Leading New Yorkers believe that Mr. Seymour will not only accept if nominated but that he will be elected.

A special telegram from Washington, N. C., to the STAR says: "Beaufort county instructed solid for Fowle."

Nevada was counted solid for Judge Field. He will get one vote. That boom does not appear to be flourishing.

The Baltimorean; a handsome, well conducted and desirable weekly: has completed its eighth year. It has secured success by publishing a paper worthy of support.

The State is informed that "Hatteras" has more poetical merit than many poems by "magnificent Virginians" that have found their way into spelling books and such.

Maynard's nomination as Key's successor hangs fire in the Senate, whilst Longstreet's hangs fire because of Maynard's. If the latter goes through all right the former will play the l'urk in Constantinople.

Importations are heavy. During the last five months the increase at New York alone is $18,476,762 as compared with the same months in 1879 and $22,139,205, compared with 1878. It is an excess thus far of more than 50 per cent.

"The City of Richmond" is the name of a new boat to run on James river. It is an elegant boat, will make twenty miles an hour, and is licensed to carry 2,000 excursionists. One half this size is needed for the "raging Cape Fear."

Grant's hope of nomination seems to be whittled down to whether the unit rule will stand the test or not. Don Cameron is sick, and if Sprague should take it into his head to try the "shot-gun policy," illiterate Logan will have to do all the cheating and bulldozing himself.

The Charlotte Observer thinks that Col. Bennett will have 82 votes on the first ballot, which is within six votes of a majority. It thinks he can be defeated if the western portion of the district would unite on one man. unprovoked and malignant misrepresentation of my (his) political record." We judge it to be a campaign document-a bid as it were for renomination.

In our State News column we publish a statement from the Raleigh Observer to the effect that the Best company had organized, but in New York. In the Sunday's issue the same paper raises this question:

"We doubt very much, however, that they could legally organize in New York State under a North Carolina statute. The Western North Carolina Railroad Company can have no existence beyond the limits of North Carolina save by comity. For comity to have anything to act on, it seems to us essential that the company should be organized within the limits North Carolina. While extremely anxious that the sale the Syndicate shall be completed. yet we are still more anxious to have everything done in order and according to law. The Democratic party cannot afford to countenance any deviation from the law in a matter of this moment, and the Observer will not. We therefore submit the question for the consideration of the Attorney General, whether an organization of a North Carolina corporation is legal that is had beyond the limits of the State, and whether such an organization is within the scope of the act. Is it in law, an organi-

Let all things be done decently and in order.

The anti-Grant organs are figuring desperately. If we may trust them the Democratic candidate of the Republican party will not be chosen on the first ballot. Here is what the New York Tribune says, but we would not believe it on oath :

"Conceding to General Grant every vote which there is the slightest ground for supposing he will get-giving him the solid delegations from Arkansas, Alabama, Kentucky and Texas, not because they are solid in his favor, but because his friends say that the anti-Grant men upon them will not revolt against the instructions and unit rules of their States, and not counting the contests in Illinois—we make his vote on the first ballot 315, or 64 short of a majority. Blaine has 272 votes, Sherman 110, Edmunds 36, Washburne 13, and Windom 10. The lines were never more closely drawn in a National Convention."

Right Rev. Bishop Lyman in the Chair. A number of clergy and delegates arriving by last evening's train were enrolled.

The first business in order was the announcement of committees and the reference of business to each, also the election of standing committees, which consumed the morning hour. Another Mad Dog Killed. A mad dog created a great deal of con sternation in the neighborhood of Surry, between Castle and Queen atreets, yesterday morning. Officer James was summoned to the rescue, and soon succeeded in dispatching the animal with an axe. It is supposed that this dog and the one killed on Saturday were bitten by the mad dog killed at Messrs. Northrop & Cumming's mill a week or two ago.

Stealing a Ham. Brooks Long, colored, had a hearing before Justice Hill yesterday afternoon, on the charge of stealing a ham of meat from Mr. Glaymeyer's store, on North Water street, Saturday night. He was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was | previously been received from him at Livercommitted to jail.

gressional Convention.

About 11:30 last night fire was discovered in the building corner of Market and Dock streets, by persons passing. An alarm was sounded, and the Fire Department was soon actively engaged. Dense volumes of smoke were issuing from the closed doors and windows, but no flames or light could be observed. The windows and doors were forced, however, and two or three streams thrown in until the firewhich had originated from kerosene as was afterwards ascertained-was extinguished. The fire was on the ground floor, and the stock of groceries, owned by Mr. L. C. Mr. H. B. Eilers-sustained but little dam. age, beyond smashed doors and windows.

Pender Prisoners. Special Deputy Jos. Chadwick arrived here Saturday night, having in his custody one George E. Harrison, colored, charged with breaking into a store in Pender county and robbing it of a quantity of goods. The preliminary examination was had before Justice C. W. McClammy, Jr., and defendant was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $200, in default of which he was sent under a commitment to

New Hanover county jail. James Green, colored, implicated in the same robbery, which we since learn was that of the store of Mr. N. Adkinson, was brought to this city yesterday morning and committed for preliminary examination before Justice McClammy to-day.

A portion of our Criminal Court proceedings for Saturday, last was inadvertantly omitted from Sunday's paper. We will merely state now that John Merrick, colored, for larceny, was sentenced to 10 years, and Ephraim Smith, colored, for larceny, to 7 years in the penitentiary. Isaac Corbett had been previously sentenced to six years for false pretense.

William Phinney, sentenced to 15 days, Charles King to 6 months, and James Dabney to 30 days' imprisonment in the House of Correction, were turned over to Superintendent Motte yesterday. The latter were all colored.

Death of Mr. A. B. Downfug.

Many of our citizens will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Albert B. Downing, of New York, which occurred at Charleston on Sunday morning last, his remains passing through here yesterday morning. Mr. Downing was a member of the firm of Paterson, Downing & Co., of New York, and of Stanland & Downing, of Charleston, was a consistent member of the Presbyterian Church, and was about 30 or 31 years of age. He was of a very amiable and genial disposition and had a good many warm friends in Wilmington and Charleston. Mr. Paterson accompanied the remains from Charleston to New York.

Prayer Meeting for Rain. We are requested to state that there will be a meeting at the Seamen's Bethel this afternoon at 6 o'clock, to offer up supplications to the Father of Mercies that He may send rain to gladden the parched earth and stimulate dying vegetation. All Christians, including ladies, are respectfully invited to be present; and those who cannot conveniently leave their places of business, or are otherwise detained from the meeting, are requested to invoke the divine blessing wherever they may be at the hour named.

The Masonboro Turnpike. We learn that the branch turnpike leading to Masonboro Sound will soon be completed. The road bed will be covered with straw as a foundation and shells placed on the same as rapidly as possible. A toll house will be constructed at the juncture of the two roads, and as soon as it is completed it is understood that all persons going either to Masonboro or Wrightsville of the Commissioners, Messrs. N. A. Stedman, Jr., and Junius Davis, the sale of the above road took place at 12 o'clock yesterday, at the courthouse in this city, under a decree of the Superior Court for this county signed by Judge Avery. There was only one bid, and this was made by Mr. F. O. French, President of the First National Bank of New York city, and after dwelling upon the bid and giving fair notice, the property was knocked down to Messrs. F. O. French, A. V. Graves, D. R. Murchison, James S. Wheedbee and Alexander V. Stout, committee, on the part of the first mortgage bondholders, for the sum of $1,-200,000. The terms of sale were $100,000 cash to be deposited in the Bank of New Hanover, and the balance to be paid in thirty, sixty and ninety days, with interest at 6 per cent. from date, with the privilege of anticipating any of the payments if so desired. A certified check of $100,000 on New York has already been deposited in the Bank of New Hanover, and it now only remains for his Honor, Judge Avery, who is here holding the June term of the Superior Court, to confirm the sale to make the bargain complete. The amount for which the road was sold is 40 per cent. of the amount of the first mortgage bonds.

A youth by the name of Elijah Smith, aged about 12 or 14 years, employed in the furniture establishment of Mr. D. A. Smith, was playing yesterday afternoon, about 1 o'clock, while Mr. Smith and others were gone to dinner, when he met with an accident which came very near proving fatal. It seems that he was swinging to a pulley in the third story of the building, one end of which was fastened to a hogshead on the ground, thirty feet below, and the other end to a cross-bar in the door, which came up to his breast. It is thought that he must have got hold of the wrong part of the rope and jerked the cross-bar out of position, by which he was precipitated through the open doorway. He struck the hogshead in his descent, which broke his fall, to some extent, and probably saved his life. As it was his left thigh bone was, broken and he received other bruises, but it is hoped that his injuries may not prove very serious. Medical aid was immediately

Sprouts Upon Last Year's Cotton Stalks Again.

Allusions have once or twice been made to the rare circumstance of sprouts putting out from last year's cotton stalks. Mr. James Petteway, who has charge of Mrs. W. F. Potter's plantation, about four miles from this city, informs us that he finds a good many of last year's stalks in his field with sprouts of various lengths upon them, some of which he expects to produce cotton. Mr. Petteway says he remembers a similar state of things as happening in a field he was tending in Onslow county in the year 1828, and he thinks some of the stalks bore cotton, though he cannot speak positively after the lapse of so many years. Mr. P. says the drought has not yet effected the crops in his neighborhood.

Remarkable Youth.

We were favored with a visit yesterday from Jemmie Darden, son of Mr. Robert J. Darden, of Wilson county, N. C. This young man was seven years old last November, weighs one hundred pounds, is a large, stout boy, and sports quite a moustache. He was accompanied by his father. Jemmie is a specimen of a North Carolina boy that would "take the premium" anywhere.

Federal Memorial Day.

Federal Memorial Day was duly observed esterday, the address at the National Cemetery being delivered by Rev. D. D. Dodge, Rev. D. J. Sanders acting as Chaplain. The graves of the soldiers were decorated as usual on such occasions. The Revenue Cutter Colfax, lying at her wharf in the southern part of the city, fired a salute about 4 o'clock, the hour for the commencement of the ceremonies.
