the "Benutiful Barbarian" style. The wife of William Morris, the met, can give points to Mrs. Langtry and the rest of the professional beauiles, if a correspondent of the Inter-Ocean is to be trusted : "She is a mys terious, Egyptian-looking woman, with great, strange, sad eyes, s: Oriental complexion burning scarlet lips, and the exvigueness that one in imagination gives to the sphink. The young ady's face was just one of the inexressibly melancholy ones that the re Raphaelites adore - just the type young women coming down the zolden stairs' in Burne Jones's picare at the Grosvenor Gallery this year-and Morris married her. Not ong ago this lady wore at an evening any a robe of the sbeerest, filmiest white muslin, fine enough to be hawn through a ring. The petticoat under it must have been the same, for the folds of the fold clang to her body and timbs as if this thereby the host chisel. At the waist this thin tobe was confined by a long, supple chain in the form of a serpent, which, after writhing about her body, dropiewelled head ped its side, where its diaher left mond eyes glittered and burned like fire. Egyptian bracelets and weklace adorned ber arms and neck, and an Egyptian masque gathered and held the folds of the fobe at the throat. Her black hair was one thick mass of short curls and lay close down to her eyes, crept in an out by another golden serpent with jewelled scales and burning eyes. One would have said she was Cleopatra, who had turned her asps into gold and jewels and come to life to dazzle a barbarian world." Feb. 2B, 1878 1 I had a chance to look over the famous diary for 1868, and saw the list who were entitled to that first dividend. It read as follows: Paid to J. W. Patterson.....$1,800 Schroyler Colfax 1,200 G. W. Schofield.... John A. Logan 329 JAMES A. GARFIELD.... 329

William D. Kelley 329 and so on. As each man was paid a cross was marked against his hame. and every name was crossed. Now just look at it: of this list the first, attemen's $1,800, in uncalled for; Mr. Dawes admits that he got his $600, and so does Mr. Schofferd; so does Gen. Logan. Notices of the Press:

WEEKLY STAR, One, Year postage paid, $1.50

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it, Salem Press.

The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

—Cheriotte Democrat. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head." - Concord Register.

The Wilmington STAB has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South, Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typography up to editorial ability at d independence.—

Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly reliable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—It. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lastre never wane.—The Free The Wilmington (N. C.) Monning Star is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Reigious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best-conducted and edited papers in the South, and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

Terboro Southerner.

The Stare is so well and favorably known in this section of the State that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Roccomian. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina iournalism.—Chirlotte Observer. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, crudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper at is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

Why is it that all the papers, with the name of Star are such beight little journals? The Wilmington (N.C.) STAR, the Washington Star, Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still soutimes on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides intreased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlotte Ob-

THE MORNING STAR, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the STAR comes fully up to the mark as the principal daily in our chief commercial city. Long may it twinkie.—Alamance Gleaner.

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapersthat comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial department is conducted with much ability.—Morganton Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily 'waxed' until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening presperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.— Helisboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratuate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The romarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too), is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthful, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial, enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.
