And now look out for the campaign song-writers. Give us something original.

Senators Ransom and Williams are to accompany Senator Vance on his wedding trip to Louisville.

Mr. Tilden says he considers Garfield and Arthur a very weak ticket. The country is gravitating that way.

And now Jeems Blaine says he did not expect to be nominated "no how." Wonder what John Sherman expected.

Senator Vance says he does not see how Congress can adjourn on the 16th. He thinks the important business cannot be attended to by Wednesday.

Conkling says he means to do his best to carry New York for Garfield. If his brother in-law Horatio Seymour should be the man Lord Roscoe will hardly make "the greatest effort of his life."

Gen. Grant has been interviewed at the races. He says Seymour will be likely to be nominated. He said : "I have been backing against others singly, and I am almost ready to back him against the field at present. Gen. Hancock has no show whatever, though of course he may win it. Seymour is perhaps their strongest man."

At West Point there were fifty graduates. There were three cadets "found deficient," and they were all from the South. Among the fifty the highest Southerner stood 13th. The fact is the South makes a very poor show.

There was a field day in the House on last Saturday when the Marshal's bill was up for discussion. Cox, o New York, one of the wittiest and brightest of men, sat down on Robeson, Keifer and Conger. He got' the laugh on them badly.

Mr. A. M. Keiley is spoken of as the probable Democratic candidate for Congress in the Richmond (Va.) District. He is a man of excellent parts, writes and speaks admirably, and would carry fine culture into the National House. He is an old editor.

According to the New York ed. Herald they are as follows:

"Tilden 185, Bayard 117, Hancock 84, Seymour 68, Thurman 67, Field 44, Hen-dricks 37, Randolph 18 (in New Jersey), Chase 14 (in Maine), Morrison 8."

Of Tilden's 185 only 12 are from the South. How is the old man to name the candidate with only 185 followers?

The Illinois delegation will under no circumstances vote for Tilden. Democratic members of the Illinois delegation in Congress say that the State ticket nominated at Springfield is the strongest in all respects that has ever been put up by any party in Illinois, and with a corresponding National ticket they say the State will be certain to go Democratic in November next.

The Richmond State reminds the public that the editor of the Okolona States, in the South, and the Lemar's Sentinel man in the North, the two rabidest men in the country in crying for blood, have been horsewhipped in their respective sections, and both took it quietly. As usual the loudest in crying for blood proved the biggest cowards.

A Rent in the Vell of Mystery Surrounding Peter Silverthorn, the Insane Stranger.

It has now been ascertained with some degree of certainty that Peter Silverthorn, the young stranger with one arm, whose insanity has been several times mentioned in this paper, and who is now confined in theginsane department at the County Poor House, belongs to Belvidere, Warren cousty, New Jersey. Chief of Police Brock thought from some expressions the unfortunate man let fall that such was likely the case, and so wrote on the 10th instant to 'the Sheriff of Warren county, N. J.," and on the 12th received a letter from Sheriff B. F. Howey to the following effect 'There is very little doubt that the party you speak of is the son of our townsman, ex-State Senator Wm. Silverthorn. I have handed him your letter and you will hear from him direct. Mr. S. is a prominent and reliable citizen.
