WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1880.

Just as we expected the Democrats North are fairly jubilant over the Hancock letter to Sherman, whilst the Republicans are dismayed, not to say stupefied. They say the one published is not the one they wanted and had heard of, and they demand all the others said to be in the hands of Gen. Sherman. The Washington letter to the Baltimore Sun of August

"So much has been said about the letter that many Republicans were expecting to see a revolutionary document, one which would arouse up the North and infuse new life into the campaign. They were wholly unprepared for such a letter as the one now printed, and some of their number are claiming to-night that there must be a mistake somewhere, and that another letter is a existence, in which Gen. Hancock says, n so many words, that he considers Mr. Tilden the legally elected President, and that if he asserts his right to the Presidential chair he (Gen. Hancock) will support him. The Democrate are delighted with the letter, and think its publication will greatly strengthen Gen. Hancock in all sections of the country, and will convince the most skeptical that the author is a close observer of events transpiring in the political history of the country, and had a true appreciation of the situation in which the country was placed four years ago. It is understood that Gen. Sherman has several other letters from Gen. Hancock, written after the one made publick, and Republicans say that a demand will be made for the production of these letters also."

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. M. H. Pinnex, Democrat, and Mr. Gaither Walser, Rad., are to have a discussion on the 7th inst. at Yadkin College, as we learn from the Lexington Rachange.

Our Lilesville correspondent writes on August 1st: "The Hancock, Jarvis and Dowd Club had a rousing ime here vesterday. Dowd and Bennett spoke. Never saw things so

Col. Kenan spoke at Rocky Mount on Friday. There was a large crowd and the candidate for Attorney Generalship made a good effort. He also spoke at night. Several speeches followed from Messrs. Bunn, Bridgors and others.

Hop. W. M. Robbins addressed the Hancock and Jarvis Club at Brown's Hall. Winston, on Tuesday evening last. A large number of our citizens were present, and Mr. Robbins gave one of best speeches. There is no doubt that he is the choice of the Democrats of Forsyth.-Salem

Gov. Jarvis was warmly received at Clinton on Saturday last. He addressed an immense crowd. The old soldiers of Clingman's brigade called upon him in a body. A flag was raised on a pole 102 feet high. Every thing passed off finely and Sampson will give a good account of herself on election day.

Judge Buxton is going to Jacksouville to take a lesson in war. Gov. Jarvis will teach him as Cox taught Bledsoe. Buxton's record in the constitutional convention will be a good people of Onslow, and Jarvis is just the man to tell 'em about it .-Raleigh Observer.

It appears to be almost certain that Maj. Robbins will receive the nomination over Col. Armfield in the Seventh District. Seventy elects. He has 68 without Iredell, and the bushels. Who can beat this? Landmark thinks that the 12 votes or a part of them will be given to Robbins. It prophecies his nomination on the first ballot. The Convention meets at Yadkinville on the 5th

Resolved. That the consideration of the performance of the said contract on the part of the "Wilmington Market Company" be postponed to the next regular meeting of this Board, and in the meantime the said markets be examined by a committee of this Board, and the City Attorney be required to examine into all the legal questions involved in the said contract, and report to this Board.

On motion, the Mayor appointed the following aldermen as a committee to act with himself in accordance with the above resolution, viz: Aldermen Bowden, Devine, Hill and King.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming conviaced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still werse, and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some demestic dunes, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy.
