It is reported that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and Gen. Payne, of Virginia, have been invited to make speeches in the North by Gen. Hancock. They are to give "the Rebel Brigadier" side of the question. A good idea. Our North Carolina "Rebel Brigadier" M. W. Ransom will make speeches that will make a profound impression, we have no doubt.

The Radical organs are still crowing away at the census frauds in South Carolina, and that too, in the dence whatever to prove any. The following is the latest concerning them. The Washington letter to the Baltimore Sun says:

"Before the President left Washington Gen. Walker had several interviews with him in regard to the allegation of frauduent enumerations in South Carolina. The President saw no reason why a new enumeration should be ordered, nor did Gen. Walker, although it was left discretionary with Gen. Walker to order a new enumeration if any subsequent facts should be brought to his attention which would seem to justify it. Up to this date no such facts have appeared."

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1880.

Observer: Judge Buxton's speech last Thursday was the weakest effort we have ever heard from a man who pretended to be the representative of a party, great, at least, because of its minutes.

The Judge adjourned court at 1 . M., last Tuesday at Nashville in order that the crowd might hear the speeches of Gen. W. R. Cox, Jas. S. Battle, Col. J. E. Lindsay and others. Gen. Cox took the stand for about one hour, and made a very interesting speech .- Toisnet Home.

Gov. Jarvis opened at Asheboro. Mr. G. B. Everett, Radical elector, replied. Mr. F. H. Busbee replied to him. Gen. Leach, Mr. Staples, Mr. Strudwick and Dr. Worth, all spoke at night. There was a procession a quarter of a mile long with Chinese lanterns. This we learn from the Raleigh Observer.

Judge Merrimon, we learn, has been invited to make some speeches in the first district and in other sections of the State. We hope he may find time from his professional engagements to comply with these requests .- Raleigh Observer. The STAR unites with the Observer in the hearty wish that he may be able to take a somewhat active part in the campaign. No man of our State makes stronger or abler speeches.

It must be, for when old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, we must believe and doubt no longer. See other column.—Post.
