The House, by a vote of 166 to 67. decided to adjourn on June 10th. Hardly ever.

Public sentiment in Washington is said to be largely in sympathy with Mrs. Christiancy.

3.404 immigrants arrived at New York on Tuesday. They were made up of English, Scotch, Germans and Scandinavians.

And now old Martin Townsend who defended the negro Whittaker says he is satisfied that he is the guilty one and mutilated himself. Next.

The Washington Post is now running the Morrison boom. It began the Seymour boom. Before July 7th it may tackle some other.

West Point sends out 53 graduates this year. Whittaker is not one of them. No man with cropped ears can be graduated at the U.S. Military Academy.

Gen. Bradley Johnson agrees with Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, that Grant is the strongest Republican in the South. He says Tilden's nomination would lose Virginia.

Old Zach Chandler's widow wants to vote. She headed the Woman's Suffrage Association Committee appointed to call on delegates to urge them to insert a woman's suffrage plack in the platform.

Gov. Holliday has appointed Col. Thomas L Preston, of Albemarle; Col. Thomas H. Carter, of Richmond, and Col. Henry S. Brown, of Tazewell county, Commissioners from Virginia to the King's Mountain Centennial celebration, which will occur

At Chicago the North Carolina delegation have elected "Mr. Kennedy, a Treasury official," a member of the National Committee in place of Tom Keogh, at present Secretary of the National Committee. Is not this intended for Mr. W. P. Canaday, of this city?

The Charlotte Evening Press publishes an extract from a letter written by Gen. Alfred M. Scales on May 31st, in which he says:

"I have never sought the nomination for Governor. I do not think it is to be preferred to my present place; but I have never authorized any one to say I would not accept the place. On the contrary, if my party from any cause demands my services in that line through the State Convenlion, then I will obey its behests, and do all I can to accomplish our work."

It seems the STAR was mistaken It ventured to say there were but few men in the State who were qualified to make a strictly first-rate Superintendent of Public Instruction, one equal to our necessities and who would compare with the best in the land. Our exchanges impress us that there are many thousands in North Carolina who would answer "just splendidly." Either they have a very depressed idea of what constitutes a first-class Superintendent, same grave at Tabor church, in Turners- making "lemonade" or alcoholic drinks.

or the crop of great men is prodigious. We do not care which.

The Raleigh Observer contains long proceedings of the University Commencement on Wednesday. We have not space for them. We can only say that it speaks highly of Judge Merrimon's address on "The Duty of Young Men to the State," and of Rev. Dr. Tucker's sermon. At night the representatives of the two societies delivered speeches. We will endeavor to give a more extended account in Sunday's issue.

- Charlotte Press: W. J. Best, Col. Andrews and the Secretaries went up the Western Railroad on a special train yesterday. Grace, Tappan and Fish, the New York capitalists, have deserted Best. It may be that he may yet have to mortgage the road for $15,000 per mile to pay the State her $850,000 in bonds!

- Tarboro Southerner: Your duty first is to subscribe for your home paper. because this of all years you should keep yourself well posted on your county, State and National politics. Your home paper is the only one that will give you information on all these subjects. If you can't take it for twelve take it for six months.

- The State Journal says 112 delgates have been instructed to vote for Jarvis and 94 for Fowle. This gives Jarvis a majority of 118 among the instructed delegates. The Farmer & Mechanic says that the delegates selected will vote 3364 for Fowle and 2991 for Jarvis, a majority, thus far, of 37 for Fowle.—Raleigh Observer.

- Washington Press: We learn that a row took place in Williamston en Saturday night, the 21st inst., in which one negro was so badly cut that he died shortly afterwards. No one knows who did the cutting. Several others were badly bruised, and had their clothes cut in different places Whiskey is said to be at the bottom of the whole affair.

- Mr. E. J. Hale writes from New York to the Raleigh News: Decoration Day, a legal holiday, in which I could do no business except to read and digest my mail, is necessarily a dies non to me. I have, therefore, employed the afternoon in seek-ing the grave of my old friend, Gen. W. H. C. Whiting, who was wounded and captured at the battle of Fort Fisher, and brought here to die.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 1, 1880. Editor of Bastern Record : Have read your editorial. I sincerely deprecate the acrimony and bitterness, which have entered into the Gubernatorial campaign. I have not and will not sanction any attack upon Gov. Jarvis. DANIEL G. FOWLE.

This is spoken like a man, a christian and a statesman .- New Berne Record.

- Jackson Reporter: Died, at his residence, in Hertford county, on the morning of the 27th of May, Dr. Godwin Cotton Moore, in the 78d years of his age. Dr. Moore was for a long time one of the leading physicians of Hertford county. He married a sister of Mr. J. W. Wheeler, author of Wheeler's History of North Carolina, and was father of Major Moore, author of Moore's History of North Carolina. He graduated at Chapel Hill with Gov. Graham and Judge Pearson.

- New Berne Nut Shell: We learn from parties who came up on the Sunday School excursion train yesterday afternoon. that shortly after leaving Morehead City six cows were killed on the track. - The census enumerator who was working in the 4th ward yesterday, called at the house of a colored woman and knocked at the door. 'Come in I" said an old woman at the washtub. The enumerator went in and commenced with his stereotyped introduction: "I am the census-taker, and have called to take the census." The old lady hastily replied: "Bress your heart, honey, I haven't got any to save your life !"

- Oxford Torchlight: W. H. Winstead, Roxboro', has sold his steam whiskey distillery to Messrs. Pass & Tuck, for $20,000. — Mr. Stephen Wilkerson, of Person county, aged 84 years, has now on had his sixty sixth. on hand his sixty-sixth crop of tobacco, that is to say that he has raised and cured 66 tobacco creps. — Professor Fetter's School, the Oxford Male Academy, closed a very successful session on the 27th ult. The attendance was large, and the progress of the pupils entirely satisfactory.

Mr. John Beck, of this county, sold four grades of tobacco in Durham, on the 28th ult., at an average of $76 per hundred, and averaged for his entire load $52.26. - Statesville American: From a letter received we learn that Maj. A. C. Bryan and his force, on a raid from the Lewis Fork and Reddie's River, in Wilkes county, seized seven illicit distilleries, three coppers, &c., about 8,000 gallons of beer and fifty gallons of whiskey. — The Wilmington STAR says that Gov. Swain, Rev. Dr. Hubbard, Rev. Dr. Charles Phillips and dozens of lawyers have been forced to doubt the genuineness of the document now called "the Mecklenburg Declaration. of Independence." To the names men-tioned by the STAR we beg leave to add those of Judge Gaston and Chief Justice Pearson, both of whom so expressed themselves to men now living. - Statesville Landmark: The wheat harvest is now in active progress, The crop, generally speaking, throughout the country, is turning out well. Last Sunday two girls, sisters, aged respectively

They died of some kind of fever, within a has the following, which few hours of each other, and after an illness of about two weeks. - A squad of revenue officers, in command of Capt. Abe Bryan, was fired upon by moonshiners on

Lewis' Fork, Wilkes county, last Mon day, and Mr. C. C. Crumpler, one of the party was shot through the body. His wound while dangerous, is not considered as necessarily fatal. - From the Raleigh Observer we cull the following from the proceedings in the State Dental Convention: Dr. Isalah Simpson read a highly interesting and instructive essay on dental education, which was discussed by Drs. Flemming, Turner, Rice and Crawford. The subject of pathology and therapeutics was resumed, and disease of the teeth and its treatment was discussed by Drs. Griffith, Turner, Flem-ming and Rice. The committee on mechanical dentistry submitted, through their chairman, Dr. J. E. Griffith, a valuable paper on the subject, which was discussed by Drs. Flemming, Turner, Crawford, Rice, Hoffman, Griffith and Bessent. On motion, the election of officers for the ensuing year was held, resulting as follows: Isaiah Simpson, President; J. F. Griffith, 1st Vice President; J. D. Clark, 2d Vice President; W. H. Hoffman, Secretary; J. H. Crawford, Treasurer.

- Charlotte Observer: Thirteen persons are quartered at Cleaveland Springs and another family went up yesterday morning. — Capt. R. D. Graham states that the report that a new hotel is to be erected immediately, on the site of the old Atlantic at Beaufort, is untrue. — Venner's cold wave came sure enough yesterday. He said: "Probably the first of June will be fall-like with frosts again." His predictions refer more especially to Canada and northern latitudes, and must therefore be taken with modifications in the South. - Mr. Best and the party that accom-panied him up the Western North Carolina Railroad day before yesterday morning, went on through to Asheville, which place will no doubt be the headquarters of the organization. There have been no positive developments as to the policy of the road or indeed anything as to the management except that it will be in the interest of the Richmond & Danville Railroad, with all that that implies, a condition of affairs not very satisfactory to Charlotte, Putting Their Feet in It. A horse attached to a dray, the property of one Tom White, colored, trod on a decayed board in the wharf foot of Chesnut street, yesterday morning, when one hind leg went entirely through, leaving the other hind leg stretched out and the fore ones folded under him. In this unpleasant position he remained for some minutes, until he was finally assisted to his feet. The poor horse was hardly clear of the difficulty when a careless colored individual very heedlessly "put his foot in it," or rather both feet, and went through the whole to his armpits, when he was seized by some of the bystanders and rescued from his perilous position. That hole should receive immediate attention, or somebody will go through it and come out on the other side.

The Washington Gazette of a recent date has the following, which speaks for itself: "A Mr. Cannady, of Wilmington, N. C., a Sherman delegate to Chicago, and A. J. Pinkham, Esq., Grant alternate from the same State to the same Convention, had a fraces at the Ebbitt yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The dispute arose upon the latter's offering to bet the former $10 that upon his arrival in Chicago he would vote for Grant. The former stated that he would not bet $10, but would bet $100 that he would not vote for Grant; whereupon Pinkham said he would not bet that sum, because it might be an inducement to Cannady to desert Sherman, and then a fight ensued. The Sherman delegate knocked the Grant alternate 'off his pins' twice. 'As it is in the beginning, so it will be in the end.""

The extract of course refers to ex-Mayor Canaday, now Collector of the Port.

Taxes Listed in Separate Rooms. It may not be generally understood that the city taxes and the State and county taxes are this year listed in separate rooms in the City Hall and by different persons, instead of being listed together, as has heretofore been the case. Col. J. G. Burr has the listing of the State and county taxes, and Mr. J. Kent Brown of the city taxes. We make this statement for the reason that some may, after listing their city taxes in the first room they come to, think they have completed their listing and go away with their State and county taxes unlisted, as we hear has already been the case in some instances, the parties thus unintentionally becoming delinquents.

Mayor's Court. Mayor Fishblate having returned from Favetteville, appeared and took his seat. Mr. J. L. Holmes, counsel for Thos. Edens, charged with resisting an officer in connection with the removal of the market carts to Front street a few days since, appeared and announced himself ready to take up the case, which, however, was continued until Monday morning, at 94 o'clock, on who was indisposed.
