The tomato is said to be indigenous to South America and was imported into this country. This is the only country that uses it extensively as an article of food. Blessed be the man who first brought it to our land.

London has 3,500,000 inhabitants. The total poll for Lord Mayor was 358 votes. There are fully 630,000 men over 21 years of age. The Baltimore San argues that there is need of reform. Send for one of the Hayes Cabinet or Absalom Arthur.

New Hampshire has been enjoying the sensation of a sharp earthquake. lts shock was felt at many points and lasted several seconds. Houses trembled, pictures were thrown down, dishes were smashed, and people talked about it afterwards.

We may now look for cases of drawning at the Atlantic bathing places. The first reported thus far is very sad. Mrs. Nesmith, wife of Lieut. Nesmith, U. S. Army, and two little girls were drowned at Atlantic City, New Jersey, whilst bathing, on the 19th inst.

Collector Merritt, of the New York Custom House, is in trouble. The Hayes Administration is threatening his decapitation because he does not use his office for party purposes. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger gives this bird's eye V.ew of the surroundings:

"Having been placed in the New York Custom House expressly to make up for the shortcomings of Mr. Arthur, he cannot well see how he can actively enter a campaign on behalf of that gentleman." He would do well to pack his

The accounts from Ireland as to the condition of the crops are for the most part very cheering. The orts of the famine fever were exaggerated. Many, however, died from typhus fever. There is a potato blight in some districts in parts of Counties Dublin, Sligo, Cork and Mayo. The blight, however, is confined to old potatoes. The "Champions" have escaped completely. Nothing can be more luxuriant than the green crops.

What do the Democrats say to a great big State Mass Meeting to be held at Raleigh about the 12th of October next? Let us have a grand rally like that of 1840. In October of that year the greatest political gathering the State ever saw was held far as to mention the matter to some laby Syrup and observe its remarkably in the little City of Oaks. It was Democratic friends. — A conferquick and beneficial effect.

tremendous. Whigs from every nook and corner of the State gathered then and there. They travelled in wagons, in buggies, in carriages, on horseback, in carts, in sulkeys, by rail, in log-cabins on wheels-in every imaginable way. What say the State Democratic press? Let forty thousand Hancock and Jarvis voters go up to the capital city and have a grand political jubilee in October. What do the people say?

It seems Kelly and Tammany are not altogether reconciled after all the hand-shaking and hugging at Cincinnati. As this is really important we give what the Philadelphia Ledger's New York correspondent save about the snarl. He writes :

"This is to be an important week at Sar atoga, politically. The so-called 'Kelly State Committee' are to meet there on Thursday, to decide whether or not they will withdraw their anti-Tilden Electoral ticket. There could have been no question as to the withdrawal had the new trouble with Irving Hall not occurred about the forthcoming meeting at the Academy of Music, to ratify the Cincinnati ticket. As heretofore explained, the Irving Hall organization would not recognize Tammany here, except as a sort of 'second fiddle, and this Mr. Kelly and his followers would not consent to. It is probable, therefore, that the Electoral ticket will be kept in the field, if only to hold the Tammany organization intact. The effect of such a pro-ceeding upon Democratic unity, as the campaign proceeds, need not be dwelt upon. It must be apparent to everybody, and to none more plainly than to the Republicans, who, it is superfluous to add, are delighted at the prospect."

Dr. Tanner, after being ridiculed and slandered, is attracting a great deal of attention in New York. He is now "looked upon as a legitimate phenomenon worth studying and seeing." Scientific men of distinction are interviewing him, and thousands of ladies and gentlemen press forward to get a glimpse of him. He gets any quantity of letters, and from all parts of the country. Some of the letters are humorous, some sentimental, and others of a business cast. Thus one man at Portland wants to know if the Doctor could make an arrangement to travel with him through the country after the forty days are up; he is sure there is money in it, and will guarantee the Doctor one half the gross receipts. Several young ladies desire to have a lock of his hair; others would be ever so much obliged for his autograph, etc.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Hickory has a Hancock and Jarvis

Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond county, and Mr. Payne, of Union, will address the Haucock and Jarvis Club of Lilesville Township at Lilesville on Saturday next .- Wadesboro Her-

Col. Armfield spent the greater portion of last week among his constituency. On Saturday evening last he addressed his fellow-citizens in the court house upon the political issues of the day. At night he addressed the Hancock and Jarvis Club .-Winston Leader.

At the speaking last night, before the Garfield Club, the president, in introducing Mr. Bledsoe, stated that "the object of the meeting was to get our political spirits revived." - The Republicans are rallying, and a number of the more prominent arrived in the city yesterday. Among them were Hon. R. P. Buxton, their candidate for Governor; W. P. Canaday, of Wilmington; George B. Everett, of Winston, and D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston-Raleigh Observer.

The Executive Committee of Duplin county, as we learn from the Brief Mention, has appointed August 28th as the time for holding primary elections, for the purpose of choosing, by ballot, nine delegates to a coupty convention to be held at Kenansville on the 6th of September for the purpose of nominating county officers, and a Senator and Representatives to represent the county in the next General Assembly and such other business as the interests of the party may demand.

- The Hancock, Jarvis and Shackelford Club, of Kenansville, will hoist a pole fully one hundred feet in height, and will throw to the breeze a magnificent bunting flag. J. W. Shackelford, Esq., and Hon. T. S. Kenan will be present and address subscribers with the central office, in addithe people. All are invited to at- tion to the connection now had by separate tend. -- We trust there will be a wires. At the Exchange an attendant will large audience to hear Gov. Jarvis | be constantly listening to the telephone on and Attorney General Kenan at the circuit wire, and when you wish to Kenansville on Tuesday of court week. We are gratified that they are going to visit us, not because it is necessary, or will accomplish any particular good; for all our people are all right and will do their duty, without any special effort. Duplin is Democratic to the back-bone and always votes for the nominees .-

Warsaw Brief Mention. - It is said that Mr. E. C. Davidson would have no objection whatever to running as an independent candidate for Congress. In fact, it is asserted that he has even gone so ence between Gov. Jarvis and Judge Buxton pertaining to political matters takes place in Raleigh Thursday next. It will then be determined whether a joint canvass of the State will be made. The best impression is that there will be no joint canvass. Judge Buxton's canvass will probably be limited to the judicial circuit he rides. -- Col. Kenan arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Rutherfordton where he and Gov. Jarvis spoke Monday, and reports that they had a larger crowd even than greeted them at Shelby, and there was a larger proportion of Re-publicans. He and Gov. Jarvis received assurances that they had accomplished much good for the party and they were much gratified at the manner in which the speeches were received. - The Asheville Journal, edited by a native Republican, insultingly calls Keogh a "carpet-bagger," and speaks of the fastidious Ball as "vinegar bitters." -- The New North State, a rabid Radical sheet, tauntingly says that "poor (negro) Jim Harris got only one vote as a candidate for committeeman at large on the State Republican Committee." Shame on such treatment of the negro, and double shame on the Republican paper that would gloat over it. Such is Radical ingratitude .-Charlotte Observer.

It is complained that she frightens children, and frequently outrages the proprieties by hugging innocent and unoffending people on the streets, without warning or prelude. Can't she be abated ?

A Valuable Literary Relic.

We examined at the Purcell House yes terday a very ancient book entitled "The Book of Common Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments, and other Rights and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the Church of England; together with the Psalter or Psalms of David, Pointed as they are to be Sung or Said in Churches." The book is bound in solid oak, with heavy brass clasps, and was printed in the year 1715, though the publisher, evidently not afraid that his business would fail to push itself, did not put his imprint to it, or tell where it was published. As it was brought over here from England about one hundred and forty years ago, by the Campbell family, who settled somewhere in this section of the State, it is supposed to have been printed in the thriving village of London. It has descended through three generations, and was recently sold with the other effects of the late Maj. James Mc-Queen, of Robeson county, and was purchased by Mr. C. T. Willis, by whom it was exhibited to us. The book contains abcut one thousand pages, much of it closely printed matter; has a number of useful and remarkably neatly executed maps, illustrative of ancient historical and scriptural locations and events, and is in an excellent state of preservation throughout.

Improvement in the Telephonic Ser-We are informed that in a short while the Law System of telephonic service in cities will be put into operation in this city by the Southern Bell Telephone Company, in connection with the arrangement as at present. As we understand it, the advantage of the new plan-and it is said to be a decided improvement-consists in the erection of a single circuit wire connecting all communicate with any one you have only to step to the instrument, tell the central office with whom you wish to speak, and the connection is made at once by another employe just as at present. You are thus saved the trouble and delay incident to ringing the bell and awaiting the answering signal before being able to have communication. The Law System is, we understand, already in successful operation in many cities, and it is the intention of the Company to bring it into general use. It is true economy to use the best means first; hence when the baby is suffering with Colic, Diarrhos, etc., use at once Dr. Bull's or's Court yesterday morning.

lars of the Disaster, &c. This city seems to have been the centre of attraction for an unusual amount of electricity during the past two or three days. In our last issue we gave the particulars of the destruction entailed upon the residence of Mr. A. D. Brown, on Wednesday afternoon, by the electric fluid, and now we are called upon to record a similar mishap to the residence of Mr. Samuel P. Collier, on Front street, opposite the offices of the W. & W. and W., C. & A. Reilroads, which occurred during the prevalence of the severe storm which passed over this city yesterday morning, shortly before 11 o'clock There are three windows in the second story of the building, opening on Front street. The bolt of lightning passed by the first, or most northern one, and struck the building immediately above the crash, and tearing away the marble lintel into pieces, a portion being forced through the window into the bed-room and the remaining fragments cast into the street. The window and window blinds were demolished and quantities of brick and mortar and other debris were thrown upon the bed. A good deal of the plastering in the vicinity of the fated window was knocked down, and a hole about the size of a man's head was made in the wall just above the window. The most of the glasses in the other windows in that particular room were | rates which shall be is every way satisfac-

The colored servant - An arm-chair was picked up on in charge of the infant was stand the child was sleeping in when the dangerons bolt entered, and she was knocked down by the shock, while at the same time it is supposed that a flying brick struck her on the forehead and accelerated her downward movement, as she had a cut that indicated such a result. The remainder of the family were on the first floor, except Mr. Collier, who was in his office on the opposite side of the street. When the crash came, apprehensive of serious harm having befallen his family, he rushed across the street, into the house and up the stairs, where he found the servant girl prostrate upon the floor with the child in her arms. but both unbarmed, with the exception of the cut upon the girl's forehead, already

> The third window was also struck and damaged to some extent, but the main charge entered by the second window.

> At the other end of the building, in the northeast corner, it was found that the weatherboarding for a considerable space had been torn off and the plastering knocked down, which indicated that another and entirely distinct bolt of lightning had struck there, as one of the two doors of communication by the passage between the separate ends was shut and bolted and there could be found no visible signs of the passage of the electric current from the one > end of the house to the other. A marble-top bureau, surmounted by large mirror, which stood near the front window through which the main charge of electricity entered, was shattered to frage ments, while the remainder of the furniture, carpets, matting, bedding, etc., were more or less isjured. The rain, too, beat in at the shattered windows and saturated the room and its contents with water.

> In the midst of the confusion some one added to the slarm by saying that the house was on fire, but it was found that the electric current had passed down the gas pipe from the room to where it connected with the metre in the basement of the building, melting the lead around the metre and igniting the gas, which was emitting a bright blaze when discovered.

When we visited the scene yesterday afternoon, Mr. Collier was busily engaged in making the necessary arrangements to repair the damage.

AND STILL ANOTHER.

The residence of Mr. R. J. Jones, on Market, between Eighth and Ninth streets, also had a passing visit from the electric current yesterday morning. It struck a bell wire under the eaves of the front piazza, which connected with the servants' room, and passed along the said wire to the room alluded to, where it took a downward course and set fire to an umbrella in a corner of the room and burned it. The wire nearly its entire length, which was about thirty yards, was melted by the lightning; but no other damage was done. lessness as to other fish, ability to populate Getting Ready for the 24th of August -A Giorious Time Expected-Emi nent Speakers Invited, &c.

Everything looks promising for one of the grandest ratification meetings here on of it. the 24th of August that ever aroused the patriotic impulses and stirred the political enthusiasm of the good people of North Carolina. At a meeting of the Executive Committee, in conjunction with the General Committees having the matter in hand, which was held in the Mayor's office, yesterday afternoon, various reports were made, and it was found that the Committee on Subscription had performed their duty very creditably, but were still short to some extent of the amount necessary to meet all the expenditures required, and will therefore continue their efforts. It is hoped that our merchants and business men generally, who should feel a deep interest in the successful carrying out of the second window, causing a tremendous plans projected, may see the necessity, to say nothing of the policy, of contributing surmounting the window, and breaking it liberally when called upon. It is designed by the Committees to make the meeting one which shall attract the attention and enlist the sympathies and earnest cooperation of not only the people of this District, but of the entire State, and

In a word, fellow Democrats of North Carolina, we are going to have a rousing good time, and want you all to make up your minds to be on hand on Tuesday, the 24th of August, and help us to give our noble standard -bearers, State and National, a good send off.

We note that Dr. H. H. Cary, Superintendent of the Fish Commission of Georgia, expects to be able during the coming fall to make a large distribution of the "German Carp" in that State. In order to reply to the many inquiries that have been profounded to him by those who propose to stock, he puts forth the following queries, to which answers are to be given: "Approximate extent and depth of
