Local Dots. Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity. Cotton receipts yesterday 659 bales.

Day's length 12 hours and 30 minutes. The Republicans had a meeting in Federal Post Township yesterday.

The Register of Deeds issued no marriage licenses during the past week. Our friend R. K. Bryan, Esq., of the Fayetteville Examiner, was in the city yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Patterson, pastor of St. John's, will preach at St. Mark's church this evening at 8 o'clock.

We learn that there will be a Republican demonstration at Smithville Monday night. Collector Canaday will officiate as spokesman on the occasion.

The weather permitting, Rev. James W. Craig will conduct the usual open air religious meeting at Dudley's Grove this afternoon, at half past 4 o'clock.

The exercises of the Select School, northwest corner of Fourth and Dock streets, Miss Lisette C. Bernheim, Principal, will commence Wednesday, September 15th.

J. W. Barnes, Jr., the young man who was so badly injured by the accidental shooting of himself Friday afternoon, was pronounced no better yesterday afternoon, but it is not thought that he is in any immediate danger.

Messrs. W. J. & B. F. Penny have entered into a copartnership for the purpose of conducting a dry goods, clothing, and boot and shoe business, etc., at No. 13 Market street. Mr. W. J. Penny will also carry on the shoemaking business at the same place.

The census enumerators hereabouts are complaining because they have not received their money yet. "The laborer is worthy of his hire," and we can't see why the government should not meet its obligations as promptly as individuals are expected to do.

The Christian experience meetings held at the Fifth Street M. E. Church, South, every Sabbath afternoon at half-past 3 o'clock, are said to be very interesting as well as profitable to those who attend, and we are requested to invite all Christians to participate in them.

The alarm bells should be more generally rung in case of a fire. Only the market house bell was rung yesterday morning, and the consequence was that very few even of the firemen knew anything about the fire until they heard it down the street after it was all over.

The Mayor has given orders to the Clerk of the Market to allow no more grapes to be sold on the sidewalks on Market, between Front and Second streets. This is to prevent the accumulation of grape hulls on the sidewalks, which have been the occasion of several persons getting severe falls.

Senator Bayard's speech at Columbia, S. C., gave much satisfaction. He spoke most confidently of Democratic success.

In 1876 this great party of which you are members polled in the Union four and a half millions of votes. There was a popular majority of a quarter of a million that was meant to prevail and that would have prevailed had not the spirit of revolution and despotism possessed those in charge of our national government, and by a mixture of fraud and force prevented the honest results of a great election by the people.

In 1868 and 1872 the Republicans carried Vermont by much larger majorities than the last. The Philadelphia Times says it is less than in 1876, in proportion to the aggregate vote.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN. The flag pole of the Hancock-Jarvis club, presented by Commodore Roberson, was raised yesterday at the corner of Middle and Broad streets, just outside the Rink. —New Bern Nut Shell.

Thos. B. Keogh was nominated for Congress in the fifth District yesterday. Ball declined and young Everitt received one-third of a vote from Davidson county. Keogh is now in Florida, but will accept the nomination. —Greensboro Patriot.

Everitt, the youthful and handsome man of the Big 3 combination and advance agent of the show, was in town yesterday en route to Iron Station, where he appears to-day as "Sim Smasher" in the laughable interlude, "A practical Joke." —Charlotte Observer.

Mr. George B. Everitt, Republican Elector for the State at large, has come over to assist Gen. Barringer at the Iron Station meeting to-day. Col. Chas. R. Jones and Maj. Montgomery will represent the other side, having been invited by the Democratic friends there. —Members of the old Vance colored club met at the court house last night and several speeches were made by colored men. —Charlotte Observer.

There is no doubt that Judge Buxton won no laurels in the Albemarle country. They kept the Democratic speakers off of him until he got to Winston, where Jernigan handled him without mittens. But there was no need of any reply. He was his own worst enemy on the occasion. —There is no man in North Carolina who is held in higher estimation by the Albemarle people than Judge Merrimon. He was among us during the canvass when he was a candidate for Governor in 1872, and the impression then made by his personal and intellectual character has been abiding and permanent. We would all be gratified to have him among us some time during the campaign.

Washington letter: The Radicals are not satisfied with Grandy. They seem to want Jo Martin, and say he wasn't treated right, and they want another Convention called. —Elizabeth City Economist.

Judge D. G. Fowle will address the people at the following times and places: Clinton, Sampson county, Wednesday, September 16; Magnolia, Duplin county, Thursday, September 16; Rockingham, Richmond county, Tuesday, September 21; Fayetteville, Cumberland county, Wednesday, September 22; Reidsville, Rockingham county, Friday, September 24; Tarboro, Edgecombe county, Wednesday, September 29; King's Mountain, Tuesday, October 5; Shoe Heel, Robeson county, Friday, October 8; Rich Square, Northampton county, Monday, October 11; Winton, Hertford county, Tuesday, October 12; Centre Hill, Chowan county, Wednesday, October 13; Plymouth, Washington county, Thursday, October 14; Jamesville, Martin county, Friday, October 15; Washington, Beaufort county, Saturday, October 16; Kingston, Lenoir county, Monday, October 18; Louisville, Franklin county, Tuesday, October 20; Brassfields, Granville county, Thursday, October 23; Kittrell, Granville county, Saturday, October 30. —Raleigh News.

That was a very sensible editorial of the Kinston Journal on "circus and whiskey."

Biographies of the coming Sojourners of North Carolina are now in order. The next Legislature promises to be the greatest ever seen. Great men only are selected this year. Selah!

The Wilson Advance says of Coups' show: The performance was, upon the whole, as good as we ever witnessed, and in many respects it was vastly superior to any that has ever been given in this place.

The work is not in the state of forwardness which is mentioned. It will be issued, not by the 'Queen's printer,' but by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. The expenses of revisers in that country are not paid by McMillan, or from any English source. Instead of there being but one member of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States on the committee, there are five.

THE MORNING STAR.

By Wm. H. Bernard. PUBLISHED DAILY, EXCEPT MONDAYS.

MORNING EDITION. Entered at the Post Office at Wilmington, N. C., as second-class matter.

OUTLINE. Cotton crop reports from Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Alabama, Arkansas, Florida and Georgia, published in the New Orleans Democrat, it being ten days later than the reports of the Cotton Exchange.

Fourteen survivors of the City of Vera Cruz report at Tliverre, Ga. — Marshall O. Roberts, of New York, is dead. At Allister, Texas, an Indian was hanged for the murder of Mrs. Washington. — John C. Chapman, a prominent lawyer of Alexandria, Va., is dead; thought to be suicide.

A $50,000 fire in Baltimore. — S. S. Leprade, an aged farmer, was murdered near Seddieville, Tenn. — De Jarrette has been sentenced to hang at Danville, Va., on October 29th. — An epidemic of dengue ("broken-bone fever") prevails at Charleston and New Orleans. — A reduction of wages of operatives at Fall River is probable. The French-African expedition came to grief and was obliged to go back. — No more survivors of the lost steamer Vera Cruz have been heard from. — Beaver Dam, Ky., had a $10,000 fire yesterday. — New York markets: Money 3/8 per cent; cotton steady at 11 1/10 to 11 1/16; 13-16c; southern flour firm and quiet at $4 50/60; wheat heavy, 10 1/2c lower, with a fairly active trade, ungraded red 95c @ 1 06; corn a shade lower, ungraded 50 1/2 @ 51 1/4; spirits unquiet at 35c; rosin quiet and firm at $1 52 1/2 @ 1 57 1/2.

The paragraph in the STAR a few days ago about the first duel in the United States ought to have been June 1681 instead of 1221 as printed.

Bainie says Maine is all right. Of course. Who doubts it? He still writes to Washington that every Department clerk must be sent home to vote.

Dr. Edward Warren, a native of this State and a very eminent physician, now resident in Paris, is on a visit to this country. At present he is in Virginia.

Senator Thurman expresses himself as confident that Hancock will carry Ohio. We hope so; but seeing is believing. But why not? Hayes' majority in 1876 was but 2,747.

There is immense business now doing throughout the North. The manufacturers are crowded and everything looks prosperous. Lookout for over-trade; and then a collapse, it may be.

Mr. Edison will have a paper in the next number of the North American Review on the electric light. He claims now to have solved completely the great problem of the electric light.

Col. Forney estimates that in Philadelphia up to this time 7,599 Republicans have signified their purpose to vote for Hancock. He says the number will be increased by the day of election.

The Petersburg Index-Appeal, in a very complimentary notice of Bishop John Beckwith, of Georgia, says he is a native of Petersburg. There is a mistake here, we are pretty confident. We think he was born in Raleigh. What say our contemporaries of the metropolis?

The Democrats are very much in earnest. Read the following from the Baltimore Sun's Washington special: "Great activity prevails at present at the Democratic headquarters in this city. The forces engaged in packing and sending off documents is kept at work day and night. The average number of documents sent away daily is about 300,000. They are mostly sent to Indiana and Ohio, but Wisconsin is getting a goodly share also."

We confess we do not understand that 207 Radical majority in Wilmington, Del., generally a Democratic city. But that will not prove that it is bound to go Radical in November. In 1876 it gave that party 1,200 majority in the city election, but afterwards Hayes only carried it by 53. Our namesake, of that city, says Hancock will be sure to carry it.

It is a mistake that the Bible Revision Committee will have ready very soon the New Testament. Bishop Lee, of the Episcopal Church, who is of the committee, says, in correcting some errors of statement: "The work is not in the state of forwardness which is mentioned. It will be issued, not by the 'Queen's printer,' but by the University Presses of Oxford and Cambridge. The expenses of revisers in that country are not paid by McMillan, or from any English source. Instead of there being but one member of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States on the committee, there are five."
