It is said thirty thousand Republi-_cans joined in the chorus when the band at Chicago struck up "Rally 'Round the Flag." There was "grub" in that music, they thought.

The N. Y. Herald, independent, says Garfield's nomination will not strengthen the Republican party in any doubtful State, and will not strengthen it "in this (New York) pivotal State." Rah for Seymour!

The intelligent New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says Garfield's nomination was a wet blanket on the Republicans of that city. He says, on the other hand, the Democrats appear to be well pleased at the selection.

Garfield is to be Thurman's successor in the Senate. Will he resign or await his chances? If he resigns John Sherman will no doubt get his place. Blaine will be his Secretary of State if he wants it and provided a Democrat is not elected.

Col. Alex. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, is unquestionably a very astute politician. There is none more so. On June 8, he telegraphs an editorial from Chicago to his paper. He says: "Of the whole 756 delegates there were not a score of them who would have deliberately chosen Garfield as the Republi-can nominee. * * I share the general conviction of most of the delegates who made the nomination of Garfield, that he is not likely to prove a strong candidate. It is possible for Democratic folly to elect the Garfield ticket. Its election will be impossible if statesmanship and patriotism shall be among the conspicuous attributes of the Democratic candidates.' Col. McClure does not believe in Garfield's corruption and says he will defend him against all assaults. But we see what he thinks of Garfield's availability. Ask him and he will tell you Horatio Seymour can

"Garfield I have had ample opportunity to study both in the committee room and on the floor. He is very able and accomplished, a close student, very ambitious, and good parliamentarian and man of business. I regard him as a much more able man than Blaine, who is a ready talker, but yet only a smatterer. Garfield is the more cunning and dangerous demagogue of the two. His speeches are more adroit and effective in inflaming Northern passion and prejudice, while at the same time there is an air of moderation and a cant of impartiality which serve to mask his objects. I have observed that he has, of all his crowd, the greatest art in making the strongest points. He is not a chaste orator. His voice has a sort of camp-meeting whine, but is full and resonant, and he has an air of earnestness remarkable for one who is not troubled with intense convictions on any sub-

The Washington Post has beaten Garfield before the other horse has been named. It gives him 155 electoral votes. The Democratic candidate is credited with 197 whilst 27 will require the "official count." Good enough. It places Conneticut, California and Oregon in the last category. It gives the Democrats Indiana, New Jersey, New York and

Gen. James Abram Garfield was born November 19, 1831, at Orange, Cuyahoga county, Ohio. He was not a Methodist preacher, we ascertain, but a Disciple. He fought in many battles. Chester A. Arthur was born in New York State and is but forty-one years old. They call him General, but it is only a militia title and of no consequence.

- We believe there are some 20 candidates for State Auditor. - The Farmer and Mechanic fig. ures it thus: Jarvis 4441, Fowle 4911. - The Carolina Central secures the right of way in Charlotte. The case was heard before Judge Schenck at cham-

- Charlotte Press: The battle between the Charlotte and Rock Hill chickens commences to-morrow morning near the city boundary line.

- Orange county instructed for Carr for Lieutenant Governor. The convention is reported largely for Jarvis, but no instructions were given for him. - The first number of the Christian Adcance, a 16-column paper published at Mt. Airy, has made its appearance. Mr. J. W. Duggins is editor, and it is devoted to the interests of the Young Men's Christian - And Saul is among the prophets. The Wilmington STAR has a pretty well authenticated 111-year-old negro woman, who is able to get about though her children are gray headed old boys.-Raleigh News. Our local editor was only in fun. "Thou cans't not say I did it." Read what was said. - Raleigh Journal, administration organ: Polk county is for Jarvis. Lin. coln county is for Jarvis. Cleveland county is for Jarvis. Orange county instructs for Carr, and a large majority of the delegates are for Jarvis. Alamance may be set down for Jarvis. Davidson is indignant at being classed for Fowle and will go almost unanimously for Jarvis. - Charlotte Southern Home: We have not advocated the nomination of Gov. Jarvis, because we had doubts whether he would be able to excite enthusiasm sufficient among the voters of the State to lead to success. We will do him the justice to state that we do not believe a single charge that has been circulated to his discredit.

- Greensboro Patriot: On Monday morning two of the convicts at work on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, near Martinsville, in Guilford county broke through the guard lines and fled for their liberty. The escaped convicts were both negroes, one of them, Tom Payne, was from Surry county, the other, Ed. McCauley, from Alamance county.

- Raleigh Visitor: P. M. Wilson, Esq., the Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, will have charge of the Depart ment, and will act as Commissioner till the meeting of the Board in July. - Mrs. Dr. Skinner received a telegram yesterday calling her to New York to attend the bedside of her father who was said to be in a dying condition, and she left on the 3.30 train yesterday afternoon.

- Greensboro Patriot: Gen. Scales is not a candidate for nomination, but if nominated will accept. Being a candidate for Governor before the people and being a candidate for the nomination before a convention are two very distinct things. The General will accept the former, but will not of his own motion assume the latter. This we understand clearly to be his position from his own mouth.

- Raleigh Observer: They say that Senator Everett, of Forsyth, was the only Republican here yesterday with sufficient confidence in Garfield to back him. -Four convicts, Crawford Josey, Harrison Reeves, John Wilson and Robert Payne, were placed in the Penitentiary yesterday by Sheriff C. F. Waggoner, of Rowan. — Judges George W. Brooks, of Elizabeth City, and Hugh L. Bond, of Baltimore, arrived in the city last evening and will open the United States Circuit Court to-day. - Charlotte Observer: Seven candidates for Congress were visible from the door of the Central Hotel office at one time yesterday afternoon. — Gen. Scales himself says he will accept if nominated. He ought to know. Certainly he is not a candidate "under any circumstances," pushing his own claims and fighting for it is expected. But to use the Patriot's own italics, he will accept if nominated. That's candidate enough. And "I think I can say by authority" of Gen. Scales himself that if the people want him as their standard-bearer he is at their service. They Reidsville, N. C., June 7, 1880. - Raleigh Post: Richmond does not instruct, but is solid for Fowle. -Nash does not instruct. County vote divided-5 for Jarvis and 12 for Fowle. -McDowell instructs for Jarvis. Post this - Orange is not solid; 8 for Jarvis and 16 for Fowle to State Conven-- Franklin is 9 for Jarvis and 10 for Fowle. Henderson county instructs her delegates to State Convention for Fowle, as the choice of the county. — Chatham failed of instruction for Fowle by but two votes. The county vote in State Convention will be 16 for Fowle and 5 for Jarvis. - In this county sentiment is divided between Gov. Jarvis and Judge Fowle The delegation to State Convention stands half and half, and we have 10 votes.

-Farmer & Mechanic: Gov. Jarvis was shot in the arm; and Gen. Scales was twice shot in the leg. But Major McLeod Turner was shot all to pieces. He is a mangled, scarred, suffering monument of his own glorious gallantry in defence of his own State and section. Why shouldn't old couldn't canvass, but his wounds would speak for him from Currituck to Cherokee. -It is announced, with seeming author rity, that Hon. John Manning is not in the field as a candidate for Judge. We take this to mean that he simply is making no effort to get the nomination. It is said he was "brought out" through mistake. That is to say he had intimated to his friend. Col. Thomas Ruffin, that in the event of his candidacy he himself should not enter

- Charlotte Observer: The merits of Davidson College are gradually becoming known to the outside world, and in a manner which is highly satisfactory to the friends of the institution. A few weeks ago a graduate of that college, a young man, was elected to the position of professor of chemistry in the Agricultural College of South Carolina, and here is another feather in her cap: The papers of the competitors for the Greek prize were sent to the occupant of the professor's chair in the second institution of the South to decide upon their relative merits. He wrote to the professor of Greek of Davidson College, inquiring if it could be possible that the papers were prepared without access to the lexicon and grammar. On being told that they surely were the distinguished teacher expressed the greatest astonishment at the knowledge of the language which the papers displayed. - Raleigh News: From a private telegram received in this city at a late hour last night we learn that a very heavy hail storm, accompanied by wind and lightning, swept over the country in the vicinity of Osgood, on the Raleigh & Augusta Railroad yesterday afternoon. The hail did great damage to the crops in its track and the lightning struck one house and several telegraph poles. There were no injuries to persons. - The Secretary of State issued thirty-six land grants during the month of May. — The amount of old bonds received yesterday was $12,000. The whole amount of old bonds received to date is $6,405,145, of which $3,098,300 were of the 40 per cent class; $1,684,045 of the 25 per cent. class, and $1,622,800 of the 15 per Wilmington Ministers.

Mr. Mills, in the Oxford Orphan's Friend referring to Rev. Dr. Patterson's recent address before the "Horner School" as one of the soundest and wisest he ever heard, full from beginning to end of valuable instruction, adds: "We do not envy the good people of Wilmington; but we would like to spend a few Sundays with them, and hear some of the excellent sermons which all denominations so often enjoy."

Come down this summer and spend a few weeks here and at the sea shore. We have some of the best preachers in Wilmington, and some of the finest pig fish, oysters and crabs at the Sounds, that can be found anywhere in the whole Southern country.

Mr. Mills also refers very flatteringly to an address by Dr. Patterson to the orphans in the afternoon of the same day, which he says was exactly suited to their wants.

A Good Speech at the University. A correspondent of the STAB speaks in high terms of the speech of Mr. T. D. Murphy, of Pender county, delivered at the recent commencement at the University of North Carolina. His subject was "Centralization, the tendency of Governments," and he is said to have handled the theme in a masterly manner.

BROKE JAIL.

George Myers, the Noted Colored Burgiar, Breaks Out of His Cell and Escapes from the County Jall.

The astounding fact was discovered yesterday morning that George Myers, the somewhat notorious colored burglar, who was awaiting trial at the next term of the Criminal Court, had broken out of jail during the night previous and made good his escape. Daniel Howard, the jailor, says Myers and Joe Campbell, colored, charged with breaking into a store in Pender county recently, were together in the same cell and both chained to the floor, another stout chain, which linked the prisoners together, being attached to a strong iron tetter which confined a leg of each of the malefactors. In company with the jailor we visited the prison yesterday morning, when we obtained full particulars in regard to the manner in which the escape was effected, so far as they could be ascertained. The chain connecting the fetters was broken in two near the point of connection with the fetter attached to Joe Campbell's leg, leaving the latter with one of the fetters and Myers with the other, which he carried off with him. This, Joe Campbell claims, was done without awaking him, he declaring that he knew nothing of Myer's escape until yesterday morning. The latter then went to work and broke loose two of the lower upright bars to the cell door, first breaking off the heads to the rivets by which they were secured, and also breaking the bars off at the point where they connected with the first cross-bar, thus leaving a hole about eight by twelve inches, through which he forced himself from the cell into the cor-

He next wrenched from its position one of the pieces of iron with which the water pipe is fastened to the wall, which is a sharp-pointed instrument, shaped something like a staple with one prong broken off, with which, together with two pieces of broken bars, he succeeded in removing a sufficient number of bricks from the wall west side of the building, near its intersection with the southern wall, to admit of the displacement of the window sill, leaving a hole in the wall about the size of the one made in the cell door, through which he forced himself, the fall to the ground beneath being from twelve to fifteen feet. There were several prisoners confined in the cells directly in the neighborhood of the one which Myers and Campbell occupied, but they all declare positively that they heard no noise during the night and knew nothing of the escape until morning. We have already stated that Campbell averred that he knew nothing of the escape, although Myers was in the same cell with him and had one of his legs attached to one of his (Campbell's) by a strong chain.

Up to last accounts no clew had been obtained to the missing prisoner, although active efforts were being made, at Howard's instigation, to effect his recapture. Myers, it will be remembered, broke into the house of Mr. D. C. Davis, in this city, some months ago, during the night time, as is alleged, and stole a quantity of money, and was subsequently captured after a long and exciting chase. At the first term of the Criminal Court after the alleged burglary took place the case was continued on account of the absence of the main witness, Mr. Davis, who was very sick. At the last, or succeeding term of the Court, a motion was made to remove the trial to another county, on the ground that defendant could not get a fair one here, which was overruled, and a motion to continue for the defendant was afterwards granted. The case would no doubt have come to trial at the approaching term of the Criminal Court; hence the desperate and successful attempt to flee from justice.

A Plunge of Sixty Feet Down a Well A gentleman who was knowing to the fact, informed us yesterday that a white man named Corbett, living at Wedgefield, S. C., fell down a well sixty feet deep at that place a few days ago, and when he was hauled out it was discovered that he was only slightly bruised. He and two or three others were engaged in cleaning out the well, and Corbett was just in the act of being lowered into it, when, by some hitch in the arrangements, he tumbled headlong into the yawning depths. Those who witnessed the accident say Corbett turned two or three summersaults before reaching the bottom. If he had struck on his head his death would no doubt have been instantaneous, but fortunately he landed square on his feet.

Damages Repaired.

The damages to the county jail made by George Myers, who escaped Thursday night, have been repaired, and we learn that the County Commissioners have ordered all the cells to be examined and made thoroughly secure.

- Capt. Green, of the steamer North State, reports heavy rains between Fayetteville and Wilmington, but rather light ones at the former place, and the probability is that they have been lighter still along the upper Cape Fear beyond Fayetteville. The improvement in the river so far has been very slight-not exceeding three or four inches-but it is hoped that there will be a change for the better soon.

Since writing the above we learn from a private letter received here that there have been heavy and wide-spread rains above Fayetteville, and that a speedy improvement in the river would naturally be the consequence. The letter referred to left Fayetteville since the North State. ---
