

CONGRESS.

Both Houses Agree to Adjourn Over to Monday. The Senate reported on the bill...

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Mr. Burdick—Mr. President, to-morrow being Decoration day, I move when the Senate adjourns to-day to be met on Monday next.

The President pro tem put the motion and declared it carried. Mr. Morrill—I ask for this yeas and nays.

Mr. Voorhees—Why, Mr. President, surely the Senator from Vermont forgets that to-morrow—

Mr. Morrill—I withdraw the request. President pro tem. The request is withdrawn and that is the end of it. The motion is agreed to.

Mr. Call, from the Committee on Pensions, reported favorably on the bill granting pensions to certain soldiers and sailors of the Mexican and other wars. Placed on the calendar. The report was not unanimous.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Florida, the joint resolution was taken up directing the Secretary of the Treasury to adjust and settle the accounts between the United States and the State of Florida.

Mr. Eaton, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported a joint resolution requesting the President to negotiate with France, Spain, Austria and Italy for the removal of the restrictions on the importation of tobacco into those countries.

Mr. Vance, of North Carolina, submitted a joint resolution which was passed, granting 145 tents to the Governor of North Carolina for the use of the State Guards participating in the Centennial celebration at King's Mountain in October, 1880.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Florida, a joint resolution was taken up directing the Secretary of the Treasury to adjust and settle the accounts between the United States and the State of Florida.

Mr. Johnston from the Committee on Commerce, reported with amendments the River and Harbor Appropriation bill, and announced that he would call it up on Monday. Placed on the calendar.

The Senate adjourned in consideration of the Eaton Tariff Commission bill, and Mr. Eaton spoke in its support. Remarks were also made by Messrs. Thurman, Beck and others. Pending a conclusion of the debate the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House was called to order this morning by Speaker Randall. The speaker in front of the Clerk's desk was filled with members seeking recognition from the Speaker and unanimous consent from the House.

Mr. Valentine, of Nebraska, introduced a joint resolution, declaring that all employees of the government in the District of Columbia, including the employees of the government printing office, are entitled to their pay for the month of May, 1880, Decoration day. Passed.

On motion of Mr. Hinton, of Georgia, a resolution was adopted for an adjournment of the House from to-day until Monday next.

The morning hour being dispensed with the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill.

An amendment was adopted increasing the appropriation for the survey of public lands from $300,000 to $400,000.

Mr. Bragg, of Wis., moved to strike out the paragraph appropriating $10,000 to enable the Postmaster General to purchase the records of the Postoffice Department in the late Confederate government, touching the payment of ante-bellum mail contractors. Agreed to.

Mr. Blount, of Ga., offered an amendment appropriating $50,000 for the payment of marshals and their general deputies, except for the services of the latter rendered at elections. Agreed to without discussion.

The committee then rose and reported the bill to the House. The main question was ordered on the bill and amendments, and then the matter went over, and the House adjourned until Monday.

WASHINGTON.

Maynard's Nomination Discussed in the Senate Executive Session—Appropriation for Mississippi Levees, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The greater part of the Senate executive session to-day was devoted to the pending nomination of ex-Congressman Horace Maynard, of Tennessee, as Postmaster General. Senators Beck and Voorhees opposed the confirmation on account of Maynard's extreme partisan course during the reconstruction times in Tennessee.

Senator Bailey, of that State, spoke in favor of the confirmation, taking the ground that in view of Mr. Maynard's unquestioned private integrity and ability, his extreme partisanship during the exceptional period referred to should be overlooked in the interests of peace and reconciliation. Pending further discussion the Senate adjourned. The probabilities are that Mr. Maynard's nomination will be confirmed at the next executive session.

The Committee on the Mississippi Levees have directed a bill to be reported to carry out the recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission. It appropriates $6,611,000, including $500,000 for Vicksburg and $250,000 for Natchez.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of William W. Jenkins as postmaster at Charlotte, North Carolina.

MIDNIGHT SPARKS.

WASHINGTON.

Action of the Senate Committee on the Silver and Harbor Bill—Appropriation for the Cape Fear Increased $50,000.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The House Committee on Patents agreed to-day to make an adverse report to the House upon the "Springer bill," to amend the Voelker wood pulp patent.

The River and Harbor bill, as amended by the Senate Commerce Committee, was reported to the Senate to-day. It contains new items or amendments increasing the House items to an aggregate of $651,000, but on the other hand deductions are made amounting to $508,000.

Some of the additions to the House bill: Savannah river, Ga., $5,000; Charleston harbor, $45,000; Waxamans river, S. C., $6,000; Yadkin river, N. C., $3,000; Cape Fear river, N. C., $30,000; Neuse river, N. C., $30,000; Supperrong river, N. C., $1,000; Tar river, N. C., $3,000; Trent river, N. C., $3,000.

The House Committee on Levees and Improvements, to-day instructed Representative Gibson, of Louisiana, to report to the House the earliest opportunity a bill making appropriations for the construction, repair and preservation of the levees works on the Mississippi river. The appropriations in the bill are based upon recommendations contained in the report of the Mississippi River Commission. The total appropriation contemplated by the bill is six million one hundred and fifty-one thousand dollars.

The Senate Pensions Committee to-day voted to report the House bill granting pensions to certain soldiers and sailors of the Mexican and Creek, Seminole and Black Hawk Indian wars. The bill provides that all pensions under it shall be at the rate of eight dollars per month, except for persons now receiving a pension less than that amount, who are to be entitled to the difference between the pension now received and eight dollars per month. The bill provides that the provisions of the act shall not apply to any person who has political disabilities imposed by the fourteenth amendment to the constitution, and repeals section 4716, Revised Statutes, which prohibits the payment of pensions to any person, or to any child or heir of any deceased person who voluntarily aided or abetted in the late rebellion.

SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIANS.

The General Assembly Proceedings Yesterday.

CHARLESTON, May 28.—The Presbyterian General Assembly voted a substitute on the matter of Church divorcances, declaring that nothing is law to be enforced by judicial process but that which is contained in the Word as interpreted in the Church. The courts differ from them in these divorcances, in that the former determine, and when proceeding from the highest court, decide, a particular case, but both are alike interpretations of the Word by the Church Constitution, and must be submitted to unless contrary to the Word and Constitution, of which there is the right of private belief and to every Church court, and also to every individual Church member.
