POLITICAL POINTS

Notwithstanding Mr. Hayes' administration, the Republican party is still pointing with pride to its record. It even manifests a little pride in pointing to Mr. Haves himself. - Philadelphia Times, Ind.

- The real platform of the Republican party was enunciated at Chicago. by the Hon. Edwards Pierrepont, but by one Flanagan, of Texas. It is truthful and brief: "What are we here for except to get office ?"- New York Sun, Ind.

- The campaign of the next five months, whoever may be the Republican candidate, must be fought with very little r. ference to the platform which has been rected for him to stand upon. The genlemen to whom was intrusted the task of thing the claims of the Republican party confidence, and the purposes which it pageses to accomplish, have, unfortunateproved inadequate to their duty .- New York Times, Rep.

Notices of the Press:

Three Months "

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

-- Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington STAB has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette, The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typographical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typography up to editorial ability at d independence.—

Petersburg (Va) Index-Appeal.

We like the STAB because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAB twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lustre never wane.—The Free Will Baptist.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newstest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South, and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it .-The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Roberman.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, crudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Stan. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Stan, the Washington Star, Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

The Wilmington STAB is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAB is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlotts Ob-

THE MORNING STAR, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the STAR comes fully up to the mark as the principal daily in our chief commercial city. Leng may it twinkle.—Alamance Gleaner.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 13th volume, and we are pleased to notice atili continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial department is conducted with much ability.—Merganton Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily 'waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightning prosperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Mountage Stan has entered upon The Wilmington Monning Stan has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prospecity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Stan is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Stan (rightfully too), is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthful, moral influence of the Stan never be retarded, and may its genial, enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

These machines are made of the best materials, and the workmanship and finish are unexcelled. Have been awarded emiums at all the State fairs, Georgia Alabama, Texas, etc. Upwards of 5000 of our Gins are in constant use in the southern states, over 1000 having been sold in 1879. Price List of Gins, Feeders and Condensers Boxed ready for shipment and delivered at our factory.

Terms given on Application. From 1835 to 1858 we manufactured Ginsat Columbus, Ga., under the firm name of E. T. Lattoze & Co., atterwards C. Lesons, Brown & C. C., and made what was then known as the Taylor Gin. During the year 1858 we removed to this place, where we have been exclusively engaged in manufacturing Gins ever since. With long experience, the best labor saving machinery and skilled workmen, we possess advantages not enjoyed by any other manufacturer in our line, for producing the BEST work for the LEAST money.

The demand last year was so great that nearly 300 orders remained unfilled, but we have doubled our manufacturing capacity and hope to be able to meet all demands, skill it is the wisest plan to get your orders in early. Send for illustrated pamphlet giving new voluntary testimonicals from over 500 live; enterprising planters. Presses, Engines and complete outsit furnished when desired. Address
