yesterday in the Superior Court. He took an appeal. — Colonel R. R. Bridgers, President of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, was in our city yesterday, looking after railroad matters. W learn he has made a proposition to lease the A. & N. C. R. R. for $30,000 per year, giving certain guarantees. A meeting of the Directors will probably be held in a few days, and Col. Bridgers' proposition formalpresented. No action will be taken until the meeting of the stockholders in June, when both this proposition and that of Mr. Best will be finally disposed of.

- Charlotte Observer: At the late meeting of the stockholders of the Chester & Lenoir Narrow Gauge Railroad, held in Chester, a resolution was unanimously passed proposing the funding of certain debts, and recommending that a mortgage of $250,000 be placed on the road between Chester and Newton, in North Carolina, $200,000 of the amount to be used in building the road as far as Lincolnton, and in funding all outstanding indebtedness of the road. One hundred thousand dollars will be sufficient for the latter purpose. The remaining $50,000 is to be used exclusively in constructing the road from Lillington to Newton. We learn that these arrangements will be carried out immediately. - A company has been organized to operate the Brewer

Gold Mine with sufficient capital to pur

case all the machinery that can be used. The owners, who have just returned from the North, refused a very handsome offer for the property. - Raleigh Post: We understand that Hon. Josiah Turner, who arrived in the city this morning, has effected arrangements to revive the Sentinel. It is to be twenty-eight column weekly, and, we infer, will be issued sometime next week. — The second volume of Moore's History o North Carolina will soon be issued. The candidacy of Hon. James L. Robinson for Lieutenant Governor is as dead as door-nail in the east, and the union of Jarvis and Holt buries it. The friends of

Gov. Robinson now propose to bring him into the field for Secretary of State. —The Weekly News is a large, handsome sheet, and well worth the price of subscription. —Our friend, Richard Battle, Esq. lately of the News, has connected himsel with the Observer staff. The reporter wishes him much success in his new field of journalistic labor. -It being the fashion now to figure on future results, the Post ciphers the State, by districts, as follows: Jarvis-1st District, 100; 2d, 26; 3d, 50; 4th, 26; 5th, 43; 6th, 94; 7th, 36; 8th, 104-Total 479. - Raleigh Observer: The Second Presbyterian Church is very nearly ready for occupancy. The delay in getting into it has proved quite vexatious to both pastor and people, no doubt. — But, after all, what does LL. D., after one's name, signify? - The Convention of Pitt county, the home of Gov. Jarvis, puts him in nomination for the gubernatorial office, and declares that as "the author, promoter and completer of the grand project of the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad, he deserves the lasting gratitude of the people of North Carolina, without regard to color, sex, condition or politics." Pitt also declares for Latham for Congress. The delegates are instructed. - One of the iolliest runaways that has occurred in many a day happened out on the Hillsboro road a few afternoons since. A party of four negro women were on board a wagon, drawn by a mule. The animal became enthusiastic at the sight of the city from the hill near the fair grounds, and started down the slope at lightning speed. One by one the people were thrown out, two of them being badly bruised. The frisky animal kept right on, and finally stopped at St. Mary's, to look for the wagon.

- Charlotte Observer: Mrs. Moon the revivalist, has returned to her home in Indiana. -Dr. Mull, who assaulted the local editor of the Greensboro Patriot, and who was sentenced to jail thirty days therefor, has published a card in the Beacon, of that town, in which he professes great penitence for his hasty action. -President Battle, of the University, will de-liver the annual address at Walhalla College, S. M. McCorkle, and Will Bailey, son of Mr. W. H. Bailey, of this city, which occurred at Marion last Sunday afternoon. Both the young men are members of a party of revenue raiders now operating in the mountain region. The party spent the day in Marion and the difficulty occurred while the young men were in the town. by the use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which vice. is for sale at all drug stores.

About the Census. The Ceusus Enumerators for this District have received from Hon. Francis A. Walker, Superintendent of Census, portfolios for use in the enumeration of their districts. containing schedules for population, agriculture and mortality. Also supplementary schedules 1 to 7 for the defective, dependent and delinquent classes, such as insane, deaf mutes, paupers, criminals, &c. Each of the first named schedules provides for the return of 2,800 inhabitants, 40 farms and 72 deaths. Schedule No. 4, having reference to social statistics, has, under authority of the 18th section of the act of March 3, 1879, been and intrusted to Special Agents of the Census Office.

The collection of the statistics of manufacturers in all cities and towns having 10,-000-inhabitants or upwards, according to the census of 1870, has been charged upon Special Agents of the Census Office, and Enumerators will have no responsibility

A single sheet of Schedule 2 (agriculture) is sent to all Enumerators in cities, in the view that their districts may contain a few farms, market gardens or nurseries, which should be reported on this schedule.

the Thallan Amateurs.

The repetition of the play "Above the Clouds" at the Tileston Upper Room last evening was very fairly patronized. The performance was exceedingly creditable in every respect, and brought out to an exceptional degree the capabilities of the Association. All the old favorites took part, and the additions recently made add largely to the strength of the representation.

Mr. L. T. Bowden was made up cleverly as Titus Turtle, a bon vivant, and acted excellently well.

As Philip Ringold, the hermit of the mountain, Mr. R. H. Grant displayed surprising talent, and was beyond question the favorite of The audience. He possesses a splendid stage voice and used it remarkably well, lacking of course in training. His natural powers are great, and with study and training he could make his mark in the profession.

We trust the Thalian Amateurs will give us many cotertainments, as they certainly afford much pleasure to a large number of people and are not without advantage to the members of the organization.

Public School Examination.

Members of the Board of Education and the School Committees visited two of the public schools yesterday. The Hemingway School, corner of Fourth and Red Cross streets, is presided over by Mrs. F. J. Wise as Principal. The teachers are Mrs. L. P. Rothwell, Mrs. M. O. Wallace, Miss M. E. Duguid and Miss Alice Philyaw. The children acquitted themselves very creditably, evidencing conscientious and faithful training and very commendable progress in all the departments of study, and at the conclusion of the exercises those in attendance expressed themselves highly grati-

The same remarks will apply to the colored school, of which Eustice Green is Principal, located in the southern portion of the city.

The Proposed Sound Railroad.

In reply to our little souib in yesterday's paper, we are assured by a member of the Soliciting Committee that the proposed railroad to the Sound will certainly be built-must be built; and that the sooner the merchants and business men generally of Wilmington, who are as deeply interested in the subject as any one can be, wake up to the importance of the project and extend the necessary aid, the sooner they and the public will begin to reap the benefits which will certainly flow from it. All the merchants and business men will be called upon, and our friend thinks that they will be sufficiently impressed with the necessity of the proposed road to be willing to aid in pushing it forward to an early completion.

The Burgiary Case Continued, &c.

Yesterday was the day set apart for the trial of George Myers, colored, on the charge of burglariously entering the house of Mr. Daniel C. Davis some weeks since, and stealing a sum of money, which was continued over from the last term of the Court in consequence of the severe illness of the principal witness. Upon the opening of the Court counsel for the defence submitted an affidavit to the effect that their client could not get a fair trial here, and asking for a removal of the case to some other county, the grounds upon which the affidavit was based being that the prosecutor, Mr. Davis, was acting in the place of the Sheriff, who is absent from the city: that he, (the prosecutor), is a man of influence by reason of his position; that burglary is a common crime in the community, and that sundry prominent citizens had expressed the opinion that he ought to be hung as an example, etc., all of which argued a prejudice against him.

Solicitor Moore asked permission of the Court to prepare a counter affidavit, which was soon afterwards submitted. This embraced a statement under oath from Mr. Davis that he was not the prosecutor; that he had not used his influence or made any effort to prejudice the minds of the community against the prisoner, and that he had not taken any part in summoning the special venire to try the case; also a statement under oath from Deputy Sheriff W. H. Shaw, to the effect that he was the principal Deputy during the Sheriff's absence, and had control of the office; that Mr. Davis had nothing to do with summoning the special venire to try the case, and that, although in a position to hear such remarks, he had heard nothing to the prejudice of the prisoner from persons visiting

After the Solicitor had read and commented upon the affidavits, his Honor, Judge Meares, declined to grant the request for a removal of the case.

Capt. W. S. Norment, of counsel for the defence, then arose and craved a continu. Court, giving at some length the reasons of himself and associate counsel, as well as the prisoner at the bar, for the request; among which was the fact that Sheriff Manning would then be present, and do away with the objection to Mr. Davis' acting as the Officer of the Court; that the counsel, being assigned by the Court, had not had an opportunity of consulting fully with him; that there were additional witnesses to be summoned for the defence, of whose materiality they had had no opportunity of judging, and that it was not a matter of costs to the county, but of life and death to the prisoner at the bar, etc. His Honor then stated that the motion for a continuance was granted, and the witnesses were accordingly recognized to appear at the next term of the Criminal Court, the special venire being discharged. Capt. W. S. Norment and Mr. A. G. Ricaud appeared for the defence, and Mr

Solicitor Moore for the State. The following additional cases were dis-

State vs. Sarah Martin, charged with slander. Defendant discharged. State vs. John A. Jones, charged with forcible trespass. Case continued for de-

State vs. Wm. Dabney. Former judgment stricken out, and judgment now that defendant be committed to the County House of Correction for thirty days. Several other cases of minor importance were continued for the term. At 11 o'clock last night the jury in the case of Sarah Waddell, colored, charged with infanticide, brought in a verdict of "not guilty."

Professional Beggars.

A young and well dressed white man has been calling at various residences for a day or two past, begging for money. He gives as his excuse for asking alms that he left his home in Charlotte and went to Charleston to look for work, but met with no success; that his money soon gave out, and now he is trying to get the means to pay his way home. One gentleman to whom he presented his petition offered to give him work whereby he might earn the coveted amount, and told him to be on hand at his store vesterday morning at 8 o'clock to commence operations. He promised to do so, but, failing to put in his appearance, it is presumed he thought begging an easier mode of raising the wherewithal. Such persons generally expect to find the male members of the family absent, thinking it an easy matter to impose upon the credulity or arouse the tender sympathies of the fairer sex. The young man in question looked to be perfectly able to work. There are too many "professional beggars," and this class of almsseekers should not be encouraged.

Finding a Lost Child. Mr. J. F. Garrell, formerly Superine

tendent of the County Poor House, has received a postal card addressed, in his care, to Violet Jane Murphy, and purporting to be written by William Davis, at Rocky Point, in Pender county, stating that he found the child of the said Murphy in the woods near that place on Friday last, and has her at his home. The probability is that the child strayed off, and that the mother is in great distress about her, acting upon which view of the case the "postal" was handed to us in order that the information might be made public and thus reach the eye or ear of the party interested. who is not known to Mr. Garrell. The finder of the child is anxious to keep it, and J. H. FORESTER, M. D.,
Middleton, O. says he will do a good part by it.
