MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Rev. James Jamieson died in Mecklenburg county, Va., last Friday. Blake Burton, of Leadville, is a captive among the Ute Indians.

The Richmond State quotes the following famous lines in its issue of Saturday: 'It is thus the great bard describes our candidate as he appears now; but in his youth, when he was a school boy, he was beautiful and the cynosure of every eye, then it was the poet wrote of him: 'Hyperion curls, the front of Jove himself.'

Col. John W. Forney, an old Republican editor of large influence, sends this special: 'Gen. Hancock—I congratulate you on your nomination for President, and predict your election and the complete restoration of peace to all sections.'

Not satisfied with this he sent another telegram to Mr. Daniel Dougherty, of Philadelphia, then at Cincinnati: 'I congratulate you, dear old friend, on your great success in favor of the living hero, Gettysburg—the Avenger of Pennsylvania—whose nomination at Cincinnati for President will deliver this great Commonwealth from the terrible curse that has pulled its fair fame, destroyed the hope of young men and the complete restoration of peace to all sections.'

Charlotte and Raleigh have organized Democratic clubs. When will Wilmington move in the same direction. Grant contradicts emphatically the report in the N. Y. Truth to the effect that he had said he would vote for Hancock.

Senator Withers, of Virginia, met with a somewhat serious accident. He was badly cut in the heel by a mowing blade. He will be laid up for some time. Col. Robert Preston, of Virginia, recently deceased, was Colonel of the Twenty-eighth regiment. He was buried at his own request in his old Confederate uniform.

Judge Lochrane, of Georgia, was a Grant delegate at Chicago from that State. He became disgusted. He made a Hancock speech in Washington at a ratification meeting held Thursday night. The Republicans in Washington do not hesitate to say that Hancock's nomination is the strongest that could have been made. Even the Star of that city, with strong Republican leanings, admits that the ticket is strong enough to be elected.

Mr. Tilden telegraphed to Cincinnati to the New York delegation that Hancock's nomination would be agreeable to him. He afterwards telegraphed to Gen. Hancock: 'I cordially congratulate you on your nomination.' This was well done. John Kelly is satisfied also. Who pretends to believe that New York will not go overwhelmingly for Hancock? The proposition to lease the Atlantic Railroad by the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, as well as other propositions, was referred to a committee of eight, together with the State's proxy. They are empowered to call a meeting of the stockholders at Morehead City after twenty days notice. Col. Bridges gave notice that he reserved the right to withdraw his proposition at his own option. The Philadelphia Ledger's New York correspondent gives the following as public sentiment among the Republicans of the great city: 'The more outspoken Republicans admit that, as regards Hancock, it is a bad nomination for their side. As it is, they frankly acknowledge that these gains are all spiced now, and that they cannot, as yet, discover a hole in Hancock's coat, though they will take comfort in republishing from the Democratic papers some pret-ly hard things they said about him at the time Mrs. Sarrett was executed, the point of which was that he ought to have resigned instead of doing as he did.'

Mark you this is from a paper that has decided leanings to the Republicans.

himself and family at Queenstown on the 7th, after a pleasant voyage. Columbia people, it is said, will be divided between Catawba, Cleveland and Asheville, this summer. Raleigh News: We learn from a private letter received in this city yesterday that the smoke house of Mrs. Long, of Chapel Hill, was burned Wednesday night with almost all its contents. One of the best young farmers in the county told us yesterday that while cotton looked pretty well, it was undoubtedly being seriously injured by the drought. The death sentence of Francis Hood and George Gallows, who were to have been hanged in Charlotte on July 2nd, has been commuted to imprisonment for life. Wilson College Institute celebrated its commencement exercises during the past week. It has had 97 pupils during the year, and is in all respects prosperous, as it deserves to be. Hugh F. Murray, Esq., and Judge Fowle delivered the annual addresses.

A Fine Building. During our late visit to Raleigh we took occasion to visit the new government building erected there, and which embraces a postoffice, a Federal Court room, Revenue Department, District Attorney's office, Marshall's office, office of Register in Bankruptcy, and various other apartments for the use of different officials. The building is in charge of Col. Jno. A. McDonald, who kindly conducted us through the premises. It is built upon a solid concrete foundation. The granite used in the base of the building was obtained from Warren county, and that used in the body of the same from Rowan county, near Salisbury. The entire building is heated by a furnace in the basement, which consumes one hundred and twenty tons of coal annually. The various rooms are supplied with hot and cold water, and it takes seven hundred and fifty thousand gallons of water to fill the pipes; a force-pump being used to force the water up to two large tanks in the attic, which contain about fifty tons. The furnace runs only about seven months in the year, but the pumps are kept going every day. Capt. W. W. White, Sr., is the Engineer in charge. The postoffice department, which is presided over by ex-Gov. Holden, is supplied with all the modern improvements and conveniences, including 780 lock-boxes and 50 drawers and a handsome writing desk in the corridor for the use of the public in directing letters, etc., such as was recently placed in our postoffice. The furniture in all the departments is of solid black walnut, and is kept in excellent order. The building, we understand, cost the U. S. government upwards of $300,000.

We hope to see such a building here before many years, the first installment of $55,000 having been voted for that purpose. 'The Eyes Evidently Had It.' There was a called meeting of the anti-Custom House faction of the Republicans held at the old market last night, but the 'renegades,' as Chairman W. H. Moore, (col.) called some of his audience, were so vociferous that they wouldn't allow him to be heard. He continued to speak, however, and decided upon every motion—put by himself—that 'the eyes evidently had it,' without giving the ones an opportunity to vote. Finally the other faction started an opposition speaking a few feet away, and elevated Wm. T. Cumber, (also col.) as orator. T. Cumber—the red man—held the crowd enchained awhile with his persuasive eloquence, when they drifted to the other stand to listen to the stern array of facts presented by the dark-browed Otello of the party. While the Moore was declaring that 'the eyes evidently had it,' some of the Tecumseh crowd began throwing stones, one of which hit a gentleman—a bystander—on the nose. He didn't belong to either faction, but feeling himself singled out for a 'hopeless minority,' quietly and peacefully withdrew. Moore finally retired with his band of music and his followers, in evident disgust, and the rival faction shortly after dispersed.

Departure of a Lunatic. Dr. Wm. N. Baird, a brother-in-law to Peter Silverthorn, the young one-armed man who was arrested some weeks ago, and afterwards pronounced insane, when he was sent to the County Insane Asylum, arrived here Sunday evening for the purpose of taking the unfortunate man to New Jersey, where he is to be placed in a lunatic asylum. Dr. Baird says the young man was formerly pretty wild, and that on one occasion he was riding on top of a freight car when he accidentally fell off, the fall resulting in breaking one arm and crushing the bone of the other, which necessitated amputation. In this fall it is supposed that he received an injury to his head, which is the cause of his present mental derangement. Dr. J. C. Walker, Superintendent of Health, accompanied Dr. Baird to the Poor House yesterday morning, at 5 o'clock, to secure possession of the unfortunate lunatic, when he was placed under the proper restraints and taken to the depot, leaving on the regular train for the North at 6.50 A. M.

Mr. Wm. Silverthorn, the father of the young man, who lives at Balvidere, Warren county, N. J., is said to be a gentleman of prominence in the community. Death of a Well-Known Impetuous ex-Journalist and Actor. W. S. Benjamin, a writer of some ability, and well known in Wilmington, Newbern and other portions of the State, a few years ago, where he was somewhat noted for his many eccentricities, died recently in the Poor House at Washington City. While here he wrote the material for a book which he proposed to publish under the title of 'Wilmington by Gas Light,' but it was never put in print. He claimed to be related to the celebrated Judah P. Benjamin, and that he was educated for the stage, in which profession he had attained some distinction in his earlier years.

Mayor's Court. John Haggitt and Eliza Nixon, both colored, were arraigned on the charge of engaging in an affray. Haggitt was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or go below for ten days, and the woman was let off on the payment of $5 or five days imprisonment. David S. Martin, who was charged with cursing and swearing on the public streets, was ordered to pay a fine of $10 or be locked up for ten days.

The Weather. Yesterday the thermometer ranged in this office as follows: 9:00 A. M. 83 degrees. 11:30 M. 80 " 3:30 P. M. 80 " 6:00 P. M. 80 "

Third Ward Democrats. The Third Ward Democratic Club met last night, at the City Hall, pursuant to notice. In the absence of the President, Mr. L. H. Bowden was called to the chair; Mr. Jas. W. King, Secretary.

On motion, a committee of three was appointed to draft suitable resolutions, and after consultation offered the following, which were unanimously adopted: WHEREAS, The District, State and National Democratic Conventions have severally met and have offered to the people the candidates for the respective offices to be filled at the next ensuing election; now, therefore, We, the members of the Third Ward Democratic Club of Wilmington, do resolve, that we heartily endorse and ratify the action and nominations of the District, State and National Conventions of the Democratic party, and we hereby pledge ourselves to support with zeal and fidelity the several nominees for the offices proposed to be filled at the next ensuing election; that we regard them as good and true men, worthy exponents of the great principles of the Democratic party.

Resolved, That we most heartily ratify and approve and endorse the nominations made by that Convention for President and Vice President; that we regard Hancock as the personification of all that is pure and honorable in the man, heroic and noble in the soldier; one who in peace and war has ever been actuated by the purest sentiments of patriotism and acted for the safety, honor and welfare of our institutions, and who will surely lead us on to political victory, and redeem our country from the scourge of Republican rule; that in English we behold a man pure in character, wise and experienced in council, and a statesman worthy the high position for which he has been so gloriously named.

Mr. H. A. Baggs then introduced Mr. E. A. Martin, who entertained the Club with a short but eloquent speech, which was received with many manifestations of hearty sympathy and approval. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the President of the Club.

Alleged Illegal Arrest and Excessive Force. Policemen E. S. Griffith and Thomas T. Williams had a hearing before Justice McQuigg, yesterday, on the charge of assault and battery, or illegal arrest and excessive force, in taking prisoner one Nathan Jones, colored, who was charged with disorderly conduct some weeks ago. At the close of the examination defendants were ordered to pay a fine of $25 each and the costs, from which decision they appealed to the Criminal Court, and were required to enter into bond in the sum of $50 each for their appearance.

Wilmington Hanover Turnovers. At the annual meeting of the above Society an election of officers was held, with the following result: First and Second Speaker—J. G. Oldenbutter, 1st; Wm. Genaus, 2nd. Chief and Assistant Superintendents of Gymnastic Exercises—H. Hintz, 1st; John G. L. Gieschew, 2nd. Treasurer—Wm. H. M. Kock. Secretary—H. Wentzenen. Property-keeper—Ch. Strangemann.

A Compliment. Our townsman Major Charles M. Stedman has been selected by the North Carolina delegation to Cincinnati to represent this State on the committee which is to tender the nomination to Gen. Hancock. The committee consists of one member from each State and meets in New York July 12, when they will call on Gen. Hancock and formally tender him the nomination. Our people will appreciate the courtesy extended to our section by the North Carolina delegation in their selection of Major Stedman to serve on this committee.

PREJUDICE KILLS.—Eleven years ago our daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Fairbanks & Co., scale manufacturers, was established, and in celebrating their semi-centennial anniversary, they have the satisfaction of knowing that, out of a little business established in 1830 in Northern Vermont, there has grown up an industry which now reaches to all parts of the world. The scales bearing the Fairbanks name are known today in Moscow, in Hong Kong, in Bombay, in London, as in the cities of our own country. The principle established at the outset by the manufacturers of Fairbanks Scales—that nothing but perfect scales, irrespective of cost, should be put into the market—has been followed out to the present time, and the result has been that each year has seen an increasing demand for the Fairbanks standard.

A BENEFACTRESS.—Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are sure. It is such a good thing to say, 'A blessing on Mrs. Winslow's Food for Infants.' It relieves the child from pain, and cures dysentery and diarrhea. It softens the gums, reduces inflammation, gives weight and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It perfects the mother's milk, and performs the part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her Food for Infants for children teething. If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical savior to our infant race. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
