Mr. Gould ventured the remark that the Republican 'machine' has already practically abandoned the Presidential fight and would henceforth concentrate its efforts upon carrying the various State Legislatures, with the obvious purpose of controlling the United States Senate."

- The State Board of Agriculture have postponed the election of a Commissioner to succeed Col. Polk resigned.

- Raleigh News: Professor Geo. T. Winston has been unanimously elected President of the Teachers Association of the State in place of President Battle who declined re-election.

- Weldon News: A revival of religion and protracted meeting began at the Crowell's X Roads Baptist Church, under the supervision of the Revs. Mr. Hutson and Vanu. The meeting closed Wednesday of last week. During the meeting many were converted and seventy-five were baptized, among them many of the prominent citizens of that part of the county.

- The Charlotte Observer gives this account of the fight at Statesville : It seems that a difficulty arose between a young man named Boshamer and John D. Kerr, when a colored man put in to help Boshamer, and subsequently Jim Reeves, a clerk in one of the hotels, did likewise. The story brought down by passengers on the train is that Kerr knocked Boshamer down first, and then the negro; then being attacked by Reeves with a stick, drew a pistol and fired at him, the ball taking ef-fect in Reeves' knee. This put an end to

- Greensboro Patriot: We learn from a commercial traveller who has just arrived in this city from Statesville, that two young ladies named, respectively Mc-Clellan and Long, died in Statesville under rather peculiar circumstances on Thursday last. The were both born on the same day of the month and week and almost at the same hour of the day, and were each 16 years of age. Neither one seemed to suffer with any disease previous to death, yet both died suddenly and at almost the same minute. They were not related to each other but were firm friends. It is supposed that they died either of heart disease or congestion of the lungs. They were buried side by side. - Tarboro Southerner: Mr. John Moore, of Sparta, and many others report lice on cotton. —Prof.G.T. Winston will make some University talks in this District. — During the storm on Wednesday night of last week lightning struck the bed post while a colored woman was lying on the bed on Mr. George Gammon's place. The post was shivered, but the woman escaped. - On Friday last, a short, sharp war wa waged between two Republicans on the streets. One was too feeble to fight and the other beat him over the head with a stick. - Mr. Jackson, engineer on the Steamer Greenville, informs us that four dead bodies awaited burial in Washington on Saturday. Jesse Whitehurst, aged 20, who died on Friday, the infant daughter of A. P. Crabtree, and two colored persons. He also informed us that Mr. Sam Corson, the Postmaster, had an epileptic fit on Saturday, though he recovered in a short time. The highest the thermometer has reached in Washington was 102.

- Oxford Torchlight: We have in our possession a sweet potato that is twenty-six years oid. It is of the "yam" species and was raised on Mrs. Martha Taylor's farm near Oxford. It was dug on the 24th of October, 1854, and then weighed ten and three-quarter pounds. It now weighs less than one pound. Mrs. Taylor kept this potato on the mantlepiece, in her sitting room for five or six years, during which time the vines grew and ran over the clock up to the ceiling. This same potato was exhibited at the Henderson Agricultural Fair in 1855, and is now on its way to the Agricultural Museum at Raeigh. -- The vineyards and orchards of the North Carolina Wine Company are situated on the line of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, one and a half miles from Kittrell Depot. They were started in 1867 by S. R. Hunt, Esq., who has added to his vineyard every year since, until it now covers sixty acres of land. The Scuppernong, Ives, Hartford, Catawba, Concord and Clinton varieties are cultivated. The Ives makes the finest claret. It requires one bushel of grapes to make four gallons of wine. The Concord and Hartford Prolific are most subject to rot. Hartfords and Ives are the earliest varieties and the Ives is regarded the most profitable.

- Raleigh Observer: Mark Williams, one of the oldest residents of the city, died yesterday, aged 84 years. He was born in Franklin county in 1796. -We learn from Capt. Geo. Waitt that Mr. F. M. H. Sherrod, a young man of Norfolk, died in Goldsboro on Tuesday, and was buried yesterday. — Miss Nett. Morten, who was connected with the Peace Institute as superintendent of domestic duties for many years, died in Richmond, Virginia, on Sunday. She died of dropsy.

— There are in the State 26,643,511 acres of land liable to tax, valued at $83,034,-885. The value of town lots in the State is $18,764,539. The total value os all the landed property is $101,799,433. Taking the counties returning the largest totals, we find that Wake has 570,853 acres, worth $3,898,044, and town lots valued at $1,959,010, giving an aggregate value of $5,857,054. Mecklenburg has 312,532 acres, worth $1,933,491, and town lots valued at $1,626,629, giving an aggregate value of $3,560,120. New Hanover has 89,608 acres, worth $647,626, and town lots worth $3,125,544, giving an aggregate value of $3,473,270. Edgecombe has 312,-823 acres, valued at $2,150,697, and town lots worth $464,250, giving an aggregate value of $2,614,947. Dare returns the smallest valuation, having 150,682 acres, worth $111,507, and no town property. Graham county returns a solid valuation of about $112.500.

Mayor's Court.

The Mayor yesterday morning ordered Stephen Richardson, the alleged murderer, to be brought into Court, when his Honor, arraigning him at the Bar of the Court, proceeded to inform him that he had reserved his decision in his case on Tuesday to await developments in the condition of Robert Phinney and Hester Richardson, the prisoner's wife; that he was now glad to be able to say that they were both improving, and he would therefore commit him, without benefit of bail, to await his trial on the action of the Grand Jury at the approaching term of the Criminal Court. He was then turned over to the sheriff and lodged in the county jail. The prisoner still had handcuffs on and appeared to be exceedingly nervous.

Susan Frank and Cain Washington, both colored, were arraigned on the charge of disorderly conduct in "Paddy's Hollow" Thursday night, during which they used a considerable amount of profane language. Washington was ordered to be sent below for fifteen days, and Susan was required to pay costs or be imprisoned for two days.

In view of the inquiry now being made in New York city as to the appliances for saving life on passenger steamers, and the fact that so many have been found so deficiently equipped, a gentleman very pertinently suggests that the masters, owners and agents of our steamers should at once have their life-saving equipments and see that every thing is in good order, and that there is a good supply of life preservers always in reach. No one can foretell when accidents are going to happen, and the best plan is to be always prepared. We know of an instance when several lives were lost which might have been saved had the life preservers on board been where they could have been readily reached, instead of being stowed in the hold.

Randal Jordan, colored, was brought to this city yesterday, by Officer M. G. Chadwick, under two commitments from Justice

A. J. Grady, of Cape Fear Township, and lodged in the county jail. He is charged with assault and battery upon the person of his wife with a heavy piece of iron, with which, it is said, he evidently tried to kill her, and with carrying a concealed weapon; in each of which cases he was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the approaching term of the Criminal Court, which conditions he failed to comply with.

Randal Jordan, it will be remembered, was the man whom the officers were after when the unfortunate case of mistaken identity occurred by which William Jones. colored, lost his life at the hands of the constable of Cape Fear Township a year or so ago. The commitments above alluded to were made on the 6th inst., but that night, while under guard at Mr. Chadwick's store, Jordan suddenly cut the rope with which he was tied and made good his escape, having just been recaptured. He is said to be a desperate fellow, up to all sorts of expedients, and, it is further hinted that the utmost precautions will have to be taken to prevent his escape from the county

HONORED AND BLEST.—When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some, well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of diseases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were skeptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to day the discoverers of that Great Medicine, Hop Bitters, are honored and blessed by all as benefactors.—Democrat.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP.—Rev Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the "Boston Christian Freeman":—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Boothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has preved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and its parents unbroken rest at night. Mest parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And during the process of teething its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething sleep, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
