The Washington Post now says: "The New York Herald may as well now cease lying about Horatio Seymour.' We are compelled to defer until our next some further account of the Davidson College commencement. The advance manipulators of the Tilden, Field, Hendricks and one or two other booms were in Cincinnati majority was a fraction less than 112.

Professor Crawford Howell Toy, late of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, at Louisville, Kentucky, has been elected Professor of Hebrew and other oriental languages at flarvard University. He is a man of very remarkable scholarship. He is a native of Norfolk, Va., son of the druggist of his name, and was educated at the University of Virginia and at Berlin, Germany. He is really one of those strange things often heard of in the newspapers but rarely seen in real life,a man of learning. He is probably forty two years

PRO PECTS AT CINCINNATI. The Sentiment Drifting Towards Seymour-All for the Best Man. Special Dispatch to Philadelphia Times. CINCINNATI, June 16 .- There is but little activity at the hotels yet, though but four working days remain before the meeting of the Democratic Convention. There are probably not mare than twenty prominent Democrats and delegates altogether on the ground, outside of local politicians. There has been some comparing of views to-day and the result shows the drift of sentiment to be unmistakably towards Seymour, with Hendricks or Thurman for the second place. The more the situation is examined more apparent it becomes that everything must be sacrificed to the availability of the candidate in New York. This consideration is uppermost in the minds of all who are on the ground. The willingness that all display to avoid personal preferences for the good of the party is one of the features of the situation. The South will come nearly solid for Bayard, but the instant that it shall be shown that another candidate has more strength in New York the South will change to him.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXVI.--NO. 78. WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, JUNE 20, 1880.

J. Jarvis, of Pitt, was nominated for Gov-ernor on the first ballot by the State Convention yesterday. Let every Democrat rally to his standard, and give him a cordial and enthusiastic support.

- Raleigh Post: Proceeding from its dead headism were some ugly features in the convention to-day. —A dead-head delegated convention is something new in North Carolina, the like of which we never hope to see again.

- Charlotte Southern Home: It is rumored that Oliver H. Dockery will be Dowd's opponent in the coming canvass. - The Pioneer Fire Company annually present a gold medal to their most punctual member and most gallant fireman. This year it was won by Mr. A. A. Hand.

- Reidsville Times: Mr. Thos. C. Moore, a well to do farmer who lives about five miles from this place, was looking at some goods at Williams & Hopkins' to-day to make himself a suit of clothes and remarked that he had not bought a suit of clothes nor the cloth to make them of since 1844, about 36 years, all spun and wove by

- Rockingham Bee : The praisedeserving ladies who conducted the late festival at Snead's Grove, realized $70 for the benefit of the Methodist Church there. on Dr. North's work. - Miss McCall is a native of South Carolina; her mother, nee Harilee, is a daughter of Gen. Harilee, of Marion county. The complimented lady is a splendid reader, especially in tragedy, scarcely less so in comedy.

- Charlotte Observer : Dr. Craven has held twenty-six regular commencements at Trinity College. — He (Jarvis) asked for an endorsement of his course as Governor since his accidental elevation to that office and has received it, after one of the warmest preliminary campaigns ever friends and supporters has occasionally overstepped the bounds of policy.

- Kinston Journal: Last Saturday and Sunday, were extra hot, the heat measure running up near 100. — The wheat crop just harvested is inferior, though not quite as poor as was expected several weeks ago. The corn and cotton crops are extra good. - If no better offer should be made at the stockholders meeting, the sentiment of this section is to accept this proposition and lease to the W. & W. Road.

- Carthage Index: The promiscuous conterring of degrees by our State institutions should be condemned. The practice becomes more and more disgusting. Time was when to receive a degree from a college was deemed an especial warm friends and ardent admirers who will be gratified at this merited compliment to Moore's gifted son. The Major is a man of no uncertain opinion, with firmness of character and decided ability.

- Wilson Advance: We understand that on Tuesday, while Mr. John Bynum, of Pitt, was engaged around his wheat separator, one or his arms was caught in the machine and entirely torn from his body. The closing exercises of the Wilson Academy for colored people, managed by E. Moore, A. M., colored, came off last Friday night. Rev. J. C. Price, a well known colored man, who taught school in Wilson several years ago, delivered the annual address, and his effort is highly complimented by those who heard it.

- Charlotte Press: The "Jarvis Section" have carried the day at Raleigh, which is not greatly to be wondered at; the thing now is to carry the election with him. -During Col. Ham Jones' speech in nominating Jarvis, when he made the allusion, 'Go to Malvern Hill and ask," his voice was drowned by the yells of the Fowle men, who disliked the attempt to create such a rallying cry in behalf of Jarvis, and it was kept up ten or fifteen minutes before quiet could be restored by the chairman. —If there hid been a second ballot Scales, they say, would have beaten both Jarvis and Fowle. Col. Fuller made the speech of the day. It is pronounced simply magnificent. Mecklenburg, although her choice was for General Scales, followed the deceptive instruction. and cast her vote for Jarvis.

much to hear the Democratic Executive Committee say "a large number of good Democrats of this county are in favor of letting all who wish to be candidates have a fair field." — Died, at his residence in Burke county, on the 8th inst., Mr. Robert Alexander, in the 78th year of his age. -Corn and rye are bringing 50 cents; wheat $1 15, feathers and wool 40 cents, bacon hams 10 cents, ginseng $1 25. — This section was visited Saturday by a severe wind, rain and hail storm. Considerable corn and other grain were blown to the ground, and fences, &c., blown down. - The peach crop is tolerably fair. -Mr. John Lane was instantly killed at Ore Knob, on the 8th inst., by the accidental falling of a bucket in one of the new shafts where he was working under ground. Deceased was a young man in the full vigor of life. - The health of the community is not good. Elder E. F. Jones, a very talented and young minister, is about helpless, supposed to be palsy.

George Hill, colored, who was convicted of larceny at the April term of the Criminal Court for New Hanover county and sentesced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for six years, made his escape on Monday last from the gang with whom he was working on the Quaker Bridge road, near Newbern. Hill was arrested in March last for stealing a quantity of beeswax from one of the river boats, and was also charged with the larceny of a lot of canvas from the Messrs. Kidder's saw mill. At the time of his escape he was engaged in carrying water from a well to the point at which the others were working, a distance of about one quarter of a mile. He had carried water all the morning and part of the afternoon when he was suddenly missed. Bearch was at once made in the neighborhood and it was found that he had secretly approached a farm house, where he exchanged his striped suit for a brand new suit of black, owned by an honest colored man. It was also learned that he had been seen in the neighborhood of the farm late in the after-

Mayor's Court. Mayor Fishblate presided at this tribunal yesterday morning, having returned from Raleigh the night before.

The case of the two colored m in who were arrested for fighting at the Republican gathering on Water street, Friday night, was continued until Monday morning.

Adam Jones, drunk and down, was sen below for two days to sober off. J. W. Webster was bound over to the Criminal Court on a charge of larceny.

Edward Hill who struck Gabe Merrick with a hoe, cutting his head and wounding him severely, was caught last Friday night by the officers who were in search of him and put in jail until witnesses to the affair could be summoned. The difficulty occurred on the 9th inst., at the farm of Mr. J. F. Garrell, where the two men were employed. Merrick was so severely injured that he was confined to his home for several days afterwards. The Passport.

It will be several weeks probably before we get the figures on the census. The enumerators have to transcribe their lists, and then some time will be required for correction. A Modern Diogenes.

The subject of the accompanying sketch may have lived in Wilmington at the time mentioned, but if so we were not acquainted with him. Possibly some of our readers may know him. It is taken from the Hackensack (N. J.) Republican of the 17th

"A few years ago there lived in Wil-mington, N. C., an eccentric barber named J-n|W-r, whom everyone called 'the crazy Dutchman.' When business was brisk for a few days, he would generally go on a prolonged spree; but when his customers were few and far between he would get dreadfully downhearted and give vent to his feelings most emphatically. Vilminkton-Hellinkton! he was in the habit of saying, as he walked up and down his empty shop; 'I curse mine vater on his grave !' One day he came into the shop and said to the foreman, 'Vell, Fred, how yas der peezness, dis morgen ?' 'Not very good, boss,' replied the faithful foreman; 'there were only a few customers in, and they got shaved on tick.' 'Vilminkton-Hellinkton!' yelled the disgusted proprietor. Then turning sud-denly to the darkey bootblack, he said, 'Meester Sheppard, you go on der cellar und pring mine lamp.' The boy did as directed and soon returned with a lantern, which W-ralways called 'mine lamp.' Although it was a bright summer day, he lighted the lantern, went out and sauntered down the street, looking carefully around meeting Tuesday and Lecture Thursday as if in search of someone. He had not night at 8 o'clock.

'Hello! John, what are you after?' 'Vilminkton-Hellinkton! I vas after dem tam tiefs vat vas got trust on mine shop und sheat me oud off mine money?' 'But what do you carry a lighted lantern for, this time o'day?'

'I vas looking for an honeat man,' replied the modern Diogenes as he wandered
