OUTLINES.

In the National Democratic Convention the New York delegation announced the renunciation of Tilden as a candidate for nomination, and named Randall as their choice; a second vote was taken, and Hancock leading, rapid changes of States were made, New York giving 70 votes for Huncock; the nomination was made unanimous: the New York Democracy healed their differences, shook hands all around and pledged a united support to Hancock; English, of Indiana, was nominated for Vice-President. —The Convention adjourned sine die at 3:07 o'clock. -The numination of Hancock and English was received with great enthusiasm in Georgia and Alabama; salutes were fired and clubs organized -Bradlaugh says if he isn't released the people will come and fetch him; he has no apology to offer. -Judah P. Benjamin spoke in the British Court of Appeals in behalf of the Tichborne claimant. - Salutes in honor of the numinations at Cincinnati were fired in Favetteville, Raleigh, Charlotte, Lumberton and many other places; the greatest enthusiasm all over the country. -N. Y. ma kets: Money 2@3 percent; cotton 111@12c; southern flour dull and heavy at $5 00@. £50; wheat, ungraded red $1 13@ 1 20; cors, ungraded 481@501c; spirits turmentine quiet and firm at 294c; rosin $1 40.

The nomination of Hancock was a splendid send-off. It gave confidence at once. The nominee for the second place on the ticket could not be possibly better. It is WILLIAM H. ENG-LISH, of Indiana. Next to Hendricks, who would not accept a second place English is the right man. He is from the right State also. Indiana is always true to Democratic principles, and under the leadership one of her most trusted and gifted sons she will stand fast by her colors. MR. ENGLISH was born in Scott county, Indiana, on August 27, 1822, and will be therefore fifty-eight years old at his next birthday. He received a collegiate education; has been a successful lawyer; his been Speaker of the Indiana Législature; was a member of the United States House of Representatives from 1853 to 1861; has been often spoken of as a possible candisate for the Presidency, is a gentlewan of pure life, high integrity and superior abilities. Where best known he is most trusted and esteemed. We regard his selection as a most judicious one, and can but believe that a benign and propitions Providence overruled the action of the Convention for the good of the party and the welfare of the whole country. We have an admirable ticket every way considered. It will be a great success from the start, we believe. It will be elected. Let us have a hand in it, so that we can rejoice with those who shall rejoice. A rouser for HANCOCK and ENGLISH. ilip! Hip!! Hurrah!!!

Gen. Winfield S. Hancock, for President. Hon. William H. English, of Indiana, for Vice President. llow do you like the ticket? It is the ticket to win-to sweep the field so to speak.

Tilden's love for Payne may have been reciprocated, but the Convention was not sufficiently interested to imitate the old men's example. Tilden's love proved a smasher.

Hancock and English. It sounds weil. Dinna ye hear the slogan?

Horatio wouldn't and Samuel couldn't. Behold the difference.

during the heated term got up to 100 degrees. So says the Spirit.

-The Warren News says it did not say that the abuse of Fowle originated with the Weldon News. We make the correction. Some papers did say it, however, true or false as it may have been. We clipped the paragraph from an exchange.

- Raleigh Observer: Talk about igh not being a healthy place. Why there are five people living on one lot here who were born and raised on it. Their ages are 88, 84, 82, 80 and 76 years. All are able to go about and to wait on themselves. They live in two blocks of the cap-

- Oxford Orphan's Friend: Courting is obliged to be done. So we have prepared for it. Short benches will be found at suitable places in the grove. All courting couples are requested to occupy these, and not to make any disturbance in the galleries. Courting in the building is positively forbidden. -Statesville Landmark : Jas. E. Boyd, of Alamance, has been appointed United States District Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, to succeed Virgil S. Luck. neighbors. - Raleigh Visitors: His Excellency Gov. Jarvis, has appointed Donald McRae, Esq., of Wilmington, and Col. R. Y. McAden, of Charlotte, as delegates to represent the State of North Carolina in preliminary meetings to be held in New York City, to make arrangements for the great World's Fair in 1883. Col. Thos. M. Holt and Julian S. Carr, Esq., were named

- Fayetteville Banner: Rev. N. B. Cobb, of this town, received a very large complimentary vote in the convention for Superintendent of Public Instruction. --The census report for this town will show falling off in our population of more than one thousand since last report. We cannot say this is unaccountable, for we know that our young men, and a good many older ones, too, have been compelled to seek nomes elsewhere to make a living.

- Gastonia Gazette: About 54 clock last Saturday evening, this town was visited by a fearful storm. It blew down and into a promiscuous pile the frame of Dr. Adam's new Drug Store, moved the frame of a large dwelling now going up for Capt. J. Q. Holland, and twisted the dwelling house of H. H. Spencer from its foundation, besides blowing down gardens, fences and trees in many places. There was some hail but not enough to do very considerable damage. No one was hurt.

- Winston Sentinel: Thermometers, during the past few days, ran up to 100 degrees and over. —A little child of Mr. Frank Whitfield, of this county, narrowly escaped death by falling into a well en last Tuesday. The frantic father came to the little one's rescue just in the nic of time to save it from a watery grave. -Mr. Charles Fisher, while running one of the machines in Messrs. Fogle Bros'. planing mills Friday, accidentally caught one of his hands in it, which resulted in the loss of two fingers and a third badly sliced up.

- Oxford Torchlight: The superiority of the Granville lands is fast becoming known, and its prices are advancing with equal strides. Last Saturday there were several tracts sold at the court house door for from $18 to $20 per acre-land which, within the memory of some of the present generation, has been sold for the nominal sum of fifty cents per acre. -After numerous very bitter and desultory speeches from the negroes, T. L. Hargrove, boss of the Radical party of Granville, and at one time Attorney General of the State, mounted the stand and proceeded to denounce in the bitterest terms and vilest lanage ever heard, and entirely too filthy to find a place in our paper, the Democrats of the county and State. At one time he waxed so warm in the expression of his pent-up wrath for the white Democracy of the county, that he mounted the rim of the judge's stand and swore fiercely at the entire representation of the party. - Raleigh News: We are very glad to learn that Mr. Et. Graham Haywood, Jr., has been appointed to a firstclass clerkship on the permanent roll of the Treasury Department since his return to Washington from this city. - The New Morehead City Hotel, has a front of 220 feet, three stories high, with double veranda one-fourth its length in the centre front of the building, on the lower floor of which open three large doors, leading to the office in the centre, and to the ladies' reception room on the right, and the gentlemen's room on the left. In the rear of the office are two grand stairways that lead to all parts of the main buildings. - Tue folowing have been the Democratic candidates for Elector-at-large in North Carolina since the days of reconstruction: In 1868, Hon. James W. Osborne, of Mecklenburg, and Jos. J. Davis, of Frauklin. In 1872, Hons. Z. B. Vance and T. J. Jarvis (Gov. Vance afterwards resigned in order that a Liberal Republican, Mr. E. W. Pou, might be put on the ticket). In 1876, Hon. D. G. Fowle and J. M. Leach.

Harriet Jones, colored, made complaint yesterday against her husband, Jordan Jones, for assault and battery. The luckless couple have been on bad terms for some time past, and have had several slight difficulties recently, all growing out of jealousy on the part of the woman. Two days ago, in one of their angry disputes, Jordan knocked her down and beat her badly, for which she made complaint to Justice Millis. Jordan submitted his case, promised better behavior and was let off HANCOCK AND ENGLISH.

Grand Rally of the Democracy-One Hundred Guns for the Nominees-Enthusiasm and Rejoicing.

A salute of one hundred guns was fired yesterday afternoon at the foot of Market street, immediately upon the receipt of the news of the nomination of Hancock and English as the Democratic standard bearers in the approaching Presidential campaign. Two of the guns of the Cape Fear Light Artillery were used, manned by members of the company and under the direction of

At night an impromptu gathering of the Democracy was held at the City Hall. The Cornet Concert Club was on hand, and discoursed excellent and appropriate music while the crowd were assembling.

The meeting was called to order at 8:30 o'clock by Joshua T. James, Esq., or whose motion Mr. A. H. VanBokkelen was called to preside.

Upon assuming the chair Mr. VanBokkelen explained the object of the meeting in some appropriate remarks that were well received. The Democrats of Wilmington had assembled to ratify the nominations made at Cincinnati.

The following vice chairmen were then

Col. Roger Moore, Col. John W. Atkinson, James Welton, Sol. Bear, Col. John D. Taylor, Maj. James Reilley, Patrick Glavin, John Haar, Jr., Walter Coney, Robt. McDougall, Col. James G. Burr, W. H. Bernard, T. C. James, F. H. Darby, John W. Perdew, W. P. Oldham, M. M. Katz, R. M. McIntire, P. Heinsberger.

The following gentlemen were chosen Secretaries: Capt. John L. Boatwright, Capt. John Cowan and Joseph M. Cronly. Upon motion a Committee on Resolutions, consisting of five, was appointed. The chair named Messrs. T. B. Kingsbury, J. H. Currie, Col. B. R. Moore, Maj. T. H.

McKoy and James C. Munds. Mr. T. B. Kingsbury was then loudly called for. He responded in a brief speech. Maj. D. J. Devane was next called out. He made a short, telling speech that was the following resolution: Resolved, by the Democrats of Wilmington, in mass-meeting assembled. That we have heard with unfeigned satisfaction of the nomination of General Winfield S. Hancock, of Pennsylvania, for President, and of Hon. William H. English, of Indiana, for Vice-President, by the National Democratic Convention in session at Cincinnati; that we accept the admirable selections made as the signal and omen of success; and ito that end we pledge ourselves to the most enthusiastic and persistent support, doing all we can to make the banner of Hancock and English float in triumph over North Carolina and over the whole Union when the sun shall go down on November 2d, 1880.

The Committee on Resolutions reported through their chairman, Mr. Kingsbury,

On motion the resolution was adopted amidst the most enthusiastic applause.

The following gentlemen were called upon and made short, pithy speeches of congratulation on the excellence and strength of the ticket nominated yesterday at Cincinnati, viz: Col. Roger Moore, Mr. Thos. W. Strange, Col. J. G. Burr, and Maj. F. D. Poisson.

Upon the conclusion by Major Poisson calls were made for Col. B. R. Moore, Capt. John Cowan, Mr. John L. Holmes and others, and these gentlemen not responding, Col. Roger Moore proposed three cheers for the nominees, which were heartily given, and the meeting adjourned. We may add that the meeting was enthusiastic, harmonious and spirited. It was an excellent send-off, and is the beginning, no doubt, of a lively contest in the Cape Fear

What is Said About It. The news of the nomination of Hancock and English was received here with the beartiest satisfaction. A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she rofused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still werse, and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands sleep well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended with the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle. A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed
